Kerry Minors win historic FIVE-IN-A-ROW

Scenes of jubilation followed the amazing achievement of the Kerry Minor Football Team who secured a historic Five-In-A-Row on Sunday last when they defeated Galway in the All Ireland Minor Football Championship Final in Croke Park. With foundations laid for many years by the various clubs, coaching offices and schools - the team are now enjoying the hard work and under the expert tutelage of Manager Peter Keane, they returned home to joyous scenes at Kilcummin GAA Club where the captain Paul O'Shea proudly held the Tom Markham Cup for all to see. The team won the match in style after trailing by 7 points earlier in the game to write themselves into the history books as the only GAA team in history to ever achieve the elusive Five-In-A-Row. GAA Fans of all ages travelled to Kilcummin on Monday evening for the homecoming which was expertly organised and enjoyed by everyone.

Killarney Guides earn Guiding's highest award

Girl Guides complete 60km hike and 8 projects while living on €3.50 a day

Two young Killarney women have reached the pinnacle of Guiding after hiking 60km in Co Waterford while carrying all their camping and cooking equipment, food and clothes, and surviving on €3.50 a day.

Irish Girl Guides (IGG) members, Sarah Canavan (22) and Sarah Kenny (22), also completed eight projects and kept a log book of their experiences during the five-day Chief Commissioner's Award. They partnered for the adventure challenge in which participants take part in teams of two or three.

The girls didn't know the location of the event in advance either so they couldn't prepare for the projects. They were delighted to find themselves in the Ancient East, however.

"Neither of us had been to rural Waterford before and it far exceeded our expectations," said Sarah Canavan. "Everybody we met was so welcoming, which made the whole challenge a thousand times easier. The first night we slept in Kilbrien graveyard, which, to our surprise, wasn't as scary as it sounds!

"During the week we had many high points – from tasting our first blaa to meeting the whole parish of Kilgobnet and walking the Greenway but my favourite part was just meeting the people of Waterford and discovering how welcoming they are. Every single person we met asked us what we were doing and offered their help. Our biggest challenge wasn't the usual blisters (surprisingly we didn't get any), getting lost or the mileage. It was the food. I'm vegetarian and Sarah has a nut allergy and is coeliac and the first shop we came across – a tiny corner shop – didn't exactly cater for our needs."

Sarah Kenny said the people they met along the way were intrigued and were welcoming and helpful. "I really enjoyed the experience; we had many laughs along the way and got to meet so many lovely people. The award ceremony was quite nerve-racking as we didn't know whether we had made the miles and if we would get the pin."

The two Sarahs were thrilled to receive the Chief Commissioner's Award pin at the end of the 60km challenge. This followed an assessment of their projects and log-books and a debriefing interview with the organisers. The Award – a silver Celtic knot pin – is presented only to those who enter wholeheartedly into the spirit of the challenge.

Irish Girl Guides welcomes new members from age 5 and volunteer leaders from age 18+. See www.irishgirlguides.ie for further information or tel: 01 6683898.

Legendary singer Dermot Flynn laid to rest

Killarney said goodbye to one of their favourite entertainers this week as the legendary Dermot Flynn was laid to rest in Aghadoe Lawn Cemetery.

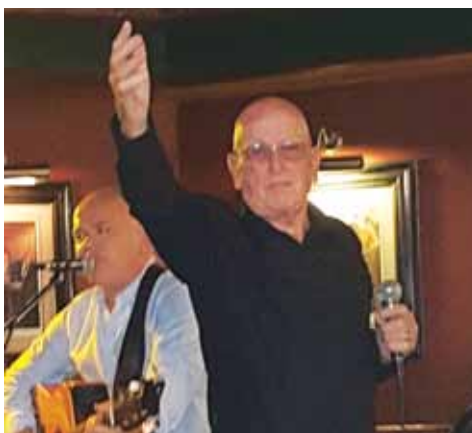

Known the length and breadth of the county Dermot passed away on Saturday last after a brave battle with Leukemia.

A native of Curow, Dermot married his wife Kathleen 54 years ago and settled in Ardshanavooly where they reared their family of five.

Speaking at Dermot's Requiem Mass on Tuesday, Dermot's eldest daughter Maria regaled stories about her dad.

Often compared to Joe Dolan, Dermot's talent was first spotted by his primary school teacher who entered him in competitions all over Ireland.

He began his music career with The Radiant Showband with his brother Ned and the late David Stone. The group were resident performers at the Danny Mann where locals and visitors alike loved his show.

Dermot performed all over the States on a regular basis and even met with Michael Jackson who he offered to teach a verse of a Joe Dolan classic in exchange for a lesson in the moonwalk.

He performed at the White House, sang for astronaut John Glenn, performed in Dubai and Canada and recorded his hit record

"Memories of Killarney" in the early 1970's.

A miniature crane, representing his 44 year career in Liebherr and a microphone, representing his career in music were brought to the altar by his granddaughters.

Dermot's popularity was evident and on the night of the removal as thousands queued to sympathise with the family, a CD of Dermot's songs was played.

As the funeral cortage made its way down the aisle of St. Mary's Cathedral Grace Foley and the choir sang "You Raise Me Up" while outside Mark Leane (AKA Elvis) was singing "Goodbye Venice" the Joe Dolan Classic that Dermot sang so well.

Following the burial at Aghadoe Lawn Cemetery, the family organised to have Dermot rendition of "Now the End is Near" play for the congregation gathered.

Dermot is survived by his wife Kathleen, daughters Maria and Ann, sons Gerard, Alan and Kenneth, daughters in law, sons in law, grandchildren and a wide circle of friends.

Council launches Cultural Archive Award for 2018

The 2018 Kerry County Council Cultural Archive Awards application process was launched by Cllr Norma Foley, Cathaoirleach of Kerry County Council at the Local History and Archive Section of Kerry Library this week. Applications are invited for the development or preserving an archive with the intended cultural impact of preserving such material for future generations.

Creative Ireland is a culture-based programme designed to promote individual, community and national wellbeing. Details are available at www.creativeireland.ie and <https://creativeireland.ie/en/local-plans/kerry>. Within this programme, Kerry County Council invites applications to the fund as follows:

A one-off grant of €1,000 for a single project in each Municipal District will be made. Members of the Kerry County Council Creative Ireland Cultural Team will evaluate the fund. The fund is limited and eligible applications will be evaluated on a competitive basis. The application form is available on the Kerry Library website, www.kerrylibrary.ie and the submission deadline is Monday, 8 October 2018. Applications may be submitted by hand or by post to Kerry Library, Moyderwell, Tralee, Co. Kerry or e-mailed to localhistory@kerrylibrary.ie.

To be eligible for funding, the project must be Kerry-based, encourage participation from the community, document a cultural practice or archival body of records in a local area/community and be a feasible project with a cultural dimension. All projects selected must be completed by 30 April 2019. Successful applicants from each of the four Municipal Districts will be notified following an evaluation process.

Kerry County Council Cultural Archive Awards application process was launched by Cllr Norma Foley, Cathaoirleach of Kerry County Council.

Killarney Chamber of Tourism and Commerce held their second ever Family BBQ on Sunday last, September 2nd with a great crowd in attendance. The festivities took place in the lovely setting of the Killarney Racecourse. As the end of the season approaches, the Family BBQ was a welcome break from the hectic Summer for Chamber members, along with their families, and staff members, who attended the day out. There was wide range of fun games and activities for everyone from sumo wrestling to bouncy castles, live children's entertainment to a tug of war with lots of delicious food and drink to enjoy afterwards. There was a fantastic atmosphere with a DJ on hand and even a performance by Celtic Steps. The All Ireland football final was shown on the big screen, for all the Tyrone supporters! European para bronze medalist Jordan Lee attended and spent time around the activities and met all the little ones. A great day out was had by all.

MONEY MATTERS.....

By Dermot Cronin,
Financial Advisor

WHY DO YOU NEED LIFE COVER?

TO PROTECT YOUR FAMILY AND LOVED ONES
If your loved ones depend on your financial support for their livelihood, then life insurance is a must, because it replaces your income when you die. This is especially important for parents of young children or adults who would find it difficult to sustain their standard of living if they no longer had access to the income provide by their partner.

TO PAY OFF DEBTS AND OTHER EXPENSES
In addition to providing income to cover everyday living expenses, your family needs insurance to cover any outstanding debts, like the mortgage, credit cards and other loans. You don't want your spouse, parents, children or other loved ones to be left with any extra financial burden in addition to the emotional burden they're already suffering.

TO BRING PEACE OF MIND & LEAVE AN INHERITANCE
We can't know when we'll pass away. It could be today, tomorrow or 50 years from now, but it will happen eventually. No amount of money could ever replace a person. But more than anything, life insurance can help provide protection for the uncertainties in life. Even if you don't have any other assets to pass to your heirs, you can create an inheritance by buying a life insurance policy and naming them as beneficiaries. Without a doubt, having life insurance coverage will bring you and your family peace of mind. You should also consider income protection and serious illness cover when considering life cover.

COUNCIL WELCOMES DELEGATION FROM ZHEIJIANG PROVINCE OF CHINA

A Chinese delegation arrived to the Kerry County Council Chambers and then onto the INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY TRALEE NORTH CAMPUS. PHOTO BY : DOMNICK WALSH

A delegation from the Zhejiang Province in Eastern China visited Kerry on Friday. The province has a long-standing relationship with Kerry following the establishment of cultural and educational links in 2012 and a Cultural Festival hosted in Tralee in 2015.

The political and economic delegation met with the Cathaoirleach and Chief Executive of Kerry County Council as well as a number of local industry and business representatives. The group was led by the Chairman of the Zhejiang Provincial Committee of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference, Ms Ge Huijun. The Chairman and Cathaoirleach exchanged gifts and pledged to further develop links between Kerry and Jheijiang. The Chinese group also visited IT Tralee and Kerry Group.

A return visit was made by representatives of the Council in 2013 and that delegation was led by our County Manager at the time, Mr Tom Curran. During that visit, a Memorandum of Understanding was signed, formalising the links between the regions.

Following on from that visit in 2013, the Confucius Institute at University College Cork were contacted regarding a Chinese language and cultural programme for interested schools and Kerry schools were contacted with a view to linking them with schools from the province and building long-term relationships. Six Kerry second-level schools participated, and students not only learned some daily Chinese, experienced the differences between Chinese and European language, but also got to know Chinese society and culture.

Killarney's Golfers Two in a Row

The victorious Killarney Lady Golfers.

Ladies golf in Killarney is going from strength to strength! Another Munster title has come to Kerry, making it two in a row, after the Killarney ladies bagged the Senior Foursomes title at Tipperary on Sunday last. They have brought a record 3rd Munster title and pennant home to Killarney Golf Club this year, adding to the Club's 125th anniversary celebrations. They were of course the reigning Munster and All-Ireland champions going into Sunday's final where they beat Limerick Golf Club by two and a half matches to a half. Of the six Killarney ladies who played on Sunday, only Amy Arthur and Mary Geaney played in last year's All-Ireland final victory over Roscommon but the four 'new' faces are all experienced golfers and were certainly up to the challenge against Limerick. The team on Sunday comprised of Amy Arthur and Ailish Mulcahy, Tracy Eakin and Mary Geaney, Mary Sheehy and Christine Carroll with reserves; Anne Moynihan Rudden and Fidelma O Connor. Of the six Killarney ladies who played on Sunday, only Amy Arthur and Mary Geaney played in last year's All-Ireland final victory over Roscommon but the four 'new' faces are all experienced golfers and were certainly up to the challenge against Limerick. Team Manager, Christine Carroll, will be leading them to the All Ireland finals which will take place at Knightsbrook Golf Club Co Meath on Wednesday 26th September 2018. We wish them every success.

LOCAL CHARITIES BENEFIT FROM CYCLE

Ring of Beara Cycle

The Ring of Beara Cycle Committee this week presented cheques to six local charities who are benefitting from this year's event. Volunteers who helped organise and run the event were also praised for their commitment and community spirit.

Castletownbere Community Hospital, Castletownbere Day Care Centre, Kenmare Family Resource Centre, Kenmare Special Olympics, Kenmare Special Needs Group, and St John of God Services Kenmare were on hand to receive their donations totalling €53,000 from the Ring of Beara Organising Committee.

The Ring of Beara Cycle took place on Saturday 26th of May when the people of Kenmare and the Beara Peninsula welcomed more than 4200 cyclists from all over Ireland and around the globe for the popular event.

Cathy Sheehan, A/Matron, Castletownbere Community Hospital, said, "We are delighted to be chosen as a charity recipient for this year's Ring of Beara Cycle. It's such a popular, exciting event, it has been a great experience being part of it. The money raised by the cycle will be a great help to the hospital and our staff and residents alike are extremely grateful. I'd like to congratulate all involved, particularly the volunteers who give up their time, and thank everyone for this significant donation."

Darren Lynch, Member of the Ring of Beara

Cycle organising committee said, "I would like to thank all the volunteers without whom this event would not be possible. Because of their hard work along with the cyclists we are very pleased to be in a position to make a difference to local charities. Castletownbere Community Hospital provide such a vital service to the local community here in West Cork. We are all looking forward to next year's event already and being able to contribute again to local charities."

The Ring of Beara Cycle Kenmare will take place on 25th May 2019 – with entries going on general sale on Thursday 13th (past-participants will have access to a pre-sale on Wednesday 12th). The event sold out in less than 24 hours last year. Cyclists will experience the magnificent scenery of the mountains, valleys and the rugged coastline of the Beara peninsula as well as the famed local hospitality. Cyclists pass through picturesque and quaint towns, including Ardroom, Eyeries, Allihies, Castletownbere, Adrigole and Glengarriff. Participants will enjoy music, food and chat at the fully stocked food stations dotted along the routes. The event numbers are capped at 4200 as per last year's event.

The event will finish with a great party atmosphere and superb facilities including hot food, hot tubs, massage, entertainment and finishers' medal for all cyclists.

Mountain Rescue & Coast Guard
PICTURE: VALERIE O'SULLIVAN

JOINT WINNERS OF THE 2018 HUGH O'FLAHERTY INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN AWARD ANNOUNCED

The Irish Coast Guard including Community & Local Rescue Services, The RNLI Royal National Lifeboat Institution) and the KMRT (Kerry Mountain Rescue Team) are the joint recipients of the 2018 Hugh O'Flaherty International Humanitarian Award. This year marks the 75th Anniversary of the formation of The Rome Escape Line and the 11th year of the Memorial Commemoration of the Monsignor. It is organised annually to raise awareness of the Humanitarian work carried out by the Monsignor, when during WW2, together with his colleagues in the Rome Escape Line, he saved over 6,500 people from the clutches of the Nazis who had occupied Rome at the time. On October 30th, 2013, on the 50th anniversary of the Monsignor's death a permanent memorial to the Monsignor was unveiled in Killarney town centre. The memorial is a life-size sculpture of the Monsignor by Valentia based artist Alan Ryan Hall. On May 8th, 2016, a Plaque commemorating the Monsignor was unveiled at the German College, Vatican City, Rome where he lived from 1938 until 1960 and from where he organised the WW2 Rome Escape Line. Earlier this year, a "shortlist" of seven Nominations was submitted to the Independent Award Panel for consideration as potential recipients of the 2018 Hugh O'Flaherty Humanitarian Award. The Award will be presented by Killarney Mayor John Sheahan at the Award Ceremony in Killarney on Saturday November 3rd during the 11th Annual Hugh O'Flaherty Memorial Weekend.

The 2018 Award is very different from previous Awards. Since its inception in 2009, although open to individuals and organisations, the Hugh O'Flaherty Humanitarian Award has always been presented to individual Humanitarian recipients, - the 2017 recipient was Loreto Sr Orla Treacy from South Sudan. This year for the first time, the Humanitarian Award does not go to an individual nor indeed to one humanitarian organisation, but to a collective of three Humanitarian Organisations under the heading of Ireland's Rescue Services. The three organisations to receive the 2018 Humanitarian Award are:

- Irish Coast Guard (Including Community & Local Rescue Services).
- The RNLI (Royal National Lifeboat Institution).
- KMRT (Kerry Mountain Rescue Team).

Chair of the Hugh O'Flaherty Memorial Society Jerry O'Grady said, "This was unquestionably the most unusual nomination we have received over the last 10 years - It brought into focus the incredibly selfless humanitarian work done by the members of these organisations, the great majority of whom are unpaid volunteers". The key point of the original nomination read, "Be it windswept high mountains, dangerous shorelines or stormy seas, when called upon, at a moment's notice and without regard for the race or creed of those in need, they put their lives on the line to help others. Over the years, members of these rescue organisations have lost their lives while attempting to save others".

Reacting to the news that they were to receive the Award,

Sean Dillon (RNLI Lifesaving Manager) said, "To receive the Hugh O'Flaherty Humanitarian Award in recognition of the work the RNLI does on the island of Ireland is hugely humbling but to receive it alongside our colleagues in the Irish Coast Guard, Community Rescue Boats of Ireland and Kerry Mountain Rescue makes it particularly poignant. The RNLI has proudly operated in Ireland since 1824 and its mission and values have never changed. Rooted in communities, serving communities and making them safer is at the heart of what the RNLI does and has done for generations. The men and women who volunteer and work in the RNLI could not do so without the support and acknowledgement of the public and are very grateful for it. RNLI volunteers go out in conditions that have others returning to shore but they do so in the knowledge that they are bringing loved ones home or peace of mind when it is needed".

Coast Guard Director, Chris Reynolds said, "We are delighted on behalf of the Coast Guard to be included in the Hugh O'Flaherty Humanitarian Award along with our sister volunteer rescue services. Service to protect and saving life was Hugh O'Flaherty's guiding principle and is carried on through the rescue services. The Coast Guard wishes to take this opportunity to promote a safety message directed towards recreational boat users, our highest risk group.

The Coast Guard would encourage recreational boat users to download the excellent booklet, The Code of Practice: The Safe Operation of Recreational Craft which is available free on Safety on the Water website (www.safetyonthewater.ie).

Colm Burke, PRO Kerry Mountain Rescue said, 'We are delighted to be receiving the 2018 Humanitarian Award along with our other colleagues from the Rescue Services. We would like to sincerely thank the Hugh O'Flaherty Memorial Society for this great honour.'

Masterclass in Skill and Camaraderie in Firies U11 Blitz

The 24th Annual Jerry Foley U11 (Memorial) Blitz took place in Pairc Eammon GAA Pitch last weekend. The U11 teams from Firies, Currow, Milltown/Castlemaine, Ballymac, Kerins O'Rahillys, Listry and Newmarket indulged everyone in attendance to a spectacle of skill, teamwork and camaraderie. All teams took part in a round robin series with the top two teams contesting the final. In the end, there could only be one winner with Ballymac taking home the spoils for the second year in a row after an exciting game against Currow. Neil Brendan Foley, Jerry's son, presented the annual cup to the victorious Ballymac captain with great scenes of celebration. Tim Clifford, Firies GAA Coiste na nOg Chairman praised the visiting clubs, their mentors and parents/guardians for their efforts in ensuring their clubs attendance, thus ensuring its success. He also commended Firies GAA clubs' volunteers and officers on their hospitality and generosity in time and effort. Finally, he expressed his gratitude to the Foley family who have resoundingly supported the continuation of this annual blitz. The future certainly looks bright for this prestigious tournament with the skill level that was on display throughout the day and we look forward already to next year.

EDUCATION OUTLOOK

Goal setting and good planning will bring exam success in 2019

(By Billy Ryle)

September marks the beginning of an important academic year for exam candidates. The key to success is good planning and consistent study. Set attainable target grades in each subject. Clear goals will focus and motivate you. Then efficiently manage your time, your study and your personal fitness.

Time management means having a regular and disciplined study routine, based on short, medium and long term planning. Commit to a number of hours study each night. Regularly review the quality of your work. The medium term plan is to complete a targeted body of work over a longer period, such as a school term. The long-term plan is to be totally prepared for the exam at year's end.

The first term is primarily about completing course work. Do nightly homework of a high standard. Develop the habit of revision early in the year. Organise your copies of past exam papers. Consider how the exam is structured. Understand the format of each exam paper, the style of questions asked and the topics examined. Know how the marks are allocated and how much time should be spent on each question.

Use a conventional or electronic diary to record each homework assignment. Develop your own study plan, but prioritise, with deadlines in mind. An efficient system is to follow the subject timetable for the following day's classes. This approach gives you variety each night, it keeps you working to deadlines and it provides a safeguard against beginning with your favourite subject each night and relegating a disliked subject until last. Commit to about four hours work nightly, to include homework and some revision. Work in two-hour sessions and take a half hour break between the two sittings. In an exam year, Friday night must be included in the study schedule. Do six or seven hours revision over the weekend.

Revise only after you have completed your homework assignments. Try to include all your subjects in your weekly revision plan. Revise in small manageable self-contained units. Study and revision can be tedious. Stay interested by using a reward system to maintain your momentum. The aim of doing well in the exam is the ultimate motivator, but short-term rewards give you an immediate incentive.

Good working conditions are vital for effective study. A comfortable study environment at home is essential. Study on your own in a room where you have peace and quiet. A table and a hardback chair are basic requirements. Make sure the heating and the lighting in the room is satisfactory. Organise your books and materials at the beginning of each study session. Avoid unscheduled breaks and beware of "time thieves" such as excessive TV watching and long telephone calls.

Listen actively in class. Participate in class by asking questions, by showing enthusiasm and passion for knowledge. The best information is available at school so attend all your classes punctually and be determined to learn.

Organise your practical materials, such as calculator, books, writing pads, etc. Well-documented notes are an invaluable organisational aid. Ensure that your handwriting is legible, that your diagrams are detailed and intelligible and that your presentation is neat. If you are saving material on your desktop or laptop computer file it carefully for easy access.

Concentration is a by-product of routine and organisation. By arranging it for a set time each day you reinforce your commitment to study. The more focussed and determined you are then the more your concentration will improve. To aid your concentration during study, develop the habit of doing mild forms of exercise, perhaps a short breathing exercise, or simply close your eyes momentarily to allow your mind and body to relax.

Concentration is considerably aided by a positive attitude, so be confident in your ability. Keep a good thought about yourself and be success orientated. Self-confidence and positive thinking lead to success. Be single minded and passionate about your objectives. Keep an eye on your personal targets and avoid mental fatigue by taking exercise. With an organised and disciplined approach to your study you will do very well in your exam. Have a good and successful year.

In the next article I'll assess the value of the Junior Certificate

Top tips for school lunchboxes

It's hard to believe the new school year is here again – seems like only yesterday children were starting their summer holidays and enjoying that great weather. Between buying uniforms and organising school essentials, most parents will want to have easy and healthy lunchbox ideas to hand. Because children's lunchboxes provide around one third of our children's daily nutritional needs, it's important to put some thought and planning into food and learning some good food habits along the way. To help parents, safefood have some helpful tips for a healthy, tasty school lunchbox.

To get the most from school lunchboxes, try to include the following foods every day.

- ✓ Starchy foods like 2 slices of bread, a bread roll, bagel a tortilla wrap, a pitta bread, 4-6 crackers or breadsticks. Where you can, choose wholemeal varieties. You can also try cooked pasta or rice as a change from bread.
- ✓ Include one or more fruit like apples, oranges, bananas, berries or salad vegetables in a sandwich or wrap. Chopping fruit into smaller pieces makes it easier for little hands to eat.
- ✓ One portion of dairy foods like milk, cheese or yoghurt.

- ✓ Small amounts of high protein foods like deli meats, fish, like tuna or salmon, or vegetarian options like hummus or egg
- ✓ A small bottle of water or milk instead of juice drinks or fizzy drinks
- ✓ If you want to introduce any changes, try to gradually do these over time so that your children get used to them. Many primary schools are Health Promoting Schools and have developed healthy eating policies that encourage parents and children not to put certain foods in the lunchbox. So it's also worth finding out what they allow.

Some fun ideas to keep your children interested

While it might seem great to have a ham sandwich five days a week, it's not very appealing eating the same food day after day. So here are some helpful tips to make it more interesting:

Theme your lunchbox on a different country, e.g. Italian - try a pasta salad, Mexican - soft tortillas with filling. Straws and brightly coloured drinks bottles can make milk and water more fun for young children

Talk to your kids about what kinds of lunches they would like to bring with them and try to make them together. The following weekly lunchbox planner shows you the potential variety you can have.

Monday - Chicken sandwich with some salad on brown bread; a piece of fruit, a small bottle of water and a yoghurt. (Some kids may not like salads to begin with so maybe just start them off with some lettuce leaves

"My recovery has been nothing short of amazing"

Graham runs a fishing and outdoor pursuits business in Clonakilty and has a passion for angling, playing the bodhrán and singing.

Graham suffered from hip pain for many years which had a significant impact on his life. Hip pain meant he had to give up angling as he couldn't walk on rough surfaces and even had to sell his boat, as Graham says, 'to avoid being a liability to the RNLI'.

Hip pain curtailed his enjoyment of life; he couldn't sit to play the bodhrán due to excruciating pain. Walking was limited if feasible at all.

Earlier this year, Graham had his hip replaced at Bon Secours Hospital Tralee. Graham describes his recovery;

"My life has improved in every aspect imaginable. Everything has changed since my recovery, from immediate mobility enhancements to absence of pain. I am back angling, I can sit on a stool to play music without any fear of sitting or rising"

"The importance of a feeling of confidence as a patient should not be detracted from. Every member of staff with whom I had contact treated me with kindness, humanity, consideration and understanding. Everyone was an expert in their own field from the housekeeping staff to my Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon Mr. Gardezi, Nurses and Physios; I felt wonderfully well treated".

Graham believes that a key element of his recovery has been adhering and paying attention to the expert advice and guidance of Mr. Gardezi and the physios.

"After the surgeon and physios do the hard work, it is up to the patient to honour this and adhere to their advice. My recovery has been nothing short of amazing".

FITNESS EXPERT EDELE DALY GUIDES YOU TO A FIT AND HEALTHY NEW YOU...

Change Your Focus

Instead of comparing yourself to others, compare yourself to yourself. How well are you doing compared to where you were a few weeks or a month ago? Comparing yourself to yourself gives you vital information on your own progress and how to get closer to your goals. It keeps your focus on self-improvement.

Of course, making this behavior change may be easier said than done. For some people, it may be an ingrained thought pattern that needs to be unlearned with time and effort, but it is possible.

The first step is to be aware of your thoughts; in other words, catch yourself making comparisons, and shift your thinking. Learning mental skills such as empowering self-talk, visualizations and breathing techniques can help you bring your mind and energy back to yourself.

Also, determine if the comparison is healthy or unhealthy. If the comparison gives you hope and inspiration, and ignites your motivation, then it is giving you energy. Learning how they got to their goals can guide you toward yours. But if you're thinking things like, "I'll never get there," or "It is easy for them but not for me," then the comparison is draining you.

Having a professional trainer or coach can go a long way toward helping you stay focused on your individual goals. A health and exercise professional can set realistic benchmarks and develop a specific plan to help you reach them, as well as make adjustments and "course corrections" along the way to keep you on track.

Self-confidence is about believing in your self and not about yourself in comparison to someone else."

Astrid Longhurst
 Life & Body Confidence Coach

Coach your body into fabulous wellness health & vitality

Many people don't actually inhabit the body they live in. They live a short distance away from it. I know - I did this for years. There are many reasons why we stop listening to our precious bodies or treat them in a way that we'd never treat another person. These usually stem from our childhood. Patterns, habits and "stories" that we experienced as children play on in our body and mind long after we have outgrown our childhood days. Whilst some of these may be positive, the majority are negative and may have a huge impact on how we actually live our lives. In terms of wellbeing and body confidence we need to be able to change the early "story" of our life. We do this by questioning our own "personal rules" about how we see ourselves. Say for example you always see yourself as not as good as your friends/colleagues etc you would begin to step away from that belief and begin to question it.

Coach yourself confident, well and fabulous!
 Begin by asking "Is this really true?" Whilst your mind might try to convince you that it is, your heart will always know the real truth so answer from your heart. So, you would say, "is it really true from my heart that I'm not as good as my sister, friend, coworker?" The heart is kind, loving and tells it as it really is. Of course you're as good. You may be different but your absolutely every bit as good. Once you get to the real truth of who you are and dismantle all of your old beliefs the result is inner peace, freedom, confidence and unlimited wellbeing and joy!

If you have a passion for health, wellbeing and living your best life please check out my Body Confidence & Wellbeing Coach Certification Training course. You can visit www.institutebodyconfidencecoaching.com or call me on 066 9766374.

5 SIGNS YOUR PET MIGHT BE ILL

•If your pet refuses to eat for more than a day, this is a serious reason to take them to the vet. Even more so if they are lethargic, vomiting, and refusing to drink. This lack of appetite may indicate an infection, parasites, or mouth or gastric diseases.

•If you notice that your pet is drinking more water than usual it could indicate diabetes or kidney disease. The average volume of drinking water for dogs is 20-70 ml/kg of their body weight per day, while for cats it's 60-120 ml plus the moisture in their food.

•When your normally friendly pet starts going off and hiding by itself, it's a bad sign. This desire to hide might be related to them feeling unwell, especially if they refuse to eat, have toilet issues, or other symptoms. Another reason might be because they are severely stressed out. Also, if a cat tries to hide somewhere high it might be because it's being attacked by fleas.

•If your usually affectionate pet suddenly becomes aggressive, one of the reasons might be because it's in pain, and you're hurting them every time you touch them. This pain could be induced by infections, injuries, or arthritis.

•If your pet struggles to breathe without taking part in any serious physical exercise, take it to the vet as soon as possible. This could be caused by liquid in the chest or heart issues.

THE SEASON OF CREATION

Right across the world and here in our own Diocese, we are celebrating and honouring the Season of Creation for the next three and a half weeks. The theme in our Diocese is - 'Be part of the solution to plastic pollution'.

Plastic pollution is when plastic has gathered in an area and create problems for plants, wildlife and even human population. Often this includes killing plant life and posing dangers to local animals. Plastic is an incredibly useful material, but it is also made from toxic compounds known to cause illness, and because it is meant for durability, it is not biodegradable.

Plastic is everywhere, even on those items you may not expect it to be. Milk cartons are lined with plastic and some products may even contain tiny plastic beads. Every time one of these items gets thrown away or washed down a sink, the toxic pollutants have more of a chance to enter the environment and do harm.

Next time you go shopping, don't forget to carry a paper or cloth or a reusable bag. Also, try to avoid purchasing items with too much of plastic packaging. This way you can help in contributing towards the environment in the form of reducing plastic pollution whose ill effects are irreversible.

ANCIENT EUROPEAN STONE INSCRIPTIONS REVEALED BY LOW RIVER LEVELS CARRY GRAVE WARNINGS

The record-breaking heat wave throughout Europe this summer caused widespread drought, and river levels, such as along the River Elbe which begins in the Czech Republic and flows through Germany, reached critical levels so that many large river stones that have been underwater for centuries were exposed, and many of them are inscribed with grim, dire warnings.

Known as "hunger stones," one reads "If you will again see this stone, so you will weep, so shallow the water was in the year 1417." The stone is also chiselled with "the years of hardship and the initials of authors lost to history," and expressed that drought had brought a bad harvest, lack of food, high prices and hunger for poor people. Before 1900, the following droughts are commemorated on the stone: 1417, 1616, 1707, 1746, 1790, 1800, 1811, 1830, 1842, 1868, 1892, and 1893."

A study compared recent droughts in Europe to droughts over the last 250 years. The scientists found that the 21st century droughts were indeed extreme, but not as long-lasting or as massive as the worst of the historic ones it was also noted that the more recent droughts are also linked to record-breaking temperatures that appears to be causing "unprecedented drying trends" for the soil, which hurts crops.

GOLDFISH CAN FIND A NEW FOREVER HOME AT PARIS AQUARIUM

The biggest aquarium in Paris has started taking in goldfish that can no longer live with their original owners. With locals surrendering roughly 50 goldfish per month, the aquarium's tank now accommodates about 600 specimens, many of which may have endured a worst fate if they had not been welcomed into their new home.

Upon arriving at the aquarium, the surrendered goldfish are given antibiotics and parasitic treatments to ensure they won't harm the other fish. After one month of quarantine, they are transferred into the tank for public viewing.

The service offers a host of benefits - for starters, it discourages owners from flushing their oceanic pets down the toilet. It also keeps humans from dumping the fish into rivers, as goldfish are an invasive species.

Additionally, goldfish bowls that are smaller than 100 litres can stunt the growth of the fish. The fish that are surrendered to the aquarium will often grow up to 8 to 12 inches after being given the room to swim. They also tend to live longer thanks to their ability to socialize with their fellow fish.

SENIOR CHAMPS

Killarney 0-10 Rathmore 0-9

Our senior ladies toggled out with the newly formed Killarney Divisional (Spa, Dr Crokes Fossa) side to defeat Rathmore in the final last Sunday. A great game and both Amanda Brosnan (Dr Crokes) and Cassandra Buckley (Spa) received the cup from sponsor Dave Randles. Thanks to all the players and mentors especially Tim O Connor and Donal O Doherty.

EAST KERRY BILL TANGNEY

Spa 2-14 Cordal 1-7

Spa Juniors are through to the semi final, after overcoming Cordal in a replay played at Spa in a wet evening. Conor Stack was on form scoring three unanswered points until referee James O Sullivan awarded a penalty to Cordal. Corey Doyle didn't wait for long to reply scoring our first goal. A few more excellent points from both teams brought an end to the first half with one point separating the sides. Spa 1-5 Cordal 1-4

The second half resumed and the players found it difficult to control the ball and their balance with the slippery conditions. Spa introduced a few subs and proved vital to their win. Young Gary Vaughan and Thomas Fleming were outstanding and controlled the second half from the start. Conor Stack was in great form executing a goal in the 10th minute after receiving a pass from the full back Mike Shannon. Possession was key to Spa and were the better team on the night. Spa had great team work from Eric O Donoghue, Mike Shannon, Andrew Fitzgerald, Conor Stack and Corey Doyle.

MINORS

Our minors were very unlucky to lose to Rathmore this evening in the East Kerry Div 2 League final played in Rathmore. This was a cracking game of football with some brilliant scores being kicked and it was played with great intensity all through. Rathmore raced into an early four point lead before Emmett O'Shea scored two brilliant goals in the 5th and 7th minute to give Fossa the lead. Rathmore did pull a goal back in the 10th minute but points from Harry Buckley, Cian O'Shea, Emmett O'Shea and Eoin Talbot kept the scoreboard ticking over nicely. Killian Buckley was very unlucky to be shown a black card in the 20th minute and he was a big loss, however John Talbot was putting in a massive shift in defence and with Ruari Doyle making very clever runs in the forwards it gave the other forwards plenty of scoring chances. Emmett O'Shea kicked two brilliant long range frees to leave Fossa leading at the break, 2-06 to 1-07. Emmett O'Shea hit two spectacular frees at the start of the second half but Rathmore gradually came more into the game as the half wore on. The second half developed into a titanic contest where no quarter was asked for or given, both teams played with huge determination. Shane O'Sullivan pulled off a couple of brilliant saves in this half, Padraic Talbot, Anthony O'Keeffe, Mark Donnellan, Gary Cronin and Darren Cronin worked overtime to repel the Rathmore attacks, John Talbot played like a man possessed all through. Cian O'Shea and Eoin Talbot both had excellent games at midfield and worked really hard, the forward division of Colm Talbot, Ryan Sheehan, Harry Buckley and young Jack Clifford put in a trojan effort and worked their socks off. Emmett O'Shea and Ruari Doyle underlined why they are amongst the most promising young talent in the county at present with a sublime display of running and scoring. Fossa battled hard and came within a point of Rathmore in the closing minutes of the game but they just couldn't find get that equalising score and Rathmore kicked the insurance score deep into injury to leave the final score, Rathmore 1-16, Fossa 2-11.

CONGRATULATIONS

Well done to Peter Keane and the Kerry minor team and management who completed a historic five in a row on Sunday when they overcame a gallant Galway side, this was surely the sweetest of them all, having to come from behind to win a cracker and create history in the process.

OUTLOOK BASKETBALL

By Eamonn Keogh

Following a successful debut season, Scotts Lakers St Pauls are looking forward to the new basketball season which commences this weekend. After an absence of nearly a decade, top flight national league basketball returned to Killarney last season and Scotts Lakers attracted record crowds to Killarney Sports Centre for their home games. The Killarney side didn't disappoint in their opening season enjoying a good cup run before bowing out at the semi-final stage to eventual winners Ballincollig and then went on to secure the division one B shield title.

Scotts Lakers travel to Limerick IT Sports Hall this Saturday September 8th for the opening game of the new season against Limerick IT. The first home game of the season will be on Saturday September 15th against Fr Mathews (Cork) in Killarney Sports Centre at 7.30 pm. Team coach Cormac O'Donoghue is in charge of Scotts Lakers again for the new campaign and his squad is boosted with some considerable new signings.

New American signing Sean O'Brien, a native of Lafayette Hill, Pennsylvania, arrived in Killarney this week and will replace Harrison Deneka. O'Brien is a talented and skilful 6'2" player capable of filling a point guard or shooting guard role.

He has just completed four years with Colgate University playing in the top level NCAA Division One. Captaining the side in his final year, he scored 1040 points in his career with Colgate and won the Most Valuable Player Award in 2017 and 2018. O'Brien isn't the first player from Colgate to come to Killarney. Irish-American and former Colgate player Tim Sullivan enjoyed a successful stint with Gleneagle Lakers in the mid noughties.

Another new addition for Scotts Lakers is Dutch power forward Papito Hersisia, who has experience from playing in Holland and Germany. His huge 6'8" frame and ability to dominate under the boards will give Scotts Lakers extra strength this season.

Exciting shooting guard Dailian Mason from Birmingham UK, is back with Scotts Lakers again after joining the squad during the middle of last season. An outstanding three-point shooter, Mason will give the Lakers that extra outside scoring threat. Cormac O'Donoghue and his squad of players have been in pre-season training for a number of weeks and Mark Greene will captain the side this year. The Killarney native was the Lakers most consistent Irish player last season and will have another huge role to play in the campaign ahead. The squad is also expected to include local players Padraig Lucey, Andrew Fitzgerald, Philip O'Connor, Cian Clernon, Dan Griffin, Dylan O'Sullivan and Irish American Justin Tuason. Scotts Lakers are also delighted to add Seamus Brosnan, who has transferred from St. Mary's Castleisland and former Blue Demons star Shane McCarthy. Both of these players have huge national league experience and will certainly help the Lakers to be more competitive again this season. Marko Bencic, son of St. Paul's Director of Coaching Vojkan Bencic, is also expected to join the squad as a European Bosman player. The Men's Division One league will expand from 14 teams last season to 17 teams this season meaning more fixtures for Scotts Lakers. This growth will see the division split into two conferences - north and south - and sees three men's teams in Limerick: LIT, UL Eagles and Limerick Celtics. Tolka Rovers and WIT Vikings will also join the league this year.

Team Coach Cormac O'Donoghue is looking forward to the new campaign and is hopeful of building on the success of last year. "It was a successful debut season and it is important to build on that and try and progress even further this season. It is a bigger league now with more teams and extra fixtures.

We will have 14 games before Christmas with four back to back double headers in what is quite a punishing schedule. It will be important to win our home games, gather some momentum and try and climb the league table," he said.

The annual Listry Captain's Prize Day was held on July 28 at Killorglin Golf Club where participants raised over €1000 for the Kerry Cork Health Link Bus. Each year the club captain chooses where the proceeds from the day's golf fundraiser goes. Listry Golf Society Captain, Eamon Courtney, decided on the Kerry Cork Health Link Bus this year, as his own mother passed away from cancer some years ago. Over €1000 worth of tickets were sold and of Listry's Golf Society 102 members, 70 took part. Local business people also donated lots of prizes for the raffle which was held that same evening. A cheque was presented to Trish Kelly and Breda Dyland who represented the Kerry Cancer Support Group, at Faha Court on Friday last. The Kathleen O' Mahony Perpetual Trophy was also presented to winners Mike Mannix, Christina O'Sullivan and John Wrenn.

KERRY GAA SCENE

REPORT BY LEONA TWISS, PRO

ALL IRELAND MINOR CHAMPIONS!

What an achievement! The elusive '5 in a row' has been achieved. The foundations have been laid over many years by the various Coaching Officers, GDAs, Donal Daly, Club Coaches & school teachers and now the hard work is coming to fruition. It was a wonderful occasion in Croke Park last Sunday and we extend our heartiest congratulations to Peter Keane, the Kerry Minor Panel, the Selectors and all involved in the management team. Our thanks as always to our sponsors Kerry Group for looking after the Panel so well. The game itself was the proverbial game of two halves! Kerry had to show character as well as quality throughout the game as they looked in trouble when they trailed by 1-8 to 0-4 after 26 minutes of the first half. Galway had kicked an unanswered 1-7 to roar into that seven-point lead and were playing with great confidence, but a rally just before half-time gave Kerry hope and they were magnificent in the second 30 minutes. That meant Galway led at half-time by 1-9 to 0-8, which perhaps wasn't quite as emphatic a reflection of their first-half dominance as they would have hoped for. Kerry moved Paul O'Shea from centre-forward to midfield for the second-half, and the team captain was the chief inspiration of their second-half comeback. He won a huge amount of ball in the middle third and delivered an array of exquisitely weighted passes into his forwards that brought a whole new dimension to Kerry's play. They served notice of their renewed intent when Michael Lenihan scored the first point of the second-half, and four more in a row had them 0-13 to 1-9 ahead by the 43rd minute. The teams were level at 1-13 to 0-16 on 56 minutes, but it was Kerry who then came with the finishing kick in the final four minutes of normal time plus six of injury-time. They out-scored Galway by 0-5 to 0-1 in that period, with substitute Ruaidhri Ó Beaglaoich particularly impressive as he kicked his second and third points of the match. It was an emphatic finish from this young Kerry team, who have written their names into the history books in fitting style. The homecoming was a wonderful occasion and thoroughly befitting of their victory. Well done to the Kilcummin Club for their superb organisation of the event. Thank you to all the supporters who attended and all of those who sent messages of congratulations to the Panel. It was all very much appreciated.

LEGION GAA NEWS

SENIOR COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP DRAW

Mid Kerry V Legion
(Date & Time to be confirmed)

LEGION SENIOR LADIES JUNIOR B COUNTY CHAMPIONS 2018

Legion started off the game scoring 2 points in quick succession but Clounmacon/Moyvane replied quickly with a point & goal, their forward Aoife Horgan proving her soccer prowess, they slotted in a couple more goals, it might've been more but for Kate McCarthy taking control to keep her at bay. Legion kept up the fight and scored 6 more points before half time. HT score Legion 8pts-C/M 3-05. In the second half, both teams found it difficult to score but when C/M scored another goal & point putting them a full 10 points clear, they decided to go on the defensive taking 12 of their players into their half. And this is where Legion pushed the boat out and fought for every kick out, winning the ball and running at C/M with conviction and it worked, slowly but surely point after point we got closer to them. With the tension growing more and more and deep in injury time, they pulled Sonia Smith to the ground and Elizabeth Mohan picked it up and lambasted into the back of their net giving us a one point lead when the ref blew the whistle. The effort Legion put in to the full hour and extra time of this game was immense! Well done girls.

EAST KERRY LEAGUE DIV 1 U-12 GIRLS V FOSSA

Up against a very strong Fossa team who beat us convincingly earlier in the year. We dominated from early on with great attacking play and should have been further ahead at half time 1-5 to 2 pts up. Second half Fossa made a few switches and came more into it but some fierce defending by our defence kept us leading at the final whistle. All credit to Legion they stayed at it to the very end. Final score Legion 2-6 Fossa 1-6.

U-16 GIRLS NEWS:

We also had a visit from our own Kerry star Brian Kelly on Monday night at training and he had a talk with the girls on their game skills which was well received and appreciated. ### TATLER JACK EAST REGION MINOR LEAGUE FINALS DIVISION 1

DR CROKES 3-11 KILGARVAN / TUOSIST 1-16

A number of factors contributed to an exciting conclusion to the Tatler Jack East Kerry Minor League Division 1 Final where Dr Crokes worked hard to overcome a determined Kilgarvan/

Rathmore team who won the East Kerry Minor Division 2 Final defeating Fossa.

Tuosist combination. Donal O'Sullivan's power packed 11 point performance for the losers was matched by a game winning performance from Terry Sparling whose introduction after 30 minutes helped swing the impetus in Dr Crokes direction. The performance of the Crokes keeper was noteworthy - Adam Kelly's pin point accurate kick outs and 2 point blank saves were crucial to their win.

A lightening start by Kilgarvan/Tuosist saw them put 1-6 on the scoreboard after 22 minutes while Dr Crokes could only manage 0-2 in the same period. Daniel Casey's first minute goal shot was parried over the bar by keeper Kelly and from the kick out Crokes corner forward Sean Magann levelled the scoreboard. For the next 20 minutes, Kilgarvan/Tuosist dominated in most areas. A Mikey Sheehy style high speed pickup saw Tadgh Sugrue cruise through the Crokes defence and add a Kilgarvan/Tuosist goal to scores by Donal O'Sullivan (0-4) and Ronan Foley (0-1). As Kilgarvan/Tuosist piled forward, Foley shot for goal but Adam Kelly once again came to Dr Crokes rescue. Points from Sean Magann made it 1-6 to 0-3. Harry Potts fielded from a kickout and after a strong run through the middle set up Roan Delaney for Dr Crokes first goal - 1-6 to 1-3 after 25 minutes. Dr Crokes added a point from the speedy corner forward Josh Fleming. But it was Kilgarvan/Tuosist that finished strongest with points from Donal O'Sullivan (0-3) and Mark Torpey to leave the half time score Kilgarvan/Tuosist 1-10 Dr Crokes 1-4.

On resumption, a Dion Murphy free increased the Kilgarvan/Tuosist lead to 7 points. Over the next 10 minutes, as Dr Crokes won the midfield battle, Harry Potts added a point and the influential Terry Sparling capitalised. A well struck penalty followed by 1-2 from play saw Sparling push the score to 3-8 to 1-11 in Dr Crokes favour. Kilgarvan/Tuosist responded well with scores from O'Sullivan (0-4) and Daniel Casey (0-1). But despite a herculean effort, Kilgarvan/Tuosist failed to overturn the champions lead as Dr Crokes kept the scoreboard ticking with scores from Sean Magann (0-2) and the hardworking Krystian Komosa (0-1) to win by the narrowest margin - Dr Crokes 3-11 Kilgarvan/Tuosist 1-16

The 53 year old trophy - the Donie Sheehan Minor Cup - was jointly presented by the same Donie Sheehan and East Kerrys Pat O'Brien, to Dr Crokes captain Josh Fleming.

Dr Crokes: Adam Kelly, Caolan Ryan, Sean O'Neill, Ger Cronin, Oisín O'Connir, Fionn O'Hare Doherty, Eamon Long, Roan Delaney (1-0), Harry Potts (0-1), Fionnbarr Hickey, Liam Kelliher, Krystian Komosa (0-1), Gary O'Connor, Josh Fleming (Capt) (0-1), Sean Magann (0-5, 0-2 frees). Subs: Jason Kerins, Terry Sparling (2-3, Pen, 0-2 frees), Evan Looney, Aaron Brennan, Neill O'Shea.

Referee: Eddie Walsh (Rathmore)

DIVISION 2

Rathmore 1-16 Fossa 2-11

Rathmore overcame Fossa in a cracking East Region Division 2 Minor final. Home side Rathmore, raced into an early four point lead with scores from Anthony and James Darmody. However, Emmett O'Shea struck for two brilliant goals in the 5th and 7th minute to give Fossa the lead. It was nip and tuck. Rathmore replied with a goal in the 10th minute from Aaron Cronin. Fossa hit back with scores from Harry Buckley, Cian O'Shea, Emmett O'Shea and Eoin Talbot while Anthony Darmody and Aaron Cronin kicked a few scores for Rathmore to leave Fossa two points to the good at the break: Fossa 2-06 Rathmore 1-07. Fossa extended their lead early in the second half, when Emmett O'Shea kicked three points. However, Anthony Darmody and Aaron Cronin kept Rathmore in touch with some fine scores.

The home side gradually got a grip of the game as the half wore on. They limited the supply of ball going into the dangerous Emmett O'Shea and Rathmore took over the scoring in the final quarter. James Darmody came to the fore with three points in minute 15, 18 and 20. Anthony Darmody was on hand to complete the scoring and put Rathmore two points ahead six minutes into injury time and so Rathmore held on to win a great game of football on a score of Rathmore 1-16 Fossa 2-11.

East Kerry Board PRO Michael O'Mahony, presented The Gleneagle Hotel Cup to Rathmore Captain Derry McCarthy.

DIVISION 3

Glenflesk 4-16 Templenoe/Sneem/Derrynane 4-12

Glenflesk minors travelled to Templenoe on Thursday evening to take on a Templenoe/Sneem/Derrynane combination in the East Kerry Region Division 3 final. The home side settled in better in the early stages, helped greatly by goals from Colin Crowley and Jack Riney, the latter a free kick that went straight to the net. Crowley also added three points from play in the opening half. However, David Cantillion, Jamie O'Shea and Jonathan Bowler kicked two points each to keep the visitors in touch. Sean Doherty(Glenflesk) and Ruairi Burns (Templenoe/Sneem/Derrynane) exchanged two frees each. Daniel Crowley (Templenoe/Sneem/Derrynane) pointed and Emmet Finnan and Darragh Fleming replied for Glenflesk. Half-time score: Templenoe/Sneem/Derrynane 2-5 Glenflesk 0-9.

Glenflesk started the better in the second half and an early goal from Sean Doherty gave them a timely boost. However, the home side soon had the ball in the net from substitute Jason O'Shea. Following a great run, Alan Murphy was awarded a penalty, ably slotted home by Sean Doherty. Glenflesk were looking good for victory at this stage and finished the stronger, with points from substitutes Peter Cronin and Mark O'Donoghue. Scorer-in-chief, Sean Doherty, helped himself to two further goals and four points (two from frees) to bring his total for the evening to 4-6. Crowley

ALL IRELAND MINOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

HISTORIC FIVE IN A ROW COMPLETED IN STYLE

KERRY O'SHEA TRAVELLED WITH THE KERRY SUPPORTERS CLUB LAST SUNDAY TO WITNESS A HISTORIC DAY IN THE ANNALS OF THE GAA AS THE KERRY MINORS BECAME THE FIRST MENS GAA TEAM TO ACHIEVE A FIVE IN A ROW IN ANY GRADE

KERRY 0-21
GALWAY 1-14

It was both certainly a privilege and an honour to be in Croke Park on Sunday to witness the Kerry minor footballers create their own bit of history by becoming the first men's Gaelic football team to win five All-Ireland titles in a row.

Kerry fans, who travelled to the game, though in small numbers, had to use every contact and outlet available to them to secure a precious ticket.

Thankfully, many were privileged to gain one, even though some got theirs at literally the last minute.

The Kerry Supporters Club did their best to ensure many of their members were catered for and thanks in particular to the efforts of Secretary John King, many members were allocated tickets.

Those travelling with the Supporters Club had an early rise on Sunday morning but for many it was well worth it!

As the bus took off, supporters, including both seasoned campaigners and some who were travelling for the first time, were talking about the games ahead and the questions being asked were would Dublin succeed in their four-in-a-row bid in the senior game and would the Kerry minors make up for what their senior predecessors failed to do back in 1982?

The usual breakfast stop at the Maldron Hotel on the outskirts of Dublin was a good opportunity to catch up with some Tyrone supporters who had stayed in the hotel overnight.

As is always the case, O'Connell Street was busy with match spectators on Sunday morning as last-minute tickets were procured, while touts were both offering tickets and looking for the same.

Among the many people, we met were Ballymac's Tom O'Donoghue and former Austin Stacks manager Stephen Stack. Before we knew it, Croke Park beckoned on the horizon. The minor match had an earlier than usual 1pm start which did not meet favour with a lot of fans.

Galway came out full of running and after Kerry had raced into an early lead the Westerners got to grips with the situation around midfield and began to eat away at their opponents lead.

Galway were boosted by a Tony Gill goal in the middle of a 1-7 without reply purple patch. Some late scores steadied the ship as the westerners enjoyed a four-point interval lead.

In the second half, Kerry, thanks to some great scores from Paul Walsh and Cillian Falvey in particular, whittled away at the Galway lead and as the second half wore on, it appeared that Peter Keane's side were fully intent on creating their own bit of Gaelic football history.

The senior final which followed between Dublin and Tyrone was interesting in the early stage.

Tyrone began as if they would lay an ambush for the Dubs as Mickey Harte's men raced into a 0-5 to 0-1 lead, but Dublin were boosted when Paul Mannion was fouled and referee Conor Lane stretched his arms for the penalty. Mannion took the kick himself and levelled the scores.

After that, there was only one result as the Dubs superiority and Jack McCaffrey's Man of the Match performance was there for all to see.

The journey home as long and enjoyable. The official Supporters Club singsong got underway with Stella Enright and Dave Buckley leading the way from the back of the bus and this certainly was both enjoyable and shortened the journey.

The smiles on the faces of all who made the trip were evident but perhaps the two proudest people on the bus were Brosna father and daughter Willie and Karen McAuliffe.

The McAuliffe's were justifiably proud of the performance of local man Paul Walsh, the Ed Sheeran lookalike, who won his way into the hearts of Kerry GAA fans with some scintillating displays this summer.

Then again, this was a team performance. The Kerry players to a man were fantastic and deserve their moment of glory.

Another football season is over; another year of travelling with the wide and diverse group that makes up the Kerry Supporters Club is over. The future is certainly bright for Kerry football. Roll on 2019.

Randles Bros Senior Championship Final

Stacks late point secures county title for Killarney

KILLARNEY 0-10 RATHMORE 0-9 | By Donal Barry

Killarney substitute Niamh Stack proved to be the unlikely hero as her late point proved enough to separate two neighbouring sides in the Ladies Senior Football Final played at Legion last Sunday.

Despite clashing with the All Ireland, minor football final a healthy gathering packed the Legion stand as Killarney claimed the crown in a tie, which saw a number of their players, add to the medals they won as East Kerry in 2009.

Calling on players from junior sides Dr Crokes, Fossa and Spa the Killarney outfit were on the back foot for most of the opening quarter with Rathmore cantering ahead 0-4 to 0-1 by the end of the first quarter. It might have taken them fifteen minutes to register a single point but they registered three in a three-minute spell as they began to get a serious foothold in the battle as both sets of defences gave up very little easily.

Finding their targets once again Rathmore through 2 points from Eileen Murphy and another from her sister Noreen had the East Kerry side ahead 0-6 to 0-4 at the break.

Kerry midfielder Amanda Brosnan and Kate Stack had the side's level early in the second period before Kate Buckley pushed Rathmore ahead once more 0-7 to 0-6 on the 35th minute.

Killarney lost team captain Cassandra Buckley to a yellow thereafter for a trip but it seemed to galvanise her team more as Rathmore struggle to make the extra player count. Their player advantage did not last long with Mary Collins heading to the bin with Killarney moving 0-9 to 0-7 ahead.

In a game of few goal chances Aoife O'Callaghan escaped shackles of the tight defence but her shot went wide of the target. It was enough to get Rathmore going once more and Noreen Murphy ensured the sides were level for a fourth time with two points of her own.

With just five minutes, remaining Niamh Stack was to prove the hero when her point was registered.

It ensured a tense final few moments but no extra score would affect the outcome as the combination side held on for a famous victory.

FOCUS ON ROSES

Planting roses this time of year will give you colour for years to come.

Container grown roses can be planted any time of the year but the autumn and the springtime are the best.

Bare rooted roses can be planted from late Autumn until around mid March.

Bare rooted roses are plants that are dug up straight from the open ground when they are dormant and best planted or heeled into some earth as soon as possible.

Make sure when you are planted bare rooted roses to heel them in well with the heel of your foot to prevent their roots from being moved in the wind.

Roses are hungry plants so make sure when you're planting to add plenty of manure or a rose fertilizer.

UNDERSTANDING AND MANAGING SUICIDE

Monday September 10th was deemed World Suicide Prevention Day. The theme for this year "Working together to prevent suicide": is a reminder that suicide impacts on us all in our communities.

Suicide is something we hear about thanks to the recent openness which started some years ago. Talking about it has been and is a challenge as previously we did not consider it something we could be up front about due to the associated stigma. This stigma which is still hanging on for some has its roots deep in our psyche and history. In Greek and Roman times suicide was accepted if life had become impossible and the State even assisted by paying technicians who advised on it. In post Judo Christian tradition, it was looked less kindly on it and St Thomas Aquinas in the 13th century equated it with rejection of God's love so it was prohibited initially by religious precept and then the legal system. Suicide does not discriminate between people of differing faith and no faith.

Most people if they are honest will have had passive suicide thoughts at some time but more active suicidal thinking and planning to commit suicide is most often encountered when we are depressed or experiencing another mental illness or overwhelmed by the enormity of life. People when completing suicide see death as the only alternative and as they become more accustomed to the thought it may gain more currency as a viable option for them.

The evidence is that we can do a great deal to influence people when they are feeling hopeless and if these thoughts are disrupted and the person is facilitated to explore alternative options, the outcome can be different.

People experiencing thoughts of suicide are often withdrawn from friends and family, hopeless and unhappy, they may have disturbed sleep pattern, feel unwanted or that believe they are a burden and are unable to access an alternative in the "stuckness" of the moment.

The priority here is keeping the person safe, allowing them to talk openly without judgement, letting them see you are concerned and want to help and getting them to see their GP or taking them to a place of safety. It's important that they avoid self-medicating with non-prescribed drugs or alcohol as this lessens the natural inhibition and increases risk. People who are feeling suicidal see no point in living but the evidence is that after getting through the hopelessness phase, they regain their previous zest for life.

Thankfully we are inching away from a time when an attempt at suicide would have defined someone moving to a place where we are ready to acknowledge the strength and courage shown by people who talk about it.

Care of those bereaved by suicide should focus on firstly helping them through the crisis by meeting their immediate needs. Staying available to them for the longer haul is equally important as there can be an awkward bashfulness around knowing what to say or how to sit with their grief. The advice from those who have lived through it is to help them with the practical things if needed, stay close, avoid hollow reassurance, don't ask for an explanation, help them celebrate the life of the deceased, acknowledge the uncertainty and don't be afraid to allow them to grieve openly. A compassionate approach is the key to enabling them to re find their bearings. Donal Fitzgerald, MSc. Accredited Cognitive Psychotherapist

A Word of Victory

Welcome back dear reader, last week we read where Peter walked on the water to Jesus. But 'when Peter observed the wind and waves he was afraid and began to sink' ... and Jesus caught him and saved him (Mathew 14:29-31). Many people who have tried to read the Bible, and have sought God through various means experience doubt and unbelief like a brick wall. Why is this? 'The natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned' - this verse (1st Corinthians 2:14) explains why. When someone approaches the Word of God from an intellectual point of view it is impossible to understand it, because the Word of God is not a thing - the Word is a Person and His name is Jesus (Hebrews 4:12). He came in the flesh to have relationship with us (John 1:14). Jesus laid down His Divinity as the Son of God, humbled Himself and was born as a little baby, and grew up anointed by God, ministering the love and the power of God to the lost and hurting defeating Satan and his demonic power everywhere He went (Acts 10:38). He was whipped and beaten to take our sicknesses, both physical and mental (Isaiah 53:5-6). He was crucified as a criminal though He had never sinned - the sinless Lamb of God - to pay the price for our sins, and He was raised as the firstborn Son from the dead so that whoever would believe in Him and acknowledge Him as Lord would be saved from eternal damnation, healed and set free (Colossians 1:18-22; Revelation 1:5). After His resurrection, Jesus returned to the Father and sent His Holy Spirit - the Presence of God unto this earth to fill every believer who desires to know God with the knowledge of His glory and His power. It is the Holy Spirit Who reveals Jesus and His Word to us. That is why the things of God are foolishness to the natural man (the intellect), because we can only understand His Word and His way of doing things as we are filled with the Holy Spirit after we have accepted Jesus as Lord. This is what is known as being 'born-again' (John 3:7). We get a fresh start, another chance with God because of Jesus. God does not remember our sins after we repent. He forgives us, and removes our sins as far as the east is from the west (Psalm 103:12). How far is the east from the west? Immeasurable! Praise God, Jesus loves you friend. See more on www.wordofvictory.net.

NOVENA TO ST. ANTHONY

The Saint of Miracles O holy St. Anthony, gentlest of saints, your love for God and charity for your neighbour made you worthy when on earth to possess miraculous powers. Miracles waited on your world which you were ever ready to speak for those in trouble and anxiety. Encouraged by this thought I implore of you to obtain for me my request... (mention request). The answer to my prayer may require a miracle. Even so, you are the Saint of Miracles. O gentle and loving St. Anthony, whose heart was ever full of human sympathy, intercede for me and the gratitude of my heart will ever be yours. Amen.
