Thousands of people enjoyed an array of traditional Irish music, song and dance at the inaugural Féile Lughnasadh Festival in Milltown at the weekend. The new venture by the Milltown-Listry Branch of Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Éireann brought internationally renowned star, Sharon Shannon, to the Gig Rig at the Square on Saturday night, which attracted an enormous crowd despite the heavy rain. The entertainment at the festival, all of which was free of charge, also saw performances by Killarney group, The Rising, who drew a huge crowd on Friday and the traditional music tour-de-force, Jiggy, who played to thousands of revellers on Sunday evening. Maintaining the theme of Lughnasadh throughout the weekend, the event opened with a parade through the town and the lighting of the Lughnasadh Fire by local druid, Helen O'Sullivan. The singing and music sessions continued all weekend at Club Lughnasadh in the Hall while the open-air céilí with Uí Bhriain on Sunday proved to be a huge attraction. "We were thrilled with the success of the weekend," said Vincent Prendergast of the organising committee, "and that is thanks not only to those who came along to enjoy the music but also to a very hard-working team of volunteers who made the festival possible. "The location for all of the activities at the Square and in the Community Hall proved to be a major success and created a fun and safe environment for people of all ages to enjoy the music," he said. "We are grateful for the support of our many sponsors and supporters and with that continued support, hope to make Féile Lughnasadh an annual event," said Vincent.

Meeting Sharon Shannon at her concert at Féile Lughnasadh in Milltown on Saturday night were: Saibh O'Brien, Cora-Lee Howe and Katie Howe.

Heritage Week is all about sustainability; sustainability of our natural and built heritage. Killarney National Park wants to see young people's interpretation of our beautiful landscape. In addition to the photograph, they're asking for a short story (no more than 250 words) to accompany the image; what is it and why is it important.

Jamesie Casey, who is a member of Sliabh Luachra Boxing Team has always dreamed of representing his Country and now that dream is a reality thanks to his massive hard work and dedication.

The Sliabh Luachra Boxing Club are also very proud of the fact that their coach Jennifer O'Sullivan Coffey has also been chosen to travel to Turkey also, as the Irish Female Manager for this Junior Cadet team, that's two from Sliabh Luachra Boxing club representing their country, county and club.

"Sliabh Luachra Boxing club coaches, team members would like to take this opportunity to wish Jamesie Casey who is representing Ireland as part of an National Boxing Team travelling to Turkey to take part in the European Boxing championships the very best of luck. Jamesie journey to this stage wasn't an easy one and his determination and dedication got him his national cadet Gold medal", Jennifer told Killarney Outlook.

"Jamesie is a proud Killarney boy, whose family has been a massive part of his journey too and we hope that everybody gets behind him and his journey to a gold medal", Jennifer added.

"This is a massive achievement for Jamesie and the club and really does show hard work and dedication pays off. Jamesie's dream of representing Ireland in Turkey in the European Championship is coming true and he flies out next Sunday for Turkey", Coach Jennifer said.

JUNIOR CADET JOURNEY

Jamesie Casey boy 3 44.5kg national champion. Jamesie had the toughest draw of the lot having a prelim winning on a 5/0 decision. A quarter final which he won on a 5/0 and the semifinal which again Jamesie put on a master class performance winning 5/0. Jamesie then had a final against the his toughest opponent to date but I must say Jamesie boxed out of his skin and won on a 4/1 decision, he had moved up weight to 46kg and won this junior cadet title against this year's national Irish champion.

Punching their way to success.... Coach Jennifer O'Sullivan Coffey and Jamesie Casey who are heading to Turkey this weekend.

KERRY AND BEYOND MOURN THE PASSING OF PAULINE BEWICK

A sense of sadness descended when the news broke last weekend of the passing of talented artist Pauline Bewick. A resident of Caragh Lake, Pauline was known throughout the world for her amazing talent.

Speaking of her passing, President of Ireland, Michael D. Higgins said on behalf of Sabina, I know that we will be among the many in Ireland and beyond who will have heard with deep sadness of the death of our dear friend, the renowned artist Pauline Bewick.

It is with such fondness that I look back on a visit to Pauline's studio in Kerry last November. Sabina and I were so honoured to have this time with Pauline and her daughters, in the presence of so much of her lifetime's work - watercolours, tapestries, wall-hangings and sketches, all expressions of what was a unique and original creative talent. It was there to her studio in Kerry where she always returned and where Pauline spent so many years, between all her travels, with her family while producing works of astonishing artistic brilliance.

In 2019, it was at a reception in Áras an Uachtaráin that Pauline was awarded with the Kerry Association in Dublin's Arts award for her immense contribution to Irish arts and culture. We who had the privilege of her friendship could but admire her commitment to always following her own path, reflecting on the world in her own unique way, refusing to fit into any one genre and creating worlds without boundaries.

Pauline's life of generosity was exemplified by her gifting of over 500 pieces of her life's work to the Irish Nation on her seventieth birthday.

Sabina joins with me in sending our deep condolences to Pauline's daughters Poppy and Holly, sons-in-law, grandchildren, niece and nephew and her wider family and her many friends.

Suaímhneas síoraí dá hanam."

Pauline passed away peacefully, at her home in the company of her loving family. Predeceased by husband Pat Melia. She will be sadly missed by her daughters Poppy and Holly, sons in law Conor and Luca, grandchildren Aran, Adam, Chiara and Giada, niece and nephew Julia and Tim, new-found family Massie Taylor, relatives, neighbours and friends.

Huge success for Kerry dancers in the UK

Dancers from the Aine Murphy School of Dance had amazing success at the British National Championships, which were held in Bolton.

"Eight dancers from the school travelled to this event and we returned with 3 Champions, one 2nd place, one 3rd place, one 5th place so that was 6 dancers in the Top 5 along with 2 other great placings", Aine told Killarney Outlook.

The Champions were Alexandria Scally from Killarney was crowned the British National Champion Under 6, Alexandria is from Killarney

Marcus O' Sullivan from Firies was crowned the British National Champion Under 9. Marcus was also crowned the Irish National Champion in June and is also the reigning Munster and All-Scotland Champion.

Caoimhe O'Halloran from Kilcummin was crowned the British National Champion

Under 15 adding to the World Title which Caoimhe won at Easter becoming the 1st female Irish dancer to bring a World Title to Kerry. She is also the reigning All-Ireland and Munster Champion

To add to these fabulous wins the other dancers to bring silverware back to Kerry were, Brían Hurley 2nd in the Under 9 Boys, Réidín Ni Laoithe from Kilbreen, Killarney was 3rd in the Under 6 competition and Isabelle O'Sullivan from Rathmore was 5th Under 8 age group.

Saoirse Griffin & Katie Heneghan were also medal winners in their respective age groups.

It marks another successful Championship for the Aine Murphy Academy.

The dancers will now continue the hard work for the All-Scotland and Great Britain Championships in October and the Munsters Championships in November.

It's the talk of the town...

With Anne Lucey

Anne Lucey looks at the positive news happening in the town of Killarney

Small result for big effort: targeting small tourist operators not working

Just twelve Airbnb and other tourist properties among more than 200 targeted in rent pressure zone Killarney have switched from short to long-term letting so far, according to figures released by the council.

In other words, the attempt at forcing small operators in the tourist industry into long-term letting to ease the lack of public housing had a poor outcome.

More than 200 Airbnbs in Killarney were written to Kerry County Council and warning and planning enforcement letters issued in the majority of cases.

However, the figures released to this column, on request, show that of the 145 files now closed following investigation, 43 properties have ceased to let altogether. 60 have opted to register for limited short-term letting in their principal private residence.

Just one has been granted permission for stand alone tourist letting.

Enforcement issues are outstanding against 56 properties and files are not fully closed, But so far the vast majority of tourist renters have either ceased to let altogether or have registered for short-term limited letting with the council.

Just how that limited 90-day window is to be policed remains to be seen.

The council were "statute barred" and could take no legal action against 18 premises, as the businesses were able to prove their business was in operation with seven years and more.

But the telling figure is how only 12 properties, or six per cent of the total number of cases, have opted to enter the long-term letting market and register with the tenancies board. And that was the whole point of all this costly effort.

(In eleven cases the complaints were without foundation and the premises had permission or duplicate files had opened).

Cllr Brendan Cronin (Ind) who has consistently criticised the crackdown in Killarney had already warned short-term letters would not enter the long term market.

It seems he was overwhelmingly correct.

Cllr Brendan Cronin (Ind) has consistently criticised the crackdown in Killarney had already warned short-term letters would not enter the long term market.

Big increase in Motorhomes arriving in Kerry

There is a phenomenal rise in the number of campervans and motorhomes arriving in Killarney and along the Ring of Kerry this summer.

The subject came to light during the Kenmare council meeting in Killorglin last week. The campervans are lining up thirty at a time on the Kenmare Pier and there are no facilities for them. Locals and tourists going for a walk by the sea have no place to park, according to Cllr Dan McCarthy who said he was inundated with complaints.

A code of conduct for campervans is being looked at now, thanks to Cllr Norma Moriarty who wants the visitors to enjoy the county, but also preserve the amenities.

We have the same situation in Killarney. Despite having some of the best facilities in the southwest in our camp sites, we have large campers overnighing here, there and everywhere. Some are clogging up viewing points such that no-one else can see the view or get a space.

It has to be said, we have no "aires" or continental style parking areas for motorhomes in Kerry - public parking areas and some private land where motorhomes can stop overnight for a small fee for basic facilities.

Yet Failte Ireland is encouraging camper vans to visit the Ring! The burden is falling on petrol stations and bars with car parks, and viewing points to bring up the slack.

Paul Dunne, operations manager with Rambling Rover Campervans near Slane in Co Meath said the stereotype of the campervanner as "low spend" is anything but true.

His fleet of luxury brand new motor homes is booked solid for the rest of the summer by mostly well-heeled Irish families.

The base price is 250 euro a night and rising to 350, so those renting the camper vans for sometimes up to three weeks are not financially stretched, Dunne says.

These are people who will spend in restaurants and towns and not least on diesel and towns without facilities are losing out.

I had the same information from a dedicated Killarney man who has travelled to the South of Spain and Monaco and all over in his motor home. Whereas in Waterford towns like Ardmore are hugely benefiting from their "aires" or basic stop over parks, we have none in Kerry, he says.

The campervans are lining up thirty at a time on the Kenmare Pier and there are no facilities for them.

"The big issue is secure parking overnight to empty toilets etc. The worst facilities in all of Ireland are in Kerry," he said, speaking from Cobh in Co Cork where there is a top class "aire". However it also has to be acknowledged that no matter how many parks and facilities there are, some people will simply blackguard the thing. And while a code of conduct is certainly a good idea, who will police it?

A pause on the paw print!

A reader is aggrieved at my pointing out the carbon footprint of dogs and thinks I was "barking up the wrong tree." People's pets are valuable and loved. Agriculture is a culprit and needs to be targeted and turf cutting has destroyed bogs.

A Tarbert man who has worked on the world's oil rigs and has already set up oil lamps in his home in anticipation of power cuts.

The point of view is valid. However, the context is all: Yes, climate change is real and urgent and we cannot hide from it. But there is a war on and the focus by climate activists and politicians on cutting back on food (milk and meat) and fuel production (turf) in the current situation is beyond me.

With an estimated 800,000 dogs in the country according to the IFA, and some people with two and three big dogs, I was seeking to shift the focus from food production.

We are facing a winter and probably more than one winter of discontent unless the grain from the Ukraine keeps flowing and the gas from Russia switches back on. And would people please listen to peace activist Sabina Higgins instead of bizarrely attacking her for asking Zelensky and Putin both to grow up and negotiate? I met one man who is a world traveller in Tarbert this week where, ironically, a protest camp is being set up against the long proposed Shannon LNG gas terminal. Moneypoint was belching coal smoke across the Shannon. The commercial turf cutting has all but been stopped in the vast north Kerry bogs and the wind turbines surrounding "Bally" were just about moving.

And in the middle of all of this confluence of fuel production, potentially, here is a Tarbert man who has worked on the world's oil rigs and has already set up oil lamps in his home in anticipation of power cuts. We live in strange times right now.

KERRY RUGBY GIRLS PARTICIPATE IN INVITATIONAL AMERICAN 7S TOURNAMENT

Six under 16 girls from Killarney and Killorglin recently participated in the North American International 7s tournament in Salt Lake City, Utah.

The girls combined with six girls from Singapore to represent the Singapore Valkyries team. Drawn in the pool of death, against last years winners and the eventual 2022 winners, the girls couldn't have had a tougher first two games played in the searing Utah summer heat which got up to 40 degrees at times. They played three pool games on day one and qualified for the quarter finals against Belmont from California which comprised of some phenomenally talented girls, two of which are on the USA under 18s squad. The Valkyries (which stands for women warriors) lived up to their name by going 14-0 against the tournament hot favourites. Unfortunately the girls just fell short ended up losing on a score line of 22-14. The girls then were into the plate semi final and duly put in another good performance to qualify for the plate final. In the final the combined Kerry/Singapore team got off to a very strong start and never slowed down, they eventually won the final 38-10. The six girls who all play for local club Killarney RFC were: Ali O'Donoghue, Ava O'Malley, Clodagh Foley, Fia Whelan, Katie O'Donoghue and Maria Eagar. Coach Diarmuid O'Malley added "the girls had a trip of lifetime to the US. Some of the quality of the rugby was of the hugest of standards against very good opponents. Our first game was against the team who eventually won the tournament, and we then got drawn against them in the quarterfinals, we definitely gained their respect in that quarter final as the improvement in our performance from one day was incredible. the eventual winners got a shock of their lives by the quality of our play and unfortunately we just ran out of steam.

Post that game I had a good chat with the coach of the team who beat us, who himself was from New Zealand and most of his girls were also of New Zealand decent, he had actually played under Joe Schmitt and he said that they really did get a mighty shock of how good the quality of our rugby had being throughout the game. Considering we only had two training sessions in the prior two days before the tournament started, it was so rewarding to see the way the girls from two different sides of the world integrated so well and competed so well against teams who had put in a lot of time preparing for the biggest annual tournament in the USA. Not only didn't the girls return with such good memories and learnings from their trip, but more importantly creating new friends for life. A huge shoutout to the parents of the girls, and all the local support we received in advance of our trip to make this ambitious trip possible.

JASON GOES FROM STRENGTH TO STRENGTH

Promising young Killarney Valley AC and Irish international athlete Jason O'Reilly, achieved a great result of 6th place in the medley relay, at the European youth Olympics in Slovakia last Saturday the 30th of July. The team qualified in 2nd place behind Italy and just ahead of Spain in the semi final.

Jason is a 50 second 400m sprinter with a target of going sub 50 in the next eighteen months to two years. For one so young this indicates great progress. He also has further potential as a 400m hurdler, or possibly even as an 800m athlete. Jason trains as part of the progressive club Killarney valley ac at the Killarney valley arena, under the guidance of former top class and former international athletes Tomas Griffin, Con Lynch and Alan Delaney. With a membership of 250 athletes the growing club owes an awful lot of it's success this year to the club management for their efforts in constructing the track.

This year club members have won over 103 provincial or national medals. Jason this year joins Sarah Leahy, Jordan Lee, Ciara Kennelly, Maddie Wilson Walker and Oisín Lynch on the international stage.

The home and business of the Murphy Family which was devastated by fire on Sunday night.

A GoFundMe which was set up following a fire at the home and business of the Murphy Family in South Kerry has raised over €80,000 to date. The family were dealt a devastating blow following the inferno which engulfed their business and home at NewMarket Street in Cahersiveen on Sunday night. Kevy and Janette have been over 30 years in business looking after the people of South Kerry, always ready to support local clubs and organisations whenever needed. A Go-Fund-Me page has been set up by Chris McGillycuddy on behalf of Patricia & Ger Kennedy, Michael Kenneally and Mossey Coffey and all of the community in Cahersiveen and the further South Kerry community. "Now it is our turn to help them at this difficult with them as they left their burning home; they lost all their sentimental and personal belongings and everything they had worked for over the last 30 years.

The Murphy family deserves the assistance to rebuild their home and business, and with your support, we can make this happen. Together we can support this worthy cause and offer a gesture that we as a community can all be proud of.

Local politicians including Michael Healy Rae, TD and Cllr. Michael Cahill have joined in the all for help.

Fianna Fáil Councillor, Michael Cahill said he was shocked at hearing the news this morning of the devastating fire in Kevy's Takeaway in Cahersiveen on Saturday night, Sunday morning, but delighted to hear there were no injuries.

"This is a devastating loss for Kevy and his family but the main thing is that nobody was hurt. I'm sure Kevy's relatives, neighbours and friends will rally around him at this tough time to console and support the family" stated Councillor Cahill. "It goes without saying that I and Kerry County Council will assist in any and every way we can" said the local Councillor.

"I would also like to extend my appreciation and that of the whole community to the brave Kerry Firefighters, Gardaí and Paramedics, who regularly put their lives on the line to protect our people and property. Their heroism does not go unnoticed" said Councillor Cahill.

100 YEARS A GROWING

The Organisers of the Féile na mBláth at The Park Festival in Tralee Town Park are a blooming bunch this year as they announce their biggest Festival to date. The Festival is celebrating a number of significant Birthdays with 15 Years of Féile na mBláth, 40 Years of the Tralee Flower and Garden Club who will present one of its largest Decorative Class Competitions to date and of course 100 Years since 'the Green' was purchased by Tralee Urban Council and became known as Tralee Town Park in 1922.

This year's Festival will take place to coincide with the annual Rose of Tralee International Festival and will run from Friday the 19th of August through to Tuesday the 23rd of August in the Town Park from a traditional 2 days Festival to 5 days for 2022. Thanks to Kerry County Council – Tralee Municipal District, Kerry Group and support from the Rose of Tralee, the Festival will see the return of the traditional elements such as the Flower Displays, Dog Shows, Street Theatre, Emergency Services, Recitals & Performances, Vintage Cars, Community Garden, the Food & Craft Village and of course complemented by the other weekend activities such as the Park Runs and Art in the Park.

The Highlights at this year's Festival will see the return of last years successful Family Camps which, while free to the public, are advised to be booked in advance. Family Town will run from 10am-1pm and 2pm-5pm daily in our 'Kerry Group' Big-Top Circus Tent and will feature all Kerry Performers from Kids Party Club, Kingdom Party Pals, Mals Circus Workshops, Drum Dance, Fanzini Brother Street Theatre Show and the Family Town Show for 2022 'Madagascar – A Musical Adventure' featuring a cast of 10 Kerry Performers along with a 'Movies & Musicals' event to mark 100 Years of 'The Green' with both events being partially funded under the Local Live Performance Programming Scheme 3 & 4 by the Department of Tourism, Culture, Arts, Gaeltacht, Sport and Media.

Other elements where advanced registration is encouraged include the School of Irish Archaeology's 'The Big Dig' running Friday, Saturday & Sunday with 'Planet Science Kidz' running Monday and Tuesday of the Festival.

New Mayor of Tralee, Cllr Mikey Sheehy said the festival had become a key event in the calendar in Tralee.

"This has grown into a wonderful community event which attracts many thousands of people to Tralee annually. Féile na mBláth was the first outdoor Festival in Kerry last Summer and ran very safe and successfully in August. For this year we were happy to keep the Festival in August for a further year to team up with the Rose of Tralee as they return for their first Festival since Covid".

2022 ROSE CUP LAUNCHED

IN ASSOCIATION WITH THE INTERNATIONAL ROSE OF TRALEE

In 2019 the KSBGL teamed up with the International Rose of Tralee committee to host a 13's Girls Inter League tournament named the The inaugural Rose Cup.

The Clare Schoolboys & Girls Soccer League were the first winners and their captain Keelan Madden was presented with the Cup by the then Rose of Tralee Kirsten Mate Maher on the Denny Street stage ahead of the Rose Parade.

The Rose Cup is now back for 2022 and it was launched recently at the Rose Wall in the Town Park where six of this year's Rose contestants joined members of the Kerry Girls squad, their head coach Siobhan Cushen and Director of Girls Football Noel White.

The big day in the Girls game will take place on August 20th with Tralee Dynamos FC as the hosts. Taking part alongside host Kerry will be League teams from the MGL (Dublin), Clare, Cork, West Cork, South Tipperary and Limerick Desmond.

The Rose Cup and Shield will be presented to the captains on the stage on Denny Street ahead of the Rose Parade that night which is another of the wonderful parts of the Festival that everyone will be delighted to see on the streets of Tralee again.

Chair of the KSBGL Aidan Murnane said the League was delighted to renew its association with the Rose of Tralee.

"Both the KSBGL and the Rose of Tralee Festival has community at its centre and we believe the association is a perfect match. We provide football for girls and boys at all ages up to and including 16's and the 2009 Girls are an especially important age group as the players will be representing their Leagues at the SFAI Gaynor Cup in summer 2023.

"And the girls love the connection with the Roses and their visit to the 2019 Rose Cup was one of the highlights of the day and we are delighted that this happen again this year not withstanding their very busy schedule.

"We look forward to welcoming Leagues from around the country to Tralee for the second running of the Rose Cup, an event that we hope will grow year on year and become an inaugural part of the community side of the International Rose of Tralee Festival."

Irish Water, working in partnership with Kerry County Council, has this week commenced works to provide a new sewer collection system for Kilcummin village. This project will reduce the reliance on on-site treatment systems such as septic tanks and package treatment plants. Coffey Construction was appointed to deliver the works on behalf of Irish Water.

Once complete, the scheme will provide a new sewer collection system for Kilcummin village, that will ensure wastewater from the village is treated appropriately.

Once operational, the new sewerage scheme will connect into the sewer network in Killarney town, where it will be collected and transferred to Killarney wastewater treatment plant (WWTP) for appropriate treatment.

Speaking about the works, David Shalloo, Wastewater Regional Delivery Lead with Irish Water, said, “Today signals a new beginning for the people of Kilcummin and delivering this project for the community is an immense source of pride for Irish Water and Kerry County Council. All new infrastructure has been sized to accommodate future population growth and the project will enhance the local environment and provide a platform for social and economic development well into the future”.

The scheme will ensure compliance with wastewater discharge regulations. It will also improve water quality in the River Deenagh and Lough Leane and protect recreational waters for swimming, fishing, boating and sightseeing, as well as protecting the integrity of the local environment. The new wastewater infrastructure will enhance local amenities and provide a platform for social and economic development.

The new sewerage infrastructure to be constructed as part of this scheme will include a sewer network for Kilcummin village, a pumping station, and approximately 6 kms of sewers. The scheme will reduce the reliance on on-site systems such as septic tanks and package treatment plants.

Works on the project are expected to commence late in 2022, with the entirety of the project due for completion in 2024.

Irish Water and Kerry County Council will continue to update the local community in Kilcummin as we progress our work on this project.

For more information on this project please see: <https://www.water.ie/projects/local-projects/kilcummin-sewerage-scheme/>

Irish Water is responsible for the delivery of all public water and wastewater services in Ireland. We are committed to continuously upgrading and developing critical infrastructure to support the growth needed in housing and across our economy, while protecting the environment and safeguarding water supplies.

MONEY MATTERS.....

By Dermot Cronin,
Financial Advisor

HAVE YOU GIVEN UP SMOKING WITH OVER 12 MONTHS?

If the answer is yes and you have any of the following:

- Life Cover
- Mortgage Life Cover
- Serious Illness Cover
- Income Protection

Then it is very likely that you are paying too much for your insurance regardless of whether the policy is in one person's name or in two names. By reapplying for the same amount of cover you have over the same remaining term there is a strong possibility that you may have a substantial reduction in your premium. For example a 34 year old male smoker with €200,000 life cover and €100,000 serious illness cover over 20 years would pay at present €72.47 per month whereas for the same cover as a non smoker the premium is reduced to only €45.76 per month, this is an annual saving of €320.52 and over a 20 year term a saving of over €6410.40.

These premiums are based on standard rates.

If you require any further information on the above or any financial matter please contact Dermot Cronin QFA at 0646622775 or dermotcroninifa@gmail.com

EVERY DAY IS A BRAND NEW START

Every day we get to begin again, to make different choices, to learn from the past and to set a new course for our future. However, so often, we carry our past into the present moments and therefore make today very similar to the days that have already unfolded in our life. If we desire something new and different in our lives, we need to think, act and behave differently and in new ways.

Four tips to starting your day really well.

- Before you get out of bed, give yourself a little time to think and imagine how you would like your day to be. See your day flowing easily and well. Imagine yourself feeling happy and confident and able to manage everything that comes your way.
- Spend five minutes just sitting in silence. Focus on your breathing and just take some time to connect with your body, mind and spirit. This helps to encourage a place of calm awareness.
- Do some gentle stretching. Sit on the edge of your bed and extend your arms above your head reaching as high as is comfortable. Select three to four of your own favourite stretches and do them each day.
- Limit watching the news or checking in with social media first thing in the morning as this can have a negative impact on your thinking and effect the way that you feel.

Wishing you a lovely day!

DON'T GIVE UP

Often when engaging on lifestyle changes and healthy living we expect too much of ourselves and don't give ourselves room for living and having fun. We allow ourselves to believe that one night out or weekend we take our eye off the ball will sabotage all our good efforts. The easy thing to do is throw the towel in and give up on your efforts.

The truth is.... Well this is life and to think you won't ever go out meet friends or have events that will challenge you is so unrealistic. Instead if we change our language and attitudes to these events and look at them as "planned" treats, we will not only enjoy them a lot more but will stop beating ourselves up for having fun. We won't let 1 event let us give up on our fairly consistent healthy eating and exercise plan.

As we always advise our clients "balance is key" and when you find that balance you will truly feel free and able to succeed to your goals and maintain them for life. Pull it back when you can and hit the high notes with diet and exercise and this will leave plenty of wiggle room for living and enjoying yourselves too.

So In summary "don't give up" keep driving and striving for goals and success. You will meet bumps and challenges along the way but these are all part of the bigger picture and how you deal with them will allow you the freedom to enjoy them.

If your struggling to stay focused in your diet or exercise contact B Well Fitness Club on 087-7643449

SMOKING AND EYE HEALTH

Why stopping smoking is one of the best steps you can take to protect your vision.

Smoking, and exposure to smoke, significantly increases your chances of developing eye disease and suffering sight loss. It's never too late to benefit from stopping. But the sooner you stop, the better the outcome is likely to be.

Below is a list of five eye conditions that are related to smoking.

1. Age-related macular degeneration (AMD)

AMD is the most common cause of sight loss in Ireland and mainly affects older people. Smokers are up to four times more likely to develop the condition.

AMD affects the central part of your vision and can make everyday activities, such as reading or even recognising faces, difficult or impossible. There are two types of AMD – wet AMD, which can often be treated with injections in the eye if caught early enough, and dry AMD, for which there is currently very little effective treatment. Stopping smoking is the best way to reduce your risk of developing AMD.

2. Cataracts

Smoking doubles your risk of developing cataracts. Cataracts cause the lens inside your eyes to become cloudy.

Smokers tend to develop cataracts at an earlier age than usual. The cataracts develop more rapidly than normal, and usually affect the central part of the lens.

3. Dry eye

Dry eye can make your eyes feel sore and itchy and cause them to water. Smoking often causes this condition or makes it worse.

4. Uveitis

Smokers are at least twice as likely to develop uveitis – a condition where the middle layer of the eyeball becomes inflamed, causing eye pain and changes to your vision. The condition can also lead to secondary eye conditions, such as glaucoma and cataracts.

5. Diabetic retinopathy

If you suffer from diabetes, smoking increases your risk of developing retinopathy, where the blood vessels in the retina at the back of the eye become damaged. This often causes blurred vision and dark spots and can lead to permanent loss of vision.

Looking after your eyes

Stopping smoking is one of the best steps you can take to protect your vision.

Whether you are a current smoker, an ex-smoker or have never smoked, it is important you visit your optometrist regularly.

We recommend that you have a sight test at least every two years, or more often if your optometrist recommends it.

RATHMORE GNEEVEGUILLA

By Michael O' Mahony

>DIOCESAN COLLECTION

The annual collection for the Pastoral Centre will be taken up on this weekend the 6/7th August. Donations can be contributed online donate tab on the parish website Parish Office www.rathmoreparish.ie

>NEW BEGINNING

Since the announcement that Duhallow/Sliabh Luachra Pastoral Area was reduced from five priests to four, much work has been undertaken to ensure that all parishes will continue to have the same vibrancy and level of service. The new weekend mass rota is just one small element of this change of process. There is also the Pastoral Care of our sixteen National Schools, 3 Secondary Schools, Hospital, Care Homes, Day Care Centres. We also have the care of the sick and housebound, along with Funerals, Baptism, and Weddings.

There is much to be done, and this will only be achieved by the ongoing collaboration between Laity and Clergy.

Our Parish Secretaries, Sacristans, and all volunteers will be integral to fulfilling our Christian Mission. Each parish is blessed with Pastoral Councils, Liturgy Committees Finucane Committees, Building Committees, Altar Societies etc, and all will be taking on added responsibilities.

The new weekend mass rota listed below, which has been developed by the Area Pastoral Council is based on the rotation of our four priests, but it also has the flexibility to be covered by three priests in the event of Covid, Illness or Holidays. (these are eventualities which have to be anticipated.) Naturally this in some cases, necessitated the reduction in Masses and the changing of times. In all, parishioners in the Pastoral Area will have the option of five vigil masses and seven morning masses. Yes, this may involve change from our present routine, but going forward both priests and people will have to be adaptable and willing to move around. Ballydaly/Cullen Weekly Rota. Boherbue/ Kiskeam Monthly Rota.

This new rota will begin on the weekend of September 3rd /4th and will be reviewed after a settling in period

Celebrations for Hazel who turned 40.

Happy birthday to Hazel O Connor from Tralee who celebrated her 40th birthday recently. "St Mary of the Angels is a 'home away from home' for so many of our loved ones and like all of them, Hazel strives in the community of her peers, the parents and relatives association said.

Hazel's sister Noelle also spoke about St Mary of the Angels: "This is Hazels other family she's been here for 32 years and we will forever be thankful to the staff of St. Mary of the angels in Beaufort for always keeping Hazel so well looked after, we are blessed that Hazel has such a wonderful place to strive and grow in.

TO GIVE CREDIT WHERE IT'S DUE

By Nicky Barry

I am very loathe these days, to give England any credit,
After what Boris did, with his pet project Brexit.
Brits think they still rule the waves, as they did of yore,
When they controlled half the world, as the British lion roared.

But on Sunday afternoon, I had to give them credit,
For the Lionesses in white, were quite simply splendid.
Like any decent Irishman, I rejoice when they are beaten,
For they can be obnoxious, with their triumphalism.
It is more than sport with them; it's about reputation,
To inform the watching world, that they're still a top nation.
Germany win most battles, except occasional World Wars,
For their football teams know how to win,

as martial warriors.

They came back to Wembley, as all conquering queens,
But the Lionesses did not blink, in pursuit of their dream.

They were simply valiant, with their will to win,
And when the game was level, they went in for the kill.

This was pure determination, deep into extra time,
And they poked in the winning goal, to get across the line.

Every little girl in England, can't now wait to grow up,
And some day in the future, bring home the World Cup!

SECTORAL EMISSION REDUCTIONS

Fianna Fáil Councillor, Michael Cahill has congratulated Ministers McConalogue and Ryan on reaching agreement on the very difficult task of dealing with Emission Reductions and on confirming that they will put measures in place to improve Farm Incomes. "The Fianna Fail/ Finna Gael/Green Party Coalition are the only political representatives putting forward any realistic policy in this regard, while Sinn Féin and others sit in the fence" said Councillor Cahill.

"It is obvious to everybody that urgent action is required, and all sections of our society need to row in with their contribution. 25% is a big ask of Agriculture, as is 35% of Industry or 50% of Transport" stated Councillor Cahill

"We have all witnessed the increased incidents in flooding in every town and village throughout the county and the increase in coastal erosion along County Kerry's shoreline, therefore the plans by Government to deal with emission ceilings and turn the tide on Climate Change must be acknowledged" said the Rossbeigh based Councillor.

"The Minister for Agriculture, Charlie McConalogue has confirmed that no farmer will be forced to cut his herd to achieve these targets. He has already agreed a detailed plan with farm organisations to achieve a figure of 22% reduction and vows to continue to work with them in order to stretch this to the agreed 25% and will put measures in place to improve farm family incomes and back work to reduce emissions" said Councillor Cahill.

"But whether you are a farmer, a commercial traveller or a factory worker, these reductions are going to affect you. We are all in this together and it is up to us all to put it right. It will not be easy on any sector, but we must pull together" said the Fianna Fáil man. "As the saying goes, there is not Planet B" added Councillor Cahill.

The Minister for Agriculture, Charlie McConalogue has confirmed that no farmer will be forced to cut his herd to achieve these targets.

LOCAL AUTHORITY HOME LOAN

Local Authority Home Loan Scheme

Fianna Fáil Councillor, Michael Cahill has queried the recently announced statistic, that 76% of applicants to the Local Authority Home Loan scheme in Kerry were declined versus a national figure of 53%. The figures provided by Minister for Housing, Darragh O'Brien, show that 15 of the 21 applications in Kerry between January and the end of May this year were declined, as against a national figure of 545 out of 1,026 unsuccessful.

"I would be worried about the large difference in the percentage of declines locally in Kerry as against nationally, in case the criteria for acceptance is working against rural dwellers here in Kerry" stated Councillor Cahill.

"It would be beneficial to know if there were particular requirements that applicants in Kerry could not fulfil, that people in other parts could. This kind of information would be very helpful in informing the Council, its members and applicants, of the direction we need to take to improve the provision of housing in our county" added the Rossbeigh based Councillor.

EV CHARGING AND ACCOMMODATION

Fianna Fáil Councillor, Michael Cahill has suggested that if Officials in the Departments of Tourism and Transport were seeking initiatives common to both, and supportive of a cleaner environment, they should be looking to introduce additional funding support, other than SEAI grants, to encourage B&B's, Hotel and Guest House owners to install Electric Vehicle Chargers to be availed of by their guests.

"This could be the simple way to extend the network of EV chargers throughout the country, encourage the changeover to EV transport and provide a service to those already driving EVs. Environmentally and business wise, this appears to be the way to go and we need to facilitate it in whatever way possible" stated Councillor Cahill.

"Currently a visitor to Glenbeigh, where I live, driving an EV, will need to travel 13km to Killorglin and queue there to use one of the two chargers. This is less than ideal, while a charger at the place they are staying would alleviate a lot of the pressure of planning one's road trip" said the Rossbeigh based Councillor.

"If we can encourage many of the proprietors of these B&B's, Hotels and Guest Houses to install EV chargers, we will help our Tourism business, we will help the Environment, while also reducing queues at our Public charging points" added Councillor Cahill.

ROYAL FLUSH FOR KERRY LADIES

ALL IRELAND FINAL: MEATH 3-10 KERRY 1-7

Prior to the game, I was reading a lot of predictions that were describing Kerry as very much underdogs, and I was questioning why. I felt that Kerry had a great chance. In fact, I had Kerry as slight favourites after their performances; I thought Meath were lucky enough to get over the line against Donegal in particular. The LGFA are absolutely brilliant at promotion (much better than the GAA, not least because Lidl are very proactive sponsors and TG4 put great effort into their coverage) and it means that you can see and access an awful lot of the previous action when previewing a game like this.

I got a hard lesson – Kerry, unfortunately, got a much harder one. That Meath team are experienced at pulling games out of the fire, but they didn't need to in this one. Once they took over, they did so completely. In fact, Kerry did well just to stay in touch as long as they did.

Kerry made a fantastic start. Ciara Murphy kicked over a great score off her left. Louise Ni Muircheartaigh missed her first free but soon made amends to double our tally after Niamh Carmody was fouled. Louise followed up with one of the best goals of the season, turning over the kick-out and beautifully lobbing the best current keeper in the game, Monica McGuirk. 1-2 to 0-0.

Unfortunately, kick-out turnovers were to become a major feature of the game, and not in a good way for Kerry. The fact is that Meath pressed very hard on our kick-outs, winning six out of eleven in the first half alone (they destroyed on breaking ball), and then dropped back deep to choke off any space for our attackers to operate. Kerry played into their hands a bit by slow, careful build-up rather than direct kicks. By the time we got the ball into the danger area, Meath had bodies back to snuff out any danger and Kerry were repeatedly robbed off possession. Meath's speed off the counter-attack was reminiscent of the Tyrone men's team of the early millennium – it was more transformation than transition. Aoibhin Cleary got huge praise for her speed breaking out and Niamh O'Sullivan was awarded Player of the Game at the receiving end, but the key player for me was once again Emma Duggan. A huge amount of Meath's play went through her and she never put a foot wrong.

Stacey Grimes opened Meath's account from a free after nine minutes. That opened the floodgates. A great run by Kelsey Nesbitt was offloaded to Emma Troy coming through the centre and she finished brilliantly. Straight from the kick-out, Vikki Wall, another Royal dynamo, levelled matters at 1-2 apiece with a free and added another. Meath were in front after thirteen minutes and would never relinquish it. Stacey Grimes added her second. Emma Duggan was wide with her first free but once again Meath pounced on the kick-out and Emma Duggan and Megan Thynne combined for Emma Troy to split the posts. Great defending by Eilís Lynch prevented another one, but this was one way traffic, with absolutely nothing sticking up front for Kerry. It reminded me of the second quarter of the Munster Final when Cork took over completely, as Vikki Wall made it 1-6 to 1-2.

Siofra O'Shea kicked a fine point from outside that defensive blanket to relieve the pressure slightly. Niamh Carmody almost got in for another after good work by Emma Costello, but Shauna Ennis made a brilliant last-ditch tackle. Niamh O'Sullivan stretched Meath's lead from distance, but Paris McCarthy replied smartly.

Vikki Wall won a free put over by Stacey Grimes and then appeared to have added another. Bizarrely, referee Maggie Farrelly called the play back for a free. This is a little bugbear of mine. A point is much more advantageous than a free, so why bring it back? This happens a lot in men's football as well – how often do you see an apparent penalty called back for an earlier free by a defender? It's an advantage rule, not a disadvantage rule.

Instead Kerry went direct with a beautiful passage of play that saw Lorraine Scanlon, whom I thought was Kerry's best player on the day, close out the first half scoring.

Half-time Meath 1-8 Kerry 1-5. Similar to the men's All Ireland Final, I wasn't too worried at this stage. Meath had completely dominated the first half after that initial Kerry burst. I 'knew' that we had a lot more in the tank and a three point lead (with three scoreable wides and two dropped short) was scant enough and plenty manageable.

My confidence looked justified early on as Siofra O'Shea sent over a fine point after the Kerry defence did well to clear their lines. Louise Ó Muircheartaigh won and converted a free. Back to a one point game.

Two points again, after a great run by Emma Troy was illegally ended and Emma Duggan slotted the free. Both sides left scoring chances behind them at this stage – Duggan was at least as impressive in defence as she had been in attack. We are struggling for scores ourselves, as Paris McCarthy sent a chance wide, but we are still very much in this game.

Then we aren't. Meath turned over our kick-out (an ongoing theme, I'm afraid) and another burst by Aoibhín Cleary saw her offload to Stacey Grimes, who drew the keeper Ciara Butler before sending across for Bridgetta Lynch to finish. With fifteen minutes left, Kerry introduced Erica McGlynn up front. I'd have inclined towards bringing herself and possibly Louise Galvin earlier on or maybe switching Lorraine Scanlon inside – those are great players for winning long ball and we needed to be more direct to beat Meath's tactic of flooding their defence – arrah, easy for me to talk, it wouldn't take you long to peruse my All Ireland medal collection! Meath were also willing to give away more fouls than chances – that's not me being sanctimonious, I'd have been doing exactly the same thing.

Just to banish any lingering wisps of hope, they add another hammer blow. This time Vikki Wall breaks from halfway with another electrifying burst of pace and offloads to Stacey Grimes. Her shot comes off the post and breaks kindly for Bridgetta Lynch, who still had to show a lot of skill to get the shot off quickly from close range. 3-9 to 1-7, and Niamh O'Sullivan added another point before the final whistle.

Meath are All Ireland champions, and very deservedly so. They were the better side here, even if it took them time to actually show it on the scoreboard. In fact, it looks like the biggest obstacle to them dominating the game like Kerry did in the '80s, Cork afterwards (probably the best team I have seen play the game, in fairness, they were awesome) and latterly Dublin, is the lure of Aussie Rules.

Kerry will be disappointed at the moment, of course, but this has been a great year for them. The most important thing for me was actually getting out of Division Two – we belong in the top tier of the game and it will sharpen us along the way. Cork are still the queens of Munster – having that rivalry doesn't hurt us either. I fully expect Kayleigh Cronin, Emma Costello, Cáit Lynch, and Louise Ní Muircheartaigh to be picking up All Stars. Aishling O'Connell, Loraine Scanlon, and Siofra O'Shea should be in that conversation as well. We also have good players sojourning in the States who should hopefully be back in the fold in the near future.

It has taken a decade for Kerry to get back to an All Ireland Final after that defeat to Cork in 2012. I don't expect that we will be waiting anything like as long for the next one.

JIMMY O'SULLIVAN-DARCY takes a look at all things sport...

INTERMEDIATE

DEFEAT FOR BERNIE BREEN

Bernie Breen was one of the great Kerry midfielders. An incredible prodigy, she won two U14 All Irelands with Kerry and a Féile with Beaufort, plus a U16 All Ireland with the county. She won Kerry Junior and Senior titles with Beaufort and another senior with Killarney Legion in 2011. She was nominated for All Stars five times ('10, '12, '13, '14, and '15) and was Munster Player of the Year. She moved to Wexford in 2017 and was soon invited into their county pabel and has played astarringrole with them ever since. Last Sunday she played with them against Laois in the Intermediate Final, but they lost too much ground in the first half, trailing by 1-9 to 0-3 at the break. A great point by Bernie helped to kick-start the revival but they left too many goal chances behind them, the final passing too often lacking crispness, to lose by 1-13 to 1-11. Laois' Aisling Donohoe was named Player of the Game. There may have been a bit of a sympathy vote, understandable given that the full back played the final before continuing her fundraising to bring her son to the US for a necessary operation. For the little that it's worth, Laois forward Mo Nerney gave an absolute exhibition.

DR. CROKES WIN DONAL CURTIN CUP

The Ladies County League Final was a Killarney derby between Dr. Crokes and Spa. The game was a cracker all through, with Dr. Crokes leading early on and in front by two points, 0-6 to 0-4, at half-time. Spa goaled early in the second half to go in front but Crokes' were able to pick off the vital scores to win by 0-9 to 1-5 and bring the Donal Curtin Cup back to the club.

GAA COUNTY U21 FINAL:

East Kerry 1-22 North Kerry 3-14

East Kerry are once again U21 kingpins of the Kingdom, but my word did they have to work very hard for this one! North Kerry are new kids on the block after the amalgamation of Feale Rangers and Shannon Rangers – a necessary move, as North Kerry football was struggling badly. Yes, they draw from a lot of clubs, but those are mostly Division Four or Five clubs.

Ruairi Murphy (I really think Jack O'Connor should take a look at this guy – he was Kerry's best U20 player as well) opened the scoring before Emmett O'Shea burst clear and scored a cracking goal. The loss of Breandáin O'Neill to injury hurt North Kerry as East Kerry pushed 1-4 to 0-1 clear. Both keepers had to make very good saves. North Kerry were winning plenty of ball, but the old bugbear of a reliance on sharpshooter Jack Kennelly cost them as they left too many chances by the wayside. It was Kennelly who got them back into it, deftly flicking Robert Stack's ball past Marc Kelliher. Kelliher had to save well from Kevin Goulding, while Eddie Healy (the best minor in the county, in my opinion, a serious talent) made a goal-line save to deny Aaron O'Shea. East Kerry led by 1-6 to 1-1 at the break – it maybe slightly flattered them.

Jack Kennelly and Aaron O'Shea were accurate for either side on the resumption, but North Kerry were struggling to make inroads on East Kerry's lead. At 1-11 to 1-6 and with the result seemingly inevitable, they finally cut loose. Kennelly picked off two points, but the star of the show was an unstoppable Kevin Goulding with three fantastic scores. However, Emmett O'Shea, Ryan O'Grady, and the outstanding Cian Murphy restored a four point gap. Cillian Trant and Kerry minor Cormac Dillon scored long range points for North Kerry (I know that Healy and Dillon are special talents, but it's a bit worrying to see minors starting on a U21 team that draws from so many clubs, I'm in favour of players on the age getting their chance). With the clock running down, Pádraig Walsh latched onto a pinpoint Kennelly pass and finished superbly to put North Kerry into a dramatic lead. With seconds left, Ruairi Murphy was the calmest figure in Austin Stack Park as he fired the equaliser from 40 metres. The greatest score on a night that featured many of them.

Murphy continued his tour de force with a brace in the first half of extra-time. All that North Kerry could muster was a point from Robert Stack, who really played his heart out. At the start of the second half of extra-time, North Kerry once again flung a cat in among the pigeons as Jack Kennelly slotted a penalty and the teams were level once again. East Kerry were just as resilient, though, and three points on the trot to one last North Kerry score by Darragh Lynch saw them crowned champions once more after an epic battle.

East Kerry: Mark Kelliher (0-1, 1f), Peter O'Sullivan, Dara O'Callaghan, Killian O'Sullivan

(0-1), Brian O'Leary, Philip O'Leary, Tom Clifford, Paul O'Shea, Ruairi Murphy (0-5), Aaron O'Shea (0-3), Ryan O'Grady (0-3), Patrick D'Arcy (0-1), Aaron Flynn (0-1), Emmett O'Shea (1-1), Cian Murphy (0-4). Subs: William Shine 0-1 (for Aaron Flynn (half-time), Darragh Fleming (for Tom Clifford, 48 mins), Dara Donohue (for Cian Murphy, 59 mins), Stephen Palmer 0-1 (for Patrick D'Arcy, 64 mins), Dylan Roche (for Aaron O'Shea, 61 mins), Cian Murphy (for Darragh Donoghue, 61 mins), Michael Keane (for Brian O'Leary, 75 mins), Mark O'Shea (for Ryan O'Grady, 78 mins), Patrick D'Arcy (for Cian Murphy, 80 mins)

North Kerry: Kieran Mackessy, Liam Guiney, Breandáin O'Neill, Pádraig Walsh (1-0), Jack McElligott, Donnacha Maher, Adam Segal, Cillian Trant (0-1), Robert Stack (0-1), Ted Moloney, Kevin Goulding (0-4), Jamie McVeigh, Rory O'Mahony, Darragh Lynch, Jack Kennelly (2-6 (1-0 pen, 3m, 2f) Subs: Eddie Healy (for Breandáin O'Neill, 4 mins), Darragh Carey (for Darragh Lynch, 28 mins), Cormac Dillon 0-1 (for Ted Moloney, 41 mins), Mikey Nolan (for Jamie McVeigh, 62 mins), Jamie McVeigh (for Robert Stack, 72 mins), Darragh Lynch 0-1 (for Rory O'Mahony, 71 mins), Dylan Quinn (for Donnacha Maher, 80 mins)

HURLING

ST. PATS HURLERS CELEBRATE 40 YEARS

The Fitzgerald Stadium was a riot of colour last Saturday as St. Pats Hurling Club celebrated 40 years in existence with a 7-a-side tournament from 11.00am to 5.30pm. Laochra Óg eventually beat Dr. Crokes (who had beaten Rathmore in the semi-final) in a thrilling finale. Rathmore's Luke Crowley was named as Player of the Tournament. One of the highlights of the day was Kerry's U14 camogie team playing Newtownshandrum in a great game.

BALLYDUFF V CAUSEWAY IN THE

Rathmore Senior Hurler Luke Crowley Who Was Named Player Of The Tournament In The St Pats 40th Anniversary Senior Hurling 7 A Side Hurling Tournament Held In Fitzgerald Stadium at the weekend.

COUNTY FINAL

Look, I'm not the only one who thinks that Kerry's domestic scene is drawing to a close far too abruptly. Hurling, far more than football, requires constancy for excellence, and far too many players won't be playing a competitive game until next year. I do have a lot of sympathy for the fixtures committee – the fact that Kerry has both a senior club and a separate county championship that includes divisional teams is, for me, the greatest strength of Kerry football, but it does make for a very tight calendar. Adding dual players to that mix – and Kerry have always had brilliant dual players like the Boyles, the Gouldings, Brandon Barrett, Donal Down O'Sullivan, John Mark Foley, Michael Slattery, Barry O'Mahony, Oisín Maunsell, Jack Sheehan, Luke Crowley, and many more – makes the mix unworkable, but we have to look at allowing space for the hurling to breathe, despite the difficulty. Causeway produced a great comeback to see off champions Kilmoyley, whose All Ireland run to Croke Park really lit a Kerry hurling torch last year. They have the great John Mike Dooley in goal, Jason and Joseph Diggins, and Kerry sharpshooters Brandon Barrett, Daniel Goggin, Colum Harty, and Gavin Dooley on board – that's serious firepower. But Ballyduff have been iconic in Kerry hurling ever since the first Hennessy picked up a hurley (I imagine the wheel was being invented around the same time). Pádraig was easily Kerry's best hurler this year – the youngest of the clan (although the next generation are rising fast) was a phenomenal prodigy and has lived up to all the billing. Mikey is simply an indomitable force. Aidan came off the bench late on in the semi-final. Add in the likes of the Gouldings and Eoin Ross, and you have a powerful cocktail. Ballyduff haven't lifted the Neilus Flynn Cup since 2017 – that's a long time wait by their own standards, and I expect it to end shortly. Ballyduff surrendered their County Minor title after two years to St. Brendans in a thriller. When talking about great dual players, the likes of Odhrán Ferris and Liam Óg O'Connor for the winners and Evan Boyle and Oisín Healy for the losers are well worth keeping a future eye on, these are serious talents.

Kilgarvan, who put 3-13 past a fancied Parnells and 2-23 past Lady's Walk, will likely go in as favourites against St. Brendans' B team in the Intermediate, but it's far from a foregone conclusion.

ATHLETICS

Congratulations to Jason O'Reilly of Killarney Valley, who helped Ireland to a very impressive sixth place finish in the European Youth Olympics Finals. Well done also so Antonya Lewjoda, the new Munster B U14 Long Jump champion.

BASKETBALL

Chances are that if you ask most people to name the best basketball players ever, one name will be conspicuously brilliant. Everybody will have the same name at the top of their list, Michael Jordan – we can take that as a given. He had great foils in Pippen and rebound renegade Rodman, though. Larry Bird will be there – for youngsters readers, take the likeable Steve Kerr, and make him twice as good. That was Bird. His greatest rival, and close friend, was Magic Johnson, the point guard who doubled up as a power forward. Isaiah Thomas deserves to be there – his exclusion from the original Dream Team was a disgrace that cheapened the sport (some of us feel that including some of the highest-paid professional athletes demeans the Olympics anyway). Hakeem Olajuwon and Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. Julius Irving – the phrase 'role model' is thrown around cheaply these days, but it applies, Dr. J was a class act all the way. Love or hate LeBron, he has to be included. Likewise Kobe Bryant – he embellished a winning team and he was inordinately fond of the camera, but the boy could play. Shaq was more big than brilliant, in my opinion, and craved attention more than victory. You can't ignore the first billionaire from the sport, though, and he was occasionally brilliant. Personally I'd have Durant, Harden, or Nowitski first – they don't post the individual numbers, but they selflessly get their teams over the line more often than not. These guys are more Lionel Messi, where Jordan or Kobe were more like Ronaldo. John Stockton was the Vinnie Jones of the NBA, so spare me that conversation. Postman Malone, Garnett, Iversen, Drexler, Wade...no. Sorry, super players, but just not at the level I am talking about. Steph Curry? Sure. I don't know if he epitomised a new long range era in the game or if he created it, but he certainly transformed the entire approach to the game – thankfully, there was a lot less skill in those muscular collisions at the post. I see parallels between modern basketball and modern hurling, to be honest, in regards to long range accuracy.

Young people always assume that the players from their era are the best of all time. Was Mick O'Connell really a better fielder than Paddy Kennedy? Would anyone honestly choose David Beckham over Tom Finney? If I can't watch it on YouTube, did it really happen? Remember when soccer was invented, away back in 1992, with the Premiership? Dixie Dean? Never heard of him.

Even so, most people will remember the name of Wilt Chamberlain. No-one – not Jordan, not LeBron, not Kobe – no-one has ever put up his kind of shooting numbers. He was dunking the ball before people even had a name for the concept. And he did it all with a smile on his face. When basketball enjoyed its first flush of mainstream popularity in the sixties (Jordan took it into the stratosphere thirty years later), Wilt was the reason why. People forget that he was only the second best player of his own generation.

Michael Jordan won six rings in eight years. Bill Russell won eleven titles in thirteen years with the Boston Celtics.

That was in an America in the sixties, when the conservatism of a war generation was being challenged by young and outspoken liberals. Bill grew up, not just in abject poverty, but in a time and place where segregation was automatic and lynching was not uncommon. I've heard stories that he was a poor player in high school until he got a growth spurt in his late teens. Pure cobbles – he was 6'5" and then grew five inches. He was a starting player in high school in a very competitive outfit and he was a black guy who got a basketball scholarship to San Francisco. Fair enough, it wasn't exactly a basketball mecca, but remember that of basketball in a way. He was the first to really play the game in the air, a phenomenal leap supplementing his natural height. He led San Francisco to two NCAA titles before signing for the Celtics and unquestionably leading them to be the most successful team of all time. Pistons, Lakers, Bulls, Warriors.....stop. Nobody even comes close.

So why haven't you heard more about Bill Russell? Plain and simple, Bill was unremittably unfriendly off the court. Not only did he fervently believe in making his teams win because he believed that a black players would be denied individual honours, but he took every opportunity to say so. Not in a hostile fashion, he was both courteous and articulate, but middle class America didn't really want to listen – they had to deal with a lot of new concepts during a socially turbulent sixties already. Remember that Jackie Robinson had played baseball just ten years before Bill Russell played basketball. He was playing in never been so prosperous. They wanted a Harlem Globetrotter, but Russell always played to the scoreboard rather than the audience. Smiling Wilt Chamberlain was the face of the growing sport – Chamberlain was a genuinely nice guy who understood that the media could popularise the game, he certainly wasn't trying to sell shoes (those of you who think that's a dig at Michael Jordan over his attitude to Strom Thurmond – you are absolutely right). Bill Russell insisted on being a hero on his own terms, and the America of that time didn't like him.

I do. Or rather, I did – Bill Russell passed away earlier this week. He left behind a game that he had changed utterly, helping to both urbanise it outside college sports and elevate it to a global game. But I believe that his greatest achievement, similar to Dr. J, was his positive impact and the changes he wrought on the society he grew up in. May he rest in peace.

basketball was predominantly a white sport back then – Russell was playing the first time a college team sensationally started three black players in a game. Kids on the street, especially in New York urban culture, were starting to pay attention.

Strange as it may seem, you didn't have many players over 6'5" back then. The game was played low and fast. It was almost like stickless lacrosse or netball. Of course you needed height, but too much was considered clumsy. Bill Russell had the size of a big man and the skill and finesse of a small one, a David Clifford high school when a woman named Rosa Parks sat on a bus in Montgomery. He called out an America that wasn't ready for uncomfortable questions – remember, this was the generation between World War II and Vietnam and white America had

OPEL SALES GROWTH PROPELS BRAND UP TO 8TH POSITION ON LEADERBOARD

The new Opel Astra has just arrived in dealerships with much aplomb, whilst the Opel Vivaro-e, Irish Van of the Year 2022, is Ireland's best-selling electric van, year-to-date.

An historic light commercial vehicle market share high of 10.7%, combined with new Dealer appointments and a renewed sales momentum behind Opel passenger cars, thanks to the recent launch of the new Grandland and the arrival of the much-anticipated all-new Opel Astra just weeks ago, has propelled the Opel brand up to 8th position overall in the sales charts, year-to-date July 2022. Opel now commands a combined passenger car and light commercial vehicle national market share of 3.9%, (+6.65%) in a difficult market which has contracted by 7%.

James Brooks, Opel Ireland's Managing Director, said: "Opel's robust performance in the all-important month of July was extremely pleasing. Our new Opel Astra and Grandland have been launched to tremendous reviews and together with the Corsa, Crossland and Opel Mokka, Continental Irish Small SUV of the Year 2022, have significantly raised our profile in terms of our passenger car portfolio. The strategic appointment of new Dealers in County Laois (Cummins Motor Group) and County Mayo (Rochford Motors, Ballyhaunis) has further strengthened our Network performance."

Notably, Opel significantly increased sales of its light commercial vehicles in Ireland in the first 7 months of 2022. July year-to-date, sales grew by 21% to 1837 units in a declining market (-21.4%), pushing Opel's national van market share up from 6.9% to 10.7%, to place 4th on the van sales podium. The all-electric Vivaro-e, Irish Van of the Year 2022, is Ireland's best-selling electric van, commanding 39.6% of the emerging EV market.

Mr Brooks commented: "The Vivaro-e remains Ireland's best-selling electric van in 2022, with the all-new Opel Combo-e now taking its place in the top ten electric sales chart. But our vans have by no means exhausted their full potential and we're currently tracking strong interest in the all-new Opel Movano van, just arrived in Ireland, which will also be available in fully electric guise later in 2022. Indeed, we expect to generate further impetus in light of the government's newly launched Zero Emission Vehicles Ireland programme, which will see businesses encouraged to trial EVs free of charge for a minimum period of 3 months. Opel is very well positioned to take full advantage of the emerging electric commercial market."

MAKE THE PRICE AT THE PUMPS GO FURTHER

The cost of fuel is the most talked about issue at the moment and fuel consumption has a lot to do with the car you buy, but whatever you drive there are things you can do to save fuel, save money and cut pollution.

Here are a few tips to help run your car efficiently.

Maintenance

Get your car serviced regularly for best efficiency

Always use the right specification of engine oil (check your handbook)

Check your tyre pressures regularly and before long journeys – under-inflated tyres will make your car use more fuel

Before you go

Save weight – extra weight means extra fuel so if you don't need it, take it out

Cut drag – roof-racks and boxes add to your fuel consumption. Pack carefully to reduce drag, or take it off.

Don't hang around – idling wastes fuel and your engine warms up more quickly when you're moving so don't start the engine until you're ready to go.

De-icing – scrape ice in the winter rather than leave your car idling to warm up Plan your journey – getting lost wastes fuel. Check traffic news before you go too.

Combine short trips – cold starts use more fuel so it pays to combine trips if you can.

Walk or cycle – if you're only going a couple of miles or so, do you really need to use the car?

Driving

Smooth and gentle – drive smoothly, accelerate gently and read the road ahead to avoid braking unnecessarily. Decelerate smoothly by releasing the accelerator in time, leaving the car in gear.

Keep rolling – stopping then starting again uses more fuel than rolling. Slow early for traffic lights or approaching a queue and you might not have to stop completely.

Change up earlier – don't labour the engine but try changing up at an engine speed of around 2,000 rpm (diesel) or 2,500 (petrol). Since 2014 new car models have been fitted with a gear shift indicator to encourage use of the most efficient gear.

Use your air-con wisely – at low speeds, air-con increases fuel consumption but at higher speeds the effect is less noticeable. Try opening the windows around town and save the air-con for high speed driving. Don't leave it on all the time but running it at least once a week helps keep the system in good condition.

Cut down on the electrics – turn off your rear window heater, demister fan and headlights when you don't need them

Stick to the limit – going faster uses more fuel. Drive at 70mph and you'll use up to 9% more than at 60mph and up to 15% more than at 50mph. Taking it up to 80mph can use up to 25% more fuel than at 70mph.

KILLARNEY LEGION GAA CLUB

SENIOR MEN

Our Senior Men got their Intermediate Club Championship bid off to a winning start overcoming a lively and gallant Laune Rangers side in splendid sunshine in Beaufort. Although victorious there were still enough wrinkles to iron out in the weeks ahead but as with all Championship an opening day win is imperative. Peter McCarthy got the ball rolling with the opening score and this was shortly followed up by a Jamie O Sullivan free. Fielding a youthful forward line it was then the turn of Will Shine to make his imprint. Good pressure on a short Rangers kick off saw the ball fall to the Kerry U20 and spotting the keeper in an advanced position he coolly lobbed the ball to the net from 35 yards.

This served to jolt the Killorglin men into action and John Thyther, Eoghan Hassett and Fiachra Clifford got their names on the scoresheet. Cian Gammell then intercepted another kickout and burst through to score left footed. Ryan O Grady and Jamie O Sullivan from placed balls drove it on with Callum Moriarty replying before Cian Gammell, operating at midfield, used all his speed and power to fist over a fine score. Cian alongside the immense Pdraig Lucey were holding court at midfield against a Rangers side missing the injured Peter Crowley. The bright Will Shine had the last word, or two, of the half with a double from play. Half time score Killarney Legion 1-9 Laune Rangers 0-5.

Rangers, always a proud championship club, were not going to go down without a fight and so it proved as Eoghan Hassett(2), Jack O'Connor and Eoin O'Sullivan shot four without reply. James O Donoghue, introduced at half time, stopped the momentum with a pointed free and then Luke O'Donoghue with a massive impact off the bench hit two in a row to open up a six point gap again, 1-12 to 0-9. Fiachra Clifford swung over another for the Rangers before the pivotal moment of the second half arrived. Brian Kelly pulled off a tremendous save but still needed the intervention of Cathal Sheahan( who was outstanding all through) to clear it off line. In the next attack a long searching ball from Pdraig Lucey found Ryan O'Grady and he finished to the net with some aplomb. That served to seal the game but credit to the Rangers they balled on through points from Eoghan Hassett and Fiachra Clifford. Luke O'Donoghue struck again, this time off the right, and Will Shine put the gloss on the scoreline with a tremendous point. The Legion spirit was typified near the end with Jonathan Lyne going full length on the boot of a attacker to foil another attack and the final score read 2-14 to 0-14; The next game in the competition is the weekend of August 13/14 where we will face either John Mitchels or Dromid Pearses.

KERRY LADIES

Hard luck to the Ladies who were beaten by All Ireland Champions Meath in last Sunday's decider. Despite getting off to a dream start the experienced and more physical Meath team eventually wore them down to run out winners. They can feel very proud of their years efforts and getting back into the All Ireland conversation must be their goal for the seasons ahead.

ACADEMY

Our Saturday Morning Academy has taken a little sojourn for the month of August to give both coaches and participants a chance to recharge their batteries. But fear not we will on the first weekend in September where all boys and girls from age 4-11 will be welcome to enjoy the basics of Gaelic Football in a fun and safe environment.

EAST KERRY

Once again crowned U21 County Champions the District side had to fight tooth and nail to overcome a determined North Kerry side in Austin Stack Park last Wednesday evening. Peter O Sullivan lined out at corner back for the entire game, the hour plus extra time while Ryan O'Grady leading the attack on the forty kicked three points. Will Shine, a half time substitute, contributed a vital point while Darragh Fleming was introduced midway through the second half. Kieran O Donoghue was also part of the panel which eventually got the better of North Kerry on a 1-11 to 3-14 scoreline.

U15 BOYS

Hard luck to our U15 White team who lost out to Scartaglin in the East Kerry Division 5 Final last evening in Spa. A slow start saw us fall behind early on but the middle 20 minutes of the game saw us dominant and left us only a point in arrears. The last quarter was nip and tuck but Scart slipped in for one last goal to seal the game.

Full Time..Killarney Legion 3-14, Scartaglin 5-14.

WEDDING BELLS

The very best of luck to our Senior player Jamie O Sullivan and his wife to be Bridie Kennelly as they celebrate their big day this Saturday August 6th. We wish them well both for the day and the future.

U-11S: MUNSTER BLITZ AND CENTRAL REGION ROUND 1 FIXTURE

Our U-11 footballers had a day of days last week when attending the Munster go-games blitz in Pairc Ui Chaoimh, Cork.

The journey began at 12:00 in Paddy Burke Memorial Park when we boarded a bus for Cork. Then we had an unscheduled stop in Killarney to meet a new arrival in Kingdom; and boy, did he get some welcome from the players.

After loads of singing on the bus, a huge cheer erupted when we saw Pairc Ui Chaoimh. We then had three keenly contested games on the main pitch against Ballyhooly (Cork), J.K. Brackens (Tipperary) and Ballylanders (Limerick) before Cork senior footballer Rory Maguire from Castlehaven gave us a stadium tour.

After we left Pairc Ui Chaoimh, we travelled onward to Douglas GAA Club where the boys' played games against the Douglas U-11 team before we were treated to tea, sandwiches and treats in their Wonderful indoor facilities. After more singing, that wouldn't have been out of place in Eurovision, we arrived back at Paddy Burke Memorial Park about 21:30, after having a wonderful day.

On behalf of the management team, we want to thank the players for being so well behaved during such a long day, as always, they were a credit to their parents, guardians and the club. We would like to thank Flynn's coaches for providing the bus, Munster GAA (especially Pat O'Shea and Donal Daly) for organising the blitz in Pairc Ui Chaoimh. A special word of thanks for Donal Daly for scheduling us to play last in PUC, to facilitate the challenge games vs Douglas.

We also want to thank everyone at Douglas GAA Club for the kindness and hospitality they showed from when we arrived at their ground until we left. Special mention to Steve Dwyer and his coaches for organising the games and providing much needed refreshments afterwards. We can't wait to return the favour in the not-too-distant future. No Kerry team was ever treated better in Cork.

The team will begin their Central Region campaign this week as they take on John Mitchels in Round 1 on Thursday, August 4th in the Paddy Burke Memorial Park.

U-13S

Milltown/Castlemaine's U-13 Green and White sides will both continue training on Friday of this week at 6:00pm at the club grounds. Both sides were back in action last Sunday as they welcomed John Mitchels to the Paddy Burke Memorial Park, Milltown for Round 1 of the Kelliher's Toyota Central Region. They have a Bye in Round 2 this weekend of the Central Region but on Saturday, August 6th they are going on a trip to Macroom to take on their U-13 teams in a challenge match. Enjoy the day out lads!

U-15S

Milltown/Castlemaine's U-15 side have no game this week in the Central Region Division 2. So far they have won 3 out of 3 in the competition.

Training will continue this week. Once further fixture details become available they will be published on the clubs social media as well as here in the weekly notes.

CÚL CAMP - MILLTOWN/CASTLEMAINE GAA CLUB

Fantastic week done and dusted as Milltown/Castlemaine hosted the Kellogg's GAA Cúl Camps over recent days where our future stars honed their skills at the Paddy Burke Memorial Park.

Kellogg's GAA Cúl Camps provide primary school boys and girls – between the ages of 6 and 13 – with an action-packed and fun-filled week of activity during the summer holidays which revolves around maximising enjoyment and sustaining participant involvement in Gaelic Games.

Special thanks to those that made it all come together last week such as PJ Reidy (GDA), Donal

Daly (Kerry County Board), Thomas Ladden who was Head Coach, all the coaches working with the groups each day, caretaker of the club grounds Mike Murphy and our own club coaching officers Liam Doherty and Ian Twiss.

A thoroughly enjoyable week was had by everyone, thanks to all our participants also who made the camp a resounding success and learned a lot of valuable skills along the way!

GAA 4 ALL

Please note that GAA 4 All training sessions will now take place once weekly on a Wednesday evening (instead of Saturday morning) from 5:45pm - 6:30pm at the club grounds.

U-8 GIRLS

ACORN LIFE COUNTY U21 FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP FINAL

EAST KERRY 1 – 22 NORTH KERRY 3 – 14

Once again East Kerry are U21 East Kerry Champion's, but wow, did they earn it. Helped by a man of the match display from midfielder Ruairi Murphy, they just about prevailed against a North Kerry side who gave everything to claim a maiden victory.

There was no hint of the drama to come when East dominated the early stages. Killian O Sullivan's first time ball in left Emmet O Shea the time to get into his stride. He calmly rounded Kieran Mackessy in the North Kerry goal and passed the ball into the empty net. Points from Ryan O Grady and Aaron Flynn increased the advantage, and with North Kerry guilty of some wasteful shooting, they were in great need of a boost. It came from their best player, Captain Jack Kennelly. He fisted in Robert Stack's high ball to the net, leaving them five points behind at half time, but with wind advantage in the second half.

East Kerry still looked in total control early in the second half with Ryan O Grady and Murphy finding the target with ease. The fanatic North Kerry support eventually got something to cheer about as Kevin Goulding fired over his first point of the day. It started a run of three in a row from Goulding, the Ballyduff man supporting Kennelly as they came within two points of East Kerry as injury time approached. Then Kennelly found the killer pass, to corner back Pdraig Walsh, who kept his composure, finishing low to the net, putting his side ahead for the first time. After a period of patient play, Murphy took aim and curled the ball beautifully over the bar. Extra time would be needed after an amazing second half.

East Kerry again looked like they drive on when Murphy catch and score put them back in front. Corner back O Sullivan then started and finished a move that kept their momentum going. Stacks point right at the end of the half was the northerner's only response. The second period was about to start with a bang though.

North Kerry once again showed their never say die attitude, winning a penalty shortly after the restart. Talisman Kennelly took it, finding the net with the help of the posts. The sides were back level again. The thoughts of a penalty shootout were getting closer and closer. Instead East Kerry showed their championship quality, with Stephen Palmer, Cian Murphy and William Shine registering the points that finally saw off North Kerry's challenge. With two minutes of injury time played, they couldn't engineer the goal chance needed to turn the tide again.

Afterwards, East Kerry Captain Mark Kelliher accepted the trophy on behalf of his delighted teammates. This was a final that will live long in the memory. After a slow first half, the game burst into life. Credit to North Kerry for their hunger and resilience to keep coming back, and to East Kerry for keeping their composure in the bear pit atmosphere and seeing out the victory.

COUNTY MINOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP ROUND 2

RATHMORE 3 - 10 EAST KERRY 2 - 24

Open football and high scoring was on the menu, as East Kerry made it two of two in the County Minor Football Championship, seeing off Rathmore's skillful and brave challenge in front of a large and entertained crowd in Rathbeg.

Rathmore now face St Brendans in the last round hoping to get their first win, while East Kerry face the heavyweight showdown against North Kerry. The winners of that game will be in a strong position for the knockout round's. Expect a hard fought tussle in Fossa next Monday evening.

EAST KERRY U15 DIVISION 4 FINAL

SPA 3 - 12 FIRIES 3 - 08

Spa overcame a shocking start, which saw them concede 1 - 03 in the first five minutes, to claim the MD O Shea sponsored East Kerry Division 4 League Championship, at Legion GAA grounds. A brave effort from Firies, but Spa's strength up the middle proved crucial, and they were worthy winners.

EAST REGION U15 DIV 3 FINAL

CURROW 4-11 CORDAL 4-10

This Div 3 final was a keenly contested affair between these great rivals, played in great conditions at Paddy O Leary Memorial Gneeveguilla on Wednesday evening.

Currow made the brighter start and the lively Josh Ryan opened the scoring with a point from play before he then crashed a goal to the Cordal net. The sides then swapped two points a piece, midfielder Killian Dennehy and Tadhg Mc Carthy for Cordal, Anthony Galvin and Ruairi Brosnan replying for Currow. As the game flowed from end to end Harry Crowley goaled for Currow before Thomas Jones replied with a cracker for Cordal. Cordal enjoyed more possession in the period before the break and Killian Dennehy hit two good points leaving Cordal leading 2.05 to 2.04.

Currow enjoyed the better of the opening exchanges at resumption of play, a quickfire goal from Sean Hourigan and Ruairi Brosnan added a point. Three Killian Dennehy points came in the way of a response from Cordal.

Currow then hit a purple patch when Ruairi Brosnan added a goal and a point, and fine points from David Healy and a great score from Daniel Mc Carthy after a lung- busting run up the field. Currow now had a seven point lead and looked to have the game in control however this Cordal side were never likely to give up. They rallied with a point and a goal from full forward Gerard Costello and then suddenly Killian Dennehy crashed a bullet of a goal from a quickly take free kick.

David Healy then kicked a fine point for Currow and Captain Ruairi Brosnan raised a white flag after a long mazy run to see Currow lead by two points. Cordal replied again with a pointed free from Killian Dennehy but unfortunately for them time ran out as Glenflesk Referee Jimmy O Shea blew the final whistle.

Currow will be happy with their defence and Ruairi Brosnan at midfield who had a great game, also David Healy in the forwards in the second half came up with a couple of fine points when they were needed most.

For Cordal Killian Dennehy starred throughout, assisted by Thomas Jones and Gerard Costello up front.

After the game the winning captain Ruairi

Brosnan was presented with the Div 3 shield by Seán O'Keeffe Chairman of East Region Coiste na nÓg, he went on to congratulate both teams and mentors on a fine sporting game, thanked Referee Jimmy O Shea and his umpires as well as Sponsors MD O Shea, he also thanked Gneeveguilla Gaa for hosting the final.

U15 DIV 5 FINAL

SCARTAGILN 5-14 KILLARNEY LEGION B 3-14

Played in Spa in ideal conditions Scartaglin got off to the better start and they made use of the light breeze they were ahead after 15 minutes on a scoreline of 3-02 to 0-03 with their goals coming from Michael Horan (2) and Cormac Walsh(1)

Legion settled into the game for the remainder of the first half and outscored their opponents by 5 points to 3 to leave the halftime score 3-06 to 0-08 in favor of Scartaglin.

Legion now with the aid of the breeze were dominating the exchanges and with 15 minutes gone in the second half were only 3 points in arrears Legion 1-14 Scartaglin 4-08 legions goal coming from Finan Blackwell Michael Horan had another goal for Scartaglin in this period. Legion kept pushing for the equalizing score however Scartaglin rallied and added 1 goal and 6 points in the final quarter to legions 1 goal to leave the final score Scartaglin 5-14 Legion 3-14

The game mirrored the All-Ireland final shootout with Michael Horan contributing 3-06 for Scartaglin while Finan Blackwell scored 2-08 for Legion.

Chairman of East Kerry Coiste na nÓg Sean O Keefe presented the trophy to the winning captain, Michael Horan, he thanked SPA GAA club for the use of their facilities as well as referee Sean Casey and his officials for an excellent performance

Gardening

with Killarney Outlook

by John O'Sullivan

PLANTS FOR SHADE

Most gardens have a shady spot, a north facing wall, under a tree or in the shadow of the house.

There is a huge range of plants to suit shaded areas including broad-leaved foliage plants, to spring flowers and ever green flowering shrubs. Ferns are probably the first plant you would think of when it comes to shade – you can choose from a wide range of ferns from dwarf, medium or large.

Ferns look very natural when planted under a tree or beside a wall. Most ferns will die back for the winter so if you want all year round foliage you will need to plant something evergreen near the ferns i.e something low growing like the Viburnum Davidii which is a great plant when planted in groups of three. Another good evergreen plant for the shade is the Heuchera which comes in lovely shades including dark to light purple and green to light green.

There is also a wide range of flowering plants for shade. A good example is an Astilbe, an Astilbe has a good range of flower colours and foliage to choose from. An Astilbe has a good range of flower colours and foliage to choose from. Sometimes when an area is shaded, the ground can be quite dry – even in the winter time. A good plant for this would a plant called Vinca Minor which is an evergreen flowering ground cover plant. But remember to water until established.

A Word of Victory

Welcome back dear student we are delighted to host Pastors Paolo and Dana Margio later this month for two Healing Meetings on Tuesday 23rd & Wednesday 24th August at 7.30pm on both nights. We look forward to welcoming you for this exciting teaching and prayer ministry for healing. More details on our social media pages or by using the email or phone number below. Now, continuing on our study of healing - last week we saw that feeding on the wrong spiritual food can impair healing, and how the young man Timothy learned from the apostle Paul like an apprentice learns from his or her teacher. The key attribute to learning is listening. We take all our information in through our ear gate and eye gate. Therefore what we watch and what we listen to has an effect upon our lives for good or for bad. Negative news and chatter can drag one down to a low place. But Jesus came to bring Good News! Everywhere He went He preached the same message - repent of your sins and be reconciled to God for His Kingdom is at hand. And everywhere people brought the sick and the tormented to Him and He healed them all (Matthew 15:30; Luke 4:40). But Jesus didn't simply pray for the people. First He taught them the Word of God to build their faith to receive healing. We need this too! Jesus told His followers "My sheep hear My voice and they follow Me" (John 10:27).

The Scriptures have much to say about hearing God's voice through His Word - not just hearing Him, but actually listening which leads to obedience and receiving God's promises. Many people believe a lie - that they can't hear God. But God is always speaking to us - only we don't pay attention to what He is saying because there are so many things in life that distract us, and even more things amply provided by the devil to prevent us from truly listening to Him! Proverbs tells us that God's wisdom 'shouts' - calling people from the foolishness that ties them up in bondage, but, if we will pay attention to the voice of God the promised result will be..... 'whoever listens to Me will live securely and in confident trust, and will be at ease, without fear or dread of evil disaster' (Proverbs 1:20-33)

The apostle James said "My dear brothers and sisters, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, because human anger does not produce the righteousness that God desires. Therefore, get rid of all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent and humbly accept the Word planted in you, which can save you. Do not merely listen to the Word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. Anyone who listens to the Word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues in it - not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it - they will be blessed in what they do." (James 1:19-25 NIV). O Lord God, teach me to hear Your voice and listen to and obey Your Word and let Your Healing Power fill me in Jesus' Name I pray, Amen.

A PRAYER TO OUR LADY OF LA SALETTE

Remember, dear Lady of La Salette, true Mother of Sorrows, the tears which thou didst shed for me on Calvary; be mindful also of the unceasing care which thou dost exercise to shield me from the justice of God; and consider whether thou canst now abandon thy child, for whom thou hast done so much. Inspired by this consoling thought, I come to cast myself at thy feet, in spite of my infidelity and ingratitude. Reject not my prayer, O Virgin of reconciliation, convert me, obtain for me the grace to love Jesus Christ above all things and to console thee too by living a holy life, in order that one day I may be able to see thee in Heaven. Amen.
