FROM THE EDITOR

We have lots for you to enjoy in this week's Killarney Outlook.

The festive season is creeping up on us and this week students from eight schools in Killarney have gathered to launch Presents 4 Palliative 2022. The victorious Kerry Team are set to receive their All Ireland medals at a Gala Dinner next week, a Rathmore man has been named Kerry's Most Inspirational Person and Killarney people remember Vicky Phelan.

A rowing boat has been dedicated to one of Muckross RC's most respected members, the Killarney Rotary Club Art and Wine Evening is back and Killarney's Purple Reign continues.

Pre-pandemic retirements were celebrated at St. Brendan's, Quiz Buffs are Beaufort bound and it's time to grab your tickets for Prom Queen - The Jukebox Musical.

GAA dominates the sports pages in this week's Killarney Outlook with county finals taking centre stage, the Killarney Historic Rally has been launched and Friday Night lights are back with the announcement that Kerry FC is to join the SSE Electricity League of Ireland. Hope you enjoy this week's Killarney Outlook!

STUDENTS LAUNCH €10,000 FUNDRAISING BID

In a bid to raise €10,000, the cost to provide hospice services for one week, students at St. Brendan's College invited representatives from seven schools in Killarney to join them for the 4th annual Presents 4 Palliative launch this week.

This Christmas, continuing on from the success of the last three years the 8 Killarney schools will join forces to raise funds for an important local charity, The Kerry Hospice Foundation.

On Friday Dec 2 the staff and students of: Holy Cross Mercy, Killarney Community College, Presentation Monastery, Lissivigeen, St. Brendan's College, St. Brigid's, St. Francis Special School, and St. Oliver's will wear their most colourful Christmas jumpers and make a donation in aid of this fantastic cause.

This year there are more schools than ever involved, something which fundraising committee chairman TJ O Sullivan is thrilled with. "It is great to have Livissigeen on board this year. Some of the students in the class organising the fundraiser are past pupils and delighted that their old primary jumps at the prospect of getting involved", TJ told Killarney Outlook.

Co-chair, Neil O Carroll, added: It costs €10,000 plus per week to provide hospice services so that is our aim – we think it would be incredible if the young people of Killarney could, as a school community, finance a full week of care for the hospice's clients'

The fundraiser was launched in St Brendan's College on Wednesday with Kerry All Stars Gavin White and David Clifford on hand to add their support to the event.

KILLARNEY PEOPLE REMEMBER VICKY

A Book of Condolences has been opened at the Town Hall in Killarney to enable people in the community to express their sympathy on the passing of Cervical Check campaigner Vicky Phelan.

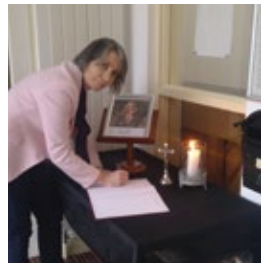

President of Ireland, Michael D. Higgins has led tributes Vicky who passed away this week. "It is with the deepest sense of sadness that people across Ireland and beyond will have heard of the death of Vicky Phelan.

Vicky, in all of this, made an enormous contribution to Irish society. Thanks to her tireless efforts, despite the terrible personal toll she herself had to carry, so many women's lives have been protected, and will be protected in the future. She will be deeply missed, by all of those who were in awe of her courage, her resilience, offered not only to women but to all of us in Ireland", The President said in a statement.

St. Brigid's Presentation Secondary School have also opened a Book of Condolences to enable all members of the school community and beyond to express their sympathy to Vicky's family. Vicky was an inspiration to many. Despite her own diagnosis she had the courage to challenge the health system and demand better services for Irish women. She also had the bravery to participate in numerous drug trials. Hopefully her participation in these will help inform the work of research scientists. Her compassion for other was remarkable and she continued to fight the system even though there was no personal gain for herself. Our thoughts and prayers are with her children, Amelia and Daragh, her husband Jim and her extended family. Ar dheis De for raibh a hanam uasal.

Jerh O'Donoghue Named KERRY'S MOST INSPIRATIONAL PERSON

A Rathmore man is celebrating this week after being named Kerry's Most Inspirational Person at this year's Gala Retail Inspiration Awards with Virgin Media.

Jerh O'Donoghue's extensive and inspirational work in the charity sector within the local community has earned him the title of Inspirational Person in this year's awards.

Established four years ago to celebrate individuals who work to create better communities with their selfless acts and inspirational deeds, Gala Retail awarded inspirational people from every county in Ireland, naming county inspirational people who were each gifted €1,000 in Ireland Hotel vouchers.

Jerh really impressed the judges for his work in the local community and is a worthy winner of the county award for his inspirational efforts.

Social Action Group (SAG) Rathmore was founded by Jerh in 1975 to give young people an opportunity to become involved in community work and to make a difference to the lives of people throughout the community and beyond. Jerh has unselfishly dedicated over 47 years with constant energy and exuberance.

Under Jerh's guidance, SAG has evolved over the years and has been recognised as a leader in providing community-based healthcare and support with 35 homes, a day care centre with a meals on wheels and laundry service for older people and others in need.

From a huge volume of nominations, 26 county heroes were crowned. Noreen Murphy, from Bantry in County Cork, was named as the Overall Inspirational Person of the Year for her services to mental health with the establishment of Lisheen's House Suicide Prevention Charity.

According to Gary Desmond, CEO of Gala Retail, choosing the winners was a challenging task.

"We've heard some truly inspirational stories from people across Ireland during these awards, which has affirmed something we already knew – that we have so many selfless people carrying out great work in our communities," Gary said.

"We were overwhelmed by the level of nominations and Jerh along with the fellow inspirational heroes are true examples of people who are making Ireland a better place. Congratulations Jerh and all our county heroes!"

Gala Retail has gifted €26,000 of prizes to the winners with the 26 county winners being awarded with €1000 hotel getaways across Ireland. For further information, see www.gala.ie.

"In the Stars the Glory of His Eyes" chronicals Hugh O'Flaherty Rome Tours

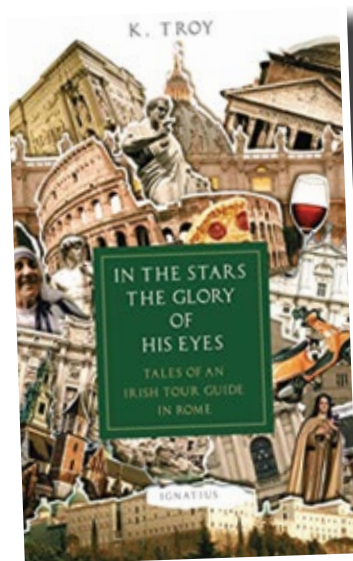

The Hugh O'Flaherty Memorial Society is delighted to report that our Rome Tour Organiser and Guide "par excellence", Kieran Troy, has just published a book dealing with his memories of countless tours with pilgrims, special interest groups etc., around Europe for the past twenty-five years with Chapter 2 deals exclusively with the four memorable O'Flaherty Rome Tours (2012 + 2014 + 2016 + 2019).

After twenty-five years of leading pilgrim groups to Catholic shrines across Europe, tour guide Kieran has seen it all—long lines, strikes, broken-down buses, rebellious tourists, and countless experiences of God's immense providence. Crafted with wit and charm, "In the Stars the Glory of His Eyes" gives a first-hand account of Christ's hand at work in all the beautiful messiness of pilgrimage.

The stories unfold in some of the most evocative Catholic settings: Vatican City, the Holy House of Nazareth in Loreto, the shrine of Saint Padre Pio in San Giovanni Rotondo, the Carmel of Saint Thérèse in Lisieux, the Cathedral of Wawel in Krakow, the magnificent Abbey of Montecassino, and many other sacred places. Traveling alongside

THE O'FLAHERTY, DERRY AND SANDS FAMILIES WITH US AMBASSADOR TO VATICAN CALISTA GINGRICH ALONG WITH

rich historical knowledge—the reader will see these famous shrines with new eyes.

With humour and a sense of wonder, the book also gives fascinating details from the lives of such great saints as Mother Teresa, John Paul II, Thérèse of Lisieux, Padre Pio, Catherine of Siena, and many others. Kieran shows that through pilgrimage, it is still possible to have a personal encounter, even a friendship, with these heroes of the Church.

BOAT DEDICATED TO ONE OF MUCKROSS ROWING CLUBS MOST RESPECTED ROWERS

— THE LATE JAMES MANGAN —

Dr Patricia, along with family members, William and Catherine Mangan pictured with Crew members - Ian Coffey, Darragh Hogan, Daniel Daly and Niall Coffey - had the privilege of rowing the James Mangan on the lake. Photo: Valerie O'Sullivan

Members of Muckross Rowing Club have paid tribute to the late James Mangan, one of the Club's most respected rowers, naming their latest state of the art new 'Filippi Four' racing boat - the 'James Mangan' in his memory on Sunday. The special ceremony and blessing took place at Muckross Boat House. James was the Son of Dr Patricia Mangan and the Late Dr Bill Mangan, Ross Road, Killarney. James was an integral part of Muckross Rowing Club, joining as a junior in the early 1990s. He had many honours to his name and was key to the success of Muckross Rowing Club during a golden decade on the European and world stage. The phenomenal athlete also donned his Irish jersey while rowing for UCD. He enjoyed great success in the Muckross colours winning the Novice Sculls Championship in 1999 and the Senior Coxed Four in 2000. He also won a Henley medal with Commercial in 2003 competing in the The Men's Quadruple Sculls. Former World Champion rower Paul Griffin, paid tribute to James' incredible rowing career, as well as his very colourful and entertaining life off the water. Fr Kieran O'Brien, blessed the boat. Dr Patricia, along with family members, William and Catherine Mangan, were joined with relatives and rowing friends to help launch the boat in the water. Muckross Rowing Club Chairman Sean Daly, with Sean Coffey, Former Chairman and driving force in the Club were on hand on the day. Crew members - Ian Coffey, Darragh Hogan, Daniel Daly and Niall Coffey - had the privilege of rowing the James Mangan on the lake.

Killarney is delighted with the news that the town has retained the prestigious Purple Flag status for another year.

The interim renewal of the sought-after accreditation has been enthusiastically welcomed by the local committee, spearheaded by chairman Frank Doran and involving members of the Killarney Chamber of Tourism and Commerce.

KILLARNEY'S PURPLE REIGN CONTINUES

The Purple Flag is the gold standard night economy award for towns and cities and it applies to locations that are deemed attractive and safe between the hours of 5pm and 5am.

Areas awarded the Purple Flag are recognised for providing a vibrant and diverse mix of dining, entertainment and culture while promoting the safety and wellbeing of visitors and local residents.

Chairman, Frank Doran, attributed the success to the quality and commitment of the working group and the businesses in Killarney town who operate in the night-time economy.

"In order to retain the Purple Flag, we must all continue our work with all evening and night-time businesses to further develop the entertainment, food and hospitality offering," he said.

Killarney will be subject to another full assessment in 2023 and the committee is looking forward to working with local businesses and key stakeholders to help promote the area to the widest possible audience. Killarney Chamber of Tourism and Commerce President, Niall Kelleher, said it is a great endorsement for the town that it has retained its Purple Flag status every year since it was first awarded in 2014.

"What it means, in essence, is that Killarney has been recognised as one of the most enjoyable places in the country to be between the hours of 5pm and 5am and for achieving excellent management standards outside of daytime trading hours," he said.

Factors taken into consideration during the adjudication process included after dark safety, cleanliness, vitality, cultural stimulation, traffic flow and lighting, the provision of public transport and broad appeal.

The scheme is managed by the Association of Town and City Management (ATCM) working alongside the Purple Flag Advisory Committee Purple Flag.

Always a great night...

KILLARNEY ROTARY CLUB WINE & ART EVENING IS BACK

One of Killarney's best nights on the social calendar and the place to meet people you may not have met since before the pandemic is back!

The Killarney Rotary Club Wine & Art Evening returns this year on Wednesday 30th November 2022 at 7.15pm at the Great Southern Killarney.

The Club were delighted to welcome this year's beneficiaries to launch the event on Wednesday at the hotel. Tickets are available to buy from all of the beneficiaries and cost €20. These are Coolick NS, Gaelscoil Faithleann NS, Knockanes NS, Holy Cross Mercy NS, St Francis Special School, Kerry Stars, Killarney Athletic AFC, & Killarney Cougars Basketball Club. The Pilgrimage Trust will benefit from the raffle on the night.

The current President of Rotary Rayla Tadjimatova addressed the invited guests and said how happy she is to be part of this wonderful Club and how excited she is that the Club's main fundraiser is back. She thanked Daly's SuperValu and Killarney Brewing Company for their continued support with this event. She also thanked the artists and crafters who have registered to take part on the night. Many of them are delighted to have the opportunity to network and exhibit after a long break. Some have been involved since the beginning and for more artists this is their first time attending. There will also be a few crafters there on the night. A portion of all art sales will benefit the charities and community groups so please come along and get some of your Christmas shopping done at the event.

With Anne Lucey

Anne Lucey looks at the positive news happening in the town of Killarney

O'SULLIVAN'S CASCADE

O'Sullivan's Cascade on Sunday was running on water - not whiskey. But after one of the wettest Octobers ever, there was plenty of "spirit" in the fountain with spray emanating on all sides. The small waterfall is always known by the more elegant "cascade" which to me means it falls gracefully over its rocks - perhaps a bit more gracefully than the better known Torc, a roaring and at times angry waterfall.

O'Sullivan's tumbles into a pool that looks like something you might come across in a rain forest before slipping directly onto the western side of the lake at Lough Leane.

Traditionally, the principal way and a very popular way in Victorian times was to go by boat to view it. But the new 800,000 euro road and car park means more of us now can wander through the lovely oakwoods of Tomies before taking the long steep and sensibly rope aided steps down to the bottom of the fall.

There is perhaps a need for more assistance at the end for people with vertigo, but on the whole the NPWS have done an excellent job with this new access.

It is popular. On Sunday afternoon all but one of the 26 spaces in car park at the wood were taken up with the lower car park also practically full.

The NPWS have a good blurb on the cascade on one of its websites. It talks about how legend has it "this waterfall once ran not with water, but with whiskey".

The Chieftain of the Fianna, Fionn MacCumhal, resided above the Cascade on Tomies Mountain. It was here that he kept his personal supply of the finest uisce beatha. "O'Sullivan of Tomies was lucky enough to share this delightful drop, being the only man bold enough to stand up to Fionn. Unfortunately when the Sassenagh (The English) invaded Ireland, it changed into water and became known as O'Sullivan's Cascade," it goes.

It is well worth keeping an eye on the fall in case it changes back! But on a more sober note, the walkway is an example of how there are many hidden treasures all over the national park and the more pathways are opened the more we will all enjoy them. Sometimes there is too much pressure on Muckross and Torc, especially at the weekends. More walkways is the way to "dilute" the over-crowded areas.

NOT A SINGLE HOUSE BEING BUILT

More land is needed to deliver housing in Killarney and elsewhere and the residential zone land tax will assist in bringing lands onto the market, the monthly county council meeting in Tralee was told on Monday.

The situation in Killarney is particularly grave. Killarney, where there was a lack of available land, was one of "the highest need areas and had the lowest delivery rates to 2026," senior managers said. Councillor Donal Grady who made the point that not one house is being built in Killarney currently. "They are building houses elsewhere, so they can put the people of Killarney into other towns. We are hunting people out of Killarney," he said.

Many people had to refuse the houses in Rathmore and Milltown because they could not drive, he said.

Now more than 14 acres north of the bypass would be no longer landlocked with the new roadworks, he added.

There followed a very good motion by Councillor Brendan Cronin to consider modular housing which is being fast-tracked for refugees.

The Government was proceeding with "at least 500 modular houses to try and cope with the refugee crisis." The Kerry planning department should give "favourable consideration to people in Kerry that apply for permission to construct appropriately designed modular homes", Cllr Cronin said.

This type of preconstructed housing which lasted for about 60 years and came in a variety of materials now.

It could be a solution in the light of "significant increase in building costs on standard houses", and "the struggle" people have trying to secure a mortgage.

"It offers people an opportunity at a much reduced cost to get a key to their own property," Cllr Cronin said.

But "a change in mentality" was needed and design guidelines limiting finishes to painted blockwork and such needed to be revised, the councillor said.

Kerry County Council management has said it is open to the idea of modular housing for locals.

However, the "general planning exemptions" brought in under EU regulations for the construction of modular homes for Ukrainian refugees for the period of the crisis, will not apply to such applications. And modular homes for locals will have to go through the normal planning process.

LISTOWEL WRITERS' WEEK

Listowel Writers' Week is one of the great treasures of this county. It's as much a treasure as buildings or parks. It grew up organically, as it were, in a town where talking, writing, "a way with words, stories, humour and history" to paraphrase the voluntary committee, which has been discontinued for the moment, are quite extraordinary and continue to this day.

These are things that cannot be learned, nor can they be taught in the ordinary sense. Nor can they be imposed.

Yet Writers' Week actually attempted to share their rather unique gift and has done so successfully. I am one of many journalists and writers to owe something to Listowel. A workshop I did on journalism at the age of 15 is largely responsible for a career and a way of life too.

Listowel was the first of the Writers' festivals. There are now over 50 such events from Dalkey to Donegal, all imitating a good idea. It is a pity there is a row that may threaten it. This is still a unique festival - because there is still such a rich love of theatre, reading and story telling still in Listowel.

The disbanding of the long-standing voluntary committee, which set the agenda for Listowel with 52 years, who to invite and which performances to schedule and so on has caused a lot of upset. That kind of work is now to be done solely by a professional curator, is the plan.

Apparently the restructuring is in order to comply with "governance" rules for the Arts Council and other bodies. To be sure, there are aspects also that are a local row.

But the wider question, and the one that was raised in the Seanad is about creeping professionalism. Are we becoming over-professionalised? Is too much ruled and regulated? As Senator Ned O'Sullivan said, over regulation especially of artistic events "stifles" and has "a chilling effect" on creativity.

The wider question about regulation the Listowel row has raised and put out in the public forum is important. We remember Paddy Kavanagh's great and ironically short poem, "Epic" with just three verses. And how Kavanagh says even the Trojan War was really about "a local row". Let's hope the Listowel row gets resolved soon - but also that the broader implications of too many rules and regulations are looked at.

SEVEN STAGE KILLARNEY HISTORIC RALLY LAUNCHED

Killarney and District Motor Club unveiled further details of its December 2 and 3 Rentokil Initial Killarney Historic Rally at the Gleneagle Hotel, on Sunday afternoon.

In his address to the large audience, clerk of the course Anthony O'Connor outlined some of the new initiatives for this year's event.

"A huge effort is going on behind the scenes to organise, what I believe, is the best one-day rally Ireland has to offer," he said.

"Entries will close in just a few days and, as ever, the rally has received a large number of entries with some of the highest quality machines and drivers already signed up to take on this challenging event.

"In a Killarney Historic Rally first, the iconic Molls Gap stage will be run on three occasions across the day, which has received nothing but positivity since that was announced. A large number of spectators are expected to congregate on the iconic left-hand turn on the main Killarney to Kenmare road. The rally will consist of seven stages in total, with two runs through the scenic Ballaghbeama stage and the technical and twisty sections of Kilgobnet, which is enough to test the best drivers in the world."

The rally has attracted a star-studded entry list including entries from all corners of Ireland, Britain and the USA.

LEADING LOCAL ENTRIES

Alan Ring leads the very strong Kerry entry in his Subaru Legacy RS. He and co-driver Adrian Deasy finished second overall last year.

Fergus O'Meara will have British Championship runner-up Mikie Glavin in the hot seat in his Ford Escort.

Todd Falvey is also competing in a Ford Escort and all three local drivers are in contention for the historic award in the Kingdom of Kerry Rally Championship.

Rentokil Initial managing director Michael O'Mahoney and Anthony O'Connor (Clerk of the Course) with Inspector Gary Carroll, Dan Keane (Chairman, Killarney and District Motor Club), Mayor of Killarney Niall Kelleher, Deputy Danny Healy Rae TD, Garda Danny O'Mahony and members of Killarney and District Motor Club at the launch of the Rentokil Initial Killarney Historic Rally at The Gleneagle Hotel Killarney, on Sunday. Killarney and District Motor Club will host the event on Friday December 2nd and Saturday December 3rd. Picture: Eamonn Keogh

BREEN AND NAGLE ENTER KILLARNEY IN EX-MEAGHER FORD SIERRA

Craig Breen has coaxed Paul Nagle out of retirement for next month's Rentokil Initial Killarney Historic Rally.

The Aghadoe man made the announcement at the rally's official launch at the Gleneagle Hotel in Killarney on Sunday.

Nagle announced his retirement from the World Rally Championship in October.

He was in Japan this week to complete the handover to Breen's new co-driver James Fulton and returned to Ireland on Sunday just in time for the launch.

The 2022 event winners will drive the Ford Sierra Cosworth that Frank Meagher drove to victory on the 1992 Circuit of Ireland Rally.

The late Tipperary driver was Breen's childhood rally here and he recently completed a full restoration of the Sierra. The Killarney will be the car's first appearance since the restoration. "We are looking forward to going out for a big battle with some local drivers," said Nagle.

INTERESTING ENTRIES

Donagh Kelly and Rory Kennedy were fourth overall in Killarney last year and they return in the same BMW M3 E30.

Monaghan's Michael Carbin makes his first foray into historic rallying. He finished fifth in the recent Banna Beach Resort Kerry Winter Rally in a Mitsubishi Lancer, but he will drive a Ford Escort RS1800 in Killarney in just under three weeks.

Racing driver Michael Cullen will compete in a BMW M3 E30. His co-driver Sean Hasset is better known for the behind-the-scenes social media work he does for Craig Breen on the World Rally Championship.

Popular rally drivers Charlie Hickey, Killarney and Tommy Randles, Kilgarvan, at the launch of the Rentokil Initial Killarney Historic Rally at The Gleneagle Hotel Killarney, on Sunday. Picture: Eamonn Keogh Breen's father Ray returns with a similar Legacy to Alan Ring's version.

Michael McDaid and his Cork co-driver Declan Casey spent the summer scoring top results in the Welsh and BTRDA gravel championship events in the UK.

MODIFIED RALLY

Although predominantly a historic rally, the modified section is always keenly fought and popular with spectators.

Among the leading entries, so far, in this competition is Kevin Eves from Donegal who finished second in this category last season and returns in the same Toyota Corolla.

Jack Newman led the Kerry Winter Rally for a spell but retired after an altercation with a chicane. With his car fully repaired he will be hoping for better luck on his second visit to Kerry in recent weeks.

Leading locals in this category include Connor and Mark Murphy in an Escort and a Starlet. Ray O'Neill, Denis Hickey, Sean Enright (Ford Escorts) and PJ O'Dowd (Talbot Sunbeam) are all potential class winners.

St. Brendans College celebrate retirements

Staff at St.Brendan's College finally got the opportunity to celebrate the retirement of their fellow colleagues Eddie Kennedy, Mary O'Donoghue, Marie Lawlor and Susan Follin on Friday night last.

Family and friends joined the staff to celebrate at Randles Court Hotel -an occasion that had been delayed by the pandemic.

Principal Sean Coffey was joined by his vice principals Hugh Rudden and Bridget Lucey for the occasion which was enjoyed by all.

KILLARNEY JAUNTING CARS ATTEND WORLD'S LARGEST TRAVEL FAIR

Tourism Ireland hosted over 100 tourism companies at the World Travel Market in London and among those present were Killarney Jaunting Cars.

The recovery in overseas tourism continues, with 2022 expected to finish at around 75% of 2019 business – according to Tourism Ireland.

International travel has rebounded more quickly than anticipated this year – with factors like pent-up demand for travel, deferred bookings and accumulated savings leading to a surge in travel to Ireland. Air and sea capacity has also been returning at a faster rate than expected, with air capacity for this winter at 102% of air capacity in winter 2019.

As Tourism Ireland now prepares for 2023, the organisation is mounting its biggest-ever presence at World Travel Market (WTM) in London this week. Tourism Ireland is hosting over 100 tourism companies from Ireland on its stand – including Killarney Jaunting Cars. WTM marks the beginning of the promotional drive overseas for 2023 and is the largest B2B event in the global travel and tourism calendar. It presents a unique opportunity for the travel industry to meet, network, negotiate and conduct business for 2023.

BEAUFORT FILM NIGHT RETURNS

Beaufort Film Night returns for another screening which will take place at The Inn Between Bar, Beaufort, on Friday 25th November at 8.30pm.

American comedy-drama The Peanut Butter Falcon is the feature on the night.

Zak, a 22-year-old wrestling enthusiast with Down Syndrome, lives in a retirement home because the state has nowhere else for him. After numerous failed attempts, he finally breaks out and heads cross-country to find his favourite wrestler, The Salt Water Redneck.

Stowing away in the boat of a troubled outlaw named Tyler, Zak manages to convince Tyler to help him get to a wrestling school run by his hero. The two set off on an adventure through the stunning North Carolina Outer Banks. Along the way they hunt, fish, drink and share their secrets. But hot on their heels is social worker Eleanor, sent to bring Zak home.

This modern-day Huckleberry Finn type drama is a pure, feel-good adventure. It stars Shia LaBeouf,

Dakota Johnson, and Zack Gottsagen

Beaufort Film Night is a non-profit community organisation founded by local film enthusiasts whose aim is to screen cultural English language and international language films, fostering an interest in and appreciation of these category of films, films that normally don't get a general release screening in Kerry. Films screened at Beaufort Film Night are carefully curated in order to appeal to a general audience. Beaufort Film Night is working in conjunction with Access Cinema, the Arts Council funded organisation which assists film clubs and film nights in Ireland with their screenings.

Beaufort Film Night would like to thank The Inn Between Bar for providing a venue for this cultural and entertainment opportunity. Admission to the film is €7 which will go towards covering the motion picture licencing fee. The Peanut Butter Falcon has a 12A Certificate. Further information can be viewed on Beaufort Film Night's Facebook page (BeaufortFilmNight) and Twitter page (@Beaufort_Film).

KILLARNEY ROYAL LAUNCH CHRISTMAS GIFT APPEAL with Focus Ireland

The team at Killarney Royal will be spreading some festive cheer this Christmas and have joined forces with Focus Ireland to support homeless families in Munster with a gift-box appeal.

Killarney Royal are reaching out to families and schools to donate new gifts such as toys, books & pyjamas for boys and girls who are aged 0-12 years to fill as many gift-boxes as possible. Join the team at Killarney Royal along with your family on Saturday December 3rd to drop off your gift to our team in the hotel lobby. Afterwards you can enjoy some hot chocolate, festive treats and the children can also meet Santa & the Elves around 2pm.

If you would like to get involved, please drop off your gift to Killarney Royal on Saturday December 3rd, 12.30 - 2pm. Please note that all gifts must be new - the team at The Royal look forwarding to welcoming you.

Roisin O'Sullivan and Claudia Buckley at the Killarney Royal Hotel in preparation for the Christmas Gift Appeal for Focus Ireland.

QUIZ BUFFS ARE BEAUFORT BOUND as Kilgobnet NS hold Table Quiz

It's all about the playground in Kilgobnet as the National School are planning a table quiz at The Inn Between Bar, Beaufort, on Friday, 2nd December, from 7.30pm, in aid of a brand new community playground at the school. The cost is €40 for a table of a maximum of 4 people.

The school has already successfully secured a substantial grant for the playground, but is required to find a significant percentage itself, therefore fundraising is essential for this exciting project to come to completion.

There will be generous cash prizes to be won for top scorers, as well as plenty of exciting spot prizes to be awarded to those with a little bit of luck on their side, including a voucher for a night's bed and breakfast at the Randles Hotel, Killarney! There will also be a raffle on the night for more chances to go home with a prize. The Inn Between Bar is also kindly sponsoring finger food on the night.

Maura O' Connor, Principal of Kilgobnet National School, said, "We were delighted to be informed recently that we were successful in our application to CLAR for a playground on the grounds of the school, serving its pupils and the local community. We were aware of the need for a playground in the local community, as we know playgrounds are essential to children for their physical and emotional wellbeing and development. In order to proceed with the project we are engaging in a number of fundraisers to help raise funds to cover the remainder of the costs involved. It's a very exciting time for the school and the community as a whole."

CHARITY CONCERT TO SHOWCASE THE CREAM OF THE CROP

A charity concert at Killarney School of Music tomorrow, Saturday 19th November will see some of the schools most talented students perform a range of traditional and Irish Folk Songs.

The concert begins at 7.30p.m. with doors opening at 7pm.

The €10 (cash only) entry fee will get patrons access to the concert and a complimentary ticket for the draw with the Killarney Valley Classic & Vintage raffle to win a rebuilt Toyota Starlet.

The car is being raffled by the KVCV with the beneficiaries being the Kerry IKA Branch, Killarney Valley AC, Recovery Haven Kerry Cancer Support House, Cuan Mhuire

"These students are the cream of the crop and this is a fantastic opportunity for members of the public to see just what they have to offer", Padraig Buckley from the school told Killarney Outlook.

Advanced booking recommended as seating is limited contact 0646637598 or info@killarneyschoolofmusic.com

Our promise: we're here to help you feel and look beautiful.

If you are looking for a multidenominational primary school where religious and non-religious backgrounds are respected and explored in the Killarney area then look no further than Two Mile Community National School.

The school provides choice to parents in the Killarney area who are looking for an alternative to the traditional model of Catholic education, welcoming children from all religious and cultural backgrounds.

Two Mile is one of three schools in Kerry, which operates under the patronage of Kerry Education and Training Board.

'We see ourselves very much as a school for the whole community' says Catherine Barry, Principal. 'Whatever your belief, all children are welcome. In our school we have children of many different faiths, and others with no particular religious beliefs. Through our Goodness Me Goodness You programme, we explore different perspectives, focusing on the similarities between religions while respecting the differences.'

OPEN DAY

TOMORROW FOR TWO MILE COMMUNITYS

It is the Goodness Me, Goodness You programme that sets Two Mile CNS apart from other schools. Through this programme, the children explore their own identities. They discuss values and ethical questions and experience lessons in children's philosophy. The values of excellence in education, care, equality, community and respect permeate all aspects of school life. The school delivers the National Primary School Curriculum as taught in every other primary school. However, Two Mile CNS does so in a way that fosters a warm inclusive environment with high standards of education and excellent home school links.

Aoife McBride is a parent of a child who started Junior Infants this year. She reflects on the approach to education in Two Mile CNS: 'I was delighted to find a school that is multidenominational, inclusive and forward thinking. These values are important to me and when choosing a school, I searched specifically to find an alternative. It is great that there is a school in Kerry providing an alternative education. My daughter has settled in very well and is very happy in her new school'

'Two Mile CNS is reflective of the fact that Irish society is more diverse than ever and parents should have access to multidenominational education for their children' says Catherine Barry. 'We are providing this alternative in the Killarney area for parents who are looking for something a little different in a primary school than what has traditionally been on offer'

Two Mile CNS is open to all on Saturday 19th November 2-4pm. We invite parents of children of all ages to come to visit our school, to meet the pupils, teachers and parents. We extend a particular welcome to parents of children due to start Junior Infants in September 2023.

If you like to enrol your child or have any questions please feel free to contact Catherine Barry on 086 418 3558 or email principal@twomilecns.ie

The Jukebox Musical

Final preparations are underway for Prom Queen - The Jukebox Musical which will take to the stage of the INEC on Monday night next November 21st.

Prom Queen: The Jukebox Musical' is a youth project based primarily in Killarney and was written by local Killarney Community College pupil, Sinéad Greene (15). "This youth project aims to raise awareness around the importance of mental health. There are many relevant themes and issues relating to a modern day society such as bullying, domestic abuse and LGBTQ+ representation (similar to the SPHE curriculum)", Sinead told Killarney Outlook.

"The show hopes to shine light on these topics and spark conversations about the many different stories portrayed in the plot of this production. There is a witty approach to the daunting questions of the modern day, with a catchy soundtrack which has many great, recognisable hits!", she added.

"Our cast and crew include many local pupils and also pupils from outside Killarney (e.g. Rathmore, Tralee and even as far as Cork and Limerick) who have all worked tirelessly to get this production going including Sinéad Greene, (writer, co-director and lead actor) and Rachel Griffin (17) Killarney Community College, (co-director, executive producer and lead actor); she said.

"We are working in conjunction with MACademy, a local theatre organisation that provide the pupils with masterclasses and guidance. This inspiring group of young people have managed to get this production on the INEC Arena stage for the 21st of November (for public viewing), but felt the need to have a special show dedicated to the teenagers on the 22nd of November in which Secondary Schools have been invited to attend", Sinead added.

The Launch of Prom Queen - The Jukebox Musical took place at Killarney Avenue Hotel on Sunday.

The event was hosted by KIFF Award Winner, Jessica Courtney Leen who said "It's really inspiring to see a group of young people spending their free time creating a gorgeous piece of theatre like this. We've been following the journey online here at West End House and we're so impressed by this talented ensemble."

"We are so grateful for all the support yesterday, the Killarney Avenue Hotel for providing us with the venue, Kieran Somers doing what he does best and turning the venue into a magical theatre setting, complete with great sound and fabulous lights. Special thanks to Lily and Makeala from the MacAdemy and last but not least a big thank you to all the cast members and parents who were helping out with the bake sale and selling tickets at the event yesterday", Sinead added.

NEW SCHOOL OF VETERINARY MEDICINE TO BE LOCATED IN MUNSTER

By Billy Ryle

NEW VET SCHOOL

A Veterinary Work Group has met Taoiseach Micheál Martin, Agriculture Minister Charlie McConalogue and Further and Higher Education Minister Simon Harris with a view to having a new School of Veterinary Medicine established in Munster. University College Dublin (UCD) is the only college in Ireland offering a degree course in Veterinary Medicine, making it extremely difficult for a young person to become a Veterinary Surgeon. UCD offers 82 places on its undergraduate degree course and just 5 places in its graduate entry Vet course. Demand for these coveted places is so competitive, that the 581 CAO applicants who had veterinary medicine as their first-choice course on the CAO form in 2022, needed a staggering points' total in the Leaving Cert exam between 601 and 625 to secure a place.

SHORTAGE OF PLACES

Despite the need for Vets, it's well-nigh impossible to get a place on the UCD course. Indeed, many aspiring Vets don't even include the UCD Vet course on their CAO application form, due to the high points required and the prohibitive cost of studying in Dublin for five years. There is an acute shortage of college places to cater for those with a passion to become Vets.

INTEREST

University College Cork (UCC) and the University of Limerick (UL) were fast off the blocks to express an interest in providing the Vet school. Public Representatives in Limerick and Cork consider it a straight fight between the two city colleges for the prestigious new Vet school. That view, in my opinion, is wide of the mark and designed to frighten off competition from other Munster colleges. MTU Kerry in Tralee can make a much stronger case for the new Vet school than UCC and UL.

MTU KERRY EXPERTISE

MTU Kerry has the ambition, the expertise and the infrastructure to develop an excellent School of Veterinary Medicine. A Vet school in Tralee will be based in a county with an established reputation in the agricultural and animal industries. The school will have back-up from outstanding Vets in practice throughout the region. Kerry is the home base of Kerry Group plc, one of the biggest food companies in the world. From a small dairy company launched in Listowel in 1972, Kerry has grown to a global multinational in 50 years. Its journey under the dynamic leadership of Denis Brosnan tells a story of how belief and vision created a unique company from humble beginnings. Mr Brosnan is a recipient of an Honorary Fellowship from MTU Kerry.

LESS COSTLY

Tralee town and surrounds will comfortably accommodate 100 or more veterinary medicine students per annum at far less cost than Dublin, Cork and Limerick. Tralee will enable many deserving young people to fulfil the dream of a career as a Vet. Candidates who fail to get a Vet course place in UCD are forced to look to Eastern Europe. Currently, about 300 Irish vet students are based as far away as Warsaw in Poland, Budapest in Hungary and Kosice in Slovakia.

TRACK RECORD

Back in its days as a Regional Technical College (RTC), the current MTU Kerry initiated pioneering work in the agricultural area. Kevin Woods and his colleagues were quick to provide progressive agricultural courses. Today, MTU Tralee offers courses in agricultural engineering, agricultural science, veterinary bioscience, wildlife biology, biology and environmental studies. A degree course in Veterinary Medicine is a very natural next step in courses expansion.

GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY

If Jimmy Deenihan, Chairman of the Governing Body of MTU Kerry – Educationalist and former Minister for Rural Development and Food - and Professor Maggie Cusack, President of MTU, are prepared to compete with the big two of UCC and UL for the new Vet school, they will have the backing of the entire county. Minister Norma Foley can be depended upon for wholehearted support. Former Tánaiste, Dick Spring, himself a recipient of an Honorary Fellowship from MTU Kerry, is a good friend to the college and has been central to its development.

A-Team

This A-Team of advocates for a School of Veterinary Medicine in Tralee will have the everlasting gratitude of generations of Vets and Veterinary Nurses, if they deliver the goods. It's a golden opportunity for Tralee and Kerry. Let's go for it as opportunities like this don't present themselves too often. Nothing ventured nothing gained. Carpe Diem.

CHECKLIST

- UCD is the only college in Ireland offering a degree course in Veterinary Medicine
- A second Vet School is essential outside of Dublin
- There is total employment for veterinary graduates
- There is a dire need for more young people to qualify as Vets
- It takes 5yrs of study to qualify as a Vet with the qualification MVB (Hons)
- The Vet school can also offer Masters Degrees and Doctoral Degrees
- The Vet school can also offer a 4yr degree in Veterinary Nursing, BSc (Hons)
- A new School of Veterinary Medicine is to be established in Munster
- UCC and UL are interested in providing the new Vet school
- MTU Kerry can make a strong case for the new Vet school
- A Vet degree course is a very natural next step in courses expansion at MTU Kerry
- Kerry is the home of Kerry Group plc, one of the biggest food companies in the world

RATHMORE STUDENTS ENJOY TRIP TO BRUSSELS

Four students from Scoil Phobail Luachra in Rathmore, were selected to travel to Brussels by Sean Kelly MEP to speak about Europe's approach to climate change.

Under the watchful eye of their teacher Miriam O'Regan, Anna O' Mahoney, Lainey Harty, Jennifer Dineen and Tara Jones completed an essay competition to guarantee their place and were thrilled to be travelling & grateful of the warm welcome and respect they received from parliament members, especially Sean Kelly MEP for Ireland South. They enjoyed a luxurious stay in the Thon Hotel EU and were given a tour of the EU parliament, including activities and games to gain insight into the work of the EU and its MEPs. Additionally, they were gifted hoodies appropriately coloured in the blue and yellow of the E.U, a tour of a Belgian chocolate factory and made waffles at the waffle workshop. All the girls are extremely appreciative for this once in a lifetime experience and admit that it opened their eyes to the process behind our law and the work of our MEP's.

Neil is on The Other Side and ready to share his story

An extremely powerful story of the journey of living with depression, anxiety and suicidal ideation is portrayed by Killarney man Neil Kelders in his debut book - The Other Side: A Memoir of Hope in the Midst of Depression.

Neil Kelders from Woodlawn in Killarney is a mental health and wellbeing advocate, coach and international speaker, who since his teenage years has suffered from depression, anxiety and suicidal ideation. After 21 years of suffering alone, Neil talked for the first time. Through that simple act, Neil took responsibility through action, and his life was never the same again. His journey has led him to speak to thousands of people worldwide. His mission is to give people a better understanding of what it means to live with mental health problems, and give hope to those struggling to find their way through life.

Neil's book, which will be released on Amazon on Wednesday next 23rd November, looks back at his life when experienced depression and anxiety and felt he was watching life from the outside with everyone on the move around him. The severity of what Neil was going through let him to have suicidal thoughts and believing he had tried everything to help himself, he closed his eyes to the world. Then, one day for some unknown reason, Neil spoke. He spoke for the very first time about what was going on inside. This was his first step towards the Other Side.

In The Other Side, Neil Kelders, now an international speaker, mental health advocate and author, identifies the mindsets that make it difficult for us to change. Drawing on his own battles, and with his signature humour, Neil's message is one of hope despite all. Blending autobiography, philosophical insights and practical, action-steps for change, The Other Side is an insight into how a better life is possible. Each chapter contains 'Neil's Notes', practical tools and actions you can try. Each book comes with a QR code to a free eBook, which contains additional tools and practical advice.

As long as we're living and breathing, it is always possible to live a better life. The good news is that by following Neil's story and advice, change and taking action will get easier. The 'Other Side' is not perfection, it's living with hope in the midst of everything.

The book is a memoir/self-help book and will be available for purchase on Amazon on Wednesday next 23rd November and will also be available through this link - theotherside-book.com

Bursaries Presented to Schools at LIONS CLUB OPEN NIGHT

Despite the weather there was a great turnout at the Killarney Lions Club open night which took place at the KDYS Youth Centre in Killarney on Thursday, 10th November.

The night featured different exhibitions about Killarney Lions Club activities such as the Annual Christmas Food Appeal and the Kerry Clubs Fair. In addition, the Lions Club presented bursaries to Killarney Community College, St. Brigid's Presentation School and St. Brendan's College to help support students in need.

President of Killarney Lions Club Denis Doolan said "It was great that people made the effort to come and find out more what Killarney Lions Club does, despite the weather on the night. We are a voluntary group so community support is vital for activities such as our Christmas Food Appeal which will kick off very soon."

The Killarney Lions club, through its members, assists various groups and individuals in and around the community. Lions do this through voluntary activities, fundraising and by holding various types of events in support of a great many local causes.

Mark O Leary was crowned national Scór solo singing (Amhránaíocht Aonair)

Kerry GAA added two further All Ireland Titles to its honours list on Saturday last 12th November following outstanding performances from its representatives in All Ireland senior Scór Finals at packed Travellers Friend Royal Theatre in Castlebar Co. Mayo. It was a particularly proud, exciting, historic and memorable day for Gneeveguilla club when their competing members clinched two national Scór titles in very competitive and tense environment in the presence of a large excitable jubilant band of their traveling club supporters waving aloft the green and gold colours with some little pride.

Mark O Leary was crowned national Scór solo singing (Amhránaíocht Aonair) champion in addition to his Munster and Kerry titles, following his wonderful and sweet rendition of Gary McMahon's song "The Hills around Listowel" while their fleet footed members danced the Caledonian Set to graceful perfection with energy and style to also claimed an All Ireland title, dancing members were Joan Brosnan, Kellie O Sullivan, Rachel and Aisling McGilliuddy, Chas Collins, Conor Crowley, Kieran Browne and Pat Murphy adding to their Kerry and Munster titles. This was a wonderful and memorable achievement for the proud rural club of Gníomh Go Leith.

Remarkably Gneeveguilla become the fourth Kerry club to win All

GNEEVEGUILLA WIN TWO NATIONAL TITLES AT SCÓR FINALS

Ireland Set Dancing titles, following the footsteps of Kilcummin in 2014, Glenflesk in 2003 and 2012 plus Spa's five in a row titles of 2004 to 2008 inclusive.

Interestingly also is that Mark O Leary joins an illustrious group of Kerry all Ireland Scór solo singing / Amhránaíocht Aonair champions Kilcummin's Mairéad Healy (2003) and Patrice O Connor (2000), Spa's Siobhán O'Brien (1990) and Paula O Carroll of Ballymacelligott in 1987.

Churchills' Trath na gCeist team comprising of Mikey Moriarty, Micheal Gaynor, Paul Culloty and Tommie O'Donnell as per usual performed very well in a competitive quiz competition finishing in fourth place being pipped by a single mark for the playoff stage.

One of Kerry's and Spa's active members Ann Mangan was bestowed with a National Award by Tomás O Muirí, Chairperson of Coiste Scór Naisúinta in recognition of her long dedicated services to Scór and promotion of Cultural Activities. Anne has been synonymous with much of Spa's cultural achievements as illustrated by impressive list of successes over the years in addition to her Kerry and Munster achievements.

On an exciting weekend for Kerry GAA cultural activities, huge credit and congratulations is merited to all who represented Kerry with such pride and distinction in National Scór finals over the weekend in Castlebar. Gneeveguilla's dream of winning an Ireland Scór title was fulfilled, their journey over past two months has been remarkable one, commencing at their own local GAA club premises, winning County titles at Currow Community Centre in early October followed by claiming Munster titles at Cappamore on the way to the national stage in Castlebar last weekend. Many positive reasons for Gneeveguilla club and its members to celebrate their outstanding achievements and an example for other clubs to follow in their Scór footsteps.

Coiste Scór Ciarraí offer its sincere Comhghairdeas to Gneeveguilla's Mark O Leary, their Set Dancers, Anne Mangan of Spa and Churchill's quiz team on their noteworthy achievements when representing their club and Ciarraí with pride and distinction. Ciarraí Abú.

Representing Gneeveguilla and winning an All Ireland title are dancing members were Joan Brosnan, Kellie O Sullivan, Rachel and Aisling McGilliuddy, Chas Collins, Conor Crowley, Kieran Browne and Pat Murphy adding to their Kerry and Munster titles.

O'CONNOR VIDEO GOES VIRAL, AND PADDY CASEY ADDED TO COLLEGE CONCERT

Fifteen Munstermen weren't the only winners when they famously beat South Africa in a rugby match recently at Páirc Uí Chaoimh, Cork. Another proud Munsterman, the internationally-acclaimed accordion player Liam O'Connor, entertained the sell-out crowd at that memorable clash and has seen a video of that performance going viral on social media.

Meanwhile the much in-demand O'Connor has announced that Irish multi-platinum album-seller Paddy Casey has been added to the bill for the annual concert at St Brendan's College, Killarney on Thursday, December 1st at 8 pm where the bill already includes legendary Hurling manager Brian Cody, plus O'Connor himself and his family band.

Delighted with Casey's addition to the bill, O'Connor says. "That we can attract musicians of the calibre of Paddy Casey shows how much the St Brendan's show has grown in stature over the years. Paddy has recently released a new album Turn This Ship Around and of course fans will also expect him to give us his hits 'Saints and Sinners' and 'The Lucky One'. It's shaping up like some show already!"

Casey once had the accolade of being personally invited by U2 as their support act for a major international tour that helped him win new fans overseas. His trophy cabinet includes two consecutive Meteor Irish Music Awards for Best Irish Male, and several awards from Hot Press, Ireland's premier music magazine.

Also appearing with Cody and Casey on what promises to be a momentous night will be the St Brendan's College Choir and Music Group, and Liam O'Connor's own family band featuring Saoirse on vocals, concertina and keyboards, Oisín, who plays guitars, keyboards and percussion, and Cillian on drums.

Tickets for the St Brendan's College concert are available from ticketshop.ie

GOAL MILE LAUNCHED IN KILLARNEY

The emerging and uncontrollable force of Kerry Football, David Clifford is inspiring fellow citizens from the Kingdom to register for the GOAL Mile this Christmas

GOAL Miles in Kerry will take place at Castleisland, Killorglin, Kenmare, Killarney, and Listowel and Kerry All-Ireland champion, David Clifford, in partnership with Monika Dukarska, Olympic Rower and Jimmy Deenihan, former Minister, Kerry footballer and five-time All-Ireland winner (and GOAL Board Member) are lining up today with pupils from St. Brendan's College in Killarney to encourage communities across the Kingdom to sign up for GOAL's hugely popular Christmas fundraiser, the GOAL Mile. The GOAL Mile, now a hardy Christmas tradition, will celebrate its 40th anniversary this year. The Mile has seen tens of thousands of people run or walk a mile (just 2,000 steps) in villages, towns, and cities across Ireland and around the world, to raise funds for GOAL humanitarian programmes in Africa, Latin America, the Middle East and now Ukraine. Speaking at the event in St Brendan's College, Killarney, David Clifford said 'I was honoured to be asked to support the 40th anniversary of the GOAL Mile and encourage my fellow Kerry men and women to sign up for a Mile this Christmas. The Mile is a fantastic way to bring people together during the holidays and have some fun while supporting our Irish born humanitarian aid agency.' To register to take part in a GOAL Mile near you this Christmas, please visit <https://www.goalmile.org/>

PIONEERING KERRY TEACHER REMEMBERED IN KILLORGLIN

The pioneering work and achievements of a Kerry teacher who was a leading trade union activist in Ireland are to be celebrated at an event being organised on the 50th anniversary of her death.

The Kerry Branch of the Teachers' Union of Ireland is to honour the memory of Patricia Hurley, a teacher from Killorglin who was a prominent trade union leader until her untimely death in a car accident on 10 November 1972.

Ms Hurley, who taught at Killorglin Technical School made history by becoming the first ever female vice-president of the Vocational Teachers' Association (VTA), a forerunner of the modern-day TUI. She was one of the first women to occupy a senior position in any trade union in Ireland. She was also a passionate advocate for vocational and adult education.

'Patricia Hurley made a profound make on Irish education despite dying tragically at the young age of just 34 years,' Joe Brennan, Kerry Branch Chairman of TUI, one of the organisers of an event to honour Ms Hurley. A plaque will be unveiled by the Minister for Education, Norma Foley, at Killorglin Community College on Friday, 11 November to ensure that Patricia Hurley's contribution to teaching and trade union activism is permanently remembered.

'Patricia Hurley made history by becoming vice-president of the union in 1971. She was a vocal advocate for vocational education and despite being a full-time teacher in Killorglin, she travelled the country working with branches of the union.

'It was on her return from a union meeting in November 1972, during which she was supporting strike action by teachers in County Wexford, that she was sadly killed in a road collision near Enniscorthy,' Anne Doyle, Kerry Branch Equality Officer.

A native of Ardeevin, Killorglin, Ms Hurley was also a member of the Irish Congress of Trade Union advisory committee on the Commission on the Status of Women and sat on the Department of Education committee on the Junior Certificate examination in the early 1970s. She also represented the Kerry Vocational Education Committee (VEC) at a conference on adult education in Denmark a few weeks before she died.

The TUI in cooperation with Kerry ETB are unveiling a plaque in Killorglin Community College to mark the 50th anniversary of the tragic death of Patricia Hurley. Patricia was a native of Killorglin and was the first female Vice President of TUI. She taught for many years in Killorglin in what was known at the time as Killorglin Vocational School. She died tragically in a car accident while travelling from a meeting with the Dept of Education in Wexford in 1972. Pictured on the Day were: Les Begley, Joe Brennan, Minister Norma Foley, Anne Doyle and Mervan Clifford.

DELIGHT AT THE OPENING OF THE INSPIRED DAY SERVICE

The much-anticipated opening of the Inspired day-service located at Brandon Court, Basin Rd, Tralee took place on Monday November 7th.

Inspired is a not-for-profit organisation, dedicated to empowering adults with intellectual disabilities and the organisation has gone from strength to strength since 2014. The building owned by the Byrne family and formally known as the Brandon Court Hotel was renovated by Inspired during the pandemic. Even though the organisation moved into the building in 2021, due to Covid-19 restrictions they were unable to host the celebratory opening until now.

Minister for Education, Norma Foley said "It is a great pleasure and a privilege to officially open the magnificent new Inspired Centre in Tralee. As both a teacher, and as Minister for Education, I recognise the importance of inclusive education for all. It gives me immense pride and joy to see that ethos and spirit of inclusion is not only alive and well but thriving here at Inspired".

Participants treated guests to a tour of the centre, with some serving food and refreshments while others were eager to deliver their views and opinions on what Inspired has meant to them so far. Chairperson of Inspired, Kay McCarthy explained that "the organisation was founded in 2014 by a group of parents who believed that people with intellectual disabilities should be an integral part of society, having equal rights to participate in education and employment. Kay who spoke on behalf of the board, management and staff said that "they will continue the mission and vision of Inspired and will continue to develop a service where self-advocacy and social inclusion were prioritised".

Patrice O'Neill, Day Services Opportunities Manager Kerry HSE, commented on the Inspired journey and how it has embraced the New Directions approach in every sense. She remarked on the availability of choice and the focus on ability instead of disability.

Liz Maher, Manager of Inspired spoke of the dedication extended to Inspired by the team of architects and building professionals who worked in one of the worst conditions during the renovation period. Liz also remarked on the dedication of the Inspired staff and volunteers who worked endlessly during Covid-19 and commended and applauded their work on successfully and seamlessly transitioning all participants back into the service which remained fully open during the pandemic. In addition, funders, and stakeholders such as the HSE, NEWKD, Bon Secours Hospital Tralee and Kerry ETB were thanked for their financial contributions and huge support.

Paddy Clancy was keen to emphasise the importance of language, narrative and how we reference disability in general, saying "I hate clicking the word disabled person, its not how I see myself and we need to change this".

The organisation reiterated its commitment to providing exceptional person-centred supports guided by a Human Rights model. Manager Liz Maher stated that they would do this "by empowering people with intellectual disability to become self-determined valued members of the community, while enabling them to enjoy the good things in life like every other citizen". Management and staff agreed that they would continue to focus on individual ability, enabling participants to achieve their full potential, by encouraging personal choices, interests, and advocacy.

THE BORDER BOYS PAY TRIBUTE TO THE KERRY TEAM

From a song written in 2000 to a song written in 2022, The Border Boys have released their tribute to the Kerry Team in great style.

The group comprises of Donal Murphy, Derry Healy, Oliver Daly, Mike O'Keeffe, Rosie Healy, Mike Foley & Wayne Smith and the song was the brainchild of Donal Murphy, whose son is Kerry Football and Rathmore star Paul Murphy.

The song was first written in a bid to get much sought after tickets for the 2000 All Ireland Football Final when a portion of Croke Park was being redeveloped.

"Myself and Derry Healy decided to get together with my lyrics and his singing and offered the proceeds from the CD to the Kerry Team and we were delighted when we 6 got tickets for the game as a thank you", Donal told Killarney Outlook. "We took my boys Stephen, Paul and Cathal to the game", Donal added.

The CD was hugely popular throughout the county and indeed it was a regular player in the O'Shea family car in Kenmare where Seanie loved to listen to it when he was a young boy with big dreams to play with Kerry.

Donal rewrote some of the lyrics after the All Ireland Football Final this year and it was sang publically for the first time on the Wednesday after the All Ireland Football down in Kenmare.

"We Want The Sam Maguire 2022" is a real labour of love for the Border Boys and a tribute to all the past and present Kerry footballers.

The Border Boys: Donal Murphy, Derry Healy, Oliver Daly, Mike O'Keeffe, Rosie Healy, Mike Foley & Wayne Smith

WE WANT SAM MAGUIRE 2022

Shane Ryan is in the goal, good looking like his Ma,
Jason Foley is full back, a big man like his Da,
Tom Sullivan in the corner, he really loves attack,
And Graham, down from Dromid is the other corner back.

Brian O'Beg at wing back at full flow, he's some sight,
At left half is the rocket man, his name is Gavin White
Tadhg Morley in the centre, he's really been a rock.
He does a little farming out near Direendarrach.

Midfield this year for Kerry is all about Tralee
Diarmuid Jack and Stefan, Na Gaeil Club they have three
The Stack's man Joe, our Captain, all big and fast and brave,
And Ogie's son from Strand Road, the Prince, his name is Dave.

Chorus: We Want the Sam Maguire
The Desire is Burning and the year is turning
We won it with Dwyer
But then Jack came backo and we all went wacko

The Green and Gold have forwards as good as what's around
Michael and cousin Dara, their energy abounds
Steve O'Brien, Paul Geaney, Tony Brosnan pace he brings
And the brother Paudie Clifford, the man who pulls the strings

Then when help is needed and Jack looks towards the subs
We would not win without them, we learned that from the Dubs.
The Spillane Boys Kill and Aido onto the hallowed turf
And when he needs defensive calm he sends for Paulie Murf

And all those nights at training, in good weather and in rain
Jack and all his team they worked to sharpen skill and brain
Michael, Jason, Diarmuid Murf they got them in the zone
Colm Whelan, Tony Griffin, Paddy Tally from Tyrone.

And what about the latest genius who ever kicked a ball...
He kicks with his left, he kicks with his right,
he scores them all.
He scared us all against Mayo when he stood upon the ball
His name is David Clifford, he's gonna be the best of all.

Then our season nearly ended, there was tension in the air
Seanie's free was so far out, twas nearly in Kenmare
Shaking posts and rabid Dubs, it really looked too far
But Shane Ryan came up and told him to just drive it o'er the bar

Of course there must be back up, 'tis a 36 man team.
Some of them had injuries, Dylan Casey and Mike Breen.
Gav Crowley, Greg and Dara they will not let you down, Cian and Pa and Eanna, Jack O'shea and Donal Down.

Jack Savage as a blood sub, Shane Murphy 'tween the sticks
Dan Donoghue hard as iron, all added to the mix.
You'll all go down in history & your legend will be great 'Cos you gave our heart and played your part in All Ireland '38

MUCKROSS ROWING CLUBBOAT LAUNCH

On Sunday last, club members and supporters

Ted Leahy, Aimee Cotter (Cork City), Kate Forde (Killarney) and Lisa Dowling (Macroon)

gathered at the club's boathouse for the launch of the club's newest racing boat, a coxless Filippi Four, named in honour and in memory of the late James Mangan. James wore the Muckcross colours with great distinction throughout his rowing career, which extended from early beginnings at the Killarney Regatta as a teenager to national prominence as an Irish Champion and winner at Henley Royal Regatta among many other successes. The boat launch was a very special occasion for James' family and friends and a poignant day for the club. The blessing of the boat was carried out by Fr. Kieran O'Brien following speeches from Sean Coffey and Paul Griffin as former coach and crewmate, which reflected on the life of James, his immense contribution to rowing in Muckcross and the many lasting friendships forged through rowing in Ireland and beyond. Our thanks to everyone in attendance and especially to the members of the Mangan family. A special thanks also to Fr. Kieran O'Brien who presided over the blessing of the boat and to Valerie O'Sullivan for photography on the day.

SKIBBEREEN HOR

Best of luck to the more than 60+ crews representing Muckcross at the Skibberreen Head Of the River in the Cork city marina this Saturday.

KILLARNEY JUDOMUNSTER MINI MON

Last Sunday, 23 players of Killarney Judo Club travelled to take part in a Munster Mini Mon competition in Macroon. They fought players from Tralee, Macroon, Cork City and Waterford on the day.

For many of the players, it was their first taste of competition outside of the local club. The youngest of the players was 6 with the oldest having just turned 16.

Overall, Killarney won 6 Golds, 3 Silvers and 13 Bronze on a busy day. Special thank you to all the parents who made the trip on the day.

Next, the older players will compete in the All Ireland's on December 10th in Dublin.

MONEY MATTERS.....

By Dermot Cronin,
Financial Advisor

IS IT MORE DIFFICULT TO GET A MORTGAGE TO BUILD MY HOME THAN A MORTGAGE TO BUY MY HOME?

Yes, it can be more difficult. When you are building your family home there are more of risks of things going wrong than purchasing your home especially in relation to the overall cost. The most obvious and biggest risk is of course the risk of you going over your budget to build and finish your property and not having enough money to complete your home. Lenders when assessing your application need to take this risk into account. Lenders will put emphasis on the cost of construction of your property. If you are making your application through a mortgage broker they should spend time discussing the cost of the construction and loan amounts with you to make sure they are realistic and affordable. If these figures are incorrect and especially if they are too low then your mortgage application could be declined and more importantly you may not have enough money to finish the property. A big plus at the moment for people who are first time buyers and are building or buying a new property that is their family home is that there is a Help To Buy Scheme that you can apply for through the Revenue. Thankfully this was extended recently in the budget. There is up to €30,000 available through this scheme, there are terms and conditions attached to this Help To Buy Scheme. Obviously this is very beneficial in terms of reducing your overall cost and reducing your mortgage amount also. Each lenders criteria for self build mortgages is different & you need to know this before choosing a lender that suits your needs best. A mortgage broker who has access to many lenders and has a lot of experience with self build mortgages should be very helpful to you.

If you require any further information on the above or any other matter you can contact Dermot Cronin at dermotcroninfa@gmail.com or 0646622775 or 0872893649.

FRIDAY NIGHT LIGHTS ARE BACK!!

Kerry Football Club is delighted to announce that it has been successful in its application to secure an SSE Airtricity First Division License for the 2023 League of Ireland Season.

It has been a dream for many years to provide the highest level of senior football in the Kingdom of Kerry. Being able to provide this full pathway for all soccer players in Kerry is something that the soccer community has always longed for.

We are at a new dawn and have never been as excited to begin this journey. It has been a little over 20 years since Kerry first played on the national stage at the U-21 level vs Waterford United under the lights at Mounthawk Park and we are very much looking forward to bringing those Friday Night Lights back for the players and community.

There has been so much work that has gone into this journey, and we would like to also take this moment to thank all members of the Kerry District League for your support, this was not possible without you. Thank you to Mark Scanlon and his team at the FAI for providing ample support for this project and guidance through the Licensing Process. Last and not least, our own team, led by former League of Ireland Star Billy Dennehy, Steven Conway, Brian Ainscough, Sean O Keffe, Geraldine Nagle and our Club Licensing Officer, Adrien King in making this dream become a reality for the whole of Kerry.

Speaking on the announcement, Steven Conway said "A dream come through, from watching my brother David Captain Kerry vs Waterford 20 years ago on that historic night, being a former Kerry player for many years, it fills me with immense pride and emotion to fulfil this dream and now give it to every young boy and girl in the County"

We look forward to welcoming all players and supporters from Waterford United, Treaty United, Cobh Ramblers, Athlone Town, Finn Harps, Galway United, Bray Wanderers, Wexford Youths and Longford Town to Kerry in the 2023 Season.

KILCUMMIN GAELIC MOTHERS & OTHERS ENJOY GREAT QUIZ FUNDRAISER

It was a full house at the Klub Bar in Kilcummin for the Kilcummin Gaelic Mothers & Others fundraising table quiz.

"After much preparation and weeks of organisation, we had a huge turnout for our table Quiz last Friday night in the Kilcummin Klub Bar with in excess of 150 people attended and the night generated over €2,000 for the Kilcummin Mothers & Others ladies football team", Ann Marie O'Leary told Killarney Outlook.

The "Big Raffle" on the night of the event, contributed enormously to the fun and atmosphere of the event, and also contributed in no small way to the final financial outcome. "A huge thank you to all the generous businesses and individuals who contributed a prize to this part of the night", Ann Marie added.

"We would also like to extend our gratitude to the management and staff of the Klub Bar in Kilcummin who accommodated this event. Indeed, the staff pulled out all the stops with a wonderful array of finger food presented at half time to nourish the grey matter of all the participants.

"Our wonderful Quiz Master, the maestro himself, Cathal Walsh put the participants through their paces with a variety of questions, testing the most ardent intellectuals on the night!

"We would like to take this opportunity to thank all who attended and participated on the night.

"It was, undoubtedly a great social evening for all in attendance", Ann Marie added.

The funds raised will help purchase much needed equipment for our Mothers & others Football team.

GIVE YOUR HEAD SOME SPACE WITH THIS MINDFUL EXERCISE!

This exercise is a great way to create some space in your head, especially if you have been thinking about a stressor over and over. It is calming to the nervous system, whilst stimulating the blood flow to your head.

1. Start with your thumbs on your temples; fingertips resting in the middle of your forehead. Your hands will be slightly curled at this point.
2. Apply firm pressure and slowly pull your fingers apart, stretching the skin across your forehead until your fingers get to your hairline at the side of your forehead. Make sure you breathe deeply – in through your nose and out through your mouth. You can repeat if this feels good (which it usually does!)
3. Move your fingers up and place your little finger at your hairline, with the other fingers above it. Repeat the stretch. Work your way across the top of your head, fingers always at the centre line and stretching the skin apart. Continue until you reach the base of your neck.
4. Move down to your shoulders, push your fingers in and hold. A lot of stress can be held in our shoulders, so you may find it tender here. Pull across your shoulders towards your front. Hold your hands there until it feels right, then release and drop your hand and arms.

Enjoy!

Noreen

answers your beauty questions...

Best Brow Shape to flatter your face?

First decide your face shape by measuring (see last week) or draw a ring around your reflection in a steamy mirror to get an idea. You may like subtle or strong eyebrows but knowing your face shape will help you enhance your features.

Oval – This balanced face shape is very symmetrical so go for a full brow with a natural arch beginning and ending at the same level.

Round – A structured brow will suit with high arches to add sharpness and definition to lengthen your round face.

Square – A less defined curved arch will soften the angular jawline in your square face and reduce the forehead size.

Long – A straight brow with a low arch to make your long face look fuller.

If you have close-set eyes start your brows straight up from your tear ducts. If you have far-set eyes start your brows closer

THE IMPORTANCE OF A MONDAY SESSION

Monday is a clean slate let's face it, that's our mindset, exercising on a Monday can get the ball rolling for your workout routine. Exercise on a Monday can help those Monday blues feel the flow of the happy endorphins after. Any anxious taught you have will quinch that fear or help reduce those anxiety taught, you'll kickstart good self-control. Heading into work if you get your workout first thing will help boost brainpower and generally make you feel happier. It really does set you up for the day especially and kick starts your week!

So make Monday your best step in the right direction at the start of the week. If you find Monday a busy day and the hours running away with you with blocks constantly getting in the way, then set your alarm early and get going first thing before everyone else gets up. Here at B Well we have added a 6.45am Virtual Spin to set you up for day ahead nice and early and we also have a Super Circuit at 7am. So no excuses get booking!!!!

DRIVING AND VISION

It is important that you can see clearly to be able to drive safely. Conditions that may affect your visual field and driving include strokes and brain tumours, as well as eye conditions such as diabetic retinopathy and glaucoma (if you have them in both eyes).

Make sure you have regular sight tests and if your optometrist tells you that you must not drive, you must stop all driving immediately. Driving when you are medically unfit to do so is a criminal offence, and you may be prosecuted if you are involved in an accident.

Driving glasses

If you have been advised to wear glasses for driving, make sure you wear them, even for short trips – and keep a spare pair in the car. Choose glasses with thinner sides for driving as they won't block your side vision as much as thicker ones. If you wear contact lenses, keep a pair of glasses in the car in case you need to take your lenses out. Even if you don't need to wear glasses all the time, you will probably find they are particularly helpful when the lighting is poor, and for driving at night.

Headlights of oncoming traffic can be dazzling when you are driving at night or in poor weather conditions. Special driving lenses designed with a specially-developed glare filter and a contrast-enhancing filter can help reduce reflections and uncomfortable glare from oncoming traffic.

If glare is an ongoing problem for you, make sure your windscreen and headlights are thoroughly cleaned and free from grime and dirt. If you wear glasses, and don't forget to keep them clean too. If you find that problems with glare at night persist, make an appointment to have a sight test. Sunshine can be dazzling too, particularly when the sun is low in the sky. If you wear glasses, you may find it helpful to have a pair of prescription sunglasses in the car, or to wear clip-on sunglasses over your prescription glasses. Polarised sunglasses are great for driving in bright conditions. Polarised lenses are lenses with a special built in filter to reduce glare and improve vision in bright conditions

➤MASTERGEEHA FC

The U12 girls made a trip West on Saturday morning. Captained by Evie Guerin, the game started with both teams creating some great chances, however mid-way through the first half Mastergeeha started to dominate and two first half goals from Aine Herlihy gave us a nice cushion at half time.

The girls kept the momentum going in to the second half with two great goals from Anna Lenihan. The last kick of the game was a penalty for Dingle. Our goalkeeper Shauna Riordan who played a superb game was finally beaten by an unstoppable shot leaving the final score 4-1 to Mastergeeha FC. Well done to our girls today who all played outstanding. Thanks to Dingle Bay Rovers for a very sporting game.

GLENFLESK

Written by: Seamus Healy

➤ CONDOLONCES DAN FAVIER RIP

Dan was born in Curraglass, and he was child No 5 of 9 to Joe and Mai Favier of Glenflesk Post Office. This is where his grá and affinity for the Post Office began. At the age of 18 he went to Dublin working with the Department of Post and Telegraphs where he spent 10 years working and living it up with the Dubs but thankfully, he never acquired the Dublin accent and kept on to his strong Kerry accent. He then returned to Killarney where he spent the next 25 years working in New St Killarney before returning home to Headford and Clonkeen where he spent his time until retirement marking 43 years with An Post. During his time working here he became an integral part of every household on his delivery routes. He was known for answering phones and taking messages in the owners' absence. Dan the postman often got the blame for babies' bottles and soothers going missing in the van, as parents were trying to wean them off them. He was known to often fill the kettle and help himself to cups of tea. He was an active member of the Communications Worker Union within An Post Killarney and South Kerry. He was a lifelong member of the Pioneer Association, something which he was extremely proud of. His faith played a significant part of his life, and he even had his own seat down at the back of the church near the sacristy, where he could keep an eye on all proceedings. He was an active member of Glenflesk Parish Council for many years. There wasn't a committee in Glenflesk that Dan was not a member of: GAA Bord Na Nóg & Senior Board, Glenflesk Community Games, Glenflesk Athletic Club, Comhaltas, Glenflesk Carnivals, GAA Lotto & was could regularly be spotted with the yellow bib picking up litter locally. He was a member of the Board of Management of Glenflesk NS for 16 years. While he never kicked a football he served as an administrator for many years with Glenflesk Board na Nog, Senior Board, East Kerry Scor a Nog & Scór Sinsear Boards. He was extremely privileged and proud to have served his time during one of the most successful eras of Glenflesk GAA Club when they won numerous O Donoghue Cup Finals and that great year in 2000 when Glenflesk won the Millennium Cup represented Kerry in the Club Championship in Munster where they reached the Munster final against Nemo. He was also delighted to be part of numerous All Ireland Scor wins and successes arriving back to the club, and it was of enormous pride when his son and daughter Paul and Danielle were among the dancers that featured. Making it a real family commitment to the GAA and East Kerry, his late brother Joe served as PRO of the board, his brother Pat has been both secretary and chairman and Anthony is currently involved with the Board and Fitzgerald Stadium. He travelled to many a GAA stadium in Munster with his brother Anthony as a Safety steward for matches. In latter years however he preferred to stay closer to home in his favorite spot Fitzgerald Stadium, where he had his own designated area, and everyone knew where to find him. While he was dedicated to his community, his main devotion was to his wife Marian, his five children Sinéad, Ciaran, Paul, Ollie, and Danielle, his ten grandchildren, daughters in law, son in law and his siblings, extended family, neighbours, and friends. He will be greatly missed by all. May he Rest in Peace. Thanks to Dans family for this eulogy and condolences again from Glenflesk GAA.

RONAN FLEMING RIP

Glenflesk GAA wishes to extend its sympathy to Derek Fleming (Ladies Club Chairperson) and all the Fleming family on the recent passing of Derek's brother Ronan. May he rest in peace.

BALLYHAR DYNAMOS FC

TEAMS

The club's u13s made the trip to Moneygall, Co Offaly for round 3 of the national cup with the home side taking the result on a 2-1 scoreline. Adam Fleming on the scoresheet with excellent performances from Ogie Griffin, Dylan Fitzgerald, Shane Edwards, Gearoid Moynihan, Ryan Vickers, Adam O Meara & Alex Finn. Thanks to the Coaches, Parents & O Meara Transport for ensuring an enjoyable day. The U12 girls hosted Listowel Celtic on Saturday and in a close contest the Ballyhar girls lost out on a 0-1 scoreline despite having a number of good scoring opportunities with Niamh O Sullivan, Leah Cooper, Lucy Wynne, Aoibhinn Daly & Grace O Sullivan all going close. Faye O'Brien & Seoidin Scanlon were also impressive on the day. The U17s welcomed Dingle Bay Rovers and led into the second half 1-0 with Gearoid Quirke on the score sheet assisted by Robert Kelly. Dingle scored two late goals with an unfortunate OG being the deciding goal. Best on the day were Rian Brosnan, Damien O'Connor, Colm O'Riordan & Jack Dicker. The seniors travelled to Tralee on Sunday morning where Classic FC took the win on a 2-5 scoreline. Classic led 0-1 at halftime with Patrick O'Connor going close with a spectacular bicycle kick just after Halftime. Trailing 2-3 after five goals by Alan Moriarty & James Horgan with fifteen minutes left the hosts kicked on to take the three points. On the day the club were best served by Padraig Hilliard, Alan Moriarty, Danny Cronin, Kevin O'Sullivan, Danny Brosnan, Padraig Fell, Padraig O'Connor & John Power.

TEAM OF THE WEEK

Well done to Emily O'Callaghan & Ryan Vickers for being selected on the KSBGL teams of the week recently.

KILLARNEY ATHLETIC AFC

U12 GIRLS PREMIER

Killarney Athletic vs Listowel Celtic

Lillian Slattery (4) Elle Fleury (1) Aoife Kelleher (1) Ella Crowley (3)

Great performance and Result from our U12 games today. Well done girls. Thanks to Listowel Celtic for a very good sporting game

U13 DIVISION 1 RESULT

Killarney Athletic 5-2 Mastergeeha

Shane Tomlinso, Daniel Fennelly, Sam O'Donoghue, Lucas Coleman

Our young Blues welcomed visitors Mastergeeha to Ferndale today for what turned out to be a game of two halves. Following a great save by keeper Adam Twomey Athletic took control and raced into a 4nil lead at halftime with a brace from captain Shane Tomlinson, Daniel Fennelly and a pen won and converted by Sam O'Donoghue. Mastergeeha edged the second half but a goal from Lucas Coleman sealed a 5-2 win for the Blues in what was a great squad performance.

Player of the match: Daniel Fennelly. Thanks to our neighbours for a very sporting game.

KDL DIVISION 3A

Killarney Athletic Cs 1-3 Mastergeeha Bs

A historic day for Killarney Athletic as our Senior Men's C team took to the field for the first time. Unfortunately it was not the result we hoped for as we eventually went down to a 3-1 defeat despite controlling large portions of the game. Proceedings started well with Jason O'Grady scoring with an excellent long range strike and Athletic went in at the break 1-0 up. However, Mastergeeha started the second half the better and managed to work three goals to win an entertaining game 3-1.

Onwards and upwards for this new team from here.

RESULT - MUNSTER JUNIOR CUP

Killarney Athletic 5-0 Ballyheigue AF

Our Senior As are into the last 32 of the Munster junior cup where they will play Villa FC of Waterford after a 5-0 victory over Ballyheigue athletic on Sunday in Mounthawk park. Ballyheigue are a well organized side and can play good football and it won't be long before they've playing in the premier A going off the first half in this game where they held the score line too 1-0 with the only goal coming from Roko.

They started the second half strong and could of equalized only for the striker pulling his shot just passed the post, this seemed to snap our seniors to life and soon after a goal from substitute Ian Prendergast coming on for Kian Ballyhar Dynamics FC u17s who in recent weeks defeated listowel Celtic 3-1 & were defeated 1-2 by Dingle Bay Rovers.

ALL-NEW OPEL ASTRA CROWNED IRISH COMPACT CAR OF THE YEAR 2023

If you are in the market for a new car then look no further than Ahern's Castleisland, Main Opel Dealers.

Opel celebrated a major win at this year's Irish Car and Van of the Year awards in association with Continental Tyres, held at The Westin Hotel, in Dublin on Friday 11th November. The much-acclaimed, all-new Opel Astra was crowned Irish Compact Car of the Year 2023, seeing off stiff competition in a hotly contested category and adding yet another trophy to its ever-growing list of international accolades. The latest win follows hot on the heels of a Golden Steering Wheel award and the German Compact Car of the Year 2023 title, bestowed at the German Car Awards.

Members of the Motoring Media Association of Ireland (MMAI) hosted the event, which was attended by Ireland's leading car brands, importers and distributors. Motoring journalists from print, online and broadcasting assessed each new car model launched in Ireland this year and voting took place to choose the ultimate segment winners.

The all-new Opel Astra wins Irish Compact Car of the Year 2023 in association with Continental Tyres is available at Ahern's Castleisland Main Opel Dealers.

Armed with the latest award, Opel now looks ahead to a busy 2023 which will see the launch of the new Astra and Grandland GSe range, the all-electric Astra and the Astra Sports Tourer. Why not check out the all-new Opel Astra at Ahern's Castleisland - Main Opel Dealer.

LADIES RECORD IMPRESSIVE VICTORY OVER HUSKIES

ST PAULS KILLARNEY 85
LIMERICK SPORTS HUSKIES 43

KILLARNEY SPORTS AND LEISURE CENTRE SATURDAY NOVEMBER 12TH 7.30PM

The result of this game was a foregone conclusion long before the final buzzer sounded as St Pauls Ladies bounced back from two defeats on the road to easily overcome Limerick Sports Eagles last Saturday night. James Fleming side had made an impressive start to the season putting the Marble City Hawks and the Limerick Celtics to the sword but came unstuck against the Dublin Lions and Portlaoise Panthers on the road so the return to the Killarney Sports and Leisure Centre was all about getting back to winning ways.

This was done thanks to the complete dominance of Canadian Sofia Paska under the boards at both ends and she dovetailed perfectly with Kerry Ladies Gaelic footballer Lorraine Scanlon to torment the Huskies inside. Yuleska Ramirez Tejeda's incisions to the basket were as sharp as a surgeon's scalpel while Lynn Jones and Rheanne O Sheas' assist play was top notch. With a healthy fourth quarter lead it also allowed the home side the opportunity to run the entire bench as Emma Kerin, Katie Brosnan, Aisling O Mahony, Seodhna O Donoghue, Jessica Quirke and Cassandra Buckley all saw valuable game time.

St Pauls were out of the blocks thanks to a quick basket from Rheanne O'Shea and the same player soon netted from beyond the arc to open up a 5-0 lead. The Huskies responded though and actually were in front 6-5 through to the promptings of Sophie Moore. It looked at this stage like an even contest may be in the offing but Scanlon, Paska and Tejeda soon got motoring to put the boot down. Kaylee Kacavas was doing her best for the Limerick side to stay in touch but the first quarter finished 20-9 in Paul's favour.

Paska opened the second quarter scoring and one of the scores of the night was to follow. Rheanne O'Shea with a behind the back dribble evaded her nearest opponent before sending a delightful pass to Scanlon to score an easy two. The Huskies featuring Killarney's Megan Buckley in their ranks couldn't stem the tide as Tejeda, Paska and Scanlon continued to impress to run up a 38-13 lead. Kacavas with support from Hannah Cremin tried in vain but the stronger bench rotation from Pauls means the momentum of the game never changed with the half time score at 42-18. The tormenting trio of Scanlon, Tejeda and Scanlon didn't let up in quarter three but it must also be said that their defence was almost as impressive forcing the Huskies into poor shot selections and a number of shot clock expirations. The Huskies perseverance did eventually pay off as they enjoyed their best period of the game towards the tail end of the quarter. Kaylee Kacavas, Hannah Cremin and Sophie Moore did combine for a much needed twelve points to take their total to 33 with St Pauls on 64.

That rhythm continued temporarily into the final quarter with Kacavas, Cremin and Fiona O Connell helping to make it a 68-40 game. Tejeda and Lynn Jones promptly halted their stride and Scanlon and the two O Sheas, Rheanne and Siofra (Kerry Ladies Gaelic Footballer), drove it on. Seodhna O'Donoghue showed she was her fathers daughter (club legend Cormac) with a great basket as Paska and Tejeda kept the scoring run going. Jessica Quirke hit the final note for the home side with a fine three pointer while Kristina Collins hit a late free throw to leave the full time score at 85-43.

St Pauls now hit the road again with trips to Carlow next Sunday and Limerick Celtics the following Saturday November 26th, games that form part of double bills with the men's equivalent Scotts Lakers against the same opposition. They will be at home again on Saturday December 17th against the Portlaoise Panthers. If they continue to perform the way they have in their league wins to date there is no doubt they will have a big say in the business end of the season.

Top scorers were Yuleska Ramirez Tejeda with 30 points, Sofia Paska(22), Lorraine Scanlon(16), Rheanne O Shea(9), Jessica Quirke(3), Lynn Jones(2), Seodhna O'Donoghue(2), Siofra O Shea(1), Cassandra Buckley, Aisling O Mahony, Katie Brosnan, Emma Kerin.

Front Row: Siofra O Shea, Lynn Jones, Cassandra Buckley, Rheanne O Shea, Seodhna O Donoghue.

Back Row: James Fleming (Coach), Aisling O Mahony, Sofia Paska, Yuleska Ramirez Tejeda, Lorraine Scanlon, Jessica Quirke, Denise Dunlea, Vincent Barry

For the Huskies Kaylee Kacavas had 17, Hannah Cremin 11 and Sophie Moore struck 10.

SCOTTS LAKERS ST. PAULS

Scotts Lakers St Paul's National League away game vs Killarney Cougars did not go ahead as scheduled on Saturday November 12th at 7.15 in the Presentation Gym.

Basketball Ireland informed both clubs earlier in the week that due to a scarcity of referees this weekend the game could not go ahead. Both clubs were urged to come up with plausible suggestions as to a refixture.

St Pauls Ladies were due to play UL Sports Huskies that Saturday in the Killarney Sports and Leisure Centre at 7.30. It was explored by St Pauls that the Ladies National League tie be moved to the Presentation Gym with a 5pm tip off, be finished by 6.30, thereby freeing up the match referees to officiate at the Men's National League Fixture between Scotts Lakers and Killarney Cougars. A minor adjustment to the tip off time, 7.15 to 7.30, would be necessary, in line with regulations which state a gym must be available to both sides one hour in advance of tip off. Disappointingly this possible solution was not agreeable on all sides and the game will now have to be played at a later date. This weekend on Sunday November 20th the Lakers travel to the Barrow Centre to face SETU Carlow in the latest round of the InsureMyVan.ie National Basketball League. With a 3pm tip off this game will be the second part of a double bill with the Ladies teams of both clubs meeting at the same venue at 12.30pm. Under the watchful eye of legendary coach Martin Conroy the Carlow side are always a durable opponent, more so in their own venue. They will be powered by their new signing Conor Harkins who has taken to the League like a duck to water. He hit the high notes in a recent win over the Waterford Vikings with 41 points and will need careful watching. Carlow have a 50% record in the league, beating Killarney Cougars, Fr Matthews and the Vikings but have gone down to Ulster University and the Limerick sides, the Sports Eagles and the Celtics. Harkins will have support from the ever dependable Ben Kelly Flynn, Kevin Donohue, Jordan Fallon, Jack Kehoe and the Vaikuls Armands and Rolands. The Lakers had started to build up momentum in the League with fine wins over the Vikings and Limerick Celtics but the recent reverse to Fr Matthews at home was a bit of a sickener. Coupled with the cup exit to Dublin Lions they will have added incentive to get back to winning ways. Even in that cup defeat Jack Ferguson was outstanding hitting 38 points while Aron Walker is definitely showing signs that he is starting to gel with his new teammates. Defeat will be key in Carlow and to that end the team has stepped it up no end this season. Rui Saravia is relishing the captaincy and using it to good effect coordinating that defensive effort. That improvement is obvious in the likes of Jamie O Sullivan and Mark O Shea. Ronan Collins will be looking to recapture his outstanding form in those recent victories while Jack O Sullivan is really making a positive contribution. Marko Bencic's absence was really felt in that cup defeat and his scoring effort will be crucial. Senan O Leary was very bright last time out and Coach Jarlath Lee will be looking to have all hands on deck as they strive to get back into the top echelons of the League.

Killarney Cougars 61

St Paul's 58

The Killarney derby played at the Presentation Gym provided a good finish as a late Cougars three pointer secured the win. Cougars raced into a big lead in the opening quarter with early baskets by Jack O Driscoll, Mark Daly and Finn Kennelly to lead 17-2 with Tom Benson replying for the visitors. A much improved Pauls had the better of the second quarter with Cathal Spring with two three pointers from Nathan Cox just keeping Cougars ahead 29-27 at halftime. The third quarter was basket for basket with Jack O'Driscoll 8 pts impressing for Cougars with two threes each by Tom Benson and Cathal Spring leaving the scores 43-40 to the Cougars. A well contested final quarter saw the lead changing hands with the teams tied in the final minute before Nathan Cox collecting possession on an inbound ball under his own basket delivered the winning basket in the last second of the game to continue Cougars unbeaten run in the league.

Best for Cougars were Mark Daly, Finn Kennelly, Jack O'Driscoll and Nathan Cox with the visitors' best performances coming Cathal Spring, TJ O'Sullivan, Tom Benson and Chris Healy.

Kenmare Kestrels 45

An entertaining first game of the season for the Cougars as they welcomed Kenmare to the Pres Gym and a good performance secured the win with the visitors well in contention throughout the game. Cougars led 19 - 11 in the first quarter thanks to the three point shooting of Darren Gaffey and Akilesh Garud, and good baskets by Eugene Bowler ensuring a deserved lead for the home side with Colin Crowley baskets keeping the scoreboard ticking over for the Kestrels. The second quarter was basket for basket in low scoring spell with Cougars still ahead 29-21 at halftime with Kane Reidy impressing for the visitors with 6pts. with Cougars Dan Doonan and Frank Rahilly both adding 4pts each. A strong third quarter by the Kestrels saw them dominate the period with Tommy Cronin and Kane Reidy sharing 10 points to leave just the minimum between the sides 36-35 with Cougars just ahead. The Cougars were made to work hard to maintain the lead with Niall O'Brien playing well under the boards and another Darren Gaffey three pointer ensured Cougars had enough to spare as the Kestrels were playing well until time ran out with the Cougars under pressure throughout the final minutes just about holding on and deserving the points in a sporting and entertaining game.

The Cougars had good performances from Frank Rahilly, Akilesh Garud, Darren Gaffey and Niall O'Brien. Best for the Kestrels were Kane Reidy, Tommy Cronin and Colin Crowley.

Postponed National League Derby Game

Our scheduled Insuremyvan.ie National League Div 1 game was postponed due to non availability of referees, Basketball Ireland advised both Killarney clubs on Thursday to reschedule the game to a new date later this month or on the available upcoming Cup weekends.

JIMMY O'SULLIVAN-DARCY takes a look at all things sport...

JUNIOR FINAL

Firies 1-17 Cordal 0-11

Firies went into this one as strong favourites, but they had been favourites against Castlegregory in last year's final as well and just never got going on the day – I remember that same malaise hitting Kerry against Meath in 2001. Some days that just happens.

This was emphatically not one of those days. Jack Sherwood set the tone, bursting through to fire over a great opener. Donnchadh O'Sullivan slotted a free before another slalom run by Limerick senior footballer Pádraig de Brún. Diarmuid O'Mahony won a good turnover and sent long into Donnchadh O'Sullivan, who neatly slipped it to Cian Doe for a great goal. 1-3 to 0-0 and just six minutes played.

Philip O'Connor got Cordal off the mark – O'Connor is always superb and didn't disappoint. Donnchadh O'Sullivan replied. Cathal O'Donoghue and Stephen Palmer traded scores. Seán Óg Ó Ciardabháin nailed a long distance free but Cian Doe, Darragh Donohue, and James Horgan (who had come on for the injured de Brún) pushed Firies into a 1-8 to 0-4 lead. Cordal did finish the half strongly, pressing on Firies' kick-outs and picking off points through Seán Walsh, Ó Ciardabháin, and Philip O'Connor to give them hope heading into the dressing room. Stephen Palmer did point a last free for Firies just before the whistle. Half-time Firies 1-9 Cordal 0-7

Seán Walsh trimmed the gap back to four with a great point early in the second half. Cordal were actually playing much better now and asking questions of Firies, but they were getting good answers as Firies neatly kept the ball in constant motion before the outstanding Cian Doe neatly slotted over.

Seán Brosnan kicked one of the best points of the day for Cordal. But the reality was that any score they were getting had to be top class. In all honesty, Firies always seemed to have that little bit more craft and guile. Cian Doe forced a brilliant save out of Seán Óg Ó Ciardabháin (he won Junior All Irelands, but I always thought that Ó Ciardabháin deserved a look at a higher level) but O'Sullivan was quick onto the rebound to fire over. James Horgan added his second point, Stephen Palmer kicked his third, and Mike Daly closed the game out. Cordal left no pride behind them on the field, but Firies looked very, very impressive here.

Firies: Brian McCarthy, Chris Palmer, Diarmuid Brosnan, Brian O'Leary, TJ Palmer, Niall Donohue, Diarmuid O'Mahony, Jack Sherwood (0-1), Jake Flynn, Darragh Donohue (0-1), Mike Daly (0-3), Pádraig De Brun (0-1), Stephen Palmer (0-3, 1f), Donnchadh O'Sullivan (0-4, 2f), Cian Doe (1-2) Subs: James Horgan 0-2 (for Pádraig de Brún, 19 mins), Sean Burke (for Donnchadh O'Sullivan, 56 mins), Thomas Clifford (for Darragh Donohue, 58 mins), Pat Daly (for Mike Daly, 60 mins)

PREMIER JUNIOR FINAL Fossa 2-15 Listry 0-22 (AET)

As good a game as you will ever see. Of course one man made all the headlines – this was as good a performance as he has ever given, and that is no small saying. Fossa simply would not have won this without that; that's the bare bones of it. But even if you take him out of the equation, this was still an absolute thrilling spectacle, with an awful lot of good footballers on both sides giving it absolutely everything. Even towards the end, leading by two points, Fossa could have adopted to drop deep and play keep ball to kill the clock. Pretty much every team does that now. Except that Fossa didn't, they trusted their football enough to keep pressing and keep hunting. And Listry met them all the way, they never once yielded an inch of ground easily. Honestly, gaelic football when played like this can be an absolute joy to watch. Fossa will now go on to face Castlemahon of Limerick on Saturday, November 26th, at 1.00pm in a Limerick venue. St. Michaels/Foilmore take the drop down to Junior, having lost the relegation final to Waterville on a 1-12 to 0-8 scoreline.

David – we will eschew the surname, it is superfluous in this particular case – opened the scoring after Anthony Wharton won a free. Ruairí Murphy replied with a good score – Ruairí has justified ambitions of wearing a Kerry senior jersey before too long. Paudie Clifford already wears one and has two All Stars to boot, he showed why with the next score.

Listry were taking complete control of midfield. Jimmy O'Leary and Ronan Buckley were superb; Gary O'Sullivan, Murphy, and Billy O'Brien were playing well. Matt Rennie did stand out for Fossa, but they were outclassed for the most part in the middle third. Gary O'Sullivan tied things up and they had a couple of wides.

David kicked some incredible scores, but the best kick of the day for me was a long inch-perfect pass by his brother into Ronan Buckley, who laid off for Tadhg O'Shea to knock home a goal. David and Anthony Kennedy exchanged points before David launched a monster free – I'm pretty sure it had snow on it when it came down over the black spot. It was already obvious that all Fossa really needed to do was get the ball close to him and he would do the rest.

Listry still had that grip on midfield, and they had their shooting boots on now. Seán Lehané and Aaron O'Shea (the centre forward was another to catch the eye) pointed frees, while Ronan Buckley and Joe Clifford pointed from play. 1-4 to 0-7.

David nudged Fossa back in front. Aaron O'Shea was just wide after a great team move as David slotted another free. Ronan Buckley made a great steal (he's county class for me without question) and pointed, but Paudie Clifford had the last say of the first half.

Half-time Fossa 1-7 Listry 0-8

Aaron O'Shea and Ruairí Murphy cancelled that lead on the resumption. Jack Walsh, very impressive off the bench, caught the kickout and teed up Ronan Buckley to put Listry in front. David equalised and Harry Buckley fired over for a one point game. Back came Listry. Jack Walsh notched a free. Cain Bradley put them in front and Walsh doubled that lead. Ronan Buckley made it 0-15 to 1-9. To be honest, I thought the momentum had swung too far in Listry's direction at this stage, especially when a Fossa goal chance crashed back off the woodwork.

David pulled back a free, but Aaron O'Shea replied with two very good points. Four points in it, a sizeable lead in a game where every score had to be fought for. Harry Buckley won a free converted inevitably by the younger Clifford brother. A goal in it now. Fossa hurled everything into the fray, but twice they tried to force a non-existent path through bodies and twice referee Paul Hayes blew correctly for frees out – Hayes and his officials were top class in their own right, keeping a light but sure touch on the reins throughout.

Time ticking away...but enough time left. David kicked from a tight angle and it dropped short, but Paudie was perfectly positioned in the crowded square and fisted home. Level pegging.

Micheál Keane with a nerveless kick to nudge Listry back in front. Seconds left....David kicked some better scores on the day, but not many, and none so important. 0-18 to 2-12. Extra-time.

It was all Fossa now, and all they needed to do was get it to the big man. Two points on the trot and Fossa in front. Ruairí Murphy won a crucial free and Jack Walsh pulled one back. Another high ball into David from Paudie....what can you do? He's just too big to dislodge and his timing is too good. Once he got his hands on it, there really wasn't much option but to haul him down. Not that it made much difference – it was as good a penalty as you will ever see.

David won and pointed another free. Five points in it. Listry have guts as well as football, though. Back they came again. Joe Clifford won and pointed a free. Jack Walsh added two more. Shane O'Sullivan, rock solid in the Fossa goal all day, parried a long range bullet and David Carroll's '45 just didn't quite have the legs.

As I said, Fossa were not retreating into any blanket. Another pass forward by Paudie to David. He had too men on him, but a sudden burst of acceleration brought him into the square and he had the poise and presence to finish it to the net.

2-12 for David. 1-2 for Paudie. Talk about primus inter pares is fully justified. But 42 players took the field in the Fitzgerald Stadium last Saturday, and every one of them was a joy to watch.

I'm fairly quiet at games. I'm certainly not the kind of guy who stands up and applauds teams off the field.

Except it turns out that sometimes I do.

INTERMEDIATE FINAL

Rathmore 1-13 An Ghaeltacht 0-14

It wasn't quite at the fever pitch of the Junior Premier Final, but it wasn't far behind it. An Ghaeltacht deserve enormous credit. After a tough league campaign, I don't think many people (myself included) were expecting them to push all the way to the Intermediate Final. That win over Killarney Legion must count as one of the big surprises of the year, and in fairness there was nothing lucky about it.

I will say that I was worried about their scoring power – I knew that they had good football and they were no longer coughing up soft enough goal chances, their weakness in the league. But Rathmore have the likes of Spiers, Moynihan, Mark Reen, and especially Shane Ryan – the Kerry keeper is one of the best target-men up front in Kerry club football. Keepers playing outfield at club level is not remotely as usual as people think. Johnny Culloty was Kerry minor hurling keeper at fifteen years old; he won his first All Ireland as a football corner forward. Brendan Lynch was a minor goalkeeper. Jimmy Deenihan stood in goal a few times for Kerry. Cluxton generally plays centre forward for his club. Armagh's Ethan Rafferty was a midfielder. Could An Ghaeltacht deal with Ryan, or with that multiplicity of threats?

The simple answer early on was no, not really. Chrissy Spiers and Dara Ó Sé swapped early frees before John Moynihan nudged Rathmore in front with a well-worked score. Ryan and Spiers combined straight from the kick-out to put Moynihan through on goal – he just doesn't miss those kind of opportunities. 1-2 to 0-1. Chrissy Spiers notched another free before Moynihan took his tally to 1-2. To say that An Ghaeltacht were trying to snatch at shadows is putting it mildly – Rathmore were swift and sure with every ball.

Brian Ó Beaglaíoch stormed up the field for a superb score, but Spiers replied with a free. Dara Ó Sé (f) and livewire John Moynihan swapped further points before Dan Murphy gathered a good ball from James Darmody to slot over. An Ghaeltacht finished the half strongly (they had to if they were to have any chance) with Dara Ó Sé (f) and Cathal Ó Beaglaíoch trimming the gap.

Half-time 1-7 An Ghaeltacht 0-5

Gaeltacht emerged a renewed force. PJ Mac Láimh nailed a good score. Brian Ó Beaglaíoch cut the gap back to a goal. Dara Ó Sé with another unerring free. Shane Ryan relieved the pressure with a good point. They had a lucky escape straight after though. Éanna Ó Chonchúir sent a lovely ball into PJ Mac Láimh, who rounded veteran keeper Kenneth O'Keeffe, but the 1996 Kerry minor keeper had done just enough to give Brian Friel just enough time to get back and clear it off the line. Friel has played most of his football in the forwards, but he dropped deep to great effect in this game. Cathal Ryan (John Moynihan deserved his man of the match award, but Ryan must have been very close) made it 1-9 to 0-8, a very valuable cushion. An Ghaeltacht were very far from done, though. Two more Ó Sé frees hurled the game right back into the melting pot. Chrissy Spiers made it 1-10 to 0-10, but Ó Sé pointed another and Brian Ó Beaglaíoch (another man of the match contender) brought it back to a one point game. The next score was absolutely crucial, and it fell to the right man for Rathmore as John Moynihan split the posts. Paul Murphy added another and Gaeltacht needed a goal. Dara Ó Sé pointed and Pádraig Óigí Ó Sé claimed and converted a mark. One point between them again.

Cathal Ryan rose high to claim a fantastic catch of the kick-out. Rathmore worked the ball forward to win a free and Shane Ryan confidently put it over. An Ghaeltacht never gave up, but the clock finally ran out for them. They had definitely played their part in an epic battle, though.

Next year Rathmore will play in the Senior County Championship in a straight swap with Austin Stacks. One imagines that the County Board will be quietly relieved to see an East Kerry side promoted. At the other end Dromid Pearses take the drop down to Premier Junior, having lost to Glenbeigh/Glencar by 4-17 to 0-7.

Rathmore will now play Kanturk of Cork in the Munster Intermediate Championship semi-final on Sunday, November 26th, at 1.00pm in a Cork venue.

Rathmore: Kenneth O'Keeffe, James O'Sullivan, Andrew Moynihan, Dan Murphy (0-1), Darragh Rahilly, Paul Murphy (0-1), Fionn Holohan, Mark Ryan, Cathal Ryan (0-1), Brendan O'Keeffe, Chrissy Spiers (0-4f), Brian Friel, John Moynihan (1-4), James Darmody, Shane Ryan (0-2, 1f) Subs: Mark Reen (for Darragh Rahilly, half-time), Cillian O'Connor (for Fionn Holohan, 51 mins), Anthony Darmody (for James Darmody, 56 mins), Mikey Joe Kelliher (for James O'Sullivan, 63 mins)

An Ghaeltacht: Seán Ó Luíng, Cian Ó Murchú, Adam Mac Amhlaoibh, Fiach Ó Lionsigh, Ciarán Ó Coileáin, Brian Ó Beaglaíoch (0-3), PJ Mac Láimh (0-1), Roibeard Ó Sé, Cathal Ó Beaglaíoch (0-1), Pádraig Óg Ó Sé, Dara Ó Sé (0-8f), Stiofáin Ó Conchúir, Conn Ó Riagáin, Éanna Ó Conchúir, Caoimhín Ó Beaglaíoch Subs: Colm Ó Muircheartaigh (for Conn Ó Riagáin, half-time), Cathal Ó Gairbhí (for Caoimhín Ó Beaglaíoch, 49 mins), Pádraig Óigí Ó Sé 0-1, 1m (for Stiofáin Ó Conchúir, 55 mins), Gearóid Mac an tSaoir (for Ciarán Ó Coileáin, 55 mins, Brian Ó Murchú (for Cathal Ó Beaglaíoch, 59 mins)

CLANMAURICE WIN MUNSTER INTERMEDIATE CAMOGIE

Clanmaurice 2-9

Aughabullogue (Cork) 1-8

It wasn't just their football players in Rathmore who were celebrating an Intermediate crown. In fact, dual Kerry star Danielle O'Leary is the first (hopefully not the last) Rathmore player this year to win a Munster Intermediate crown. Danielle played full forward Clanmaurice in the Munster Intermediate Camogie Final, while Glenflesk's Kate Lynch lined out at midfield, and both players played huge roles in a victory against the odds. They were coming into this one cold – Kerry doesn't yet have a viable league system and Clanmaurice got a bye into the Munster Final. Their opponents, on the other hand, had won ten tough games to get out of Cork and had a tough Munster semi-final to boot.

Danielle had a shot just barely saved in the first minute and Amy O'Sullivan pounced like a flash on the rebound to goal. Two minutes later Danielle squared it for O'Sullivan to goal again. Aughabullogue had the wind but Kerry, with the likes of Sara Murphy, Patrice Diggin, Rachel McCarthy, Kate Lynch, Jackie Horgan, and Danielle O'Leary in top form, stayed with them. Diggin had a penalty saved late in the first half but pointed the rebound to give Clanmaurice a 2-5 to 0-5 half-time lead.

Aughabullogue's Cliona Healy was a superb player herself, finishing with 1-6. She got 1-2 of that straight on the restart to cut the gap to a single point. Diggin scored from very long range and Amy O'Sullivan added another. Cliona Healy and Patrice Diggin traded scores again before an under pressure Clanmaurice managed to break away, with Kate Lynch coolly sealing the win with a fine point.

CORN UÍ MHUIRI

St. Brendans 4-11

Coláiste na Sceilge 2-14

The Fossa Listry game was the best game of football I saw last week. The fact that I had to think twice about that probably gives you an idea of how good this Corn Uí Mhuirí clash is. Keel was, really superb football by both teams. If anything, I felt that na Sceilge were fractionally the better side on the day but coughed up some unlucky goals and paid a big price. To be fair, the Sem were missing Cian Lynch and Luke Crowley, and that's two very big guns at this level.

Ian O'Sullivan did enormous damage the night that South Kerry ended East Kerry's long reign as minor champions, and he showed his class again. He had three early frees, with hugely influential Jack O'Neill. Sem's account, with John Kelliher gathering from lively Callum Cronin and firing over. Cronin also forced a great save out of Tom O'Dowd. Aodhán O'Neill (who was facing his Renard clubmates) and impressive target-man Jamie Moynihan nudged the Sem into a 0-5 to 0-4 lead. Coláiste na Sceilge had real threats in Clifford, O'Sullivan, and especially corner forward Emmett Daly. Points from Kain O'Shea and Oisín Breen put them in front and they missed a few scoreable chances.

Then disaster struck for them. Callum Cronin appeared to be shooting for a point, but it dipped wickedly and suddenly the ball was in the net. 1-5 to 0-6. Ian O'Sullivan (2, 1f) and Emmett Daly quickly nullified it with three good points in a row. Great work by Charlie Keating saw Cillian Courtney pick off a point, but Ian O'Sullivan (f) had the last say of the first half.

Half-time Coláiste na Sceilge 0-10 St. Brendans 1-6

The pace didn't slacken in the second half. The impressive Alex Hennigan drew another great save out of Tom O'Dowd before winning a free converted by Aodhán O'Neill. John Kelliher, once again a midfield powerhouse for the Sem, pointed from long distance, but Ian O'Sullivan restored parity again, 0-11 to 1-8.

Coláiste an Sceilge hit something of a purple patch but couldn't really make it count, mostly because of Shay O'Meara's reflexes. The Kerry minor keeper made a brilliant save to deny Oisín Breen and an even better one to stop the rebound from close range. Minutes later he made another great save to deny Brice O'Sullivan. Breen did win a free converted by O'Sullivan, but it was paltry enough reward for good football.

Luck does play a role in games, and nobody would deny that the Sem got a real rub of the green with their second goal. John Kelliher's delivery from midfield looked harmless enough, but it took an awful bounce and the hapless O'Down could only watch it over his head and into the net. Alex Hennigan added a point. The Sem's ability to score when on top was probably the biggest difference between the sides. Their third goal was superb, a clever lay-off by Jamie Moynihan to Kelliher and a bullet of shot to the net. 3-9 to 0-12, a big lead in a game like this.

Ben O'Donoghue pointed after a nice na Sceilge passing move but Jamie Moynihan won a free converted by Aodhán O'Neill. Coláiste an Sceilge's subs were showing to good effect, with Darren Reardon winning a free converted by O'Sullivan. Timmy Moynihan and Aodhán O'Neill combined to set up Alex Hennigan for a point to keep that six point cushion between them, 3-11 to 0-14.

Coláiste na Sceilge were still hunting with conviction, though. Sub Kieran Corcoran gathered from Ian O'Sullivan to finish from close range. Literally a minute later he was in again for a simple finish and it was level pegging with six minutes left.

Coláiste an Sceilge probably deserved something from this game but, as Clint Eastwood noted drily in 'Unforgiven', "Deserve's got nothing to do with it".

One last attack by the Sem. Two defenders reached for it and collided with each other as the ball spilled loose, with Callum Cronin reacting like a cobra to pounce and produce a brilliant finish. The Sem won it by a goal, and that's a very big advantage in a group that looks likely to go all the way to the wire.

St. Brendans: Shay O'Meara, Maidhcí Lynch, Sean Fitzgerald, Luke Daly, Charlie Keating, Keelan O'Shea, Eoghan Kelly, Darren Ryan, John Kelliher (2-2), Timmy Moynihan, Aodhán O'Neill (0-3, 2f), Alex Hennigan (0-3), Callum Cronin (2-1), Jamie Moynihan (0-1), Cillian Courtney (0-1). Subs: Luke O'Neill (for Cillian Courtney, 45 mins), Padraig Moynihan (for Timmy Moynihan, 62 mins)

Coláiste na Sceilge: Cian O'Sullivan, Sam O'Driscoll, Padraig Mangan, Brice O'Sullivan, Oisín O'Sullivan, Alex Coffey, Kieran O'Donnell, Tadhg O'Sullivan, Micheál Lynch, Oisín Breen (0-1), Kain O'Shea (0-1), Jack Clifford (0-1), Emmett Daly (0-1), Ian O'Sullivan (0-9, 7f), Ben O'Donoghue (0-1). Subs: Darren Reardon (for Tadhg O'Sullivan, 50 mins), Kieran Corcoran 2-0 (for Ben O'Donoghue, 51 mins), Thomas Kelly (for Brice O'Sullivan, 52 mins), Michael Kavanagh (for Kieran O'Donnell, 55 mins).

Referee: Mike Hickey (Milltown/Castlemaine).

Tralee CBS 2-13 SP

Sliabh Luachra 2-11

Tralee CBS and SP Sliabh Luachra of Rathmore served up a real thriller, with the Green just about hanging on to claim their second win and guarantee themselves a place in the knockout stages, while the Rathmore's schools chances of qualifying have taken a severe blow with a second loss on the trot. Their performance in a windswept Currans, however, was a huge improvement on their outing against Clonakilty which they had lost by 4-18 to 0-9. This time they took the game all the way to the wire and probably deserved something out of it, even with a great display by a very good Tralee team. The Green made much the better start. The outstanding Jerh. Brosnan on a free converted by Darragh Cunnane – Brosnan, who won a County Minor with North Kerry this year, was a superb playmaker all through. Brosnan of Moyvane is one of the most famous names in Kerry football history, and this lad did them proud.

Adam McDonagh quickly doubled the lead before Brosnan pointed himself and Darragh Cunnane made it 0-4 to 0-0. Rathmore were winning midfield, where Fionn Murphy and Conor O'Donoghue were superb, but struggling to make anything stick with their inside forwards, whereas Tralee were playing low and fast ball to the likes of Brosnan and Cunnane and it was yielding dividends. Fionn Murphy did open Rathmore's account with a '45 in the fifteenth minute, but a great Colm Browne run upfield saw Cunnane slot a free and Browne was on hand again to finish a great move by Brosnan and Cunnane for a goal. 1-5 to 0-2; Rathmore were in real trouble here. Their response was brilliant. Ciarán Cunnane won a high ball from an impressive Cian O'Connor to take and convert a mark. Rathmore's tackling was very good and the pressure saw Tralee cough up three frees in as many minutes, all kicked over by Cunnane. 1-5 to 0-5.

Tralee closed out the first half very strongly, though, with Jerh. Brosnan's second score sandwiching two Darragh Cunnane frees. Half-time: Tralee CBS 1-8 SP Sliabh Luachra 0-5 Darragh Cunnane took his personal tally to six with another free on the restart. However, Rathmore looked a lot more potent now and Darragh Nagle really put the cat among the pigeons when he gathered Ciarán Collins' quick free and blasted to the net. 1-9 to 1-6. That stung Tralee into action, with Browne and the effervescent Brosnan combining to leave Adam McDonagh to cleverly slot the ball past the advancing keeper. Ryan O'Driscoll gathered another pass from Brosnan to slot over and put real daylight between the sides. At the other end Ciarán Collins drew a superb save out of Seán Collins, but when Darragh Cunnane made it 2-11 to 1-6, the game looked done and dusted.

Rathmore had other ideas. Shane Daly and Conor O'Donoghue won frees converted by Fionn Murphy before Ciarán Collins lashed a brilliant shot past Matthew Kennedy and into the net. He added a free and suddenly the gap was back to a very manageable 2-11 to 2-9, and Rathmore had the momentum on their side. Adam McDonagh calmed Tralee nerves with a free but David O'Leary replied in kind. Conor Moynihan cut to the gap to just a single point. Excitement was at fever pitch now, but once again Jerh. Brosnan came up trumps, winning a free slotted over by Darragh Cunnane to secure a precious win for Tralee.

Tralee CBS: Seán Collins, Barry Hamilton, Ben Donnellan, Nathan Rogers, Rory Reen, Ciarán White, Colm Browne (1-0), Jake Foley, Seán McElligott, Ben Hanafin, Jerh. Brosnan (0-2), Enda Cahill, Adam McDonagh (1-2, 1f), Darragh Cunnane (0-8, 6f), Ryan O'Driscoll (0-1). Subs Josh Lynch (for Rory Reen, 39 mins), Ronan Carroll (for Enda Cahill, 39 mins), Jack O'Donoghue (for Barry Hamilton, 48 mins) SP Sliabh Luachra: Matthew Kennedy, Stephen Daltobn, Daniel Sheehan, Gavin Barry, Cian O'Connor, Pádraig Moynihan, Shane Daly, Fionn Murphy (0-3, 1'45, 2f), Conor O'Donoghue, Conor Moynihan (0-1), Darragh Nagle (1-0), Seán Finnegan, James Doyle, Ciarán Collins, (1-6, 5f, 1m), David O'Leary (0-1, 1f). St. Francis Rochestown 4-14 Pres. Milltown 0-7

A very young Pres. Milltown were put to the sword by a superb Rochestown, who have announced themselves as up among the competition favourites with this display. It was 0-3 to 0-1 after the first quarter, midfielder Fionnán Griffin with Milltown's score, but second quarter goals from Michael O'Mahony helped Rochestown into a 2-5 to 0-2 half-time lead. Milltown could take hope from having the strong wind in their favour in the second half and the displays of Griffin and Liam Evans in midfield and Dara Hogan and Darragh Clifford up front. It was to little avail though – Rochestown were simply excellent and added a further 2-9 in the second half, Seán Coakley and man of the match Brian Hayes with the goals. Fionnán Griffin (2), Dara Hogan (0-2, 2f), Darragh Clifford, Mark Murphy, and Aaron O'Sullivan were Milltown's scorers.

Mercy Mounthawk 3-18 Coláiste Choilm, Ballincollig 0-12 (1)

The reigning Frewen Cup champions will have been very disappointed at a somewhat lacklustre display in the O'Sullivan Cup Final. Their response was emphatic – this was the real Mounthawk, fast, sharp, and hungry. They got plenty to do against a brave Ballincollig outfit who left three goal chances behind them in the first half, but Mounthawk absorbed the pressure smoothly. Their Kerry minors were very much to the fore, with Rob Monahan, (1-2), Odhrán Ferris (1-2), Darragh O'Connor (0-5, 4f) and especially livewire Paddy Lane (1-7, 1f, 1m) really cutting loose. Mounthawk led by 0-13 to 0-5 at half-time. Coláiste Choilm did reduce the gap back to 0-15 to 0-9, but three goals on the spin from Ferris (with Lane the provider), Monahan (after a great run), and Lane himself effectively killed the contest.

EAST KERRY U13 GIRLS ARE COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP

KILLARNEY LEGION GAA CLUB

O'DONOGHUE CUP QUARTER FINAL

Direen will be the venue for the quarter final of the Aquila Club Dr O'Donoghue Cup when Kilcummin will be the visitors this Saturday November 19th with a 2pm throw-in. With the East Kerry Board clubs flying high at county level this year's competition promises to be ultra competitive with a full round of games the weekend coming. Rathmore and Spa will clash in Rathbeg on Saturday(7pm) also as will Dr Crokes and Fossa in Lewis Road at 2pm. On Sunday Currow and Listry face off as do Gneeveguilla and Furies.

LADIES AGM

The Ladies department of the Club will hold their AGM this Friday November 18th with a full review of all happenings to take place. Chairperson Ted Healy will remain at the helm in 2023 but if you would like to help out in any way your attendance in the clubhouse on Friday at 7pm would be much appreciated.

CLUB AGM

The Main Club AGM is pencilled in for Friday November 25th with an edited starting time of 7.30. With all Club officers signalling their intention to remain in situ for 2023 a reminder that Friday November 18th is the close of date for any motions or nominations you wish to bring to the table. You can contact Secretary Lara at secretary.legion.kerry@gaa.ie with the same.

U15 BOYS

Our lads finished off their year on a slightly disappointing note when they visited Kenmare for the East Kerry Division 1 semi final. The first half was an even enough affair with the hosts ahead by two points, 2-8 to 3-3. Unfortunately the second half didn't go to plan as Kenmare grew stronger to qualify for the final where they will meet Dr Crokes. The lads competed in Division 1 in both County and District and will no doubt have learned a lot from the experience. The Club will strive to help them develop further as they progress through the ranks. Big thanks to the management team of Donal Culloty, John Keane, Nigel Shevlin and Donal Hegarty for their years work. Full time Score Killarney Legion 3-3 Kenmare 4-10.

U13 GIRLS DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP

Congratulations to Kate Fleming, Sophie Duke and Ali Bowler who were all part of the East Kerry U13 side that captured the County District Championship title last Sunday, aptly in Direen. They defeated Mid Kerry on a 6-12 to 4-8 scoreline and included in the management team was Fergal Moynihan. Well done all!!

YOUR CLUB NEEDS YOU

With the season almost at a close we would like to thank all our management teams in 2022 for the work they have done. The Club is now looking ahead to 2023 and we are inviting anyone who would like to get involved with any of our teams to come forward. You can be a manager, a coach, a selector or someone who can help organise the team, send out texts, liaising with parents, look after the team jerseys and gear or keep attendance at training and games. If you would like to help in any of our Juvenile boys teams or our Ladies teams upto and including senior you can contact Donal O Leary(Boys) 0868528768, Ted Healy(Ladies)0876678315 or email the club at killarneylegion@gmail.com.

Or you can contact any club member who will point you in the right direction

CLUB MASS

Thanks to everyone who attended our Club Mass last Friday night nicely celebrated by Fr Jim Linehan. Special thanks to Sharon O Grady, Orla Culloty, Desiree Crowley for organising the room for the occasion and with the aid of their helpers Leah O Grady and Orianne McGillicuddy for the teas, coffees and sumptuous confectionery on offer.

CLUB COACHING OFFICER

The Club Executive has discussed the matter of appointing a Club Coaching officer and it has been proposed that a sub committee be established to take up the running of engaging, researching and ultimately bringing forward someone with the purpose of selecting them for the role. More on this anon.

CLUB NOTES

If you would like to include any item in our Club notes please contact Enda at 0876447523.

are looking for your old photographs for our 2022 Souvenir edition.

If you have an old picture of Killarney or its residents please contact

Aisling on 086 0400958

Our Souvenir edition is very popular with Killarney people at home and abroad and we appreciate all the photographs that are given to us so we can share them with everyone.

however, we are always trying to improve and make things better. We are contacting you with one simply request: Will you coach our underage players? If you are interested, please contact Seanie (087 649 7639) or Willie (0863872611). We will have an information meeting on Wednesday the 23rd of November at 8pm in the clubhouse. We can answer any questions you might have at the meeting. Please remember that coaches who volunteer with an age group are well supported and work as part of a team. We'd love to have you on board and you might be surprised to find what a rewarding experience it will be. Thank you.

Minister Foley welcomes €10 million fund to support community and voluntary groups with energy costs

Minister for Education and Kerry T.D Norma Foley welcomes the announcement of a new €10 million fund to support community and voluntary groups with increased energy costs.

The scheme is designed to help the essential sector with their increased bills, which is having an impact on the day to day operations of many community and voluntary groups. The scheme will provide once-off support to organisations which fall outside the parameters of other energy support schemes being delivered by Government such as the Temporary Business Energy Support Scheme (TBESS).

The scheme will open for applications on Monday 21st November and close on Friday 2nd December 2022. It is expected that payments under the scheme will commence before the end of this year and into early 2023.

Minister Foley said: "The community and voluntary sector in Kerry plays a pivotal role in supporting, nurturing and protecting those that need help the most. This new scheme recognises the vital roles occupied by these workers and will provide essential support to assist with the pressure caused by rising energy costs. I would encourage all community and voluntary groups in Kerry to apply for this funding before Friday December 2nd.

Minister Foley welcomes over €3 million in funding for MTU

Minister for Education and Kerry T.D Norma Foley welcomes today's announcement of €3.45 million in Transformation Funding for Munster Technological University (MTU).

This tranche of funding will be used by MTU in key areas such as digital infrastructure, building capacity in research, and in improving governance and systems integration.

"This vital investment will ensure that MTU continues to expand key research projects and invest in new digital technologies, providing a state-of-the-art, third level experience for students.

"The funding underlines Government's continued commitment to investing in the higher education sector and provides Technological Universities like MTU with the financial capacity to modernise and grow."

VACANT AND DERELICT PROPERTIES

Kerry Fianna Fáil Councillor, Michael Cahill has welcomed the announcement by Housing Minister, Darragh O'Brien of up to €50,000 for the purchase and/or refurbishment of vacant and derelict properties and the fact that the Croí Cónaithe Scheme has now been extended to all vacant properties across the country.

"The Croí Cónaithe Towns Fund will be of enormous support to those wishing to set up home in our towns and villages and across County Kerry, while at the same time, tackling the scourge of dereliction on our streets. First time buyers and homeowners can now apply for a grant of €30,000 to purchase and renovate a vacant property and there is a further €20,000 available if the property is also deemed derelict" stated Councillor Cahill.

"There are a large number of vacant and derelict properties in all our towns and villages and around the county and potentially, these could all be brought back into our housing stock, providing new homes for families, etc. This funding will help reduce housing waiting lists by increasing supply and at the same time, bring life back into the centres of our towns and villages" said the Rossbeigh based Councillor.

"Application forms are available from Kerry County Council or on Gov. ie for anybody considering town living. I welcome this initiative, as I have been campaigning for many years for a linked solution to both our Housing and Dereliction issues and I believe the Croí Cónaithe Towns Fund can provide the means for many families to plan and own their own homes" added Councillor Cahill.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK

GROW YOUR BUSINESS HERE - WITH US!

Based in the Old Church in Milltown, Kerry Flea Market is enjoying great success since it opened its doors, three months ago.

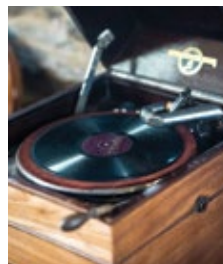

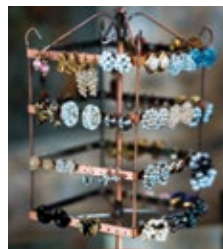

Pack to the rafters with the most amazing second hand purchases, proprietor Noelle Crosbie is delighted with its success so far.

"I have always wanted to open a market like this" Noelle told Killarney Outlook. "I had a smaller shop in Killarney a few years ago, Retro Rose, but now with the bigger premises, I am able to stock furniture and bigger items", Noelle added.

Kerry Flea Market stocks some very unusual pieces of furniture which Noelle has procured from auctions houses across Ireland and the UK and is receiving updated stock on a weekly basis.

There is something for everyone at the Kerry Flea Market, with vintage clothes and jewellery, vinyls and posters, furniture and ware all on display at the church.

The Kerry Flea Market is open every Friday Saturday and Sunday from 11am-5pm and is based at The Old Church, Main Street, Milltown. V93F660.

KERRY LAB ENGAGES WITH NEXT GENERATION OF VETERINARY BIOSCIENTISTS

A Killarney based veterinary laboratory is encouraging students to consider a career in animal diagnostic testing. Agri Diagnostics has delivered a short training course to students from Munster Technological University showing them the latest methods and testing techniques.

Agri Diagnostics employs 10 people and offers a range of animal diagnostic services from its state-of-the-art laboratories which are located in Dunrinc, Killarney.

A group of 11 students spent a morning in the company's parasitology lab and were shown how to detect liver and rumen fluke in cattle. Parasites remain a health issue for farm animals and it's estimated that liver fluke disease causes annual losses of approximately €90 million in Ireland.

Marta Mackowska is Laboratory Manager with Agri Diagnostics she says, "There is a growing need for veterinary bioscientists to stay up-to-date on the latest tests to diagnose liver and rumen fluke. Anti-parasitic resistance means that it's no longer sustainable to over-use drug treatments which is why diagnostic testing is so important. A new government scheme is set to be introduced next year so testing will continue. It's lovely to meet the next generation of veterinary bioscientists, I think it's a great industry to be part of, our work is meaningful and what we do makes a difference to animal health."

The company is continuing to grow and is interested to hear from people with a background in Veterinary Bioscience, Molecular Biology, Biochemistry, Microbiology or a related discipline. For more information visit <https://agridiagnostics.ie/>

Nisbets Opens a Two-Floor Showroom and Retail Space as Part of their National Distribution Centre in Cork

Nisbets, Europe's leading supplier of catering equipment, have opened a brand new Retail Showroom as part of their 61,000 sq. Ft. national distribution centre in Cork.

Nisbet's multi-million euro investment, which doubled the Company's facilities in Ireland, was opened in mid-2022. The site integrates all customer support, sales, accounts and warehousing operations. The addition of the new retail outlet will provide customers with a more immersive shopping experience and allow them to view over 3,000 lines on display. Creating the showroom space will also facilitate same day collection.

The Cork showroom will be open 5 days a week, Monday through Friday, and will welcome both trade customers and the general public. With free parking available on-site, it will offer expert advice, product demos and a click-and-collect service. The displays will include knives, food storage, baking & cookware, trolleys & shelving, plus a fantastic range of tableware and furniture, as well as appliances and refrigeration.

"Ireland is a key market for Nisbets. We have built a loyal customer base here and we are keen to offer not only top-quality products and services but also inspiration and an enhanced shopping experience to those working in the hospitality sector", Robin White, Nisbets' Managing Director for UK & Ireland, told Killarney Outlook.

"We can't wait to welcome our customers here. Visiting our new showroom will make purchasing decisions easier and more informed, as our colleagues will be on-hand to discuss our customers' individual needs and will be happy to assist with any queries", Killarney native Eoghan Donnellan, General Manager for Ireland added.

by John O'Sullivan

FOCUS ON HERBACEOUS PERENNIALS

What we mean when we call a plant an Herbaceous Perennial is that in most of them the stems are soft, succulent and green as opposed to being brown and woody. With most Herbaceous Perennial they will sprout growth from ground level in spring and will grow and flower right through the summer and into the autumn. With most Herbaceous Perennials, in late autumn and early winter they start to look a bit ragged. But depending on the severity of the winter, some will hold on until the first real cold snap. The maintenance for most Herbaceous Perennials isn't a lot really. During late autumn, early winter cut the majority of the stem down to ground level and mulch over with some compost. Some Herbaceous Perennials such as Lupins and semi hardy Fuchsias will have woody stems because of the milder climate here so when pruning back cut right back to just a couple of inches above ground level.

Herbaceous Perennials are a valuable plant in the garden for a number of reasons.

1. Because of the length of time they flower for.
2. Because of the short length of time it takes them to grow to the maximum height and spread.

When planting an Herbaceous Border always remember to plant the taller ones to the back or middle and the smaller growing ones to the front. When choosing your plants pick one plant that you can repeatedly plant in the border to create a sense of continuity to the planting scheme. Herbaceous Perennials flower from April until October/November so you have a wide range of flowering times and colour to choose from. The secret to having a good flowering Herbaceous Border is every few years in the winter to lift and divide the plants that are suitable for this.

A Word of Victory

Welcome back dear student "...but the Helper, the Holy Spirit, Whom the Father will send in My Name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said to you" (John 14:26). Two things that greatly benefit in life are – help from one who's stronger, and good teaching from someone who knows more. Years ago I had great difficulty in two subjects at school. It was a real struggle. Then everything changed. I was blessed with two wonderful teachers that just connected with me. It was like a miracle because suddenly I was able to understand and it changed my outcome. So often in life we need help, but don't know where to find the answers (Psalms 46:1; Psalms 121:2).

When the Lord Jesus had accomplished His mission of carrying out God's plan of Salvation, He sent God's Holy Spirit to live inside those who believed in Him and called upon His Name (Romans 10:9-13). No longer do we have to wonder how to connect with God because once we repent for our sins and call upon the Lord Jesus, the Holy Spirit takes up residence inside creating a direct connection to God in the Spirit (Romans 5:3-5; Romans 8:14). Up to the point of the birth of Jesus the Holy Spirit only came upon the prophets. But when Jesus rose from the dead and went back to Father God the gift of the Presence of God in mankind - the Holy Spirit - was given. He is your ever present help; no matter what the situation, you can rest assured that you're never alone for Holy Spirit is right there instructing how to navigate through every circumstance. He is the greatest Teacher ever - Who gives God's wisdom and direction on how to live successfully, by opening up God's Word for us. He is our Wonderful Counsellor – the One Who always listens attentively, and gives the best therapy. Holy Spirit is our Comforter. He understands your pain and grief and will pour His healing balm into every wound. Ever faced a situation that looked hopeless or felt like there's no one to understand or take your side? The Holy Spirit is your Advocate and Attorney, and He will fight your battles no matter how fierce your enemy, refuting every false argument against you, because He is the Spirit of Truth (John 15:26). All of these attributes of the Holy Spirit are tied up in His Name – 'Parakletos' which translates to mean - One Who comes alongside to defend and assist, to console and to speak for as Advocate and Intercessor. He is the third Person of the Godhead – Father, Son and Holy Spirit. May the Lord baptise you afresh with His Spirit Power in Jesus' Name, amen.

NOVENA TO PADRE PIO

"Glorious, humble and beloved Padre Pio. Teach us, we pray, humility of heart, so that we may be counted among the little ones of the Gospel to whom the Father promised to reveal the mysteries of His Kingdom. Help us to pray without ceasing, certain that God knows what we need even before we ask Him.

M.H.K.

ST ROCH PRAYER

Prayer to Avert Contagious Maladies.
O' Most Merciful God who through an angel promised St Roch whoever would invoke his name should be preserved From pestilence & contagious diseases. Grant that through his intercession we may be preserved from all dangers both of Soul & body. Through Christ Our Lord Amen St Roch Pray for Us.
Feast 16 August.

NOVENA TO ST. JUDE

May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be adored, glorified, loved and preserved throughout the world now and forever.

Oh Sacred Heart of Jesus, pray for us.
St. Jude worker of miracles, pray for us.

Helper of the hopeless, pray for us.

Say this prayer nine times a day, by the eighth day the prayer will be answered.

It has never been known to fail.

NOVENA TO ST ANTHONY

O wonderful St. Anthony, glorious on account of the fame of your miracles, and through the condescension of Jesus in coming in the form of a little child to rest in your arms, obtain for me of thy bounty the grace which I ardently desire from the depths of my heart. (State your intention)

You who were so compassionate toward miserable sinners, regard not the unworthiness of those who pray to you, but the glory of God that it may once again be magnified by the granting of the particular request (State your intention) which I now ask for with persevering earnestness. Amen

Pray one Our Father, one Hail Mary, and Glory Be to the Father, in honor of Saint Anthony.

Saint Anthony, pray for us!

M.H.K.

NOVENA TO THE SACRED HEART

You have said O Divine Jesus, ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find, knock and the door shall be opened to you. Relying on these promises, I come with confidence during this novena to beg of you the favours that I need (make request). For whom shall I ask Lord Jesus if not from you whose heart is an unfailing source of graces and merits. Most loving heart of my God. I believe in your power, I believe in your knowledge I believe in your personal love for me, and therefore O Sacred heart of Jesus I place all my trust in you. Our father, Hail Mary and Glory, say 3 times for 3 days must promise publication.

M.H.K.

PRAYER TO PADRE PIO

PRAYER

O God, You gave Saint Pio of Pietrelcina, capuchin priest, the great privilege of participating in a unique way in the passion of Your Son, grant me through his intercession the grace of which I ardently desire; and above all grant me the grace of living in conformity with the death of Jesus, to arrive at the glory of the resurrection. Glory be to the Father ... (three times)

M.H.K.

NOVENA TO ST. CLARE

IN THANKSGIVING

Novena to St. Clare. Ask for three favours, one business, two impossible. Say nine Hail Mary's for nine nights with lighted candles. Pray whether you believe or not. Publish on ninth day. Powerful novena.

Say may the Sacred Heart of Jesus be praised, adored glorified and loved today and everyday throughout the whole world now and forever. Amen

Your request will be granted no matter how impossible it may seem.
