OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS.... JOBS FAIR TO OFFER A WIDE RANGE OF POSITIONS

There has never been a better time to see the employment opportunities that are available in Kilarney as the South Kerry Development Partnership are planning their second South Kerry Jobs Fair.

Following on the tremendous success of last year's fair, plans are at an advanced stage for this year's event which will take place on March 2nd at the Great Southern in Killarney. More than 800 people attended the event last year while there were 50 exhibitors with almost 1,000 jobs available. The event is being organised by South Kerry Development Partnership in conjunction with the Killarney Chamber of Tourism & Commerce.

The fair was launched at the Great Southern Hotel this week and SKDP's Enterprise Officer Joanne Griffin said that this year's event promises to be even bigger given the demand for staff across all sectors of the economy in South Kerry. "To date many of last year's exhibitors have indicated they will again attend the event and there are also enquiries from other companies and organisations with positions available" Joanne said.

"We expect there will be a strong interest in the event from many of those who have recently taken up residence in the county and we will be working to facilitate them to attend the event" Joanne added

KILLARNEY INVITES EVERYBODY to Experience More

St Patrick's Festival voluntary chairman Paul Sherry.

The theme for this year's St Patrick's Day festival and parade in Killarney will be very much in keeping with the now corporate logo designed for the town which features the strapline Experience More.

The new brand and logo are part of the Killarney Destination Experience Development project – in association with Fáilte Ireland – which is an exciting and comprehensive five-year development plan for the town.

As well as painting the town green, organisers of the bumper annual festival have encouraged local businesses, clubs, community groups and individuals to join in the festivities this year to help inform everybody of the positive direction Killarney is taking and to promote the new branding to the world.

While based on the Experience More theme, entries for the parade are asked to outline what the Killarney experience means to them, whether it's the lakes and mountains, the national park or the shopping experience, the culture, the music, the stories, the legends, the heroes or the people. "The new brand has been developed with Fáilte Ireland in conjunction with Kerry County Council and multiple other Killarney stakeholders who have a shared vision to make Killarney a best in class tourist destination," said St Patrick's Festival voluntary chairman Paul Sherry.

"We want to make this St Patrick's Day parade the best the town has ever seen and we invite the people to dazzle us with their imagination and interpretation of the theme," he said.

"As always, we ask them to make it visual, make it noisy, create a performance but most of all, have fun as it is our intention to paint the town green and we look forward to everybody joining the party," Mr Sherry said.

The parade will take place on Friday, March 17th commencing at 2.00pm. Applications will be online this year and information can be found on the online portal until Wednesday, March 1st, at https://stpatricksfestivalkillarney.ie/parade-application-form/.

ACTION STATIONS TO PREVENT REPEAT OF LETHAL FIRE

Significant steps have been taken to avoid a repeat of the devastation caused by the wildfire that destroyed a large section of Killarney National Park in 2021, park bosses have confirmed.

The fire in April of that year wiped out 2,500 hectares over a three-day period and it destroyed habitat in what is a UNESCO biosphere reserve.

But an action plan has been put in place and National Parks and Wildlife Service (NPWS) management and staff meet regularly with the fire service to make provision for the safety of the park going forward.

The regional manager of the NPWS southern division, Eamonn Meskell, has assured business leaders in Killarney that early smoke and fire detection appliances have been provided to spot an outbreak before it can get too big.

Delivering the keynote address at the annual general meeting of Killarney Chamber of Tourism and Commerce, Mr Meskell said the NPWS has purchased vehicles fitted with water pumps and they are on site 12 months of the year.

A fire team has also been set up within the park and the staff will be fully trained and kitted out with a specialist UK company engaged to conduct the training.

"We are liaising with four international groups to see the best way to do it," said Mr Meskell who added that a fire plan with detailed maps and the required information has also been prepared.

A helicopter is on retention and, in the event of another fire, it will have Bambi buckets attached to drop on to the affected area.

A review of the damage caused in 2021 is ongoing to determine if the damaged habitat is capable of restoring itself and to ensure all the correct measures are being taken.

"This is an attempt to address the matter and I think we have done it the right way," Mr Meskell said.

The importance of the national park to the Killarney economy was outlined in great detail to chamber members in attendance at the AGM in the Killarney Avenue Hotel.

There were 1.7 million visitors to the 26,000acre park last year with 306,000 visiting Killarney House and Gardens, 106,000 of whom were cyclists.

Counters in place at the key attractions showed that 200,000 people passed through the gates of the park at Knockreer, 106,000 visited Muckross House and 56,000 people enjoyed the traditional farms at Muckross.

In addition, 55,000 people walked Dinis and a further 50,000 climbed Cardiac Hill.

Projects currently underway or in the pipeline include an upgrade of Knockreer House and its Italian-style gardens, a review of the park's biodiversity plan, the development of a major new car park at Muckross House and Gardens and a novel project to attract more osprey birds to the park given that the species have a link with Killarney going back generations.

The glasshouses in Muckross Gardens will be upgraded, toilets for the disabled will be built at Ross Castle, a new thatched roof will be erected on Deenagh Lodge for the first time since 2008 and a signage survey will be undertaken throughout the park. A plan to develop a new loop from Muckross to Dinis, making it safer for pedestrians and cyclists returning along the N71, is another priority.

Work will also be undertaken to prevent erosion on mountains to stop peatlands being washed away and habitats being destroyed.

Outgoing Killarney Chamber of Tourism and Commerce President, Niall Kelleher, said it is breath-taking to see the amount of work that is going on in the park and he thanked Mr Meskell for keeping the chamber and other groups fully briefed on developments.

"Eamonn has achieved a lot more than we ever thought possible in terms of making projects become reality," he said.

"While we acknowledge that the park is important for tourism, it is just as important for everybody that lives and works in the town of Killarney and we saw that during Covid when the park was such a release for everybody," Mr Kelleher said.

"When the chamber advocates in relation to projects for tourism it is equally important for the town's people. What's good for tourism is good for the town of Killarney," he added.

The Future of Kerry Politics as leading figures exit

Former Sinn Féin Councillor Toiréasa Ferris

The fall-out from the Brendan Griffin affair continues.

There was a fine interview on Radio na Gaeltachta's Saol O'Dheas programme with former Sinn Féin Councillor Toiréasa Ferris on her reasons for quitting politics after as many years as Brendan as a very committed local political representative.

Toiréasa (42) didn't reach the heights of Dail Eireann. But she could have and we all know that. Of similar age to Brendan who is nearly 41 and with similar family situation - married, two children - Toireasa made the point in the interview with Helen Ni Shé that Brendan's burning ambition was to be a politician while her vision was not confined to that route.

She is putting the same energy now into other, more satisfying areas of life professional as well as academic and domestic. There is activism as well as life outside politics is what she said in the most interesting of interviews "as Gaeilge" of which she has a fine command.

Interestingly, while it was well known Toiréasa had left Sinn Féin, that she will not necessarily vote along her old party lines was not known widely. That means Ferris has left politics full stop, while Griffin says he will canvass for his party Fine Gael.

Regardless there is something amiss with politics when intelligent,able and committed people in their prime are quitting politics in Kerry. Or, as was also in the case of Listowel 's Aoife Thornton previously, are not even entertaining the thought of running for higher office. Certainly Kerry is too far geographically from the centre of power and this is one huge reason.

My own preference for a regional Munster government has never got a look in which would ease the over concentration on Dublin. I can't understand why in this era of EU led politics and power when all our Taoisigh seem to do is run to Brussels for a clap on the back and run home to implement "international law" we are not returning to the "Cuige" or four regions. Let Dublin be the seat of Leinster and nothing more. Having an Ulster council too would resolve the North overnight.

Geography however is only one reason. That politics may be tired and too sluggish and has become ineffective and perhaps only a mere show to entertain the masses is more worrying still.One thing neither Griffin or Ferris explained is whether they believe politics works any more and whether they think politicians national or local in Kerry have any real power. Neither addressed this central question, I felt, and it would be good to hear from them on this.

Will Killarney get what it deserves from fund?

Kerry is getting four million from the community recognition fund for hosting refugees. This is good news. My burning question is how much will Killarney get? We have twice as many refugees as Tralee or any other town.

It will be up to our local councillors to argue the case for Killarney.

It appears the money is being used for ancillary services like walkways and pathways and parks. What we really cry out for is more GPs, more nurses, when we fall and cut our knees and more teachers opticians and dentists to ease the day to day situation for all of us having to join even longer queues than previously.

The latest opinion poll suggests most people think we have too many refugees and the media is not acknowledging this and is biased. It is certainly the case that twenty years ago with the first immigration there was more robust debate in the papers and tv and I know this first hand from covering public meetings in and around Kerry at the time. And to be fair open debate worked. And integration has been good for the most part.

Currently it does seem there is a whiff of top down propaganda and that anyone asking a sensible question risks being clubbed over the head and labelled racist and "far right".

The problem with labels is they are often unjust. And the concerns I hear in Killarney and some of which I share have nothing to do with fascist regimes returning to Europe and are simply common sense and the expression of reasonable rational fears and annoyances.

What all this labeling and silencing will do is drive people into thinking the far right may be "nearly right" after all!

Meanwhile there were three people in our town sleeping in doorways on a Sunday morning recently. The council has no emergency accommodation in Killarney for homeless people as this column has previously highlighted on foot of a motion by Maura Healy-Rae. Is it too much to ask that capacity be retained in either public buildings or hotels in this town for migrant and local homelessness?

Blueways as Highways

Councillor Michael Cahill (FF) had an interesting motion at the latest meeting of the Kenmare Municipal District. The creation of a « blueway » all the way from the mouth of the Laune by Fossa, Tomies, Dunloe and onto Killorglin for over twenty kilometers would be a major asset, he said.

It would help grow tourist numbers and create employment. But why stop at that? It surely is the case that travel by internal waterways, which is on the cards in other countries, can be considered here too. Canals, rivers and lakes that are navigable and or which may be dredged are all means by which we can reduce our commuting on roads.

We already have engines on the lakes of Killarney after a long and heated battle and there is still some regret engines were allowed, it must be acknowledged. So, there is no real impediment to opening the waterways and building piers across the lakes to facilitate commuting for locals on ordinary journeys as well as for leisure trips for tourists.

Already the greenways in and around the country and indeed Tralee are being utilised for daily commuting. These safe cycleways have opened up a whole new means of transport for school and work travel. The waterways as blueways would also serve as highways, given the proper investment. Increasingly we are being asked to think outside the box and we will follow Cllr Cahill's call for a feasibility study for the Laune Blueway with interest.

The creation of a Blueway all the way from the mouth of the Laune by Fossa, Tomies, Dunloe and onto Killorglin for over twenty kilometers would be a major asset.

Chamber appoints new senior executive

Killarney Chamber of Tourism new senior executive to oversee the day-to-day running of the business organisation. Newmarket, Co Cork native and Killarney based Bridget O'Keeffe, formerly of Fexco, will spearhead the chamber going forward and she will work closely with events manager Katy Jacobi and the chamber executive.

Chamber recently engaged the services of Repucon Consulting to put a plan in place to ensure it remains a strong voice for the business community.

Priority actions going forward include:

 Boosting chamber membership numbers to ensure a stronger voice with an initial target of 15 per cent • Advocate, influence and support future public funding expenditure projects to address key issues such as parking, traffic management and public realm developments Ensuring a coherent approach to the reputational management of Killarney

Going forward, chamber will also be forming a number of subcommittees to oversee essential areas such as membership and management, brand communication and reputational management, advocacy, events and sustainability.

Outgoing president Niall Kelleher remarked: "Bringing the chamber to exactly where the members want it to be will take time, it will take perseverance and it will take hard work but that work will have to be done - it will be done and we will get there one step at a time

He added: "We have one chance to get this new governance and development plan right at the first opportunity but we must show a little patience along the way and we must do it properly by making an effort every day of the week".

In the year ahead, to help oversee the transition and to support the new senior executive, the duties of the chamber president will be shared by hotelier Pádraig Treacy and restaurateur Johnny McGuire.

More homebuyers in Kerry now eligible for Local Authority Home Loan

he Minister for Housing, Local Government and Heritage, Darragh O'Brien, has announced significant improvements to the Local Authority Home Loan that will result in more people in Kerry being eligible to apply for the State-backed mortgage. The prices of homes eligible for a Local Authority Home Loan and income limits of those eligible to apply for a loan are being increased.

From 01 March 2023, house price limits for homes in Kerry that are eligible for the Local Authority Home Loan will increase by €25,000 from €250,000 to €275,000. Income limits for joint applicants will increase to €85,000 and the income limit for a single applicant in Kerry will increase to €70.000.

The Local Authority Home Loan was launched in January 2022 as part of Housing for All. It supports creditworthy borrowers who are unable to get finance from commercial banks to buy a home. It can be used for new, second hand or self-build homes. It means those on more moderate incomes are helped by the State to achieve homeownership, a key aim for this Government.

Since February 2018 over 3,300 people have got on the property ladder through the Local Authority Home Loan and its predecessor the Rebuilding Ireland Home Loan.

Grandparents Steal the Show in Catholic Schools Week

Presentation Castleisland recently celebrated its annual Catholic Schools Week with a host of events and activities in the school. The theme for the week was 'Walking Together in Faith & Love', a theme chosen to celebrate the gift of education and recognise the love and generosity of the entire school community: students, staff and home. Each morning, staff and students took a few moments pause from class for prayer and reflection. Visit to Nano Nagle Place

First year students embarked on a day trip to visit Nano Nagle Place in Cork City. This was a wonderful occasion for students to connect with the origins of the Presentation Order and appreciate the life and legacy of Nano Nagle. Religion teacher Ms Daly outlined "Nano Nagle dedicated her life to the education of young Irish boys and girls, and it is thanks to her that the Presentation Sisters set up a secondary school in Castleisland in 1846. First years develop a new appreciation of the school and all that it does when they can connect with its founder, and they carry this appreciation with them throughout their school life here". Students and their teachers enjoyed their visit to the museum, the heritage buildings and the walled gardens.

Grandparents Day

On the final day of Catholic Schools school Week, the celebrated Grandparents' Day. Student presentations of their families were on display throughout the school. Grandparents of first and transition years attended a prayer service and performances by the choir in the school hall. There were smiles all round as many grandparents took a step back in time to recall their own educational experiences in the school. Bishop Ray Browne gave a blessing to all, and spoke of the special relationship between a child and grandparent in passing on the faith. The Presentation Sisters also joined in on the occasion to take a trip down memory lane. Principal Mr. Dargan highlighted the important role that grandparents play in guiding students on their journeys of faith and inclusion in society. He added "Students are very proud of their grandparents, and hosting an event such as this reminds us all of how family and school can work together and build relationships that support student development, learning and wellbeing. We look forward to hosting further events that build connection with family and the community."

HOLIDAY HOME INSURANCE JOHN HEALY FROM HEALY INSURANCE ON WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT HOLIDAY HOME INSURANCE

If you own a holiday home in Ireland you will need specific holiday home insurance in place for your Buildings, Contents and Public Liability. The use of the property will impact on the quotes given, eg family use, seasonally let out, or let out using airnbnb. It should be noted that some underwriters do not accept Airbnb use. Here are some tips when buying Holiday Home Insurance including some cost saving tips. Buildings - Your Property should be insured for its rebuild cost not the market value. Rebuilding costs have increased substantially over the past 12 months. There is a handy rebuilding calculator on www.scsi.ie where you can calculate your 16 | 10.02.23

Underinsurance can have serious consequences in the event of a claim so it is advisable to review annually and get professional advice from an Insurance expert.

Contents - Remember an item of contents is something that would go with you if you moved house. For example a dining table is part of contents but a fitted kitchen is part of buildings. You should value your contents for replacement value.

Review - Holiday home Insurance rates use many data streams so it is crucial to ensure that your details are correct when quoting. Important factors are your Eircode, seasonally let or family use, intruder and smoke alarms, year of construction and flat roof details if applicable. Shopping around – When shopping around it is important to understand that direct insurers and banks will only sell their own products. They may not be able to offer you choice or advise you on your options. It is also worth noting that you are free to move your Insurance from your mortgage provider, we do this on a regular basis and succeed in securing large savings for these customers.

Use a Broker - As experts in Home Insurance we understand the market conditions and can advise which Insurer or which product is most suitable for your specific needs. Aside from understanding the discounts than can be achieved in each case we also negotiate bulk discounts from Insurers to get the best prices for our customers.

Ben Quinlan RELEASES NEW SONG for Valentines Day

Killarney singer-songwriter Ben Quinlan has released a song to celebrate St. Valentines Day from his new album Awake.

"For me personally the song is about having found my soulmate. The love of my life, my soul mate who I feel complete with", Ben told Killarney Outlook.

"Being without my soulmate is very emotionally painful as I sing in my 'when I'm without you I`m down in the blues' and ' 247 my heart rings of joy for you ' and ' my soul comes alive when I'm with you'This song is about the finding your soul mate and

Danish film, Another Round to feature at BEAUFORT FILM FESTIVAL

Beaufort Film Night returns for another screening Which will take place at The Inn Between Bar, Beaufort, on Saturday 18th February at 8.30pm. Danish comedy-drama Another Round is the feature on the night. It stars Mads Mikkelsen, an actor wellknown to international audiences from his Bond villain role in Casino Royale to his appearance in the current Carlsberg ads. Martin (Mads Mikkelsen) and his three teacher friends all seem to have hit a middle-age rut in their lives. When one of the group tells the others about an obscure philosophy proposing that humans aren't born with enough alcohol in their blood and so cannot reach their full potential, the men decide to test the theory for themselves.

As each of the gang initially observes positive benefits from maintaining the required blood-alcohol level of 0.05%, it is not long before they decide to push the boundaries of their experiment ...

This entertaining but ultimately thought-provoking comedy-drama explores friendship, masculinity and what it means to be happy. The film won the Best International Feature Film Oscar as well as Best Film, Best Actor and Best Director at the European Film Awards.

Beaufort Film Night is a non-profit community organisation founded by local film enthusiasts whose aim is to screen cultural English language and international language films, fostering an interest in and appreciation of these category of films, films that normally don't get a general release screening in Kerry. Films screened at Beaufort Film Night are carefully curated in order to appeal to a general audience. Beaufort Film Night is working in conjunction with Access Cinema, the Arts Council funded organisation which assists film clubs and film nights in Ireland with their screenings.

Beaufort Film Night would like to thank The Inn Between Bar for providing a venue for this cultural and entertainment opportunity. Admission to the film is €7 which will go towards covering the motion picture licence fee. Another Round has a 12A Certificate. Further information can be viewed on Beaufort Film Night's Facebook page (BeaufortFilmNight) and Twitter page (@Beaufort_Film).

THE 'MOCKS' ARE A USEFUL TRIAL RUN BUT THE REAL EXAM TAKES PLACE IN JUNE

THE MOCKS

The 'Mocks' or 'Practice Exams' are usually held in schools during February. They have nothing to do with the State Examinations Commission (SEC) and the exam papers are provided and corrected by independent educational groups. It's worth doing the 'Mocks' for the experience but don't let them distract you from the State Exams in June. Don't burn yourself out at this early stage by overestimating the 'Mocks.'

TRIAL RUN

The 'Mocks' provide an opportunity to work on your presentation, timing, answering techniques and current knowledge. They are usually marked externally so they provide you with an impartial assessment of your readiness for the State Exams. It's an opportunity to see if you can deliver the required information within the time allowed on a neatly presented script.

LOGISTICS

Avail of the 'Mocks' to become familiar with the logistics and technicalities of each exam paper. The quality of your answering is the core of any exam so learn from the 'Mocks' how to approach each paper. Keep the content of your answer relevant to the question asked. Read each question carefully before deciding which ones to answer. Be concise, accurate and relevant. Be familiar with the format of each paper well before each exam session. Know how the paper is presented. What topics are examined? How many guestions must be answered? What styles of question can you expect on the exam paper? Be familiar with the choices available on the paper. Is one or more questions compulsory? Be particularly careful about a paper, which is subdivided into subsections. Without prior knowledge of such a paper you could easily fail to address the #### relevant number of questions.

TIME TRIAL

Use the 'Mocks' to test your allocation of time. The 'Mocks' are a great time trial. Go into the 'Mocks' determined to attempt the required number of questions. Work out in advance the approximate time you have for each question. The allocation of time to each question should be proportionate to the marks available for that question. Let me emphasise that if you attempt the required number of questions, you will maximise your grade in that subject.

INSTRUCTIONS

When your 'Mock' exam paper is handed to you read the instructions carefully. Spend a few minutes reading the entire paper. Keep to your pre-prepared answering plan and once you have made your choice of questions, start with a question you can answer well. When you have finished each question, reread it to ensure that you haven't omitted any part. Allow a few minutes at the end of the exam to read back over your answers and to check your numbering and presentation. Stay in the exam hall until the time is up even if you are finished early as some extra information may come to you. Every mark counts so don't leave any after you!

PERFECT PRACTICE

When your marked 'Mock' papers are returned, go over them to identify your strengths and weaknesses as outlined above. The old maxim of making your mistakes in the 'Mocks' and getting things right in the State Exams next June is as true as ever. As the saying goes, practice makes perfect and the 'Mocks' are the perfect practice!

CHECKLIST

- The 'Mocks' are a useful trial run for the State Exams

- The 'Mocks' are usually marked externally

- The 'Mocks' tell you how much you currently know for the State Exams

- The 'Mocks' tell you how much you still need to do for the State Exams

- Learn from the 'Mocks' how best to approach each paper

- Use the 'Mocks' to test your allocation of time

- Go over your marked 'Mock' papers to identify your strengths and weaknesses

>THANK YOU

St. Joseph's Conference Rathmore sincerely thank all who donated food to our Food Appeal. This year we involved all our local schools and we thank Scoil Phobail Sliabh Luachra, Holy Family N.S., Gneeveguilla N.S., Knocknagree N.S.,Ballydesmond N.S., Meentogues N.S., Shrone N.S., Hollymount N.S., Danu Childcare, for their generous donations of food which enabled us to fill all our food hampers. We thank the staff of Teach losagáin,Rathmore, for allowing us to use a room to make up the hampers. We also wish to thank all those who donated very generous hampers and lots of toys for young children. We were overwhelmed with your generosity and your food donations enabled us to help families in need in our area.

In conjunction with our annual Church Gate collection this year ourvolunteers fundraised outside Kearneys Centra, Ballydesmond on Fri. 9th Dec. and outside Kelly's Londis, Hickeys Centra and O'Keeffe's Circle K forecourt, Rathmore on Saturday 10th December – the response to this activity was fantastic and we wish to thank everybody who supported us on both days.

The response to our Church Gate Collection which was held on week end of December 10th and 11th at the four churches in Rathmore Parish and the Church in Ballydesmond was tremendous and again we sincerely thank all who came to support us and who gave generously to the collection. We also acknowledge and thank you for donations to our Credit Union and Bank accounts. We wish to thank Shrone N.S. who kindly donated the proceeds from their 'Christmas Jumper' day to our collection. It has been a difficult year for many families and because of the great generosity of the community in our area to support our organisation; we are always in a position to help those in need. ## MONEY MATTERS..

By Dermot Cronin, Financial Advisor

WHEN CAN YOU ACCESS YOUR PENSION & WHAT ARE YOUR OPTIONS WHEN YOU WANT TO RETIRE?

You can normally get access to your pension from age 60, a lot of the rules depend on whether you are an employee or self employed. If you are coming close to retirement then you are probably wondering what options you have when you want to get access to your pension. It depends on what type of pension you have but generally there are four options:

Tax Free Cash: Most people will be entitled to a tax free lump sum, the amount varies however generally you will get at least 25% of the value of your pension in a tax free cash lump sum.

Taxable Cash: You may also be able to take sum of your pension in taxable cash.

Annual Pension: This is a guaranteed income usually paid monthly for the rest of your life that is purchased with the money left after your tax free lump sum, this is subject to taxation.

Approved Retirement Funds: You may be entitled to keep some of your money in an approved retirement fund, money can be taken from the fund to give you a regular income, usually monthly. This is subject to taxation also. Taxation at retirement is often much lower than when you are working.

It is extremely important that you take your time and have all the options explained to you in plain simple English and that you understand all your options clearly before you make your final decision. As well as the above there is much more to be discussed about your pension. You should discuss your retirement options with a financial advisor who has access to a number of different pension providers before making any decisions, he or she will help you with the above options and any other queries you may have.

To discuss the above or any other matter Dermot Cronin QFA can be contacted at 0646622775 or dermotcroninifa@gmail.com

>DARRAGH ROCHE

Kerry managed their first win of the 2023 National League, with a comfortable win over Monaghan at Fitzgerald's Stadium this afternoon. Darragh Roche was once again one of Kerry's best on the day. He was on form from the off, firing over with his first shot with his left foot, despite the close attentions of several Monaghan defenders. His next score was another beauty, this time with his right foot, again finding the target with ease. He also set up a couple of more scores Up, with his quick hands finding players in space. Even a taking a high tackle near half time didn't stop him after half time. He got the crucial first goal 4 minutes into the second half. Faced with a one on one with Rory Beggan, he calmly dummied dropping the ball to his foot, sending Beggan down, before rounding him and rolling the ball into the net. A cool finish that pushed Kerry clear in the game. Congratulations to Darragh and Kerry on the win.

TRUST YOUR INNER COMPASS

Each one of us has an inner compass — our own internal guidance system. How we access this inner knowing is different for everybody, however, most people say that they just know when something feels right for them. This may be felt in your gut, lower belly, heart or throughout your entire body. Learning to listen (and to trust) our own inner wisdom can help us to make decisions which align with more of our true, authentic self. At some time in each of our lives we have all experienced that feeling of not following our gut and we find ourselves saying, "I knew that I shouldn't have done such and such but I didn't listen to myself."

Take time every day to sit quietly and just focus on your breathing. Ask a question in your mind and simply allow the answer to find you. This may be later in the day or week. Bear in mind that it may come in the form of something you read or see on Television. It also may come in the form of feeling an inner excitement or "pull" towards something which lights you up. Then take small steps towards what your inner compass is telling you. Keep checking in with how you feel as you follow your inner guidance and enjoy the process!

Fake your Face Tan for that Sun Kissed Glow!

Tan adds color to your complexion giving you an instant "feel good" and you can go without foundation. Look for high-grade solutions that are designed for sensitive skin and are formulated specifically for your face.

Apply in the evening to cleansed skin so it has time to activate and depending on the tan solution you can sometimes apply a light layer of moisturiser before bed. Apply moisturiser to your brows and hairline to protect and avoid visible lines. If you have blonde hair wear a hair net if using spray. Avoid using a mousse near your eyes as it may contain alcohol which can cause irritation.

Gradual tanners or tanning drops that you mix with your moisturiser are designed to create a more subtle colour change and are usually alcohol-free. They can also contain anti-ageing ingredients and antioxidants to target specific skin concerns. St. Tropez Bronzing Face Mist €30 is enriched with natural ingredients and hyaluronic acid but lightweight so will not clog pores or cause breakouts.

FEELINGS OF OVERWHELM

Plan and prep your day. Just a little bit of this even in your head looking at your work schedule and saying "right I'll do this first and that next etc etc...." Really helps me when I feel like I'm going to trip over myself with work load. As the saying goes Rome wasn't built in a day but still it needs to be built so prepping and planning out these wheels in motion so things get prioritised & stuff gets done.... Just not all in one go.

It's ok to say "NO". I'll admit again I was the worlds worst for saying "yes" and taking on more than I could chew but I must say I'm getting much better at saying "no" to anything outside my reach and now the only time I say yes and it's too much is because I may have thought I could handle it but I learn from each experience and try not overstretch myself next time. It's important to remember you are only 1 person and you can't be everything to everyone. So say "NO" to anything you can't do or have time to do and delegate and refer on to someone who can do it or help out.

Don't be afraid to talk and seek help off someone you trust to have a "moan" and just get off your chest. Now there is a difference between a "moan" and you just being a pain and in the ass giving out.... and I think we all know the difference here. If it makes you feel worse to talk about it then it's too much whereas if you feel better from speaking it out then it's good.

And if it's beyond you and all these small tips don't make a difference to you. Don't be afraid to seek out professional advice and reach out to a Someone qualified in this field of mental health to help. Get referrals from people you trust and you know have benefited from speaking with this professional. We would be happy to help advise and refer if needed so be afraid to reach out and ask.

For tips on advice on any of the issues raised please call or text in confidence 087-7643449

SHOW YOUR EYES SOME LOVE THIS VALENTINES

It's easy to overlook your eyes when it comes to caring for your health, but there are simple things you can do every day to help keep your eyes in shape. Here are some easy ways to get started.

Have regular sight tests

As well as an eye health check, a sight test might help detect signs of underlying general health conditions, such as diabetes, high cholesterol and high blood pressure.

Eat healthily

Eating a healthy, balanced diet reduces your risk of eye disease. Include lots of omega-3 fats, found in oily fish, and lutein, found in dark-green, leafy vegetables such as spinach and kale. Vitamins A, C and E are also helpful, so eat at least five portions of fruit and vegetables a day.

Stop smoking

Many people are unaware of the link between smoking and eye disease. If you smoke, stop. Smoking significantly increases the risk of developing eye diseases, such as cataracts and age-related macular degeneration

Wear prescribed glasses

Many eye and vision problems develop or increase as we get older. Contrary to the myth, wearing glasses and contact lenses doesn't make your eyesight worse - they help your eyes work more efficiently. Take regular breaks

When you work on something close up, such as a computer, tablet or smartphone, your eye muscles are active. Follow the 20/20/20 rule - every 20 minutes, look at something 20 feet away, for 20 seconds. And don't forget to blink, as this helps prevent your eyes drying out

Wear sunglasses

As well as making your vision more comfortable in the sun, sunglasses protect your eyes from UV light. When choosing sunglasses, you should always make sure that they carry the CE mark. Exposure to UV when young does most harm, so protect children with sunglasses, as well as a hat and sunblock.

Avoid dry eyes

Eyes become dry, tired and sore if you are not producing enough tears or you have poor-quality tears. Lubricating eye drops can soothe irritation and reduce discomfort. You may find taking omega-3 supplements helps over time. Drink plenty of water and remember to blink often. If your eyes are persistently dry, tell your optometrist.

Research your family history Many eye conditions run in families, from simple long and short sight to more serious diseases, such as glaucoma. Knowledge of problems with sight can help detect a condition before it becomes serious.

Remember your optometrist is the first person you should visit if you have any eye concerns. They can assess the problem and, if necessary, refer you to the right place for treatment.

Killarney Cougars 94 SETU Carlow 87

Killarney Cougars produced a super opening quarter which laid the foundations for a deserving victory over a battling SET University Carlow who pushed the Killarney side all the way to the final buzzer in a very competitive game at the Presentation Gym on Saturday evening.

The visitors, well placed in the top four playoff places throughout the season were immediately under pressure by the Cougars and with a strong home support there to welcome new American signing Martin Anthony Hill from Minnesota. The Cougars lined out with the unavailable Alex Fleming, Darren Townes and Captain Bill Wiseman, with the everpresent Jack Lynch taking over as Captain.

The Cougars opened the scoring with a great drive to the board by Esebio Strijdhaftig and two consecutive baskets by Tommy Bowler followed by two three pointers by Bowler saw Cougars ahead 14-9 inside the opening three minutes. The visitors responded with big threes from Conor Harkins but the Cougars tails were up with Jack Lynch and Marty Hill adding three pointers the Cougars were well head 29-16 to the delight of the home support with Cougars finishing the quarter well leading 32-20. The Cougars remained in control through the second quarter with a similar pattern to the opening quarter with a high tempo game by the Cougars keeping Carlow under pressure the Cougars increased the lead thanks to Andrew Fitzgerald 8 points and a further 6 points each by Tommy Bowler and Marty Hill who was orchestrating the Cougars performance to lead 59-40 at the half time break, with Carlow struggling to make an impact with 6 pts from the hard working Armands Vaikuls their best performer in the second quarter.

SETU Carlow came out energised for the third quarter, chasing the Cougars 19 point lead and they produced a strong response to dominate much of the quarter through Ben Kelly Flynn 12 points, Armands Vailkuls 8 points and two three pointers by Conor Harkins with as Cougars failed to find any of their first half momentum as the big lead was reduced to five points 74-69 with Marty Hill adding to his tally with 7 points to keep Cougars ahead at the end of the third quarter and the scene was set for an exciting final quarter.

An action packed final quarter saw both sides chasing the win the teams went basket for basket with a big three by Conor Harkin reducing the arrears to 76-73 with just 7 minutes remaining before a basket by the impressive Conor Flynn steadied the Cougars to lead 78-73 with 6 minutes on the clock followed by an excellent basket under pressure by Esebio Stijdhaftig gave some breathing space to the home side with frustration for the visitors saw an unsportsmanlike and a technical foul on Armand Vaikuls saw him ejected as Cougars were starting to regain control to lead thanks to two quick baskets by Marty Hill Cougars to lead 87-74 with 4 minutes remaining. The closing minutes saw a determined effort by the visitors but the Cougars held firm and with foul trouble on both sides the teams both were going to the free throw line with Cougars just doing enough to ensure a first home win of 2023 in a very entertaining game.

Next up another home game and a Kerry v Dublin clash as the Dublin Lions visit Killarney next Saturday night .

Park opened the scoring on 20 mins with a well worked move. Shane Tomlinson hit back for Athletic just before the break with a long range effort that found the top corner. Athletic found themselves behind again just after the restart to which the response was instant, a goal from Luke Foley and a brace from Darragh Fitzgerald saw Athletic race into a deserved 4-2 lead. #### Killarney Athletic Bs 7-0 Lisard Wanders B

Goals from Darren O'Doherty, Shane Lynch, Jason O'Grady, Cian Tobin, Adam O'Connell

Killarney Athletic Bs came up against a stubborn Lisard Wanderers in ferndale on Sunday afternoon. After a period of pressure Darren O'Doherty found the back of the net after a sublime cross from Conor Collins and this seemed to open the floodgates. Minutes later after a delicate Jason O'Grady through ball, Shane Lynch found himself one on one with the Lisard keeper and he calmly found the bottom corner. Just before the break Jason O'Grady latched onto a loose ball in the box and made it 3-0 at the break. Lisard kept their shape well in the second half but after Darren O'Doherty dispatched a penalty he won himself and a number of fresh legs from the Athletic bench the game was soon put to bed. Shane Lynch set up substitute Adam O'Connell for a fifth before Cian Tobin rose highest to header in at the back post. Athletics clean sheet was nearly wiped out when the Lisard striker slid his finish past 'stand in' keeper, Ryan O'Carroll but Cillian O'Regan was there to make a last ditch clearance. With the last kick of the game O'Doherty completed his hat trick and Killarney Athletic ran out 7-0 winners. UNDER 13 NATIONAL CUP

In second period Wicklow lads to their credit came bk at athletic and had their own chances but Ethan Clark, Sean Lyne, paddy Noonan, Adam Moynihan, Micheal O Sullivan and Eoin Bennett and Callum Cox all defended brilliantly all day. In midfield Jayden Hurley, Brendan McHugh and Cian Hegarty covered loads of ground to keep the tie in the balance. And up front Eric Corcoran and James Callaghan Max Moynihan all made an impact on the tie. The winning goal came from a Wicklow throw in where Jayden Hurley intercepted the ball played in Cian Hegarty who then found Eric Corcoran who kept his cool to finish into the Wicklow Rovers net. O Sullivan got his reward just before half time when a combination of good play by Alan Mrotex & Jack O Leary set Killian up for a fine team goal .Odhran Leslie & Fionn Clifford were also impressive on the day.

The U17s lost out to Iveragh FC 2-3 at Murt Scott Park on Saturday afternoon. The game was tied at 1-1 at the break with Gearoid Quirke equalising on the stroke of half time after a Robert kelly free kick into the box.

Iveragh led 1-3 on 70 minutes but Colm O'Sullivan set up an exciting finish when he finished a Michael o Sullivan corner kick. On the day in a brave effort Damien O Connor, Jack Dicker, Eoin Walshe, Luke Henderson, Micheal Fitzgerald & Goalkeeper Sean O'Sullivan were excellent.

Mark Carey signs for Kerry FC ahead of the 2023 season

Kerry FC has announced the signing of Mark Carey from Cork City ahead of the SSE Airtricity League campaign which opens up in just 10 days' time with a clash against Cobh Ramblers in Mounthawk Park, Tralee.

Carey, a nineteen-year-old centre back is a welcome addition to the squad as preparations intensify ahead of the opening game next week. The young Cork man signs from Cork City FC's academy where he played in the Under 19 League of Ireland for the past 2 seasons. Previous to his stint in Cork City, Carey played under Darren Delaney in Cobh Ramblers at under 17 level. Mark also holds an SFAI National Cup medal at under 15 level while playing for College Corinthians.

Following his official signing for Kerry FC, Mark Carey said "I'm excited to play with Kerry FC's first-ever senior SSE Airtricity League of Ireland team. I can tell by the attitudes of the coaches, players and all the staff here in Kerry FC that we are going to achieve great things this year and for many years to come. I'm looking forward to getting started."

First Team Manager Billy Dennehy said "Mark is a young player coming into us from Cork. I was made aware of Mark by my brother Darren who coached Mark going back a few years ago now with the Cobh under 17s. He is a player with all the attributes to play at the top level but ultimately like all young players his development and his growth will all depend on his attitude and commitment to improving over the coming months. He is definitely a young player we are very excited to have here in Kerry FC"

OUTLOOK BASKETBALL

INSUREMYVAN.IE NATIONAL BASKETBALL LEAGUE - UL ARENA SCOTTS LAKERS 68 LIMERICK SPORT EAGLES 116

It was a tough night at the office for Scotts Lakers as they struggled to live with a Limerick Sport Eagles side who were absolutely rampant from the get go and although there was a brief rally in the second quarter at no stage did the result look in doubt. The Limerick side had lost Manny Payton to Chile pre Christmas and there may have been a hint that they would find it hard to replace such a talismanic figure. But in Brendan Barry they found a perfect replacement. He tormented the Lakers in the opening quarter, hitting five three pointers, and although not as prolific for the remainder of the game he still popped up with a big score at his leisure. Besides Barry eight other members of the Eagles squad contributed to the scoreboard and in horse racing parlance, they won pulling up.

It was a disruptive week for the Lakers with centre Aron Walker returning home and without the influential Ronan Collins and Jack O Sullivan they struggled to get any foothold on the game. Nikola lvkovic got the Eagles flying out of the nest early and alongside Barry and the imposing Jason Killeen they opened up a 12-5 advantage. Paul Clarke opened brightly for the Lakers, hitting their first five points and the game settled for a period with Jack Ferguson, Marko Bencic and Rui Saravia all netting. At 20-11 the game was still in hand but the home side ,with Barry netting three rapid fire threes and Sammy Bah and Stephen King also scoring, opened up a game-defining gap. Eoin Carroll and Paul Clarke netted further baskets and Ferguson's last score of the quarter saw Limerick lead 38-18.

The second quarter saw the Lakers play with more abandon and spirit and with three minutes to go in the half the gap was down to eight, 49-41. Between Clarke, Ferguson, Bencic and Senan O Leary they combined for six three pointers and Eoin Carroll added further to his tally. At this juncture the game looked well poised but Jason Killeen, Jack Coyne, lvkovic and Ryan Walsh unmercifully put their boots down and all the Lakers could muster in reply was two Mark Sheehan free throws. A 17-2 scoring run had Limerick almost out of sight, 66-43.

There was no threat of a let up in the third quarter, with Killeen, lvkovic and Barry to the fore but Jamie O Sullivan and Bencic did hit threes, Saravia and O Leary also netting and the lead was increased to thirty five, 93-58. The fourth quarter got no better as Ryan Walsh began to enjoy himself by running amok with 11 points. Mark Sheehan did hit a three , Ferguson, Clarke and Saravia also adding points but truth to be told it was a painful wait for the final buzzer for the visitors . When it did eventually sound the scoreboard did not make pretty reading at 116-68 on a night to forget for the Lakers. The result puts a huge dent in their play off hopes and with the Limerick Celtics defeating Fr Matthews in the other top four clash it is the Limerick sides that now hold sway in the Southern Conference.

Paul Clarke and Jack Ferguson had 13 each, Marko Bencic(12), Senan O Leary(10), Rui Saravia(6), Jamie O Sullivan(5), Mark Sheehan(5), Eoin Carroll.

For the high flying Eagles Brendan Barry had a game high 29 points, Jason Killeen and Ryan Walsh had 17 apiece and Nikola Ivkovic (13).

The Lakers are on the road again this weekend with what must be one of the first, if not the first, trip to Drogheda for a Killarney basketball side. The Drogheda Wolves are a new addition to the National Basketball league and they certainly have made their presence felt. They sit just outside the top two in the Northern Conference and notably travelled to Limerick pre Christmas and defeated the Eagles. They are yet to win in 2023, losing surprisingly to Team North West and more recently Ulster University. But they will be looking to the recently arrived Lemmie Howard Jnr, Tiago Pereira and Stephen Safo to help them bounce back. Bouncing back is something the Lakers will have to do as well in the Ballymakenny College gym. Tip off is 7.30pm.

MISSQUOTE.IE WOMENS BASKETBALL LEAGUE ST PAULS 108

SETU CARLOW 77

KILLARNEY SPORTS AND LEISURE CENTRE SATURDAY FEBRUARY 4TH 4.30PM

St Pauls were made to work all the way by a game SETU Carlow side before they eventually made their superiority count and cemented their place at the top of the MissQuote.ie Women's Basketball Southern Conference table. With Portlaoise Panthers overcoming Limerick Celtics on Saturday afternoon there is now clear daylight between St Pauls and the Limerick side in third place. With two progressing from the Conference to the playoffs you would stop short of saying it's a steering job from now on for St Pauls but the truth is four wins from their last six games would put them in the box seat. But if every team they play carries the same ethic as this SETU Carlow side they know they will have to continue to do the basics right and play to the standard that has them on the doorstep of the playoffs.

In a tight first quarter they would be thankful for the presence of Rheanne O Shea, who shot thirteen points alone in that period, and they were all needed as Carlow made a very bright opening. Miah Ryan and the heralded Scout Frame had the visitors in an 6-4 lead when O Shea landed the first of her three pointers. Kiely Gelston threw in one of her own to wrestle back the early initiative but Sofia Paska and the recently introduced Lorraine Scanlon hit back to make it 10-9 for the home side. O Shea struck again with another three but Miah Ryan, Gelston and Frame kept Carlow with their noses in front at 21-19 with two minutes to go. After a mid quarter siesta O Shea came back on to hit a further seven points and Teieda ensured Pauls were in front at quarters end, 28-25.

Siofra O Shea , fresh from leading the Kerry Ladies to National league success over Donegal, was introduced at the start of the second quarter as Pauls made the stronger start as Teieda and Paska made it 34-26. Rheanne O'Shea was up to her tricks again with another three and Lynn Jones then followed suit with one of her own. Scout Frame was battling to keep Carlow in it with good support from Emma Carrolland they reeled the lead back to five, 41-36. But Pauls kept the tempo up with Lynn Jones netting from downtown as did Aisling O Mahony. Lorraine Scanlon, fresh after her Kerry Ladies football cameo, also found the target alongside Paska and not even a late Emer Dunne basket could prevent Pauls leading 54-40 at half time.

Carlow started the third quarter with abandon and baskets from Scout Frame and Miah Ryan closed the gap, 58-49. Jessica Quirke was now on court for St Pauls as Paska and Lynn Jones sensed the danger to push the home side clear again. Jones was enjoying her best outing of the season and the lead was now out to seventeen, 71-54. Emer Dunne and Lorraine Scanlon exchanged baskets but Pauls led 77-56 heading into the final quarter.

Yuleska Tejeda took the fourth quarter by the scruff of the neck as a fresher home side preyed on every mistake a tiring Carlow side was making. Having been reintroduced Aisling O Mahony hit from downtown and Tejeda was now rampant and scoring at will. Joanna Ryan, to her credit, never gave up the fight, her quick fire eight points cut the gap to twenty-one, 88-67, but Rheanne O'Shea with a three and Tejeda really put the tin hat on it with points in quick succession. With the game safe the bench was emptied and it saw Katie Brosnan and Cassandra Buckley find the mark as St Pauls ran out , in the end, convincing 108-77 winners.

Overall Coach James Fleming will be satisfied to get another win under their belts, shooting eleven three pointers in the process but if one was to be hyper critical the concession of 77 points to a not so prolific Carlow side might be a source of a little annoyance.

Yuleska Tejeda led the scoring with 35 points, Sofia Paska had 20, Rheanne O Shea (19), Lynn Jones(16), Lorraine Scanlon(8), Aisling O Mahony(6), Katie Brosnan(2), Cassandra Buckley(2), Denise Dunlea, Leah McMahon, Siofra O Shea, Jessica Ouirke.

For Carlow Scout Frame was best with 29, Kiley Gelston shot 16, Miah Ryan had 13, Joanna Ryan(8), Emer Dunne(6), Emma Carroll(3), Shannon Whelan(2).

Next Saturday night, February 11th, sees the Marble City Hawks visit the Killarney Sports and Leisure Centre. It's a repeat of the opening day fixture where St Paul's visit to Kilkenny was a fruitful one, winning 82-42. On that occasion the Hawks were minus the services of Caleigh Raby. She arrived mid season and her appearances definitely coincide with an improvement in performance. She joins fellow import Tiana Stewart in the line up and the duo combined for 36 points in last weekend's 62-54 victory over Limerick Sport Huskies. Ann Prendergast, Elaine Kennington and Fiona Whitely are also one to watch. Tip off is 7.30pm.

FOOTBALL National League: Kerry 2-16 Monaghan 0-14

That last minute loss to Donegal last week put us under pressure. You can argue that we were unlucky, or you can point out that it was in our own hands and we let it slip. That's all water under the bridge now anyway. With modern scheduling, you don't have a lot of time to reset and start again. I notice that Colm O'Rourke, who has made a brilliant start over Meath complained about the National League clashing with the colleges games, which should be moved back before Christmas. No, Colm. I have massive respect for that man; I really do, but we have too many players going eleven months in the year already in an amateur sport. Please let's leave December alone. That isn't a huge factor for Kerry this year; we have surprisingly few players left in the latter stages of the Sigerson - might be a coincidence, might be a weather sign. Paul Walsh did score one of the Sigerson goals of the year, but he isn't on our senior panel at the moment.

Regardless, Kerry needed to win here, especially on their own ground. And did. In fact, once Kerry got going, they looked very good, albeit it is only fair to point out that Monaghan, while never easy, are certainly not the force of old. There was a decent crowd. Not as big as I had expected, considering that it's the All Ireland champions playing at home, but I heard more than one person comment that €18 for a second round in the National League is steep enough. Full credit to those Monaghan supporters - and they were lovely people – who made the long journey.

Monaghan's Conor McCarthy slotted an early free coughed up by Barry O'Sullivan, but an early burst by Pa Warren earned a similar score from Tony Brosnan. Dessie Ward, Monaghan's best player for me, scored a long range beauty. Darragh Roche has been flying for Kerry of late and once again had a defence mesmerised as he smoothly slotted over with his left leg. Micheál Bannigan nudged Monaghan back in front with a free.

Kerry were beginning to hit their stride though. Tom and Graham O'Sullivan were pushing forward and good Kerry movement saw Tom pick off a trademark score. Straight from the kick-out Kerry won a free converted by Tony Brosnan Donal Down O'Sullivan, the first Kilgarvan man to line out for the Kerry senior footballers, gathered on the wing from Dara Moynihan. Ninety per cent of players would have recycled took one glance and bombed it straight over the bar. You simply can't defend against that kind of skill.

Another foul by Barry O'Sullivan saw Conor McCarthy notch a free and the Dingle man go into the book for persistent fouling - no big deal, I was quite happy with his work-rate, especially in defence, and they were what I call 'honest' fouls. Midfield was a little bit messy and uncontrolled by both sides, but Kerry's half forward line all worked like trojans; that often unappreciated hard work is key to winning games.

Defenders on both sides were overlapping the play with outside players dropping back to cover - that is the modern game - and Kieran Duffy won a free converted by Micheál Bannigan. 0-5 apiece, but I felt that Kerry were the better side here.

Micheál Burns won a free for Tony Brosnan to point. Shane Murphy had to be guick off his line to fist clear, but Conor McCarthy scored a superb point under pressure.

Tony Brosnan wasn't getting much leeway inside and moved out around the forty. I am so used to see him as the main scoring threat at club level that I forget how good a playmaker he is; his absolutely clinical passing rapidly became a massive problem for Monaghan. Dara Moynihan landed a confident score. Donbal O'Sullivan gathered from Tony to double his tally. Before half-time, Micheal Burns, a bundle of energy all day, closed out the first half scoring.

Half-time Kerry 0-10 Monaghan 0-6

Tony Brosnan scored an early second half free won by Donal O'Sullivan. Stephen O'Hanlon replied, but a sublime pass from Tony Brosnan saw Donal O'Sullivan try to audaciously lob the keeper - in fairness to Rory Beggan, he managed to tip it over his bar, but I loved the ambition in the attempt. It didn't take long for a Kerry goal to arrive, Darragh Roche jinking past the hapless Beggan for a very cool finish after good Kerry inter-play in the build-up.

Monaghan weren't giving up the ghost and scored the next three points through Micheál Bannigan and Conor McCarthy (2f). But Kerry weren't letting their grip slip. Adrian Spillane contemplated going for goal for a split second but contented himself with a good point. Then came the game's highlight. Paudie Clifford is an All Star and he is simply different gravy. He gathered the ball just past midfield and started forward. And accelerated. And accelerated again, sliced inside just as Monaghan were starting to realise just how easily he was slicing through them, and fired it to the net. As the late Jimmy McGee was wont to say, "different class". Tom O'Sullivan swung over with his left leg. Killian Spillane took and executed a mark from another great Tony Brosnan pass. Karl Gallagher pulled one back, but realistically Kerry had this one in the bag.

Rory Beggan was drifting further and further out, and almost got caught when Paudie Clifford went for the empty net from distance. It curled wide, but sent a warning note. Look, there's a modern theory that having the goalkeeper coming out (Beggan is a club midfielder) gives extra width to a team. I'm not a fan, the risks always outweigh the rewards for me. The good teams don't need to overcomplicate things like that. Paudie did slot a #### point soon afterwards.

Karl Gallagher kicked a point for Monaghan but their challenge was fading. Kerry kicked another two wides (they would kick ten wides in total compared to Monaghan's two). O'Hanlon and Duffy kicked a few last scores for a fading Monaghan, but Kerry had one last flourish, Paudie Clifford and Tony Brosnan combining to tee up Donal O'Sullivan for a third goal.

I thought that having a Templenoe captain in Tadhg Morley present the man of the match award to Donal Down O'Sullivan from Kilgarvan was both a lovely touch and a serious statement about Kerry football. In most counties, you need to be playing for a top club to be featured prominently. In Kerry, the measure is never the size of your parish. Good enough will always get the chance to be great.

HURLING National League: Kerry 1-22 Derry 0-14

I won't lie about it, I was actually very worried about this one. Last year we got off to a bad start in the league and we ended up more or less chasing that all the way through. Our Munster Senior League display against Limerick was disappointing – not because I had expected us to match the All Ireland champions head to head, but because I thought we were formless in structure that day. I've never believed in the nonsense that 'there's no such thing as a blanket defence' in hurling, that's always been some sort of pseudo-partisan rubbish, but you certainly can't park on your half-way and watch the sliotar fly over your head all day. I know Derry aren't Limerick, having just come up themselves and missing a lot of players on the day, but Celtic Park is a long distance to travel when you really need to win this one.

I really think that Kerry will be happy overall. They got a great game of it, with just two points between them after fifty minutes, but I'd prefer the test to a cakewalk. Derry are almost certainly going to struggle at this level, but I'd expect they will be reasonably happy with the heart they showed for the contest.

Pádraig Boyle opened with a free but James Friel struck back with two for Derry. Worse for Kerry, Colin Walsh, who has been playing very well of late, picked up a very early red card. Kerry responded well. Daniel Collins slotted two points and Daithí Griffin another. Padraig Boyle, captain on the day, picked off another two frees. James Friel pulled one back but Shane Conway neatly took a sniper's point and Boyle made it 0-8 to 0-4. Paul Cleary and Shane Conway exchanged scores before Boyle stretched the gap top five and Daniel Collins made it six.

Derry put over the next three points through Friel and John Mullan to stray in touch, but pressure was beginning to tell as Derry picked up two yellow cards and Pádraig Boyle nailed another two frees. I won't say Kerry looked home and hosed at half-time, especially considering that they were playing with fourteen men, but at 0-13 to 0-8 ahead, I'd say no Kerry supporter were biting their nails either.

Both sides made changes at the break. Boyle and Cormac O'Doherty exchanged frees to open the second half scoring. Eoin Ross, who had another stormer alongside Fionán Mackessy, addded his name to the scoresheet. Credit to Derry. I have a soft spot for underdogs anyway, and they showed fantastic spirit. Meehaul McGrath pulled one back. James Friel notched yet another free, as did Cormac O'Doherty, before Ritchie Mullan pointed from play. 0-16 to 0-14. The fat wasn't bubbling in the pan yet, but it was definitely sizzling a small bit! Kerry needed to kill off this challenge before Derry got a grip of the game, and in fairness they did so in style. Padraig Boyle landed another free and Daithí Griffin stretched the gap back to four. Then came one of those wayward moments that happen in games, as the sun-blinded Derry keeper completely misread Paudie O'Connor's long ball as it slowly and cruelly bounced over the line.

Kerry took over after that, Boyle with two more frees, Keith Carmody with two well-executed scores, and Eoin Ross with a late goal to ice the cake fully. Kerry weren't lucky by any means here, they were full value for a hard-fought win, but an 11 point gap was no fair reflection on the home side.

Kerry: John B O'Halloran, Conor O'Keeffe, Tadhg Brick, Evan Murphy, Eric Leen, Michael Boyle, Eoin Ross (1-1), Fionan Mackessy, Daniel Collins (0-3), Shane Conway (0-2), Colin Walsh, Daithi Griffin (0-1), Niall Mulcahy, Dan Goggin (0-2), Padraig Boyle (0-11, 11f). Subs: Brandon Barrett (for Niall Mulcahy, half-time), Kyle O'Connor (for Tadhg Brick, half-time), Keith Carmody 0-2 (for Dan Goggin, 55 mins), Paudie O'Connor 1-0 (for Evan Murphy, 55mins), Philip Lucid (for Pádraig Boyle, 63 mins).

Derry: Eoin Mulholland, Seán Cassidy, Mark Craig, Ronan Mullan, Sean Francis Quinn, Richie Mullan (0-1), Meehaul McGrath (0-1), Corey O'Reilly (0-1), John Mullan (0-1), Cormac O'Doherty (0-4, 4f), Paul Cleary (0-1), Darragh McGilligan, James Friel (0-5, 5f), Pádhraig Neilis, Reese McSorley. Subs: Calum O'Kane (for Ronan Mullan, half-time), Cathal Quinn (for Reese McSorley (52); Cormac Gough (for Pádhraig Neilis (60); Aimon Duffin (for Paul Cleary, 66 mins), Daire Kelly (for Corey O'Reilly, 75 mins) Referee: Colm McDonald (Antrim)

KERRY LADIES National League:

Kerry 2-10 Donegal 1-11

Halcyon days for the Kerry Ladies with three wins from three in their return to Division One, a better return than I or almost anyone was expecting. The first two were won by a single point, and this one went all the way down to the wire as well.

Donegal almost drew first blood when Ciara McGarvey cracked a great effort off the crossbar, with Shannon McGroddy slotting over the rebound. That only seemed to ignite Kerry, though. Louise Ní Muircheartaigh, on her first start of the campaign, opened Kerry's account. Captain Siofra O'Shea and camogie star Patrice Diggin added two more before Louise made it 0-4 to 0-1. To be fair to Donegal, losing Catherine McKeown so early in the game to injury didn't help their cause. They got right back into it, though, when the outstanding Susanne White neatly fisted Tara Hegarty's pass to the net. She guickly added a free to nudge Donegal in front (1-2 to 0-4) but Louise Ní Muircheartaigh slotted two of her own and a point from play as well. This was fast, good football from both teams, really good to watch, pressure on turnovers and fast breakaways. Coming to the end of the first half, keeper Aoife McColgan slotted an angled free but Louise was on fire here and split the posts again before the whistle.

Half-time Kerry 0-8 Donegal 1-3

There were brilliant individual contests all over the field, but it already looked like it would come down to a shootout between the two star forwards, with Susanne White (2, 1f) and Louise Ni Muircheartaigh (2f) both quickly adding to their growing tallies with a brace each. Both sides were starting to run their bench now in an energy-sapping contest. I believe that Kerry's panel depth this year is as good as I have seen in a long time, and the fact that you can have talents like Lorraine Scanlon, Hannah O'Donoghue, and Niamh Ni Chonchúir coming on as subs underlies that.

Donegal trimmed the gap to one, 0-10 to 1-6, with another Susanne White free. Nerves were beginning to crackle a small bit with just ten minutes left to go, but Siofra O'Shea pounced on a long ball from Niamh Ní Chonchuir and Siofra doesn't miss chances like that. 1-10 to 1-6. Susanne White cut the gap back to a goal, but Kerry had the wind in their sails now and an expertly despatched penalty left Donegal with too much to do. They did put in a great effort, but all they could muster were points from Cáit Gillespie and a last Susanne White free. They needed goals and this Kerry team are too battle-hardened in these situations by now to cough up those chances easily.

Kerry: Mary Ellen Bolger, Ciara O'Brien, Kayleigh Cronin, Aoife Dillane, Ciara McCarthy, Emma Costello, Aishling O'Connell, Mary O'Connell, Cait Lynch, Patrice Diggin (0-1), Niamh Carmody, Anna Galvin, Siofra O'Shea (1-1), Rachel Dwyer, Louise Ní Mhuircheartaigh (1-8, 4f, 1-0 pen). Subs: Lorraine Scanlon (for Niamh Carmody, 41 mins), Niamh Ní Chonchúir (for McCarthy, 41 mins), Hannah O'Donoghue (for Rachel Dwyer, 41 mins), Caoimhe Evans (for Patrice Diggin, 49 mins), Fiadhna Tangney (for Anna Galvin, 54 mins), Ciara Murphy (for Ciara O'Brien (54), Eilís Lynch (for Aoife Dillane, 54 mins), Louise Galvin (for Mary O'Connell (58), Keri Ann Hanrahan (for Cait Lynch, 62 mins). Donegal: Aoife McColgan (0-1, 1f), Niamh Carr, Evelyn McGinley, Saskia Boyle, Amy Boyle Carr, Emer Gallagher, Tara Hegarty, Shelly Twohig, Roisín Rodgers, Susanne White (1-8, 6f), Katie Long, Laoise Ryan, Catherine Boyle, Shannon McGroddy, Ciara McGarvey. Subs: Caoimhe Keon (for Catherine Boyle, 5 mins), Nicole McLaughlin (for Roisín Rodgers, 41 mins), Jodie McFadden (for Saskia Boyle, 42 mins), Cáit Gillespie 0-1 (for Katie Long, 49 mins), Danielle McDevitt (for Shannon McGroddy, 60 mins). Referee: Shane Curley (Galway).

BOXING

Pride in Defeat For Kingdom Warrior The best boxing match of last year was unquestionably that classic between Katie Taylor and Amanda Serrano. Last weekend Kevin Cronin took the journey up to Belfast to face reigning champion Jamie Morrissey from Limerick with the BUI Celtic light heavyweight title on the line, and it was a real contender for this year's fight of the year already.

You could tell instantly how much work both boxers had put in. Both looked primed and ready and they both went for it straightaway, real no-holds-barred let's get it done kind of boxing. Morrissey, a former Muay Thai champion, landed a few early jabs but Kevin replied with two great sweeping left hooks out of nowhere. I thought Kevin landed one or two more punches in that first round to just about shade it, though Morrissey landed a good one just before the finish.

Morrissey came out strong in the second and swung some big ones, but Kevin has too much craft to walk into those mantraps and picked off some nice ones himself. Again I thought Kevin edged it, but very close.

Morrissey was learning a bit about Kevin's power and he rightly concentrated on distance, with Kevin looking to close in. Both fighters were throwing good shots and both fighters were taking a bit of damage. The third and fourth rounds were fairly even; Morrissey might have shaded them.

Morrissey definitely looked strong early in the fifth, with Kevin having to bob and weave against some very close attempts. He kept his composure perfectly, though, and produced a brilliant response. It wasn't Ali's old rope a dope trick; Morrissey is far too wily to fall for that, but once Kevin landed one great uppercut, suddenly it was Morrissey on the back foot and Kevin in control.

Kevin took a right hand in the sixth that knocked out his gumshield, but again remained unruffled and replied with another beautifully timed left hook.

Kevin had absorbed the worst that Morrissey could throw – and Morrissey could throw a lot

- but now it was the Kerryman's turn to go at his tiring opponent. He won the seventh clean and clear. In fact, it looked very much to me like Morrissey was only hanging on until the bell, he looked absolutely ragged by the end of the round.

Obviously I'd be supporting the Kerryman, but to be honest I had to really admire Jamie Morrissey. He had to clinch a good bit to get through the final round, but he did enough, just about. Kevin landed more punches, but it wasn't one-way traffic by any means. If the fight had gone on for another round, I have no doubt that Kevin would have won it.

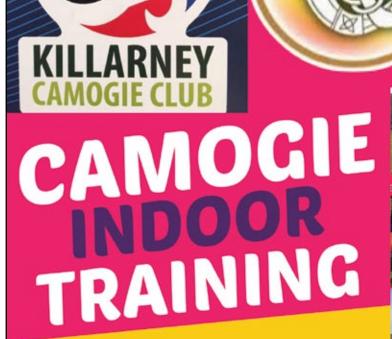

Did he win it anyway? Look, I'm always a little bit sceptical when there are controversies about a decision, especially when it comes from promoters and there are potential rematches to be made. I thought Kevin Cronin just about shaded a brilliant fight, but I'm not knowledgeable enough to make that call. What I can say is that both boxers showed absolute class in the aftermath. Kevin tweeted "I'll stay professional and not gonna comment in the result, congratulations @j_morrissey___ what a war congratulations Think a rematch down south would do some serious numbers" I agree with every word, and hopefully that will happen sooner rather than later.

CORN UÍ MHUIRÍ FINAL PREVIEW St. Brendans Killarney v St. Francis Rochestown, Saturday Feb 11th, 1.00pm in Mallow

On paper, the Sem are coming into this loaded with cannon. The reigning champions just mised out on a Hogan last year at the final stage, and have the likes of Cian Lynch, John Kelliher, Darren Ryan, Aodhán O'Neill, and Alex Hennigan looking to go a step further this year. They are unbeatenThe school have four Hogan Cups and no less than 23 Corn Uí Mhuirí titles to it's name - nobody else comes close. But they are coming up against a formidable force. Rochestown have only one Corn Uí Mhuirí title, and you have to go all the way back to 1950 for that one. But Rochestown were rumoured from early on to be the pick of Cork schools in a year where the Cork schools were playing very good football. That's something I'm very glad to see, by the way. Kerry schools have won fifteen of the last sixteen finals, and nine of those were all Kerry affairs. Rochestown have been rising over the past decade, and doing it with good freeflowing football. In 2015 the Sem had a team that included the likes of Gavin White, Daniel O'Brien, Ronan Buckley, Matt Rennie, Micheál Burns, Dara Moynihan, and David Clifford. Rochestown, managed by Keel's Liam Sheehan and with Sean Powter and Shane Kingston outstanding, beat them by a point. The bones of that Rochestown team reached the Harty Final as well, I suspect that they would have won one or the other, but not both. As it is, it took a great last minute free by Seamus Ó Muircheartaigh for PS Chorca Dhuibhne, the single greatest colleges team I have seen, to force a replay in extra-time for a fourth Corn Uí Mhuirí on the trot and ultimately a second Hogan. That was the last Cork team to reach a Corn Uí Mhuirí Final.

Paths to the Final

Rochestown

Group Stage Rochestown 4-14 Pres. Milltown 0-8 Rochestown 3-10 Skibbereen CS 0-10 Rochestown 1-8 HS Clonmel 0-6 Quarter-Final: Rochestown 1-10 St. Flannans 1-4 Semi-Final Rochestown 1-10 Spioraid Naomh, Bishopstown 0-7

St. Brendans

Group Stage St. Brendans 4-11 Coláiste an Sceilge 2-14 St. Brendans 3-6 Mercy Mounthawk 0-12 St. Brendans 4-14 Coláiste Choilm Ballincollig Quarter-Final: St. Brendans 2-16 Hamilton HS Bandon 0-11 Semi-Final: St. Brendans 2-16 Mercy Mounthawk 0-13 They had contrasting starts. The Sem survived a real nail-biter – the game of the competition so far – and saw off Coláiste na Sceilge with a late goal to clinch it. Rochestown, however, came flying out of the blocks by seeing off a very young Pres. Milltown with plenty to spare. They had a tougher battle to see of Skibbereen in their second game, while the Sem got a good challenge off Mounthawk but adapted better to the very testing weather conditions in Milltown that day. The final group game for both schools, against Clonmel and Ballincollig respectively, were just about sealing top of the table, with both schools already qualified. Clonakilty caused something of an upset to knock out Tralee CBS on scoring difference, only to fall in turn to St. Flannans. Rochestown went out against a good Clare outfit while missing three superb talents in Michael Maguire (likely to be back), Harry Quilligan (fifty/fifty) and especially talented full forward Brian Hayes (unfortunately, a cruciate injury has ended his involvement, a real shame for a superb footballer) but had the teamwork and tactical nous to prevail. The Sem will be without Charlie Keating, who had the proverbial stormer against HS Bandon in their own quarter-final. The Sem were against a tricky wind in the first half but led by a point at the break, and took over completely in a storming second half. That pattern was repeated in the semi-final, their third time meeting Mercy Mounthawk this year. Mounthawk trailed by four points at halftime, but it was a very, very flattering margin for the Sem. Once again, though, the second half saw the Sem improve their distribution and decision-making and come through with plenty to spare – it maybe belied the quality of Mounthawk's superb effort.

Rochestown play a defensive style, dropping deep to absorb attacks and counter=-attack rapidly into space. Do not make the mistake of thinking that they are a negative side; that is a very different animal. These guys are very well organised, work hard for each other, and are especially clinical with their chances. The likes of keeper Michael O'Connell (keeper), and Seán Coakley (centre forward) enjoyed success as Cork minors against Kerry. Midfielder Kevin Lyons was a star player for the Cork minor hurlers when they won the All Ireland. These lads are genuinely worrying opposition; they won't cough up anything easy.

That said, their scoring totals in the knockout games aren't likely enough to be enough without goals, and that's an impressively parsimonious Sem defence. Up front Luke Crowley is unquestionably the Sem's ace in hand, but speedy Alex Hennigan and Aodhán O'Neill are also deadly, while Callum Cronin has shown a brilliant poacher's instinct all year. John Kelliher and a trojan Jamie Moynihan have been immense around the middle, supplemented by Darren Ryan's tremendous wor-krate.

It will be tough, very tough, but the Sem will be wearing the favourites tag in this one.

To this end we have enlisted the app Clubzap to aid us with our communications. Downloadable through the relevant app store it is useful for playing Club lotto, paying membership, sharing results and fixtures and directly messaging parents and players of the various age groups. We have already started to roll it out to our Juvenile teams, both boys and girls, and it is envisaged that it will be the tool used to send out messages. Keep an eye out on our social media to see the progress of the roll out and special mention must go to

EAST KERRY SUPERLEAGUE DR. CROKES 1-15 RATHMORE 0-10

On Saturday last we hosted our first game of 2023 with a fine win over Rathmore in the East Kerry Superleague. We lined out with a young team who played a very defensive first half. Our goal scorer, Mikey Casey, found the back of the net in the 8th minute of play after intercepting a poor Rathmore kick out. Rathmore had their own goal chance just 5 minutes later when a high ball was kicked in to the square and subsequently cleared by Shay O'Meara in the Crokes goal. The second half of the game saw a more experienced team introduced with Daithi Casey, David Shaw, Sean Coppinger and Bryan O'Shea coming on throughout the half. We finished our first game of the season with a positive 8 point win over the All-Ireland Intermediate Champions. We now play Glenflesk at 8pm on Friday night in Lewis Road. AWARDS NIGHT

Killarney Park and Ross Hotel employees' jet off to New York

Its time to pack their bags as two Killarney Park and Ross Hotel employees are heading for the Big Apple.

Each month, at The Killarney Park and The Ross, four awards are given to team members in recognition of excellence in the areas of friendliness, respect, teamwork, and delivering an exceptional guest experience. This year at their Christmas Party, the "Most Valued Employees" for both hotels were recognised, and the award recipients for 2022 were Sheila Fahy, a chef at The Killarney Park for over 9 years, and Adam Kania, Sous Chef who has worked at The Ross Hotel for 13 years.

"Sheila and Adam embody the values we strive to achieve, and their dedication and commitment are greatly appreciated." said Marcus Treacy, GM of The Killarney Park.

As winners of the "Most Valued Employees" award, Sheila and Adam will each receive a trip for two to New York City, a testament to The Killarney Park and The Ross hotels' commitment to rewarding and recognizing their employees.

by John O'Sullivan FOCUS ON HYDRANCEAS

Hydrangeas are a very popular garden shrub with delicate heads of flowers that come in shades of white, pink or blue and they flower from late Spring to Autumn. The mophead or lace cap Hydrangeas are well known for the ability to change colour in different soils. Hydrangeas thrive in moist but well drained soil, in the cool, semi shady part of the garden. Try to avoid dry sunny situations and east facing areas. Feeding your Hydrangeas once in late Winter and early Spring is probably enough for the year as too much feeding will only encourage too much soft leafy growth and this will lead to the Hydrangeas not developing a lot of flower buds. Pruning your Hydrangeas is usually done in late Winter or early Spring, although the climbing Hydrangeas should be pruned after flowering in Summer.

A Word of Victory

Welcome back dear student does it feel like God has forgotten you? Life can be difficult and lonely at times. Tough seasons are hard to cope with but God's Word gives hope for restoration! King David poured out his heart to the Lord a lot - he was honest and real with God, but he also listened to hear what God spoke to him. The Lord always answered David because He is Faithful to those who seek Him. Let's study Psalm 13 together..... "O Lord, how long will you forget me? Forever? How long will You look the other way? How long must I struggle with anguish in my soul, with sorrow in my heart every day? How long will my enemy have the upper hand? Turn and answer me, O Lord my God! Restore the sparkle to my eyes, or I will die. Don't let my enemies gloat, saying, 'We have defeated him!' Don't let them rejoice at my downfall. But I trust in Your unfailing Love. I will rejoice because You have rescued me. I will sing to the Lord because He is good to me" (Psalm 13 NLT).

When David opened his heart to God the Lord strengthened him. Throughout the Bible, whenever God's people endured difficulties those who trusted God's Faithful Love were able to stand strong because God delivered them from their troubles (Psalm 34:19; 2 Chronicles 20:1-30). In Psalm 13 David acknowledges the coming Messiah 'Yeshua' as the One Who rescues him: 'I will rejoice because You have rescued (y2502a) me'. Yeshua is Jesus' Hebrew name. ('Jesus' is the Greek translation of Yeshua, the language of the New Testament) 'Yeshua' means Salvation by God; Help; Deliverance; Saviour; Rescuer; Welfare, Victory and: Health! Christ is the Greek translation of the Hebrew word 'Messiah' - which means the 'Anointed One'. So Jesus Christ / Messiah Yeshua means: the Anointed One who rescues, saves, heals, delivers and restores. Yeshua is prophesied as God's Saviour throughout the Old Testament, and in the New Testament He is revealed as God's Son - the Lamb of God Who took away our sins and Redeemed us with His sinless Blood. "God decided in advance to adopt us into His own family by bringing us to Himself through Jesus Christ" (Ephesians 1:5 NLT) with the result that "....in Him we have Redemption through His Blood, the forgiveness of our sins, according to the riches of His Grace" (Ephesians 1:7).

Friend, don't just read this – get out your Bible and study for yourself as you need to know that Yeshua – Jesus, is the One Anointed by God to save, heal, deliver and rescue you. He suffered a cruel death and God raised Him from the dead because He loves you so much (Isaiah 53:4-6; John 3:16). "Listen! The Lord's arm is not too weak to save you, nor is His ear too deaf to hear you call. It's your sins that have cut you off from God. Because of your sins, He has turned away and will not listen anymore.....The Lord looked and was displeased....he was amazed to see that no one intervened to help the oppressed. So He Himself stepped in to save them with His strong arm, and His Justice sustained Him. He put on Righteousness as His body armour and placed the helmet of Salvation (y⊠Sú⊠ä) on His head. He clothed Himself with a robe of vengeance and wrapped Himself in a cloak of divine passion...the Redeemer will come...to buy back those who turn from their sins...." (Isaiah chapter 59).
