Remembering Ollie...

Siobhan Completes 60-Mile Challenge for Pieta

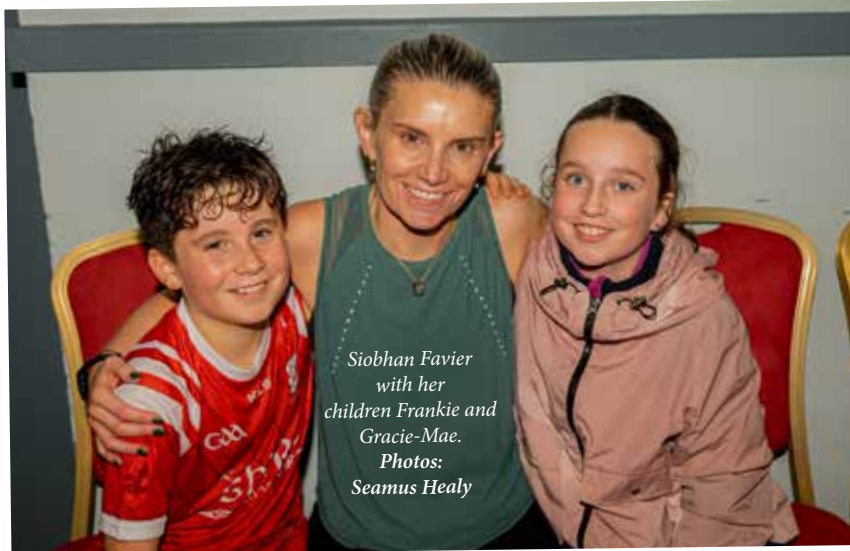

Glenflesk woman Siobhan Favier has completed an incredible 60-mile challenge in memory of her beloved husband, Ollie, while raising over €30,000 for Pieta.

Throughout September, Siobhan took on the demanding challenge as a way of honouring Ollie's memory and supporting the important work of Pieta. Her determination and commitment have inspired huge support from the community in Glenflesk and far beyond.

The final walk was a particularly poignant occasion, with members of the Healthy Club team joining Siobhan, daughters Gracie Mai and Frankie, and the wider Favier family to show their support. The challenge has been a remarkable testament to Siobhan's strength and resilience, while also bringing the community together in memory of Ollie.

The final run was a particularly poignant occasion, with members of Glenflesk GAA Club, the Healthy Club team and the wider community, joining Siobhan, daughters Gracie Mai and Frankie, and the wider Favier family to show their support.

Spa GAA invited to share energy journey at Sustainable Sports Summit

Spa GAA was invited to share its experience of energy efficiency and grant-funded projects at the Sustainable Sports Summit 2026, held at Páirc Uí Chaoimh in Cork on Saturday, 19 September.

Hosted by SE Systems Cork, the event brought together around 150 delegates from sporting clubs, community organisations, funding bodies and industry experts from across Munster for a practical forum focused on powering communities through sport.

The event was specifically geared towards providing clubs with practical information and guidance on how to reduce energy costs, with real-life case studies from three GAA clubs across Munster that have completed energy projects.

Representing Spa GAA was James Cahill, who was invited to speak about the club's experience and provide an insight into how Spa has addressed energy challenges and availed of grant opportunities to improve the energy efficiency of its sporting facilities.

James joined representatives from Clonakilty GAA and Na Piersaigh GAA Cork as part of a panel discussing the experiences of their respective clubs.

The event was MC'd by well-known RTE sports broadcaster Marty Morrissey and provided delegates with the opportunity to speak directly with SEAI grant personnel, community finance funders and a host of industry experts and exhibitors.

For Spa GAA, the invitation to contribute to the summit provided an opportunity to showcase the work being carried out at the club in the area of energy efficiency and sustainability, while sharing its experience with sporting organisations from across Munster.

The Sustainable Sports Summit highlighted the growing opportunities available to sporting clubs to reduce energy costs and improve their facilities through practical projects and grant support.

National Recognition for Neily Mahony's 48 Years of Community Service

Rathmore & District Credit Union has announced the nomination of Neily Mahony for a National Credit Union Lifetime Achievement Award at the All-Ireland Credit Union Awards 2026.

One of just five nominees nationally, Neily is being recognised for 48 years of voluntary service to Rathmore & District Credit Union and the wider local community, representing more than 24,000 hours of dedication.

Having joined the Board of Directors in 1978, Neily has played a key role in the Credit Union's development from its early days in a rented office to the member-owned institution it is today, with more than 10,000 members across three branches.

Throughout his service, Neily has championed volunteerism, community service and the Credit Union movement, while also supporting local education, youth development, heritage projects, community events and numerous voluntary organisations across the region.

Rathmore & District Credit Union has also been shortlisted for the Members' Choice Award, which is decided by public vote. Members and the wider community can vote for Rathmore & District Credit Union at vote.cuawards.ie. Voting closes at 5pm on October 16.

Killarney Selected for New State-Led Childcare Project

Killarney has been selected as one of seven locations nationwide for a new State-led early learning and childcare project aimed at addressing a significant shortage of childcare places.

The announcement was made by Minister for Children, Disability and Equality Norma Foley as part of the State-led early learning and childcare capital programme.

The Department has identified Killarney as an area with a very large undersupply of early learning and childcare places. The proposed project will create additional childcare places in the town, with the Department now beginning the process of identifying a not-for-profit provider to operate the new service.

Detailed development work is now underway on the project, including property and building assessments, procurement, design and operator selection. The projects announced are expected to become operational next year, subject to the necessary development, fit-out and provider arrangements.

The seven proposed locations have the potential to provide around 600 additional early learning and childcare places. Other locations announced include Boyle in Roscommon, Raphoe in Donegal, Gorey and Enniscorthy in Wexford, and Tallaght and Shanganagh Castle Estate in Dublin.

The State-led early learning and childcare capital programme is backed by €135 million under the National Development Plan, with further locations due to be selected up to 2030.

Short Film On Ciarán Sears' Gaisce Journey Premieres in Tralee

Ciarán Sears from Tralee at the premiere of 'Ciarán – A Pal's Voice' at Inspired Tralee this week. THE headquarters of Inspired at Basin Road was the venue on Thursday afternoon for the special premiere of a film of how Gaisce – The President's Award has become an important part of a Tralee man's life.

Ciarán Sears from Tralee, who progressed through Bronze, Silver and Gold Gaisce Awards and now helps others begin their own Gaisce journey, is at the centre of 'Ciarán – A Pal's Voice' which explores the impact Gaisce can have on confidence, independence and participation through the experiences of young people in Kerry.

Ciarán is now a Gaisce President's Award Leader (PAL), supporting other young people as they begin their Gaisce journey.

Ciarán's friends, family, school students, members of Inspired and Rehabcare clients were among those attending the premiere.

The project was developed by Kerry Education and Training Board's (Kerry ETB) Local Creative Youth Partnership in partnership with Inspired Day Service, giving participants an opportunity to tell their own stories through film.

Kerry filmmaker Seán Rea facilitated the project and worked with Ciarán over 12 weeks to develop the film.

'Ciarán – A Pal's Voice' will be submitted to the Fresh Film Festival in January 2027 and will be available on YouTube @kerrylcyp platform in late March 2027

Team Hope Christmas Shoebox Appeal Underway

The Team Hope Christmas Shoebox Appeal is now underway, giving people an opportunity to help make Christmas special for vulnerable children in disadvantaged communities across Africa and Eastern Europe.

People can take part by covering a shoebox in Christmas paper and filling it with gifts such as clothes, toys, school supplies and costume jewellery. Donations of suitable filler items are also welcome and will be used to complete boxes that are inadequately filled.

For those who do not wish to prepare their own box, Team Hope and Mr Price have also developed ready-to-fill shoeboxes, available at a small cost. For some children, the shoebox may be the only Christmas gift they receive.

Shoeboxes can be dropped off at participating centres in towns across the country, with details of the nearest collection point available on the Team Hope website at www.teamhope.ie or from local coordinators. The deadline for submitting shoeboxes is November 10.

In Killarney, boxes can also be handed in at the checking centre at Killarney Racecourse, while collections will also take place through schools and drop-off centres.

Team Hope Killarney is also seeking volunteers, including a team leader to assist with coordinating the local branch.

For further information, contact Killarney coordinator Sheila Rice on 087 793 2482.

Attendees also had the opportunity to meet members of the Kerry football team, including teachers at the school, David Clifford and Gavin White.

The auction proved another highlight, with prizes including an overnight stay at Hayfield

OUR RIVERS ARE NOT RUNNING FREE

Separate contributions in council meetings in September have highlighted the problem with what amounts to State neglect of our rivers and lakes. A once great angling industry was being decimated by salmon farming, Waterville councillor Norma Moriarty outlined in one of the most passionate addresses in recent times in the chamber in Tralee.

Rivers were blocked and overgrown Sam Locke said from while Robert Brosnan from west Kerry put in a formal motion to his MD to notify Inland Fisheries Ireland and Kerry County Council to provide the necessary resources to clean the streams and rivers that run through towns and villages in west and mid Kerry. Robert was told there is no one agency dealing with rivers and lakes. And the council would have to liaise with Inland Fisheries Ireland just to identify just who if anyone could carry out this work.

This column for years has been barking about the multiplicity of agencies to address issues in both the Flesk and Lough Leane. Three, four, five if not six Government agencies are stuck in any one water body - OPW, NPWS, Kerry Co Co, Inland Fisheries Ireland, the EPA and Uisce Eireann. There is a big question mark over what is being released into the Deenagh River. We have had incidents reported to this column in September. The latest on September 12th saw the Deenagh turn brown and orange and froth at the mouth. Not for the first time. But the IFI says it doesn't know.

There is a big question mark over what is being released into the Deenagh River.

Then there is the 30-year-old open-pen salmon farm off Deenish island near Waterville by the Norwegian giant MOWI. In August, Fianna Fail Minister Timmy Dooley decided it is "in the public interest" to allow it to double in size to 33 hectares. Four times more salmon will be harvested. In other words, four times more lice which have already led to a drastic decline in wild salmon and wild sea trout stocks in the lake beloved by Charlie Chaplin and Tiger Woods.

Councillor Norma Moriarty and others drove to Portlaoise to personally hand in an appeal to the Aquaculture Licences Appeals Board. This is because the appeal system by ALAB is so complicated and they didn't want their appeals to be rejected on minor technical grounds.

Meanwhile the stocks in Lough Currane could recover if the Norwegian salmon farm was closed. Time to boycott open cage farmed salmon?

DEER PILOT SCHEMES IN A RUT

The pilot electronic projects to deter deer from roads in Killarney are stuck in a rut, pardon the pun.

Outlined 15 months back, these were meant to be a template for the rest of the country. Four bodies were involved - Kerry County Council, the TII, the Department of Agriculture and UCC

One 'Detection and Alert' scheme was to have been at Ballydowney where several collisions, including two fatalities, are suspected to have involved deer. This was all outlined in June 2025.

A week ago at the council meeting in Tralee Councillor Tommy Cahill gave a graphic account of coming across a deer accident at Ballymalis, miles from Ballydowney. He sought an update on the pilot schemes. He was told the schemes have been delayed because of funding issue by one body. News to everyone. There was no further explanation, despite a press query by myself and further queries by Councillor Tommy. Senior manager Paul Neary said he expected they would go ahead in early January.

No one ever expected the pilot schemes to be a panacea to solve everything. But it is essential for Killarney. Especially as the NPWS have steadfastly refused to restore the old deer wall at Ballydowney or fence off Torc and Muckross. But during the council meeting last week, the council's Chief Executive Fearghal Reidy chipped in to say, the council are liaising with the NPWS and "work on fencing" is taking place. A major turn around. But again no detail. Meanwhile, UCC tell me they are only gearing up. "The scheme is not yet underway and that they are in the process of recruiting for this project," the college said.

Am I wrong in thinking if this were an issue anywhere but Killarney it would attract a degree of urgency?

OPEN WELCOME FOR TDS LOBBYING FOR PATIENTS

There is a clear lack of action when it comes to Killarney whether it is deer or footpaths. But the recent documentary Blood, Sweat and Tears would suggest that we have in Danny and Michael Healy-Rae the answer to the inordinate inaction. I refer of course to the claim that a blanket parking restriction outside the Handy in the heart of Killarney was solved overnight by Danny himself. I came away thinking Danny took out the paint brush. And I am not the only one. There you go, I said to myself. Why bother with clumsy procedures that take years in Killarney. Ring Danny who is only on the other side of the mountain from myself.

Umpteen things on Mangerton mountain from toilets to too many cars from Cork parking badly could be sorted overnight. But alas, the council have thrown cold water on the idea.

This is what they told me in a statement in response to the claim in the documentary:

"Kerry County Council has found nothing to substantiate the claim in question," it thundered.

"The parking provision in front of the Handy Stores was amended as part of the implementation of the Weather-Proofed and Outdoor Dining Infrastructure project at Kenmare Place, Killarney. The arrangements were approved by the Members of Killarney Municipal District at a Special Meeting held on 29th September 2021, at which the Chief Executive's Report and Recommendations associated with the above-mentioned project was considered. The parking arrangements currently in place are in accordance with the drawings approved as part of that process," the council said.

So, it seems I'll have to go through the process.

Now the outstanding question is can Michael push people up hospital waiting lists for operations if we contact him? This was the second claim in the documentary. I asked the HSE. And after a delay of five weeks, the regional health authority have come back to say they actually welcome representations from TDs like Michael Healy-Rae. "In 2026 to date, HSE South West Communications and Public Affairs have recorded the receipt of 1,621 Parliamentary Questions and Representations relating to individual patient cases from elected representatives. We value and understand the important role elected representatives play in representing the public."

So now you now know who to contact if you know anyone who needs a leg up the waiting lists for an operation or for a bed in a ward or to be lifted from the corridor in UHK before the minister visits or or have your teeth fixed. Whatever, Michael Healy-Rae is your man in the HSE.

Rescue Team Stood Down After Body Found at Lough Ennell

Killarney Water Rescue Search and Recovery Team has been stood down following the discovery of the body of a man in his 20s at Lough Ennell, near Mullingar, Co Westmeath. The Killarney team had been assisting in the multi-agency search after being tasked by An Garda Síochána at the request of Lilliput Water Rescue.

The search began after the young man's fishing boat was discovered abandoned on one of the lake's islands.

Killarney Water Rescue was assisting with its specialist ISSARD water search dog and volunteer crew, alongside the Garda Water Unit, local sub-aqua units, Civil Defence and the Garda Dog Unit.

Search and recovery teams from Longford, Offaly, Roscommon and Athlone, Mullingar and Lough Ree Sub Aqua Clubs were also involved in the operation.

Poor visibility in the water presented significant challenges for the specialist search teams and volunteers involved.

The search concluded following the discovery of the man's body.

Kerry house prices increase 0.6pc in three months

The price of the average second-hand three-bed semi in County Kerry rose by 0.6pc to €387,500 in the last three months, according to the latest REA national survey.

Across the county, the average time taken to reach sale agreed was six weeks, the Q3 REA Average House Price Index shows.

Average prices in Killarney rose 1.2pc to an average of €415,000, while Tralee prices were unchanged at an average of €360,000.

"Demand still remains high, as the number of properties for sale are limited," said Donal Culloty of REA Coyne and Culloty, Killarney.

"We are seeing a high demand for new A-rated properties."

The survey shows that across the county, 30pc of purchasers were first-time buyers, while a total of 15pc of sales in the county this quarter were attributed to landlords leaving the market.

Celebrating 250 Years of Arthur Young's Walk in Killarney National Park

Conservation Ranger and Guide NPWS, Shonagh Gray with Arbutus furniture maker, James Flynn and Kathleen Hickey, chatting about the iconic Arbutus Tree with its berries and flowers at the same time.

A special walk was held in Killarney National Park to mark the 250th anniversary of Arthur Young's visit to the area in 1776.

Participants followed in the footsteps of the influential English writer and agriculturist, retracing the route and reimagining what Young would have encountered during his visit to the Herberts of Muckross and their estate in September 1776.

Young visited Ireland as part of his research for his acclaimed book A Tour of Ireland, which became a bestseller and provided detailed observations of the country and its people.

The commemorative walk was presented by Shonagh Gray, Conservation Ranger with the National Parks and Wildlife Service, who shared fascinating anecdotes and provided insight into the flora, fauna and history of the landed gentry during the period.

The walk offered an opportunity to appreciate the landscape as Young may have experienced it 250 years ago, from the distinctive Arbutus trees and their orange-red berries to sloes, yew and hawthorn.

The limestone of the peninsula provided another striking feature, while Reenadinna Yew Wood was carpeted with moss and fungi, highlighting the rich natural heritage that continues to make Killarney National Park a unique place to explore.

Halloween in the Sem Returns for a Sixth Spine-Chilling Year

St Brendan's College, Killarney is set to open its doors once again for Halloween in the Sem, the school's hugely popular Halloween show.

What began as a school project has grown into one of the most anticipated events of the Halloween season in Kerry, with more than 1,000 guests making their way through the school each year. Visitors find their way through the corridors, classrooms and grounds of "the Sem", where actors and scarers bring the old building to life in the most unsettling way possible.

This year's show is bigger than ever. More than 170 students are involved, taking on roles as actors, scarers and backstage crew.

Guests will have four mazes to explore this year, each with its own brand-new spooky play. Every maze tells a different story, so even those who have visited before can expect plenty of surprises.

The show gives students the chance to act, design, build and organise a large live event, while giving families and friends a night of fun and frights.

Halloween in the Sem runs on the 21st to 23rd of October from 6-9pm. There is an Autism Friendly Slot on Thursday 22nd from 5.15pm to 6pm, during which there will be no jump-scares or loud music. Tickets are €8 and are available from the school website, www.StBrendansCollege.ie.

Guests are advised that the show is not for the faint-hearted!

Raising over €4.5k in Killarney

The Gaza Monologues stand as a testament to the ongoing genocide and the power of collective action

The collaborative event 'The Gaza Monologues,' held at the Gleneagle Hotel in Killarney last Thursday, successfully raised €4,677.

These funds were distributed among ten displaced families from Gaza via mutual aid plus the charity Children Not Numbers, who do invaluable work working to assist medically and emotionally vulnerable children in Gaza.

Important message to people of Ireland:

This event stands as a testament to the ongoing genocide in Gaza and the power of collective action. For those seeking to stand in solidarity, tangible steps include joining marches and vigils (Killarney for Palestine hold a vigil the last Sunday of every month at the Courthouse), boycotting companies complicit in occupation (for example Adidas, Allianz, Coca Cola, Amazon, Airbnb, Booking.com), educating themselves through resources provided by the Ireland Palestine Solidarity Campaign and Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) networks - or can be as simple as wearing a Palestinian Keffiyeh. Find out more on ipsc.ie

The Gaza Monologues began with a Palestinian (and Killarney resident), Mohammed Anabtawi, reading the haunting words of a child in Gaza. A hush fell upon the crowd and everyone listened intently with empathy. Incredible artists from Killarney and West Cork performed songs of hope, solidarity and dreams in between each monologue which transported the audience to the heart of Gaza. The testimonials dared the audience to imagine life amidst the rubble - a reality defined by more loss than joy, yet one that refuses to be snuffed out by the occupying forces. The finale of the evening was the most breathtaking of all.

Milly Larkin.

Door Photography

Martin Leahy sang We Remember as the director, Nasser Al- Swirki named out each town, village and homeland in the ancient land of Palestine, the crowd rose from their seats as the momentum built and Nasser's voice grew with passion and determination..by the end over 150 people stood in solidarity and there wasn't a dry eye in the house.

After the performance, Sally MacMonagle chaired a fascinating panel with Nasser Al Swirki - world renowned Palestinian theatre and film director and Caoimhe Butterly - Humanitarian, psychotherapist and flotilla participant - both shared their experiences of Gaza, and how the people of Ireland can make a stand against Israel.

Organizers noted that the direct testimonial effect and emotional intensity of The Gaza Monologues warrant staging in venues across Ireland. Theatre companies and solidarity groups interested in hosting a production can

Kerry Rose Caoimhe Lynch Thanks Killarney for Support

Kerry Rose Caoimhe Lynch has expressed her heartfelt thanks to the people of Killarney for the kindness, encouragement and support she received throughout last month's International Rose of Tralee Festival.

Caoimhe said she felt incredibly fortunate to have had the opportunity to represent Kerry and was particularly touched by the response from her home town.

She thanked everyone who sent cards and messages, offered words of encouragement or showed their support during the festival. While the strong local support did not surprise her, Caoimhe said she was genuinely moved by it and felt "really loved and supported" by the people of Killarney.

She said the experience had once again reminded her of what makes Kerry such a special place, its people.

Caoimhe will continue to represent Kerry over the coming months before handing over the Kerry Rose sash next April, and said she is looking forward to the new experiences and adventures that lie ahead.

One of the lessons she has taken from her time as Kerry Rose so far is the positive impact people can have on one another, whether through a kind word, a helping hand or simply coming together.

With this in mind, Caoimhe is inviting people from across Kerry to join the new Kingdom Casual Choir, which will meet on Friday evenings in Killarney.

The choir is open to everyone, regardless of singing ability. There is no need to have previous experience, read music or consider yourself to have a good singing voice.

Caoimhe said the aim is simply to have fun, meet new people, sing together and provide an opportunity for people to leave the worries of the week at the door for an hour.

"There is something special about a group of people standing together and singing," she said, encouraging people to come along and give it a try. The first practice of the Kingdom Casual Choir will take place on Friday, October 2, at 7.30pm in the John Paul II Pastoral Centre, Rock Road, Killarney.

For further information, contact Caoimhe on 087 066 9858.

Killarney businesses celebrate hospitality award success

Two Killarney businesses have been recognised among Ireland's leading food and hospitality establishments at the 2026 Georgina Campbell Irish Food & Hospitality Awards.

Killarney Royal Townhouse was named 4-Star Hotel of the Year, while The Tan Yard received the 2026 Sustainability Award. Killarney Royal Townhouse, part of the Scally Hotel Collection, was praised for its recent refurbishment, elegant design, comfortable accommodation and welcoming service. The judges highlighted its successful blend of traditional character with a modern townhouse feel in the heart of Killarney. The Tan Yard, part of the Killarney Plaza Hotel & Spa, was recognised for its practical approach to sustainability, with a strong focus on local and Irish produce. Particular mention was made of the restaurant's Killarney Urban Farm and its Tour & Taste experience, which connects food production, cooking and dining. The awards, now in their fourth decade, recognise excellence across Ireland following independent year-round assessments by hospitality experts. Kerry secured four awards overall, with Out of the Blue in Dingle named Seafood Restaurant of the Year and Aileen and Patrick Hanley of The Lansdowne, Kenmare, receiving the Hosts of the Year award.

New subjects bring fresh opportunities for Castleisland Community College students

Students at Castleisland Community College are beginning the new school year with even greater choice, with Spanish and Music being introduced to the first-year curriculum for the first time this year. The introduction of the two new subjects further broadens the range of opportunities available to students at the school and reflects the wide variety of interests and talents within the student body.

First-year students now have the opportunity to choose Spanish or French as their modern foreign language. Two Spanish classes have been established, with experienced teachers Sarah Hillard and Lauren O Sullivan-Mahoney taking up the role of teaching Spanish to the new first-year students.

Sarah Hillard brings a wealth of experience and expertise to the subject. She is the author of the Spanish textbooks (Fiesta & Éxito) used at both Junior Cycle and Leaving Certificate level. She also has extensive experience in Spanish education having worked as a Leaving Certificate corrector and Leaving Certificate oral examiner, bringing a deep knowledge of both the subject and the examination system to her teaching.

Music has also made its debut as a first-year option at Castleisland Community College. The first music class is being taught by Bryan O'Leary, a renowned traditional Irish musician and qualified music teacher. He is a former winner of the TG4 Young Musician of the Year. His expertise in traditional Irish music, combined with his teaching experience, offers students an exciting opportunity to develop their musical knowledge and skills.

Music is one of a wide range of option subjects available to first-year students. Alongside Music, students can choose from Business, Graphics, Wood Technology, Engineering, Art,

Home Economics and Geography. Students select three subjects from this option group, giving them the opportunity to explore areas that match their individual interests, abilities and ambitions.

The introduction of Spanish and Music is another significant addition to the broad curriculum offered at Castleisland Community College, ensuring that students have opportunities across languages, the arts, technology, business and practical subjects.

Principal Máiréad Corridan welcomed the introduction of the two new subjects. 'I am delighted to add these two new subjects to the school. We offer a very broad choice of options which caters for all interests of students. With experienced teachers leading both new subjects, the first cohort of Spanish and Music students at Castleisland Community College are sure to make their mark as the school continues to expand the range of educational opportunities available to its students.'

Kerry man Darragh O'Sullivan, from Gneeveguilla, was victorious in the Architectural Stonemasonry category at the WorldSkills Ireland competition, held recently at the RDS in Dublin.

Darragh, a Stonecutting & Stonemasonry apprentice with the Office of Public Works (OPW), based in Mallow, took the overall prize demonstrating exceptional craftsmanship and attention to detail. This achievement reflects not only Darragh's dedication and talent, but also the high standards of mentorship and training provided by Darragh's mentor and team in the OPW. Traditional crafts are vital within the OPW in supporting the conservation and restoration of the monuments, buildings and heritage sites in the State agency's care.

Success at the WorldSkills highlights the talent and hard work from our apprentices, as well as the importance of preserving these skills for future generations. This achievement is an inspiring example of excellence in budding public service craftsmanship.

St. Brigid's Recognised For Its Commitment To Global Citizenship Education

Students and teachers at St. Brigid's have been recognised by WorldWide Global Schools (WWGS) for their commitment to Global Citizenship Education (GCE) during the 2025/26 academic year. The school has been awarded a 'Diplomatic Passport' Global Passport, recognising its work to embed Global Citizenship Education across different areas of school life.

As part of their GCE journey, students and teachers at St. Brigid's explored global justice issues including Peace and Justice/Human rights, Fast Fashion/ Ethical consumption, Climate justice and Biodiversity. The Global Passport supports education settings to develop, strengthen and sustain a whole-setting approach to Global Citizenship Education. It recognises the work already taking place while helping education settings identify opportunities to deepen their practice. Ms Alice Quilter said: 'GCE allows students to build their knowledge and awareness in a proactive way. Students gain confidence to share their opinions, ideas and problem solve' The school was among over 180 education settings across the island of Ireland recognised through the WorldWide Global Schools Global Passport this year.

Dr Katie Chapple, Programme Director of WorldWide Global Schools, said: 'The Global Passport provides an opportunity for post-primary education settings to recognise the work they are already doing in Global Citizenship Education and to identify opportunities to deepen and strengthen this work. The commitment demonstrated by education settings this year is a wonderful reflection of the important role GCE plays in helping young people become active and informed global citizens." What is WorldWide Global Schools? <https://youtu.be/4YxkNKA7DBw>

Call for KCC to honour disability campaigner Jacqui Browne

Billy Ryle has called on Kerry County Council to name the new beach facilities in Fenit the "Jacqui Browne Beach Facilities" in memory of the late disability campaigner, who died last year. Jacqui Browne was a passionate and fearless advocate who dedicated more than 35 years to promoting equality, inclusion and justice for people with disabilities.

By her example and leadership Jacqui inspired disabled people to make the most of their abilities. Naming the beach facilities in her memory will send a clear message to disabled people that they are welcome to make full use of the beach facilities, which are wheelchair accessible and provide disability friendly changing areas and toilets.

Jacqui, a thalidomide survivor, was born with impaired hands and forearms, speech and hearing impediments. She suffered lifelong issues with her hip and underwent more than forty surgeries. Yet she described herself as a thalidomide survivor not a thalidomide victim. She saw her disability as being part of her identity and shaping the kind of person that she was. Jacqui threw herself into every activity with gusto. She was a proud Kerry woman who was passionate, energetic, determined, enthusiastic and positive in her work and her sailing.

Jacqui's life of activism and advocacy led to her breaking down many of the barriers that disabled people encounter in their day-to-day lives. She was instrumental in setting up the Disabled Person's Organisation (DPO) Coalition, and subsequently, the DPO Network. Her guidance and leadership over the years have resulted in a commitment from Government to accept their responsibilities to disabled people. Her lasting legacy is the growing awareness she created that effective services and user-friendly facilities help disabled people to integrate fully into society as equal and valued members. Jacqui travelled extensively as a disability campaigner but it was in Fenit that she was most content. Sailing was one of her great passions. Her love of sailing and the sea was rooted in her determination to live life to the full and to meet challenge with grace and dignity. That same spirit guided her advocacy, her friendships, and her view of what a fairer world would look like.

Jacqui Browne was a local, a national and an international advocate for people with disabilities. She devoted her life to highlighting and improving the rights of the disabled. She was an eloquent and powerful voice for people with disabilities and she shone a vibrant and bright light on disability issues. Jacqui was an inspirational campaigner with vision, a keen sense of strategy and a great sense of humour.

"I would be grateful if Kerry County Council bestowed this worthy honour on a charismatic proponent of the rights of disabled people. He said that Jacqui Browne deserves to be remembered and recognized for a life well lived as a disability campaigner and water sports enthusiast", Billy told Killarney Outlook.

Good news for some CAO applicants as 5,119 individual subjects upgraded in Leaving Cert subject appeals

UPGRADE

The results of the 2026 Leaving Certificate Appeals were released to candidates through the Candidate Self Service Portal on www.examinations.ie at 11am on Friday, last, 25th September. The timely release of the appeal results dovetailed with the issuing of the final round, Round Five, of college offers by the Central Applications Office (CAO) last Tuesday, 29th September. The lucky applicants to the CAO, who were entitled to an offer of a college place, following an upgrade, received the offer in Round Five. However, some applicants who received an upgrade and achieved the points required for their chosen course found that all places in that course were already allocated or that the course tuition has progressed too far for a candidate to catch up in 2026. These candidates were offered a deferred place in that course for next year.

APPEALED

12,509 of the 65,326 candidates who sat the traditional Leaving Cert appealed against 26,454 individual results. This was a 27% increase on 2025 when there were 20,764 individual subject appeals by 10,048 candidates and a whopping 87% on 2024 when 14,287 individual results were appealed by 7,268 candidates. A further 4,779 candidates did the Leaving Certificate Applied (LCA) exam but less than ten of them appealed their results. No results were downgraded. 19% of traditional Leaving Cert candidates appealed against one or more subject results compared to 16% in 2025. The 26,454 individual subject appeals represent 5.6% of the total number of 470,277 grades issued in 2026.

MAXIM

While the final number of upgrades at 5,119 represents about 1% of all Leaving Cert results awarded this year, more importantly it also confirms that 5,119 of the 26,454 individual subject appeals were upgraded. In other words, 19% or almost one in five of every individual subject appealed was successful. Those statistics again confirms the old maxim that if you have any doubts about the marks awarded, then it's well worth applying for a recheck. The appeal fee was only €40 per Leaving Cert subject and was refunded if the appeal succeeded.

ASSURANCE

Each year, the State Examinations Commission (SEC) uses the appeals process as a further quality assurance check on its marking processes in the Leaving Cert. As a result, there were 110 upgrades in results which candidates had not appealed. The upgrades arising from these quality assurance measures are also notified to the CAO and updated on the Candidate Self-Service Portal. Hopefully, the CAO made college offers to some or all of the lucky upgraded applicants in Round Five on Tuesday last.

VIEWING

Candidates who appealed their exam results may view their remarked written exam scripts. The viewing of remarked scripts will take place online if at all possible. The deadline for applying to view remarked scripts was 5pm on Monday last, 28th September. Candidates may also refer their exam appeal to the Independent Appeals Scrutineers (IAS). The function of the Independent Appeals Scrutineers is to ensure that all of the exam appeals processes outlined by the SEC have been carried out correctly. The deadline for applying to the Independent Appeal Scrutineers is 5pm on Friday, 9th October. The Independent Appeal Scrutineers process will take place in November 2026.

JUNIOR CYCLE RESULTS

The State Examinations Commission (SEC) has also announced that it will release the 2026 Junior Cycle results on Wednesday, 7th October which is roughly the same time as last year. They will be made available to students in their schools on the day. More students were awarded Distinction and Higher Merit last year after changes were made to the Junior Cycle grading bands. The results this year are expected to every bit as good as they were in 2025 under the revised grading system. There is the same number of grade bands as before but the top four grade descriptors - Distinction, Higher Merit, Merit and Achieved - are now evenly distributed in bands of fifteen percentage points. Good luck to all candidates getting Junior Cycle exam results on Wednesday.

Tractor Show set to bring a celebration of machinery, family and community to Farranfore

Killarney Valley Classic and Vintage Club to host charity tractor show at 4 Park Business Centre on Sunday, October 11

Tractors of all ages will descend on Farranfore next month when the Killarney Valley Classic and Vintage Club hosts its 2026 Tractor Show at the 4 Park Business Centre on Sunday, October 11.

The event promises to be a day for tractor enthusiasts, families and the wider community, with tractors arriving by 10am and the event opening to the public from 11am.

With the show open to tractors of all years, there will be something of interest for enthusiasts of both modern and vintage machinery. A dedicated Vintage section will form part of the display, while there will also be a special section dedicated to the much-loved Ferguson 20 which is 80 years old.

The event will also feature dyno testing, giving owners the opportunity to put their tractors through their paces. Dyno testing can be pre-booked for €200, with spaces available by contacting 087 9162303 to guarantee a time slot.

The Tractor Show is being run as a charity fundraiser, with proceeds supporting three causes that have strong connections with the local community.

Firies National School, Recovery Haven Kerry Cancer Support House and Killarney Valley AC. For Firies National School, the fundraising has a particularly personal significance. A portion of the proceeds will go towards the school's Willow Garden, helping to provide a memorial bench in loving memory of former pupil Ryan Nagle, who sadly passed away in 2019. The Willow Garden provides a special place within the school for remembrance and reflection.

The second beneficiary is Recovery Haven Kerry Cancer Support House, which provides free support to people affected by cancer, including patients, families and carers. Based in Tralee, Recovery Haven offers counselling, complementary therapies, support groups, wellbeing programmes, survivorship services and other practical and emotional supports.

The third beneficiary is Killarney Valley AC, the local not-for-profit athletics club. The club caters for athletes of all ages and abilities across track and field. Its home facility includes a floodlit athletics track and AstroTurf pitch, with the club run by a team of volunteers.

The Tractor Show is a family-friendly event, with plenty happening for those who may not be tractor enthusiasts themselves.

A dedicated family fun area, brought to the event by Tim Carey, will include inflatable attractions. There will also be the Digger Challenge to test your skill and other games. There will be refreshments available from The Warehouse Café during the day.

The organisers have also received considerable support from local businesses, with a number of sponsors helping to make the event possible. Tricel, headquartered in Killarney, is a family-owned Irish company providing solutions across the water, environmental, construction and distribution sectors.

Reens Rathmore is a main dealer for Peugeot, DS, Jeep and Fiat and also sponsor our Club Vintage shed.

SAMCOAgri Sales representing brands including Case IH, Kverneland, McConnel, Viccon, Redrock and Siloking, alongside the company's own SAMCO machinery. Its Kerry operation is based in Tralee.

C. Wharton Tool Hire is another of the event's main sponsors which provides plant and tool hire.

The Warehouse Café, based at 4 Park Business Centre itself, is supporting the event. The café is known for its breakfast and lunch.

Noel C. Duggan Structural Steel Ltd, the long-established Millstreet-based company specialising in structural steel fabrication, cladding, metal decking and intumescent fire protection.

With the combination of vintage and modern tractors, the dedicated Ferguson 20 section, dyno testing, machinery challenges and family entertainment, the organisers hope the day will attract a large crowd from Farranfore, Killarney and surrounding areas.

Entry to the event is by donation, with all support helping the three nominated charities. We are encouraging families, tractor enthusiasts and anyone looking for a different kind of day out to come along, enjoy the displays and entertainment, and help raise funds for three worthwhile local causes.

The Tractor Show takes place at 4 Park Business Centre, Farranfore, Co. Kerry, V93 V292, on Sunday, October 11.

Further information is available from the Killarney Valley Classic & Vintage Club on 087 338 1842 or 087 238 3809.

U14 EAST KERRY DIVISION 1 CHAMPIONSHIP FINAL

Kilcummin 5-10 Rathmore 3-14

Our U14's are East Kerry Division 1 champions after a tremendous final played in excellent conditions at Gneeveguilla GAA Club grounds on Tuesday evening.

Rathmore had a dream start, registering 2-1 without reply inside the opening 5 minutes. A brilliant goal from team captain Cillian Sheehan was our opening score of the evening and a second goal by Donnacha O'Callaghan moments later brought us right back into the game. Rathmore had a purple patch again thereafter however to lead at half time 3-7 to 2-3. Sean O'Connor scored an excellent point just before the short whistle. Facing a 7 point deficit for the second half a strong third quarter was needed and with Sam O'Connor, Cillian Sheehan and Klye Fleming now dominating around the middle, scoring opportunities opened up and points from Cillian Sheehan and Dylan McCarthy followed before we hit our own purple patch scoring 3 goals in a 10 minute spell, 2 from the boot of Kyle Fleming and 1 from Sam O'Connor. Dylan McCarthy followed up with a fine 2 pointer from play and we led by 4 entering the closing stages. Rathmore came in search of a 4th goal but had to settle for 2 points as our backs held out despite huge pressure in the closing moments of the game.

It was a fantastic win for a great group of players who have been very committed to training and games since January and was just reward for all their hard work all year. Thanks to Gneeveguilla GAA Club for the use of their grounds, Rathmore for a fine sporting game, referee Evan Horan and the East Kerry board for their co-operation in recent weeks. Thanks also to all of our supporters who were out in big numbers at the game.

Our u12 boys travelled to Cromane on Friday evening for the final game of the season. A win was needed to top the table and win the Mid Kerry Competition. We started well and with the aid of the breeze in the first half built up a comfortable lead by halftime by playing fast flowing football. To Cromane's credit they threw the kitchen sink at it in the 2nd half and chipped away at the lead and gave the Beaufort Coaches and supporters an anxious wait until the final whistle. The players in fairness never gave up and some last ditch defending and a few important scores at the other end kept us in front at the final whistle to end the year on a high. A big thanks to the coaches involved with the team all year, Jason Foley, Eugene Ferris, Eilish Doyle, Sheamus Clifford and Micheal Concannon. It was a year of a lot of lows with a few highs thrown in here and there but the most important thing is that everyone got plenty of football throughout the year and we finished up with the same amount of players as we start

SPA JUNIORS LIFT THE CAHILL CUP AFTER THRILLING FINAL

Spa Men's Juniors were crowned Cahill Cup champions after a thrilling extra-time victory over Annascaul B, winning 1-21 to 1-16 in a final that had virtually everything. After an evenly contested opening, Spa began to find their rhythm, with two-pointers from Mikey Moynihan and Niall Mac helping them establish a 0-10 to 0-6 half-time lead. Spa continued to dominate early in the second half, with Niall Mac adding three quick points before Liam Spillane got on the scoresheet and Michael Horgan struck for a crucial goal to put Spa 1-14 to 0-7 ahead. Annascaul, however, produced a remarkable fightback, chipping away at the deficit and eventually drawing level to force extra time. Spa responded strongly once again, opening up a six-point advantage, but Annascaul refused to give up and ensured a tense finish. The drama reached its peak in the dying moments when Annascaul were awarded a penalty, only for Spa goalkeeper Jack O'Sullivan to produce a superb save to preserve his side's advantage and secure the Cahill Cup. At the presentation, Diarmuid Cahill accepted the trophy on behalf of his victorious Spa teammates, bringing a memorable afternoon to a fitting conclusion.

SPA DRAW DINGLE IN COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP

U10 BOYS ENJOY PITCH AND PUTT OUTING

Spa U10 Boys took a break from football last weekend for their annual team building outing, enjoying a morning of Pitch and Putt at Deer Park. There was plenty of healthy competition, team challenges, encouragement and, most importantly, lots of fun as the boys tried something different, with many keen to continue playing. The morning was rounded off with pizza and homemade Spa cake, with thanks to coach Lenora O'Donoghue for the excellent bake. Thanks also to Eoin Cronin for organising the outing, fellow coaches Padraig Lynch, Declan Kelliher, Diarmuid Coakley, James Daly and Patrick Cronin for their support, and Shirley Murphy of Deer Park Pitch and Putt Club for her help and assistance. The club also appreciates the generous support of Spa GAA Coiste na nÓg and the Club 7s Committee in funding the outing. These occasions are a great opportunity for team building and friendship, demonstrating that there is more to Spa than just football.

U12 GIRLS ENJOY FINAL OUTING OF THE YEAR

Spa U12 Girls rounded off a fantastic year with a fun-filled trip to the Aquadome in Tralee on Saturday, organised as a special thank-you for the girls' incredible effort, dedication and commitment throughout a highly successful season. The girls enjoyed an action-packed hour and a half in the pool, followed by a well-earned feast of pizza and snacks, making it the perfect way to celebrate the end of the season. The U12 management and team would like to thank Spa Coiste na nÓg, Danone, Killarney Race Company and Spa Club 7s for their support throughout the year, as well as Denis for keeping the girls fuelled with his legendary half-time jelly drops, and all the parents for their unwavering support, driving and sideline encouragement. Best of luck to all the girls making the move to U14 next year, and we hope to see everyone back refreshed and ready for another season in the spring.

Money Matters

By Dermot Cronin
Financial Advisor

WHEN CAN YOU ACCESS YOUR PENSION & WHAT ARE YOUR OPTIONS WHEN YOU WANT TO RETIRE?

You can normally get access to your pension from age 60, a lot of the rules depend on whether you are an employee or self-employed. If you are coming close to retirement then you are probably wondering what options you have when you want to get access to your pension. It depends on what type of pension you have but generally there are four options:

Tax Free Cash: Most people will be entitled to a tax free lump sum, the amount varies however generally you will get at least 25% of the value of your pension in a tax free cash lump sum.

Taxable Cash: You may also be able to take a sum of your pension in taxable cash.

Annual Pension: This is a guaranteed income usually paid monthly for the rest of your life that is purchased with the money left after your tax free lump sum, this is subject to taxation.

Approved Retirement Funds: You may be entitled to keep some of your money in an approved retirement fund, money can be taken from the fund to give you a regular income, usually monthly. This is subject to taxation also. Taxation at retirement is often much lower than when you are working.

It is extremely important that you take your time and have all the options explained to you in plain simple English and that you understand all your options clearly before you make your final decision. As well as the above there is much more to be discussed about your pension. You should discuss your retirement options with a financial advisor who has access to a number of different pension providers before making any decisions, he or she will help you with the above options and any other queries you may have.

If you require any further information on the above or any other matter you can contact Dermot Cronin at info@dermotcronin.ie or 0646622775 or 0872893649.

CREATING A SELF-LOVE RITUAL FOR AUTUMN

As the leaves begin to change and the days grow quieter, autumn invites us to slow down, turn inward and reconnect with ourselves. Creating a simple self-love ritual can be a beautiful way to honour this seasonal shift.

Begin by choosing a peaceful moment when you won't be disturbed. Light a candle, wrap yourself in your favourite blanket and make a comforting drink, perhaps a warm herbal tea or hot chocolate. Let these small sensory details signal that this time is just for you.

Next, take a few deep breaths and ask yourself: How am I really feeling right now? Without judgement, notice what comes up. You might choose to journal about what you're ready to release, what you're grateful for, or what you'd like to nurture during the months ahead. Add something that brings you joy—listen to calming music, read a few pages of a favourite book, take a gentle walk among the autumn leaves or simply sit quietly.

Finish your ritual with a loving affirmation, such as: I give myself permission to slow down, rest and grow at my own pace. Let autumn remind you that there is beauty in every season of becoming.

NAILS THIS AUTUMN

As we swap sandals for boots, we switch to richer warming shades like chocolate brown, burgundy, berry, deep red and olive green. For something more subtle, creamy nudes, taupes and soft beige remain a beautiful choice.

Marbling is really popular, where two or more colours are swirled together to create a fluid, stone like effect. Tortoiseshell is another big autumn look, using warm caramel, brown and black tones across the whole nail or simply on the tips.

For something with a little sparkle, cat-eye nails use magnetic polish to create a gorgeous light-reflecting effect. Animal prints and updated French manicures, with chocolate or burgundy tips are replacing traditional white.

Biab (Builder in a bottle) continues to be the most requested treatment, giving your natural nails extra strength while creating a smooth glossy lasting finish.

Shorter, natural-looking nails are always a lovely option. Whatever your style, autumn is the perfect excuse to move away from summer brights and try something richer and a little different.

TIPS TO HELP YOU STAY MOTIVATED

B WELL FITNESS CLUB

EXERCISE AS AN ANTIDOTE TO DAILY STRESS

We often think of exercise as a tool for physical change—a way to build muscle, drop a size, or improve our stamina. But the most immediate, life-changing benefit of moving your body actually happens between your ears.

The Biochemistry of a Better Mood

When you experience stress, your body goes into a primal "fight or flight" mode, flooding your system with cortisol (the primary stress hormone). Historically, this was great for running away from predators. Today, that cortisol just sits in your body while you stare at emails, leaving you feeling anxious, tense, and exhausted.

Movement acts as the ultimate stress reliever by reversing this chemical buildup:

Burning Off Cortisol: Physical activity gives your body a constructive outlet to process and "burn off" accumulated stress hormones, physically releasing the tension held in your shoulders, neck, and chest.

The Endorphin Shift: Exercise stimulates the production of endorphins—your brain's natural feel-good neurotransmitters. They act as a natural painkiller and mood elevator, often referred to as the "runner's high."

Active Mindfulness: When you are focusing on your stride, counting a repetition, or flowing through a stretch, you are forced into the present moment. This breaks the loop of repetitive, stressful thoughts and clears your mind.

Your workout should never feel like another stressful item on your to-do list.

At B Well, we believe fitness should be a sanctuary. Our club is a dedicated stress-free zone where you can escape the noise of daily life.

Drop by B-Well today to take a tour, find your breath, and let us help you wash away the stress of the week!

THE OPTICAL SUITE

DIARMUID O'SULLIVAN OPTOMETRIST

OCT

Our eyes are amazing, complex and precious, and deserve the best possible care, treatment and attention. That's why at The Optical Suite we have invested in the latest technology to bring to the area, a globally acclaimed instrument – an OCT, which digitally scans and photographs your eyes.

So why is this service so important and what makes this technology superior? In summary, this technology monitors and scans the human retina, which is a thin and sensitive tissue at the back of the eye. This complex structure supplies the retina with blood. Everyone's retina is different – indeed, a set of identical twins do not share similar patterns. Sometimes, retinal patterns may be altered in the cases of diabetes, glaucoma or other retina degenerative disorders. A retinal scan of a patient's eye can instantly pick up any changes to the health of the eyes and we will be able to advise on the next steps you should take. It's a quick and comfortable non-invasive treatment. You can even get to see an amazing 3-D illustration of your eye with the OCT, enabling us to talk you through the findings right there in the Consultation Room. Retinal screeners that digitally scan the eyes are very accurate and are one small step everyone can take to not only check-up on the health of their eyes, but indeed their overall health as high blood pressure and diabetes can be picked up by the optometrist using these instruments. When you consider how precious our health is, and our sight, it's a logical step to book an eye test.

The service is available now for patients.

CAHILL WELCOMES ONE-WEEK EXTENSION TO SLURRY SPREADING DEADLINE

Fianna Fáil TD for Kerry and member of the Joint Oireachtas Committee on Agriculture and Food, Michael Cahill TD has welcomed the announcement of a one-week extension to the slurry spreading deadline, following his calls for greater flexibility for farmers.

Deputy Cahill was one of the first to call for an extension, highlighting the exceptional weather conditions experienced over the summer and the difficulties farmers faced with grass growth, grazing and silage harvesting. Slurry spreading will now be permitted until Wednesday, 7 October, with the closed period commencing on Thursday, 8 October. Farmers wishing to avail of the extension must register with the Department of Agriculture in advance. Deputy Cahill said: "I welcome this one-week extension, which I was one of the first to call for after hearing directly from farmers about the challenges they were facing.

"The prolonged dry weather created significant difficulties for farmers, while delays to silage harvesting and getting animals back out to grass have placed additional pressure on farm families. "This extension provides some much-needed breathing space and allows farmers to manage slurry responsibly while taking account of the exceptional conditions we have experienced this year.

"I thank both Ministers for listening to the concerns raised and recognising that flexibility was required. I would encourage any farmer who needs to avail of the extension to register with the Department in advance and contact my office if they require assistance."

Farmers can register by emailing nitrates@agriculture.gov.ie or phoning 053 916 3425, quoting their herd number.

Fuel allowance benefiting 17,200 households across Kerry

– Senator Mike Kennelly

The expanded Fuel Allowance scheme has ensured even more households in Kerry now benefit from fuel support, a Fine Gael Senator has said, Senator Mike Kennelly said that with the start of Fuel Allowance season this week, eligible households in Kerry will get help with their heating costs during the winter months.

"It's great to see that 17,200 households in Kerry are now benefitting from Fuel Allowance, thanks to the expansion of the scheme this year.

"Fuel Allowance is a payment to help with the cost of heating your home during the winter months and now a quarter of all homes across the country will be eligible for the scheme.

"Fuel Allowance is an essential support for so many households in the winter months and with energy prices a concern for many, it's important that people check their eligibility for the scheme."

The allowance will be paid to over 465,000 households across the State for 28 weeks. The payment is made at the weekly rate of €38 or two instalment payments of €532 each. Following an expansion earlier this year, families in receipt of the Working Family Payment will now automatically qualify. Recipients can choose to receive the payment weekly or in two lump sums, and do not need to reapply each year if their circumstances and underlying payment remain unchanged.

"The scheme has been expanded for this season to ensure even more households qualify and can benefit.

"Fine Gael is committed to helping those who need help with their energy costs access support, and I encourage anyone who feels they might qualify to check their eligibility," concluded Senator Mike Kennelly.

DISABILITY AMENDMENT BILL RAISED IN DAIL EIREANN

Deputy Danny Healy Rae spoke in Dail Eireann on the Disability Amendment bill. He said there are far too many families waiting far too long for their assessments of needs. He also highlighted the huge shortage of residential care for adults with disabilities.

"There are far too many families with additional needs and disabilities who are waiting far too long for their assessments of needs as well as other appointments of speech and language therapists, occupational therapists or physiotherapists and SNAs"

It is unfair that these elderly parents are not provided with the necessary respite care or options for respite to give family members a well-earned rest. There is a huge shortage of residential care for adults with disabilities."

He said, In Kerry, their lot has not improved much. I am asking again for the Government to be more meaningful and to mean what it says. There are far too many families with additional needs and disabilities who are waiting far too long for their assessments of needs as well as other appointments of speech and language therapists, occupational therapists or physiotherapists and SNAs. We have been waiting, and there is a serious lack of all those people.

Early intervention is crucial for a child with additional needs. It is shameful to see the length of time children have to wait for an assessment. Many are obliged to wait years. When a baby is born and grows up a little, the parents sometimes find that something is lacking or wrong. They want the best for their child, which is only natural. The cost that they have to bear could be for all their lives as they want to improve the lot of that child. There is a shortage of staff in all these areas, and positions do not seem to be filled when someone is transferred or goes out on leave. It is not fair on these families that they have to wait so long and fight for their children to receive the treatments they need. Many families have no option but to pay out for private assessments or therapies even if they cannot afford it. Many cannot afford it and have to go short on something else. They dearly love their children and they want them to have the best so they will do anything or go short themselves to ensure that they get those things. It is not fair that in many instances the State is leaving these families behind.

Then there are adult children. I have a serious concern about elderly parents caring for elderly adult children who have disabilities and special needs. These parents contact me. Their main concern is what will happen to their adult child should something happen to either one or both of them. That is a serious concern for these people. I worry when I see what these adult parents have gone through all their lives and what they continue to do on a daily basis. They have to bring their children into Killarney to attend day centres.

It is unfair that these elderly parents are not provided with the necessary respite care or options for respite to give family members a well-earned rest. There is a huge shortage of residential care for adults with disabilities. I again ask that the Government consider St. Mary of the Angels, which has been and continues to be closed by stealth. It is an ideal location that should be considered to provide respite, as it is badly needed. St. Mary of the Angels is in the heart of mid-Kerry, in Beaufort. It was a farm given free to the health services by the Doyle family, going back in time. It is an ideal place to improve and to have more respite there rather than sending adult children who need respite up the country to Tipperary and, in one case, to County Meath. That is not fair on the people in Kerry who are trying to see after and to mind adult children and to get a break in sending them to respite services. I appeal to the Government. There is a Fianna Fáil Minister in Kerry, and I ask her to do her utmost to ensure that St. Mary of the Angels is opened up properly and developed.

Cahills Welcome Concrete Progress On Killarney Cctv Scheme And Call For Project To Be Expedited

Fianna Fáil TD for Kerry Michael Cahill and Councillor Tommy Cahill have welcomed concrete progress on the proposed Community CCTV scheme for Killarney town centre while calling for the project to now be expedited.

Kerry County Council has confirmed that a Data Protection Impact Assessment has been completed and that approval has been received from the Garda Commissioner for a Community CCTV scheme covering Killarney Town Centre. Tender documentation has also been prepared, with the scheme due to go out to tender shortly.

Councillor Tommy Cahill said:

"I very much welcome the concrete progress that has now been made on the Killarney Community CCTV scheme. At the Council meeting, I highlighted that the town of Killarney and Killarney Chamber of Tourism and Commerce have been waiting for this scheme for more than 20 years. It is therefore most welcome to see that we are now at a stage where the Data Protection Impact Assessment has been completed, Garda Commissioner approval has been secured and the tender documentation has been prepared and it is due to go out for tender in the near future."

"The scheme is due to go to tender shortly and I am calling on all of the relevant bodies to expedite the remaining stages so that the CCTV system can become operational as soon as possible. Incidents in the town this summer have further outlined the need for this CCTV system."

"Killarney is one of the busiest towns in the country, particularly during the tourism season, and having an effective Community CCTV system in place is an important piece of infrastructure for the town. This has been a long-standing issue for the people of Killarney and the local business community. We now have concrete progress and I want to see this project brought over the line without unnecessary delay."

Kerry County Council currently acts as Data Controller for four Community CCTV schemes in the county, three in Tralee and one in Killorglin. The Council has also confirmed that it will continue to engage with An Garda Síochána and relevant Local Community Safety Partnerships in relation to future CCTV provision.

KVAC MAKE STRONG START TO KERRY CROSS COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIPS

Killarney Valley AC made an impressive start to the Kerry cross country season with 84 athletes competing on Day 1 of the County Cross Country Championships in Foilmore, hosted by Iveragh AC.

The club claimed three individual county titles, with Natalie Murphy winning the U10 girls, James Doody taking the U12 boys title and Fionn Culloty crowned U16 boys champion.

There were also five team victories for KVAC, with gold secured in the novice men, U10 girls, U10 boys, U12 boys and U16 girls competitions. The novice ladies and U12 girls teams both added county silver medals.

Risteard Clifford led the way in the novice men with a second-place finish, supported by Conor Crowley, Shane Ryan and Yevhen "Johnny" Kurbanov as KVAC took team gold. Grace O'Meara finished third in the novice ladies and together with Sinead Hickey, Amanda Keane and Marie Claire Healy, secured team silver.

In the U10 races, Alice Pyne was runner-up to champion Natalie Murphy, while Dylan Aherne and Cillian Culloty finished second and third respectively. Both the girls' and boys' teams claimed gold.

Lauren O'Sullivan and Bébhinn O'Donnell finished second and third in the U12 girls, whose team took silver. James Doody's victory led the U12 boys to team gold, with Charlie Jay Kelliher finishing fifth.

Muireann Breen finished third in the U16 girls, with teammates fourth and sixth securing team gold, while Fionn Culloty completed his championship victory in the U16 boys.

There were further strong performances across the age groups, with Carolina Kelly fifth in the U14 girls and John Byrne sixth in the U14 boys. Kirsten Kenny and Tara O'Sullivan were second and third in the U18 girls, while Conor Duffin and Liam Murphy placed third and fifth in the U18 boys. Karl James O'Neill was runner-up in the U20 boys, with Michael Crowley fifth and James Ward sixth.

It was a rewarding opening day for KVAC, with strong individual performances complemented by the teamwork that delivered seven county podium finishes across the team competitions. Our thanks go to the athletes competing, coaches, parents and supporters, as well as Iveragh AC for hosting the opening day of the championships in Foilmore.

On Sunday 4th October the Cross Country competition continues with Juvenile Uneven Ages, Intermediate and Masters events in Brosna hosted by An Ríocht Athletic club.

Please email the club on killarneyvalleyac@gmail.com if you would like to join the club.

KILLARNEY RFC CLUB

U14 BOYS MAKE STRONG LEAGUE START

Killarney RFC U14 Boys produced a hugely encouraging performance in their first West Munster League game against Castleisland. Killarney opened the scoring after strong forward carries created space for first centre Culann Cronin, who showed excellent footwork and determination to score. Luke O'Sullivan converted and later added a penalty.

Castleisland led 10-7 at half-time and went on to win 17-10, but Killarney's work rate, commitment and attacking play provided plenty of positives for the season ahead.

SENIOR MEN WIN LEAGUE OPENER

The Senior Men opened their Munster Junior League Division 2 campaign with a hard-fought 27-25 victory over Muskerry RFC at Aghadoe on Sunday. The narrow two-point win gave Killarney a positive start to the league season.

U18.5 BOYS

The U18.5 Boys travelled to Abbeyfeale West to face Desmond Rugby on Sunday as their Munster Conference campaign got under way. Desmond Rugby secured a 29-14 victory, but Killarney will take valuable experience from their opening fixture.

Garda Youth Achievement awards in KCC

This week the Killarney Community College celebrated TY students Nathan O'Brien and Michael O'Donovan who have recently been honoured with a Garda Youth Achievement Award.

Nathan has been a dedicated member of Kerry Civil Defence for the past four years. Inspired by his grandfather, who has himself been involved with the organisation for more than seven years, Nathan chose to get involved and has shown outstanding commitment to serving his community. This well-deserved recognition highlights Nathan's dedication, enthusiasm, and community spirit. Michael O'Donovan recently received a Garda Youth Achievement Award in recognition of his dedication and involvement with the Order of Malta. Michael was one of three friends who were honoured with the group award. In April 2026, Michael and his fellow volunteers travelled to Lourdes, where they provided valuable assistance to pilgrims in hospital care. Their work included helping to feed those who were ill and accompanying them to the candlelight processions, demonstrating great compassion, commitment, and service to others.

Past Men's & Ladies' Captains Gather for Annual Evening at Killarney Golf & Fishing Club

Killarney Golf & Fishing Club was delighted to welcome both their Ladies' and Men's Past Captains for their respective annual gatherings recently, continuing a wonderful tradition that brings together those who have served the Club over many years.

The Ladies' Past Captains enjoyed their annual competition and get-together, with Mary Geaney coming out on top to claim this year's Past Captains' Competition.

The occasion was made particularly special with a presentation to Eileen Whelan, who received a bouquet of flowers to mark the 21st anniversary of her year as Lady Captain and to congratulate her on becoming incoming Club President for 2027.

The Men's Past Captains gathered on Friday, 25th September, beginning with their traditional competition on Mahony's Point. Patrick Clifford, Men's Captain in 2007, produced the winning performance to claim the Past Captains' trophy and is pictured receiving his prize from current Men's Captain Tomás Kelliher.

Following the golf, both occasions provided an opportunity for our Past Captains to reconnect, reminisce and celebrate the friendships formed through their many years at Killarney Golf & Fishing Club. The gatherings were complemented by meals provided by Truffle Honey, with fantastic turnouts adding greatly to the atmosphere. Congratulations to Mary and Patrick on their respective victories, and to Eileen on two very special milestones. Most importantly, it was wonderful to see so many of our Past Captains together again, celebrating their continued friendship and connection with Killarney Golf & Fishing Club.

Sem win third straight Munster Pitch & Putt title

The Munster Secondary Schools event took place on Thursday last (September 24th) in St Stephens in Cork and St Brendans College, Killarney's No 1 team won the event for a third straight staging.

The competition was played over 18 holes as both the Sem's first side and Colaiste an Chraobhin from Fermoy's side both tied on 161. The Sem's total came from a three under par from Fionn McMonagle and one over par for both Fionn O'Callaghan and Lucas Uchtyl as their back six scores were better than the Fermoy's school's countback meaning they were declared winners with the Sem now having won this competition for the seventh time in its history. Fionn McMonagle also had the added bonus of winning the best individual score with his three under par round as a second St Brendans team (their third side) managed to make it through to the National Finals as well. This team consisted of Sean Quill, Adam Twomey and Donnacha Slattery as they made it through in sixth place on a score of 179. For the St Brendans 2 side however it was a case of missing out on the National Finals because of countback as their score of 181 was matched by St Colmans Fermoy with the Cork school's back sixes getting them through in the eighth and final national final spot.

Both Sem teams move forward quickly now to the National Finals which take place over 36 holes on Thursday (October 1st) in Lakeside, Templemore, Co Tipperary. The school are bidding for a fifth straight National title as the County Board wishes them the very best of luck on the day with the Board also wishing to commend both Killarney Community College and Intermediate School Killorglin for entering teams in this year's Munster event.

CALL TO BE MINDFUL OF OUTDOOR LIGHTING EFFECTS ON OUR HABITAT

Lochanna Beo are calling on all residents in the Killarney area and within the UNESCO Kerry Biosphere Reserve to be mindful of the damaging effects on our habitat of excessive outdoor lighting at night. From a practical point of view, of course we need a certain amount of lighting during the Winter evenings to aid safe navigation for ourselves. But we may not be aware how damaging excessive lighting can be for nocturnal species - from insects to bats and owls. Killarney is home to all nine species of bat which we have in Ireland, including a vital population of the Lesser Horseshoe Bat considered of international importance (and strictly protected under the EU Habitats Directive) and found in only five other counties here. This bat is particularly vulnerable to light pollution and tends to decline whenever light transgresses into their area as both their roosting and foraging ability is affected.

Given that energy is now such a precious and expensive commodity, it makes added sense to limit outdoor lighting to only that which is necessary. Lighting which points downwards, as opposed to outwards or upwards is by far Lighting which points downwards, as opposed to outwards or upwards is by far the most optimal when it comes to limiting the impact on wildlife.

the most optimal when it comes to limiting the impact on wildlife. Subdued lighting is preferable to excessive or very bright lighting. Worryingly, LED lighting has been found to be more harmful than the older sodium lighting, which created a yellow-orange light. Indeed , anyone who drives at night will appreciate that the modern LED headlights now fitted on cars create a more blinding and lasting glare than the older, more yellow-hued headlamps.

Lochanna Beo

"Living Lakes" in Irish

The Kerry County Development plan pays much cognisance to the effects of light pollution, and commits to take into consideration The Bat Conservation Trust (UK) guidelines when choosing lighting specifications. It also describes four components of light pollution: glare, skyglow, light trespass and clutter , all of which impact on us as human beings as well as on the natural world around us. As Killarney borders the only gold tier Dark Sky Reserve in the entire Northern Hemisphere, it is incumbent on all of us to try to negate our unwitting but devastating light pollution impact.

Lochanna Beo are trying to raise awareness of all issues which may be affecting our water and habitat quality and are creating a large network of interested stakeholders, from residents and landowners to ecology experts and business owners and to parents who are invested in handing their children a Killarney Valley in a healthier state than the declining one we currently inhabit. Utility Trust St Pauls Lakers Mens National League Preview

Coach Luke O'Hea will be looking to build on what was a very solid first season with Utility Trust St Pauls Lakers. The first box ticked was qualifying for the play offs and this was of course achieved largely due a record 11 game winning run which stretched from mid November to mid February, which catapulted them up the division. And while the season ended in a quarter final defeat to Drogheda Wolves, the run will have given the players the appetite and confidence for more.

O Hea has added to his squad with the acquisition of Jack Watkins, who hails from Decatur, Texas. The capture of Watkins is seen as a progressive step in the team's development. The 6 ft 4 guard had an illustrious college career with Ave Maria University where, in his career, he averaged 14 points per game, 5 rebounds, and 4 assists. His undoubtedly highlight was this year, on the 21st March against Grace, when he shot 35 points and went 100% from the three point land. He is seen as an industrious player who will bring a high degree of skill and speed to the team.

Valters Mazburss has also been added to the Utility Trust St Pauls Lakers roster for the upcoming Men's National League season. Mazburss is a 6ft 5 guard/forward who hails from Riga in Latvia and has recently played for East Ball in his homeland. He has represented Latvia internationally at 3 v 3 level, and his speed and aggression are key elements in his game. The squad is further boosted by the arrival of Evan Boyle. The Ballymacelligott native joins from Tralee Warriors, where he had a very productive underage career.

The trio will join established league performers Mark Sheehan, Jack O Sullivan and Oisin Spring. Cathal will be looking to join brother Oisin on court while Adam O'Neill and Darragh O'Callaghan have all seen court time. Adam Whitty, Dara O Sullivan and Cillian O'Leary will all be looking to push on this year and of course all these young players will benefit from the experience of the adopted Kerryman Rui Sariava.

One familiar face who will be playing a limited part in the first half of the season is Eoin Carroll. The inside player is in Spain due to college commitments but will be available again in January.

The Club is also delighted to have James Fleming and Utility Trust on board again as sponsor for a second season. Without that support it would be impossible to compete in the league and a big thank you is extended to James for his generous sponsorship.

Meanwhile the season fixtures have been confirmed with the league once again made up of two seven team conferences. The Southern Conference is made up of the three Galway Clubs, Titans, Maree and Moycullen, Tipp Talons, Portlaoise Panthers, Flexachem KCYS and the Lakers. A noticeable absence is Killarney Cougars who have withdrawn from the league so the big Derby this season is undoubtedly the two meetings with Killorglin.

The opening home fixtures will take place in the Presentation Gym with a return to the Killarney Sports and Leisure Centre pencilled in for November, following the relaying of their floor after recent flood damage.

Utility Trust St Pauls Womens Super League Preview

Utility Trust St Pauls will have two highly experienced players leading them into the new Women's Super League campaign. Irish International Lorraine Scanlon will be using her experience to great effect while Rheanne Kelly (O Shea) returns after the birth of her first child. Both have been named as joint captains and their game nous will be crucial to their teams bid for honours. Coach James Fleming has assembled an exciting squad with Mairead McKenna, Julie O Connor, Emma Buckley and Louise Scannell bolstering an already talented Irish core of Leah McMahon, Siofra O Shea, Emma Costello and young guns Clodagh O Sullivan, Annie Brosnan and Naoise O Connor. Louise Scannell is a niece of current UCC Glanmire coach Mark, and she has played for the Cork outfit, winning every honour in the game. She has most recently played for Limerick Celtics where she averaged eight points per game. She also enjoyed a stellar underage career with Ireland, playing with the U16, U18 and U20 teams. Denise Dunlea will sit out the season as she awaits the arrival of in Spain, stands at 6 ft 1" and has played College basketball at New Mexico and Loyola Marymount. At New Mexico she had a season high 25 points against Eastern Illinois and she proved her versatility when netting five three pointers against Nevada in the same season. Her finest hour in Marymount came against Santa Clara when she played a leading role in their 2025/26 season win.

Paula has also represented her native Spain at U16 level in 2019 at the FIBA Women's European Championships. Angelina Robles is a native of San Diego, the 5ft 5 guard will be hoping to bring her creativity to the fore in her first professional season. Angelina had a stellar college career where she stood out for both South Dakota and Denver. She was in Denver from 2022 to 2025, where she made 87 appearances and averaged 7.6 points per game.

Having competed in the final in their first season back in the big time and topping the standings last year, Utility Trust St Pauls are suited and booted for a title challenge. With a strong squad assembled, the eyes are very Bryanne Ouattara and William Sjogren put Athletic 2-1 ahead before Trey Hurley scored the decisive goal to secure all three points. After a lengthy break from competitive football, there was some rustiness, but the team showed excellent character to battle through a tight contest.

The Under 14D side welcomed MEK A to Ferndale and, after falling two goals behind early on, responded through Finn McDonald. Leon Saczawa added two goals as Athletic remained competitive for long periods before MEK eventually won 6-3.

UNDER 15 BOYS ENJOY TWO GOOD PERFORMANCES

Athletic's Under 15B side recorded an impressive 6-4 away win over Castleisland B in Division 1. Athletic led 5-1 at half-time, with Brayanne Ouattara scoring five times in an outstanding first-half display. Castleisland briefly threatened a comeback with three goals in five minutes, but Athletic regained control and Cian Lenahan added the sixth goal.

In the Under 15C league, Athletic travelled to Mastergeeha and came away with a good victory. Donncha Slattery scored three, with Oran Barrett adding two and William Sjogren, Rian Horgan, Daniel Cremin and Luke O'Sullivan also finding the net.

The Under 16 Premier League girls were narrowly defeated 2-1 by MEK. Despite having no substitutes, the Athletic players gave everything throughout a fiercely contested game and were unfortunate not to come away with a point. Evie Doolan and Roisin O'Sullivan were among Athletic's strongest performers.

The Under 14B girls suffered a 4-0 defeat to Listowel Celtic, but there were encouraging signs, with strong performances from the midfield, wingers and back four. The team continued to work hard and support each other throughout the game.

UNDER 11 TEAMS RECORD WINS

windy conditions. After a slow start, the team settled into the game and impressed with their attacking and defensive play. Cillian, Colm Og and Nathan all scored twice, with Adam and Aaron also getting on the scoresheet.

The Under 11 Yellow team travelled to Listowel for their second league game and showed a marked improvement in work rate and passing to secure a well-earned victory. Goals came from Alexander Sheridan (2), Paul Darlington (2), Diego O'Leary (2), Jack Morris and Nikola Mileusnic.

The Under 11 Division 2 team entertained Castleisland in an entertaining game. Athletic played some excellent football with Peter Stipic scoring both Athletic goals.

ADARE UNITED 2 V MASTERGEEHA FC 3

Michael O'Donoghue 4'

Karl Thompson 20' 53'

2nd Round secured!

Mastergeeha came away from Adare with a hard-fought 3-2 victory this afternoon to book our place in the 2nd Round of the National Cup. We got off to the perfect start, with Michael O'Donoghue opening the scoring in the 4th minute, meeting a beautifully delivered corner from Shane O'Sullivan and finding the net.

On 20 minutes, Karl Thompson doubled our advantage. Karl latched onto a perfectly weighted through ball from Evan Burke, showing great composure to finish and make it 2-0.

Adare responded with a goal just before half-time to bring the game back to 2-1 at the break. Just eight minutes into the second half, Karl grabbed his second of the afternoon. After some scrappy play inside the box, he reacted quickest to direct the ball into the net and restore Mastergeeha's two-goal advantage. Adare never stopped running and pulled another goal back with around 10 minutes remaining to set up a nervy finish. The boys showed excellent game management and composure in the closing stages, seeing out the final minutes to secure a valuable 3-2 victory and progress to the next round. It wasn't our best performance, but the character, resilience and determination to get the job done were there for all to see. A massive thank you to everyone who travelled today and supported the boys. Your encouragement from the side-line makes a huge difference! Thank you to Adare for hosting us today. It was a very competitive match, played in a great spirit, and we really appreciate the food and drinks provided for both teams afterwards.

MASTERGEEHA 0 V IVERAGH 4

Mastergeeha FC Captain: Josh O'Sullivan

Our Mastergeeha U13's had their second game of season at home to Iveragh Saturday. A tough physical game. Mastergeeha worked hard with some great build up play on the left from Kyle Morrissey and Dara Burchill. Another corner from Ronan O'Neill very unlucky to not put us back into the game.

Mastergeeha fought hard in the second half with great attacking play from Dara Counihan right midfield dominating that space. More chances from Mathew Cahill and Josh O'Sullivan piled the pressure on but unfortunately Iveragh took two attacking pieces in the last 3 mins to see us concede an additional 2 goals to close out the game 0-4 loss.

In the last 15 mins Mastergeeha very unlucky not to get a goal with some great play from Dara O'Keeffe and Thomas O'Sullivan in attack. Our Mastergeeha MOTM was Dara Counihan RW with a great performance, never stopped in attack and massive performance to defend also.

KERRY CELEBRATE GREAT HOME WIN

Kerry FC 1-0 Wexford FC

By David Moriarty

Kerry FC were back at home on Friday night for the penultimate home fixture and the fourth-last game of the regular season, hosting Wexford FC in Mounthawk Park.

Kerry FC came into the game needing three points to keep up the pace in the race for the promotion playoffs. Just five points separate fourth and eighth in the league table, and with four games to go, every point was crucial.

Kerry FC had not lost to Wexford FC so far this season; a win at home and two draws on the road made up three of the four results so far in the campaign. A late equaliser last time out between the two in Ferrycarrig Park from Jake Doyle snatched all three points off the Kingdom as they went back to Tralee with just one.

The visitors Wexford FC have won just two of their previous six games, but a 3-1 win last week over promotion hopefuls Cobh Ramblers gave them massive belief going into the last stretch of the season.

The Kingdom are without a win in the last two, making Friday's fixture all the more important as they look to secure a promotion playoff spot for the first time in their short four-year history. A huge crowd came to MHP to get behind the players in what could be a season-defining game.

FIRST HALF

Kerry FC started brightly in front of the home support and created the first clear opportunity in the tenth minute. A superb through pass from Sean McGrath released Ryan Perez, who attempted to finish past the onrushing Paul Martin. The Wexford goalkeeper, however, read the danger well and made the save.

The Kingdom continued to look dangerous, and in the eighteenth minute Vince Borden delivered an excellent ball into the area which found Cian Brosnan. Brosnan controlled well before getting his shot away, but Martin was equal to the effort and smothered the danger.

Wexford threatened on the counter, and in the twenty-first minute Jonas Häkkinen produced a brilliant tackle to deny Jamie Wynne, who had found himself through on goal.

Kerry FC were enjoying the better of the chances, and in the twenty-third minute another good move ended with the ball falling to Vince Borden. He aimed from distance, but his effort flew over the crossbar.

Wexford responded in the twenty-sixth minute when Ryan Ritchie found an opening outside the area, but Matthew Connor was alert and made an excellent save to deny him.

Both sides continued to contest the game strongly as the half progressed. In the forty-first minute, the Kingdom had created the better opportunities without finding the breakthrough. Wexford captain Mikie Rowe was shown a yellow card in the forty-second minute as the visitors looked to contain Kerry FC. Despite the pressure and chances at both ends, neither side could break the deadlock before the interval, with the teams going into half-time level at 0-0.

SECOND HALF

Wexford had the first opportunity after the restart, as Jake Doyle fired over the crossbar in the forty-eighth minute.

Kerry FC quickly resumed their attacking pressure. In the forty-ninth minute, another superb delivery from Vince Borden found Cian Brosnan at the back post. Brosnan got his head to the ball, but Kian Dignam was on hand to clear. The Kingdom continued to push, and in the fifty-fifth minute Sean O'Connell played a brilliant pass through the channel to Sean McGrath. The Kerry FC captain delivered the ball across first time, finding Cian Brosnan, whose shot was brilliantly saved by Martin.

Two minutes later, Kerry FC came within inches of taking the lead. Cian Brosnan sent a dangerous ball in from the right and found Cian Murphy, with Martin completely missing the cross. Murphy's effort, however, went just wide as Kerry FC continued to get closer.

In the sixty-second minute, Ryan Perez delivered another dangerous cross into the area. It found Cian Brosnan, but he could not keep his header down. The breakthrough finally arrived in the sixty-seventh minute, and it was a moment of real quality. Brilliant work from Cian Brosnan on the right created space for Sean McGrath on the edge of the box. The Kerry captain took his chance superbly, firing a powerful effort into the top-right corner to send Mounthawk Park into celebration. Robert Keane replaced Ryan Perez in the sixty-eighth minute as Kerry FC looked to protect their advantage. Cian Brosnan was booked in the seventy-second minute before Luke Palmer came on for Brosnan in the seventy-eighth minute.

Wexford continued to search for an equaliser, but Matthew Connor was once again there when needed. In the eightieth minute, the Kerry FC goalkeeper produced another excellent save to deny Jake Doyle from outside the area.

The visitors' task became even more difficult in the eighty-fifth minute when Kaylem Harnett was shown a red card, reducing Wexford to ten men. Luke Palmer was booked in the eighty-seventh minute, and three minutes of additional time were signalled at the end of the ninety minutes. Kerry FC held firm to secure a valuable three points, with Sean McGrath's outstanding strike separating the sides.

A captain's goal, a determined defensive performance and several crucial saves from Matthew Connor ensured that Kerry FC returned to winning ways at Mounthawk Park. Now lies ahead another tough battle as Kerry FC travel to Donegal next Friday to take on Finn Harps in Ballybofey as the race for the all-important playoff places heats up.

MCELLIGOTT CUP

Our Golden Nugget sponsored senior B team came up against stiff opposition in Laune Rangers B in the McElligott Cup final in Beaufort on Saturday afternoon. This was always going to be a big test and so it proved to be. Rian Colleran kicked a fabulous opening score but Rangers quickly asserted their dominance around the middle of the field, the livewire Peadar Kelliher got forward to score an opportunistic goal for Fossa in the 13th minute but for the most part, Rangers controlled proceedings and led at the break 1-08 to 1-03.

Killarney Legion winners of the our U-16 East Kerry League Champions

Killarney Legion captain Sean Lyne accepts the shield from Denis McCrohan, following their winning of the U-16 East Kerry League Champions.

Fossa enjoyed a good opening to the second half with two fine scores from Tadhg O'Shea and a point from Rocco Sheehan briefly reducing the deficit to two points. Rangers, however had too much quality in the forwards and pushed the lead out to six before Peadar Kelliher struck for his second goal of the day to give Fossa a glimmer of hope. In spite of the best efforts of the Fossa boys, led by their captain Dan O'Keeffe, they couldn't bridge the gap and a late two pointer from Cian O'Shea wasn't enough as Laune Rangers ran out winners on a score of 1-16 to 2-09.

Team; Ryan Brady, Francis Moran, Cian Doyle, Derek O'Gorman, Dan O'Keeffe (Capt), David Butler, Peadar Kelliher 2-1, Rian Colleran 0-1, Cian O'Shea 0-2, Shay McCormick, Michael O'Dwyer, Mark Donnellan, Cathal Breen, Rocco Sheehan 0-3, Ryan O'Leary, Fintan Coffey, Tadhg O'Shea 0-2, Mark Dennehy.

TARA GFC VISIT

Tara GFC from London made the trip to Fossa for a very enjoyable weekend where their Mother's and Others and their U-14 Girls played their Fossa counterparts.

There was craic, there was ceoil, there was damhsa agus peil. David Clifford dropped in to share some words of wisdom and local trad musician Maidhc Kelliher entertained the spectators before the Fossa and Tara U14 Ladies put their gaelic football skills on display in a very sporting challenge match (expertly refereed by juvenile referee Aaron O'Sullivan).

Thanks to the Londoners and their manager - Fossa native Mark Terry - for making the trip. We were delighted to host you.

New friendships formed and hopefully we will all cross paths again soon.

Thanks to everyone at the club who volunteered and helped make the weekend such a great success - you did your club proud.

Thanks also to Castlerosse Park Resort for their support and their sponsorship of the specially commissioned medals for the event.

DR. CROKES GAAMOLYNEAUX CUP FINAL

Dr. Crokes 1:11 Austin Stacks 1:17. Our bid for a 13th consecutive Molyneaux Cup title came to an end on Sunday as Austin Stacks claimed victory. We started brightly, with Rob O'Shea opening the scoring before Josh Fleming, Darragh O'Sullivan and Brendan Falvey added points. Stacks, however, finished the half strongly to lead 0-08 to 0-05 at the break. We came out fighting in the second half, with Dara O'Shea scoring a goal and adding a two-pointer, while Killian Collins and Cian O'Neill also got on the scoresheet. Stacks responded with some crucial scores of their own, including a late goal and two-pointer, to secure the win.

U16 EAST KERRY CHAMPIONSHIP Dr. Crokes 3:21 Legion 4:17. The U16 boys East Kerry Division 1 kicked off on Sunday morning with a quarter final against Legion, the second meeting in 6 days. This game ebbed and flowed throughout, Dr. Crokes leading by 11 points at half time, to be pegged back to all square at full time. Extra time beckoned and at half time of extra time, our lads were 4 points down. But the best was yet to come - great scoring and a well contested football contest saw Dr. Crokes reduce the lead to 2 points with time almost up, then a late goal secured victory, and a place in next weeks semi final. Very well done boys.

LOTTO took place on September 28th. Numbers drawn were 1, 5, 22, 28. Jackpot of €5,600 was NOT WON. 11 patrons matched 3 and received €40 each. Jackpot for draw on October 5th will be €5,900. Play online by following the link below <https://member.clubspot.app/club/dr-crokes-gaa/fundraisers>

Killarney Judo Celebrates Latest Black Belt

Killarney Judo Club is celebrating the achievement of its latest black belt, with Ciara Forde completing an impressive year of competition to reach the required points.

Ciara spent the past year travelling across Ireland and the UK competing for the points needed to achieve her black belt. With three wins required on the day, she showed great determination, including defeating an opponent who had beaten her previously.

Coach Tim Kelly praised Ciara's consistency and hard work throughout the year, while also highlighting her role as a mentor to many of the club's younger girls through coaching.

Ciara follows her father Aidan and older sister Kate in achieving black belt status at Killarney Judo Club.

There was further excitement for the club as 16-year-olds Patrik Polubnak and James Maher continued their own black belt journeys. Both finished the day on 30 points, with Patrik recording three submission wins and James securing two victories.

The club also celebrated Conor Sowerby and Shaun Hester, who both earned their Blue Belts. Conor began his judo journey in Killarney and now trains with UCD, while Shaun has recently started helping with the club's children's classes. Attention now turns to the competition season, with experienced members heading to the Leinster Open in Dublin and younger judoka travelling to the Munster Mini Mon in Limerick.

County Championship

South Kerry 1-18

East Kerry 1-14

I was pretty much expecting this to be the end of the road for South Kerry. No fault of their own – South Kerry was an absolute stronghold of Kerry football for generations, in the likes of Jack Murphy, Jerome O'Shea, O'Connell, Dwyer, Jacko, Maurice, and many more you could argue that they set the template. But nowhere has been hit harder by rural emigration. The South Kerry Championship is as gripping as it ever was, but the harsh truth is that they have made little impact outside their own environs for the most of a decade now and it doesn't, unfortunately, look likely in the near future either.

South Kerry have no intermediate team at the moment, St. Marys having taken the drop this year. East Kerry have six intermediate teams, including the two finalists this year. Frankly, let's call a spade a digging implement, I'd argue that East Kerry should be in real contention for the title. This should have been a mismatch. And without taking away from South Kerry's heart, hunger, and determination – in which they were so far ahead of East Kerry it was honestly a little bit embarrassing – this result says more about East Kerry's failings than South Kerry's virtues to me. Harsh? I don't like saying it, but I never got a sense of urgency from East Kerry, whereas South Kerry went hunting for every little scrap. It was the underdogs who made the faster start. Donagh Shine O'Sullivan, heavily involved throughout, opened the scoring. Austin Murphy boomed over a trademark two pointer free – the goalkeeper has been a phenomenal scoring asset for both Reenard and UCC all year. Worth a look at a higher level? Look, I know this is the time of year where dozens of names are thrown out for consideration, but I'd be including his name on the list.

Emmett Daly was already posing problems with his direct pace and won a free converted by Donagh Shine. East Kerry finally woke up from what really felt like a torpor, Philip O'Leary opening their account. Donagh Shine promptly replied with another free, once again won by Daly. 0-5 to 0-1.

Paul O'Shea was already standing out for East Kerry – the midfielder is another name I'd be putting on Jack O'Connor's list, given his form all through the intermediate, and he won a free converted by Emmett O'Shea. This was more like it by East Kerry, Emmett adding another free won by Luke Crowley and Ronan Buckley pointing from play. James Horgan fisted over after good build-up play. Philip O'Leary brought the teams level. This was the East Kerry I had been expecting as they rapidly reeled in that strong start of East Kerry's and pushed ahead through a well-judged Emmett O'Shea free. A very hard-working Luke Crowley (outstanding in general play, but maybe a little too deep and trying to do a bit too much) and Kevin McCarthy gave East Kerry a 0-8 to 0-6 lead at half-time. A little bit flattering in terms of overall play, but I certainly expected East Kerry to push on from there.

Philip O'Leary made a good burst through the defensive cordon to open the second half scoring. A foul on Fionán O'Sullivan – I thought it was a very harsh call, I felt Seán O'Leary's challenge was fair enough – saw Emmett Daly reply. Austin Murphy boomed over another one of those long range monsters and the sides were level again, 0-9 apiece.

The next score took a while to arrive, both sides nullifying each other. One incident really puzzled me – South Kerry took a kick-out too short (it must now go outside the arc before a defender can handle it). I don't understand why East Kerry didn't just look to kick it over instead of kicking it short. Maybe it was a trickier wind than I realised?

Alex Coffey, who I thought had a very good game, nudged his team ahead coming to the end of the third quarter. Austin Murphy came up the field for another two pointer and just like that, there was a goal between the sides. Seán O'Leary pointed for East Kerry but Darren Casey responded after a great South Kerry move. Donagh Shine popped over another free. Then came the game's pivotal moment, Kieran O'Sullivan starting a move that saw Ben O'Donoghue and Donagh Shine combine for the big midfielder, continuing his run, to blast into the bottom corner.

1-14 to 0-9 in favour of South Kerry. It was theirs to lose at this stage – but East Kerry finally started to respond to the urgency of the situation. They struggled to read that tricky wind, with a number of wides, but Luke Crowley reignited their hopes with a great two pointer and then set up Emmett O'Shea for a point from play in response to a great left foot score from Donagh Shine O'Sullivan.

East Kerry needed a goal and got it, albeit in slightly strange circumstances. Luke Crowley sent the ball in. Austin Murphy gathered but good tackling by Emmett O'Shea spilled the ball loose and Darragh Roche was on hand for the last touch to knock it into the net. Roche definitely brought a sense of danger with him on his introduction.

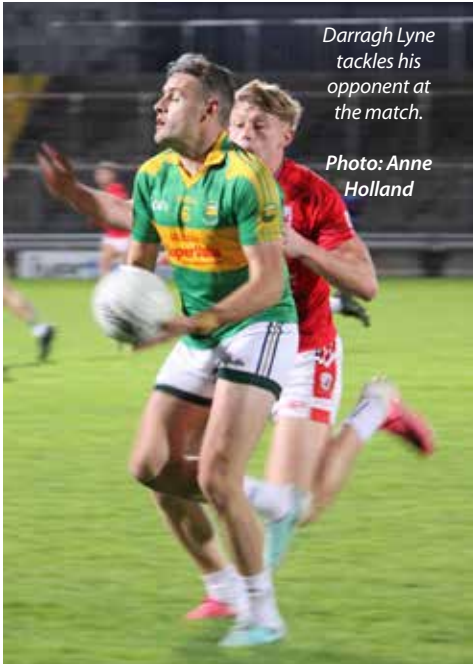

Luke Crowley, outstanding at this stage, fired over another point. Mind you, it took great defending at the other end when Emmett Daly and Ben O'Donoghue combined to set up Eoin Murphy for what looked like a certain goal, only for it to be brilliantly cleared off the line. The ball travelled down the field at pace and Darragh Roche raised a white flag.

Just one point in it now and Daniel O'Brien created a great chance to equalise with a stunning run, but his attempted fist over lacked power and was cleared.

Shane O'Connor pushed the gap out to two. Chris Farley added another off his left. South Kerry were in control now and Alex Coffey wrapped up a victory that nobody outside of South Kerry had expected.

It was East Kerry's first game, while South did have one under their belts, and East Kerry do have players to come in, not least two Fossa brothers. But the display here will trouble them as much as the result. They have a lot more in them – but they need to find it fast.

North Kerry v St. Brendans

St. Brendans had the first attack, Seán Maloney's effort touch out for a fruitless '45 – I thought he should have had a free in. Instead the opening score arrived at the other end, Ruairí O'Connell firing over after being supplied by the excellent Darragh Lynch. Tomás Kennedy replied with a free after Gearóid White was fouled but Kevin O'Connor replied in kind, a great kick, and the lively Jerh. Brosnan made it 0-3 to 0-1.

Then disaster struck for St. Brendans as Darragh Lynch sent in a long effort. It was gathered by Seán Broderick, only for Jerh. Brosnan to press him straightaway and Mikey Kelly pounce to fire the loose ball home. Premier Junior winner Gavin O'Keeffe pointed from wing back and Jerh. Brosnan scored his second. 1-5 to 0-1. Some start!

Joe Linehan finally kickstarted St. Brendans with a great two pointer. David Mulvihill, who roamed freely from his corner back position, and Darragh Lynch combined to set up Jerh. Brosnan again, while Lynch wasn't far away with a two point free.

Gearóid White, relatively subdued by his own very high standards up to that point, suddenly cast off the shackles and fired over two great two pointer frees. Just like that, they were back in touch, trailing now by just 1-6 to 0-7.

Cormac Dillon was uncharacteristically off target with a free and then was wide from play. Eoin McElligott, who tried hard all through for St. Brendans, burst through and kicked a real beauty. Just one point in it now.

North Kerry had time for one last foray before the half-time whistle and made use of it. Man of the match Rob Stack grabbed the knockout. He gave it to Darragh Lynch, who in turn found Cormac Dillon. Meanwhile Rob had continued his run and was perfectly positioned to take Cormac's pass on the run and blast a rocket to the net to leave his side ahead by 2-6 to 0-8 at the break.

Gearóid White opened the second half scoring with a free. Granted, they were against the wind, but the fact that it was to be their only second half score says it all about what has to be a disappointing exit from this year's County Championship for a side with their talent.

Jer. Brosnan won a free converted by Ruairí O'Connell and Rob Stack fired over from play. Darragh Lynch drew a great save out of Seán Broderick. Granted, Conor McGibney was unlucky when his bullet crashed back off the crossbar after a good exchange with Joe Linehan. Would it have sparked a revival? Hard to tell. A goal would have left just two points between the sides, but with Rob Stack and Joe Joe Grimes on top in midfield, Jason Foley absolutely imperious at the back, and the likes of Jerh. Brosnan continuing to hunt relentlessly, it always felt like North Kerry in control. Cillian Trant (industrious, if not always effective), Darragh Lynch (my man of the match) and goalkeeper Kevin O'Connor with a two pointer wrapped a win that was surprisingly, and perhaps disappointingly, comfortable in the finish.

North Kerry: Kevin O'Connor (0-4, 2tpf), David Mulvihill, Micheál Kennedy, Gavin O'Keeffe (0-1), Mikey Kelly (1-0), Eddie Healy, Robert Stack (1-1), Joe Joe Grimes, Ruairí O'Connell (0-2, 1f), Paudie Finucane, Cillian Trant (0-1), Cormac Dillon, Darragh Lynch (0-1), Jerh Brosnan (0-2). Subs: Tomás Dillon (for Cormac Dillon, 48 mins), Ivan Conway (for Mikey Kelly, 49mins), Aodán Behan (for Paudie Finucane, 57 mins), Conor Egan (for Gavin O'Keeffe, 57 mins)

St. Brendans: Seán Broderick, Kevin O'Connor, Jack Myers, Jake Foley, Eoin O'Flaherty, Seán Maloney, Gearóid Dillane, Eoin McElligott (0-1), Steven Bowler, Gearóid White (0-5, 2tpf, 1f), Joe Linehan (0-2, 1tp), Odhrán Ferris, Conor Hayes, Tomás Kennedy (0-1f), Cian McKenna. Subs: Ben Hannafin (for Cian McKenna, half-time), Conor McGibney (for Seán Maloney, half-time), Hugh Lenihan (for Odhrán Ferris, 39 mins), Daniel Bowler (for Eoin Flaherty, 43 mins), Paul Buckley (for Eoin McElligott, 53 mins)

Kingdom Warrior Wins Again

Congratulations to Kingdom Warrior Kevin Cronin, who won a superb points victory over Badur Karami over six rounds at the the National Stadium in Dublin last Saturday night. This takes his professional record to an impressive 13-3-1. This was a tough fight, with the Iranian English boxer coming well prepared and dominating the ring over the first two rounds. Kevin did land a good right and left in the second round but Karemi shrugged it off and in fact had Kevin on the ropes and in a bit of trouble towards the end of the third, the Kerryman relying on good technique to avoid damage. The fourth round was the closest so far, with Kevin's precision starting to land a couple of good punches but with Karemi always dangerous and quick on the counter. Kevin twice had Karemi backpedalling under strong rallies in the fifth, though Karemi did have Kevin under just as much pressure on one occasion. Going into the sixth, Kevin was probably just slightly ahead overall, but it would have been a very close call. However, Kevin was at his best in the sixth round, repeatedly landing good shots, and in fact the challenger did well to get to the end of the round on his feet, such was Cronin's pressure. In the end Kevin was the winner by unanimous verdict on a night where both fighters did themselves and the sport proud.

Rugby

Ladies: Ireland 31 Japan 24

After coughing up a 19 point lead to the USA in their previous game, the Irish Womens' team came into this game with a real point to prove. It showed early on as they had Japan under fierce early pressure before Brittany Hogan got over for the opening try, Dannah O'Brien converting. Ireland were well on top but a few basic errors were keeping them from adding to the scoreboard until the half hour mark, where Hogan notched her second try of the night, O'Brien again adding the bonus. Just six minutes later Beibhinn Parsons got a bit of space out on the wing...there are certain simple truths – Never split up in a horror movie, don't invade Russia in winter time, and never allow Parsons space out on the wing.

She put on the afterburners, and that was try number three sorted. Pretty much done and dusted? Yeah, we said that against the Americans too....Japan got over the Irish line with a maul on the restart to get their first points on the board just before the break.

Japan came flying out after half-time and it took just three minutes for them to notch their second try. This one is converted and it's a one score game, 19-12. Japan are the better side for the third quarter but Ireland are just about able to stop them putting it on the scoreboard, even with a player sin binned.

In the 55th minute Ireland caught a real break, Aoife Dalton blocking a clearance kick by Japan and following up to get over the line. 24-12 now and a bit of breathing space.

Thirteen minutes left. Another Japanese maul and another Japanese try; something to work on there. This one is converted. Just five in it now, and Japan are looking very dangerous.

Five minutes left and Ireland finally made the game safe. Beibhinn Parsons again. She made her debut as a sixteen year old in 2018; even then, you knew that she was going to be Ireland's record try scorer. As crazy as it sounds, I didn't think it would even take her this long! Still Japan wouldn't give up, scoring a fourth try just before the final whistle.

So....good performance, bad performance? Mixed bag. Should definitely have put the game to bed in the first half; opportunities like that need to be converted. Gave up some poor enough tries, scored a few beauties. The bottom line is a win, and one that Ireland needed.

Soccer Nations League

People, I did not want to write this. There have been umpteen opinions written about Ireland playing Israel. The vast majority, even where they conflict, have merit in them. This is not a story that needs people to go looking for villains and there definitely aren't any easy answers for anyone, so let's be very careful about throwing stones.

That said, Netanyahu and his supporters are an absolute blot on humanity. I'm not doing any middle of the road nonsense there.

Every neutral body that has looked at Israel's actions regarding Gaza and the West Bank has stated baldly that they are guilty of inflicting genocide. Partisan apologists can argue – but I'd give their opinions as much credence as I would an indicted criminal compared to a jury. It's not automatic conviction, but it is even further away from an automatic acquittal. Over 75,000 Palestinians have been killed by IDF action, 60% women, children, and the elderly. The slaughter has not abated since. And yes, slaughter is the word. We are talking about a lot more than a soccer match here; don't lose sight of that.

Ireland were drawn against Israel in the UEFA Nations Cup draw. Let's not argue about whether Israel should be in Europe in the first place; given the political and cultural history, I genuinely have no problem with that. They are perfectly welcome to consider themselves European.

It is not their fault that most Middle Eastern countries are hostile to their imposition. Israel, through no fault of its own, is a geographical legacy of the last vestiges of a fading British Empire. We should sympathise; there are consequential similarities between the Government of Ireland Act 1920 (partition) and the Balfour Declaration 1917. Both were well-intentioned at the time.

First Failure. FIFA had no problem banning Russia in 2022 after their invasion of Ukraine. Why didn't they ban Israel?

Because Israel has traditionally had strong support from a US-led west, where Russia traditionally hasn't. Does that reek of hypocrisy? Of course it does. It's FIFA. Did you expect ethics and probity? From FIFA? Oh, you poor thing. Mind yourself; it can be a cruel world out there for the likes of you.

Second Failure. Nobody really expected FIFA to stand up and be counted. Considering the appalling history of their finances, I wouldn't be mentioning counting in any FIFA context. But what about UEFA, who have a slightly better record. They opposed the creation of a European Superleague, didn't they? They have called out Gianni Infantino for his craven obeisance to Donald Trump and his attempt to sell off the World Cup to an American LIV golf type coalition? Yeah, let's face the fact that they have lost out to Infantino on that one – there is no viable candidate running against him. Their opposition to the European Superleague was minding their own interests, nothing to do with custodianship of the game.

I genuinely have a certain sympathy for the FAI here. Not too much – they are chronically useless and the more they stay away from the League of Ireland and the National team, the better. Check any history of the past fifty years of the FAI. You don't have to read between the lines, just read the lines. And don't be blaming John Delaney. Perfidy personified though he was, the FAI was a shambles long before he arrived on the scene. But Ireland being expected to play Israel was not one of their failures. FIFA and UEFA, useless gommeens that they are, were happy to throw the FAI to the wolves. As such, I have a lot of sympathy for their position.

The vast majority of the Irish public (76% by polling) did not want this match to go ahead. Ireland is strongly pro-Palestinian, more so than most European countries. What do Bohemians, Kneecap, and Leo Vardakar have in common? Public statements strongly supporting Palestine and condemning Israel's actions. Ireland was one of the first countries to recognize the modern State of Palestine. That's not as universally popular as you might think

To be clear, I am very much one of that number. I can't claim to be unbiased here. I do like to think that my opinions are based on fact, but as is always the case where people disagree, so does everybody with a different opinion. You are every bit as entitled to yours as I am to mine; so is everybody else, including players and administrators.

I have nothing against any individual player in that regard and make no enquiries as to their personal beliefs. But when players talk about being proud to represent their country....then they have to stand over that country's actions. A huge amount of jews around the world have condemned the actions of Israel. Condemning Israel's embrace of genocide is absolutely not anti-jewish in any way. It's not even anti-zionist – the 'zionsim' expressed by the dominant Israeli militant movement of the likes of Netanyahu and predecessors like Sharon is a perversion of the original political ideas of the likes of Herzl and Ben-Gurion. To me, playing Israel in the current circumstances gives a legitimacy to an ideology that, regardless of whatever false label is attached, does not stand up to scrutiny in terms of basic humanity. There's a whole philosophical debate there, natural law v positivism, Aquinas v Bentham, etc....let's just not. The deliberate killing of a population, especially children, is just wrong. Debate the morality of that, or the numerous eye witness accounts, elsewhere.

Here's a fun fact ('cause this is such a fun little essay, isn't it?). There was a proposal by Joseph Chamberlain in 1903, before he became Prime Minister of Britain, to grant the Zionist Israeli movement led by Theodor Herzl 5000 square miles in Uganda (actually modern day Kenya) to be their modern homeland.

I don't know if you know a lot about Jomo Kenyatta, the Mau Mau, and Kenya's struggle to break away from the British Empire....but the imposition of another colony on top of an imperialist (and extremely racist) colony facing strong national resistance....let us be grateful that people with a bit more common sense took one look and said "No, lads, let's not do that".

Anyway, my initial position is sympathy for the FAI, who were placed in this position by the abdication of responsibility by others.

Third, and Most Crucial Failure. Look, as far as I am concerned, this is the big one. The heads of the FAI (I won't say 'leaders', that particular quality was extremely lacking all round) followed FIFA and UEFA's example. Not our problem, we are just dropping that hot potato into other hands.

Neither Heimar Hallgrímsson nor his players should ever have had to make that call.

Fourth. Look, it was extremely unfortunate that the FAI and the Irish team only found out about this fixture around lunchtime last Friday. At least, that's the impression that they gave. I actually have inside sources on these things, I've known about the draw since February 12th. Things like UEFA's public announcement of the draw and fixtures, RTE news, things called newspapers....look, I accept that FAI members and Irish players don't have the same access I do. I should have given them a heads up.

Because maybe if I had, some-one would have actually made a decision and stood over it. Yes of course it should have been the likes of Paul Cooke or David Courell, but standing up to be counted is not the FAI way.

Be fair. Had one of them done so, there would have been a populist group castigating them. That's inevitable in such a polarised situation. It wouldn't have mattered had they stood up and said "We don't do politics; we are scheduled to pay a game and have to play it. We are going to allow players individually to act on their own conscience but we as a nation are going to fulfill this fixture". Or "we have made our objections to Israel's participation known to UEFA (this is true) and as such, we are prepared to forfeit this game". There would have been both applause and condemnation. And let's be clear; there are a lot of self-appointed pundits and journalists prepared to take umbrage no matter what. Umbrage is their default position.

The FAI could not 'win' in any objective sense here. But they could have taken a stance. All they needed to do was keep the Irish soccer supporters on board, and a firm stance either way would have garnered that support. Instead they did absolutely nothing.

Leaving it to Heimar Hallgrímsson and his players. Who didn't realise how alone they were being left in this matter until it was too late. Halgrímsson diplomatically stated two weeks before the game that "We are not playing with genocide, we are playing against genocide". You could almost see him thinking "May this cup pass from my lips" as he was saying it.

Cue outrage from Israel. And, very sadly, a craven rowback by Hallgrímsson, clearly placed under pressure.

That was the moment this game became an international success for Israel and a blot of Ireland's sporting history. That was the moment for some-one in a real position of authority to come out and say "we stand over our manager and our team, regardless of how Israel feel about that stance". And just leave it at that. Don't get drawn into a debate, don't take questions. If Israel aren't happy with Ireland's stance, too bad about Israel.

Instead, the FAI folded like wet cardboard, and left Hallgrímsson out to dry in the process. That was a colossal blunder. Hallgrímsson should not have been left in the position of having to make a statement on the FAI's position (once again, the FAI should have already done that). His statement was as diplomatic as he could make it, but Israel objected to the word 'genocide' and castigated him. That was where Israel should have felt ice creaking under their feet; instead Ireland rolled out the red carpet and knelt down beside it. Make no mistake and don't fool yourself; this game was a big triumph for Israel. You think the actual scoreline mattered? Israeli FA spokesman Schlomi Barzel was able to come out after that and say that "Football has won". That was well before the game, by the way. What he meant is that the part of Israel that supports genocide while pretending that it isn't happening had won. And he was absolutely right.

The pre-match press conference was always going to be a shambles in the circumstances, but it was worse than I could possibly have imagined. Ireland had lost to Kosovo before flying to Debrecen in Hungary. The Saturday pre-match press conference was meant to start around 10.15am. Instead journalists (and assorted vultures) were told that it would be delayed until 12.30pm, after the training session instead of before it.

Then it was announced that training would be delayed. Coming up to 11.30am, it's said (unverified at that stage, the player himself later confirmed it) that Gavin Bazunu has spoken at a players' meeting about not wanting to play the game.

I was getting this on the news at home, by the way. I had never heard of Debrecen; sounds like an interesting place. My reaction was "Players' meeting about the game? The DAY BEFORE ITS DUE TO TAKE PLACE? This is when that meeting takes place? Not, just as an obvious example, two bloody months ago? It's the day before the game takes place and you haven't even checked whether the players want to play it?

Dear God. In terms of organisational failures.... ah look, bring the players home. For the sake of all things holy and unholy, leave the FAI officials behind. Give them a bit of food and water and leave them roam wild far from our shores. I realise it sounds extreme in terms of the many, many FAI failures over the years, but this really is the stupidest thing I have ever heard.

It turned out that the players' meeting took four hours. I'm not surprised. Most of those conversations should have happened long long before it, with confidentiality and respect among all parties. But of course, nobody in the FAI had been willing to instigate that or poke the hornet's nest. So the players weren't properly consulted about the most controversial game in our history (yes, bigger than the Yugoslavia game in 1955, that one didn't have a bodycount in the background) until the day before.

The 10.15am press conference finally took place at 3.30pm. David Courell stated that the game would be taking place after ongoing discussions with the players. A majority had voted to have the game go ahead. One player (subsequently confirmed by Gavin Bazunu to be himself) had objected.

I'll give both Courell and Hallgrímsson credit; they were absolutely unwilling to throw any player under the proverbial bus. On a day and in a matter where they got almost everything wrong (how on earth were these things first arising the day before the game?) they did at least try to protect the players. I'll give Halgrímsson a lot of leeway here; this wasn't and shouldn't have been his job. And David Courell strikes me as a decent man doing his best in a completely dysfunctional organisation. Granted, his best is utterly useless, they'd be better off with a scarecrow of some sort, but he strikes me as a decent man.

Heimar Hallgrímsson then said, in response to a question, that he had spoken to the outfield players in the weeks before the game, but that he had not contacted the keepers. "I called all outfield players. It's not my connection to talk to the goalkeepers. I leave that to others". Ummm... what? Heimar, I genuinely don't believe that it's your fault that you are standing in a hole right now, that's because of other people's failures, but for God's sake, man, will you at least stop digging?

Jason Knight and Gavin Bazunu are the only two players that publicly objected to playing the game. A number of others are reputedly of the same opinion. Two players allegedly aggressively spoke to Bazunu objecting to his stance (of course I've heard all these names and rumours, I give little credence to any of it). Finn Azaz is rumoured to be considering his international career, given that he is in fact qualified to represent Israel. I don't know the source for that rumour and I'm extremely sceptical. I hadn't realised that he is Brian Murphy of Cork GAA fame's grandnephew.

I am neither supportive nor condemnatory of any of the players. This should never have fallen to them.

The game went ahead. The FAI made it clear both beforehand and in the aftermath that the Irish players did not shake hands, did not exchange pennants, and did not stand for photographs with the Israeli team. In fact, they even wore black armbands "in recognition of all the lives lost in the conflict". Technically, you need prior permission from FIFA to wear black armbands, but don't worry about that. We all know that FIFA aren't touching this with a barge pole. Ireland could have played this game start naked and waving machetes and FIFA were not going to do the slightest thing. Let alone call out these sad token gestures in imitation of defiance. Ireland also went and won the game, taking an early 3-0 lead.

As far as I am concerned, that's like winning a minor skirmish shortly after unconditionally surrendering. Who cares? This game was a nadir for an organisation that has already known too many low points. And this time, they brought my nation down with them. There's a bitter aftertaste to this one that will last a very long time.

HERBACEOUS PERENNIALS

- PART TWO

What we mean when we call a plant an Herbaceous Perennial is that in most of them, the stems are soft, succulent and green as opposed to being brown and woody. With most Herbaceous Perennial they will sprout growth from ground level in spring and will grow and flower right through the summer and into the autumn. With most Herbaceous Perennials in late autumn and early winter, they start to look a bit ragged. But depending on the severity of the winter some will hold on until the first real cold snap. The maintenance for most Herbaceous Perennials isn't a lot really. During late autumn and early winter, cut the majority of them down to ground level and mulch over with some compost. Some Herbaceous Perennials such as Lupins and semi hardy Fuschias will have woody stems because of the milder climate here so when pruning back cut right back to just a couple of inches above ground level. Herbaceous Perennials are a valuable plant in the garden for a number of reasons.

Because of the short length of time it takes them to grow to the maximum height and spread. When planting a Herbaceous border, always remember to plant the taller ones to the back or middle and the smaller growing ones to the front. When choosing your plants pick one plant that you can repeatedly plant in the border to create a sense of continuity to the planting scheme. Herbaceous Perennials flower from April until October/ November so you have a wide range of flowering times and colour to choose from. The secret to having a good flowering Herbaceous Border is every few years in the winter to lift and divide the plants that are suitable for this.

A Word of Victory

"...Each of you must repent of your sins and turn to God and be baptised in the Name of Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of your sins. Then you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. This promise is to you and to your children, even those far in the future – all who have been called by the Lord our God. Peter continued preaching for a long time, strongly urging all his listeners.. 'save yourselves from this crooked generation!'. Those who believed what Peter said were baptised and added to the church that day – about three thousand in all" (Acts 2:38-41 NLT).

Welcome back dear student, firstly, thanks to everyone who travelled to Dublin for the March For Jesus last Saturday, it was an emotional sight – people from every denomination, every background and colour, united together for one purpose – to exalt the Name above all Names - the Lord Jesus Christ over Ireland. Young and old joyfully marched across the streets of our capital city, unified in peace. The Kingdom of God is the most diverse and inclusive scene of all! People push for their version of diversity, equality and inclusion in a society without the knowledge of God's Love, yet this has always quietly existed and continues to carry on, in the beautiful family of God. Almost thirty thousand people walked and sang through the city streets in glorious sunshine – not that you would have heard of it through the mainstream media, who decided not to cover or broadcast it. Why? Because there is an agenda globally, bought into by our government and their minions, to deny and disregard our Christian heritage in an attempt to dilute faith in Christ the Hope of Nations (Romans 15:12-13; Isaiah 11:10). Friend, maybe you didn't hear about March for Jesus in time; or maybe it was something you were afraid to be part of. We often make assumptions about things we don't fully understand. But make no mistake - we are in a spiritual battle for the heart of our nation, and for our children and their children. This is not a far-right movement - just regular Christians proclaiming faith in Jesus. It's time that the body of Christ wakes up and refutes the lies from woke leftists. Division, apathy, suspicion and jealousy, have brought God's church into a place of obscure irrelevancy, allowing ungodly forces push their way through in a takeover bid – why? Because disunity and strife weakens and collapses strength (Psalm 133; Matthew 12:25; 2 Timothy 3:3-5). Watch out! Causing the destruction of their prey from within its own ranks is a successful enemy warfare tactic.

In the lead Scripture, Peter was speaking to those who had just heard the Good News that Jesus Christ, the Son of God died for our sins, to forgive and cleanse us with His sinless Blood, so we could be reconciled back to God the Father, in Righteousness - as a free gift from God. Those who were convicted repented and got baptised, producing a spiritual reverberation that would impact their future generations. The decision to believe in, and follow Jesus, opens up all the promises of God for us, for our children, and their descendants. God is Faithful. He means what He says. He never changes, never lies, and never breaks His Promises (Isaiah 59:19-21).

In life people may betray us, wound us, turn their backs on us, or break their word, triggering a skewed perspective at times. We don't trust people, and we apply that same principle to God's character. Hence, folks sometimes find it hard to receive from God – because they classify Him in the same bracket as others who have left them down. That's not Who He is. God Loves you friend. His promises are yes and amen!

Novena Prayer to St Therese

O Saint Therese of the Child Jesus, who during your short life on earth became a mirror of angelic purity, of love strong as death, and of wholehearted abandonment to God,
 Make my troubles your own,
 speak on my behalf to Our Lady Immaculate,

 Beg her powerful intercession for the grace
 I yearn for so ardently at this moment (here name your strengthen me during life, defend me at the hour of death, and lead me to a happy eternity. Amen
