Time to go Up the Hill for Jack & Jill

Kerry People urged to take on a hill for Jack and Jill this October

Every day can be an uphill challenge for Jack and Jill families and, this October, the charity is urging people to climb or walk a local hill in solidarity with the 11 Kerry families currently under its care as part of the eighth annual Up the Hill for Jack and Jill fundraising challenge, proudly supported by Abbott.

This is a significant year for the Jack and Jill Children's Foundation, as it celebrates 25 years of funding and providing specialist in-home nursing care and respite support for children with severe to profound neurodevelopmental delay, up to the age of six. This includes children who may have a brain injury, cerebral palsy, a genetic diagnosis or other undiagnosed condition. Another key part of the service is end-of-life care at home for all children up to the age of six who require it, irrespective of diagnosis.

The nationwide charity has reached its own summit in 2022 by providing support to 412 children, the highest number in its 25-year history. Indeed, Jack and Jill has provided support to 76 Kerry families since it was first established. To meet its steep care commitment, the charity is asking people across Kerry to support local families in their community by going Up the Hill for Jack and Jill.

With Jack and Jill, there is no means test, no waiting list and no unnecessary red tape. The core nursing team devises a home nursing care plan that is tailored around the child and the family's needs, with the charity funding and providing up to 80 hours' support each month. Jack and Jill's funding model relies heavily on public donations to mobilise over 500 nurses and carers at community level and, in 2021, they delivered almost 110,000 hours of in-home nursing care and respite support.

Jack and Jill Liaison Nurse Manager for Kerry, Siobhan Reen, says every parent needs a break: "It's a privilege to be a part of the lives of Jack and Jill families. These are ordinary parents facing the extraordinary care needs of a child with a complex medical condition; a child who may not be able to walk or talk, who may be tube-fed or oxygen-dependent, requiring intensive, around-the-clock care, at home. But everyone needs a break, and that's where we come in, literally, into the home, to give them relief and we are very proud to walk this care journey with them."

Siobhan Reen, Jack and Jill Children's Foundation liaison nurse manager for Kerry, who is urging people to go Up the Hill for Jack and Jill during the month of October. The Foundation, which this year celebrates 25 years providing specialist in-home nursing care and respite support for children with life-limiting conditions, supports a total of 11 families in County Kerry. Taking part in Up the Hill is simple – pick a hill, make a date, grab some friends, and go! Find out how you can support Jack and Jill families in your community at www.JackandJill.ie

KERRY'S ARCHITECTURAL HERITAGE TO BE CELEBRATED DURING FIFTH ARCHITECTURE KERRY FESTIVAL

An extensive programme of free exhibitions and guided tours which showcase and celebrate the county's architectural landscape and heritage form part of the fifth annual Architecture Kerry Festival which takes place between 30 September and 2 October.

The festival, which is part of the Creative Ireland Kerry Programme, aims to highlight the wide diversity of the architectural landscape in Kerry and to make some of the best-known sites of architectural significance in the county accessible to all ages. Tours this year aim to focus on high quality contemporary architecture, town centre living and renovation projects. Kerry County Museum and Kerry County Library are also hosting exciting events for Architecture Kerry exploring archaeology and the county's built environment. The successful Lego competition run by Kerry County Library for children returns again.

Leas-Cathaoirleach of Kerry County Council, Cllr Bobby O'Connell said the programme of events has something for everyone, even those with a passing interest in architecture: 'This festival continues to grow and has become a popular feature of the Kerry calendar. It is a wonderful opportunity for people of all ages to visit and appreciate the diverse and exciting architecture which we are fortunate to have here in Kerry.'

On 30th September a seminar will be held at Killarney House to focus on Kerry's historic landscapes with a range of speakers discussing horticulture, design, architecture and cultural significance. Throughout Saturday 1st and Sunday 2nd October, some festival favourites will be opening their doors for free guided tours.

Niall pulls his last pint at The Glen Spanning a career of over 50 years, Niall Doherty was joined by friends and colleagues who gathered together recently to wish him a fond farewell from The Gleneagle Hotel.

Niall began his career in hospitality in Jackson's Bar in his native Ballybofey, Co. Donegal. In 1968 he moved to Killarney to take up a post as a barman at The Three Lakes Hotel. For the following three years, he divided his time between summers in Killarney and winters in London but love intervened and had him settle in Killarney for good. Niall met his future wife, Greta Breen from Glencar, in Killarney and by 1975 they were married.

Niall joined The Gleneagle in 1971 after being headhunted by the late Maurice O'Donoghue and soon became a well-known face behind the bar at the hotel. In more recent years, he worked in beverage stock management where his expertise and attention to detail will be greatly missed.

Niall has a treasure trove of memories and stories from his many years in The Gleneagle, 'I loved seeing all the artists and musicians perform down through the years, especially Joe Loss and his orchestra and of course Joe Dolan. My favourite performance ever was by fellow Donegal man Rory Gallagher back in 1983.'

'Even back in the early days, The Gleneagle was always a busy place, I remember waxing and polishing the floor of the ballroom every two weeks there was so much dancing between socials, weddings and dances. I loved my time in The Gleneagle, I made great friends over the years and shared many great times with guests and locals alike.'

Patrick O'Donoghue, who is among the third generation of O'Donoghue's to work with Niall said, 'We would like to sincerely thank Niall for his hard work and commitment over his many years here. I know our dad Maurice, in particular, highly valued his input and honesty. Niall always said it like it was, never fearing the repercussions. While we will miss working with him, we wish him and his family every happiness in his retirement.'

A fascinating part of Kerry's sporting history has returned to Killorglin in the form of two albums of newspaper cuttings put together in the 1950s by Gillian Mangan, younger sister of the legendary Kerry cyclist, Gene Mangan.

At an event at Killorglin Library on September 13th, Gillian donated the albums to Kerry Library who will hold them for public access in the Kerry Local History & Archives in Tralee. Gillian's collections begin in 1954 when Gene was 17 years old and becoming prominent in cycling circles: 'I was seven years younger than Gene and he was a hero in my eyes. I got all the papers and cut out anything to do with Gene and stuck them into old account books. I'm delighted that they will now be preserved of use for future generations and I'd like to thank the library for hosting them'.

Gene became a national sporting sensation in 1955 by winning the Rás Tailteann at the age of 18. Apart from documenting Gene's early career, the albums also record the glory-days of Kerry cycling in the 1950s and 60s that also include Paudie Fitzgerald's Rás win in 1956 and Mick Murphy's in 1958, as well as the all-important Kerry team wins. A large collection of newspaper cuttings relating to Kerry cycling kept by the Mangan family has also been donated.

In addition, they also include cuttings and pictures of ordinary club races and riders and they are highly evocative in giving a wonderful sense of the cycling scene and the people involved in Kerry at the time.

Speaking on behalf of the library, Kerry County Librarian, Tommy O'Connor, thanked Gillian for her donation which will be preserved in a public archive for the use of future generations and he noted that it will supplement the very scarce copy of Gene's biography that Kerry Library holds - 'The Gene Mangan Story' which was written by Seán O'Neill and was published in 1959.

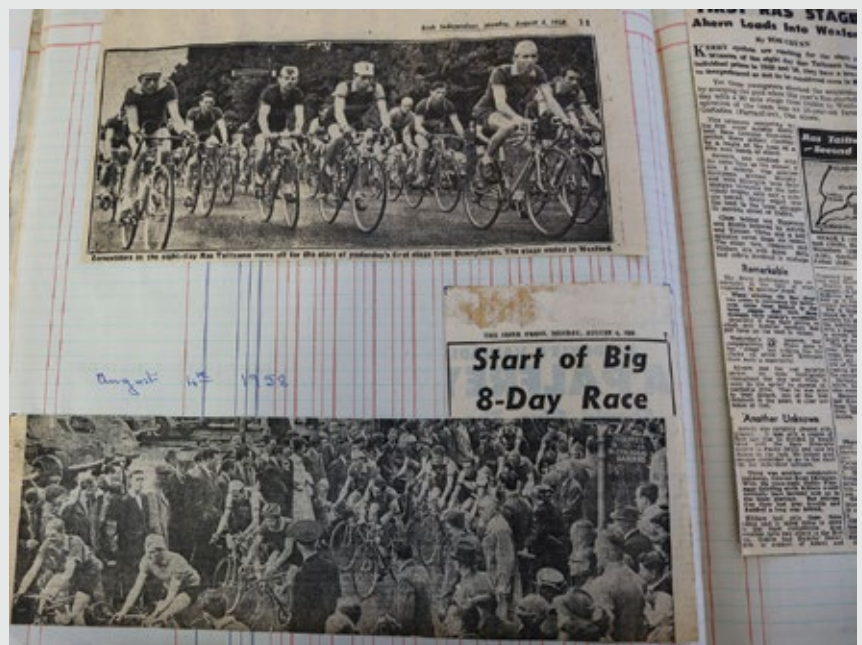

The event was also attended by Mary Concannon, a representative of Killorglin Cycling Club and she also paid tribute to Gene - 'Gene left Kerry in the 1950s for work and eventually settled in Dublin but he has had a life-long loyalty to Kerry cycling and in particular to his original club in Killorglin. He has always been a wonderful supporter and has contributed to Killorglin and Kerry cycling in numerous ways down through the years. We would like to thank Gillian for this donation - it will be highly interesting for everyone with an interest in our sporting heritage and an important part of the town's history'.

Also in attendance was Tom Daly from Killarney who is Vice-President of Cycling Ireland. Tom said that Gene was a significant figure in the history of Irish cycling from both a racing and administration point of view - he was also President of the National Cycling Association for a period and also noted that 'Gene has previously donated important material related to the history of Irish Cycling to the Irish Cycling Archive at the UCD Archives but it is entirely appropriate that this material, related to his Kerry roots, should stay in Kerry'.

The albums and related collection of newspaper cuttings can be viewed at Killorglin library during September and thereafter in the Kerry Local History & Archives at Library Headquarters in Tralee.

Honouring the world class Cyclist Gene Mangan, the youngest ever winner of the 1955 Rás Tailteann aged 18; he is still the youngest-ever winner. In 1958 Rás he won the last four stages, setting a record that still stands. A fascinating part of Kerry's sporting history has returned to Killorglin in the form of two albums of newspaper cuttings put together in the 1950s by Gillian Mangan, younger sister of the legendary Kerry cyclist, Gene Mangan, pictured her with Kerry County Librarian Tommy O'Connor. At an event at Killorglin Library this week, Gillian donated the albums to Kerry Library who will hold them for public access in the Kerry Local History & Archives in Tralee. Also present to mark the occasion were, Tom Daly, Vice President Cycling Ireland, Éibhlín Hayes, Killorglin Library, Mary Concannon, Killorglin Cycling Club. Photo: Valerie O'Sullivan

It's the talk of the town...

CHASING KING CHARLES AROUND KILLARNEY

After hours shadowing the man who is now King Charles during his visit to Killarney four years ago, I feel intimately connected with all things royal.

So last week's news of the Queen's death brings sadness. It is one of the few remaining privileges these days of the news journalist in the regions - one minute you are covering the coronation of a goat in Killorglin and next you are beside the King of England in-waiting.

I was alongside him as he listened to a traditional session in an old farmhouse and saw him sign a visitor's book in the big house that both his great grandmothers once visited!

I therefore devoured all the royal coverage across the media last week. The one that struck me most was the editorial in the French daily Le Figaro. Their analysis was precise and their view very different to the English press. The late Queen's death had brought a rush of emotion from all over the world, Figaro said. Her qualities were dignity, loyalty to history and long term vision Figaro found. "But above all else was her refusal to be governed or to allow herself to be governed by her emotions", it said.

At the same time Sky News and English broadcasters were hailing how "emotional" Charles was. An emotional man is how they described him in terms of his greatest virtue and what he would bring to the throne.

Being able to rein in her emotions was the classic virtue of the queen in French terms, being able to be reigned by his emotions was in English speaking media terms the quality of the new King.

There was more than a cultural gap here, and I wondered about it. Ever since Diana, bleeding heartism in public is considered the greatest virtue for a royal.

But I wondered were they right about an emotional King Charles.

That day in Killarney, I didn't see emotion so much as intelligence and curiosity and good humour in the savvy Prince. Nothing escaped him. He even directed the photograph be taken with the lake not the house in the background - "You want this view!" is what he said.

Up in the farms he quizzed the basket maker and chair maker. He even asked how Muckcross came by his great grandmother's brooch. (For a moment I thought there might be a diplomatic issue).

Back in Killarney House, after a very packed itinerary all day from Derrynane to Tralee to Muckcross with hardly a break even for a cup of tea you might have expected a tired Charles and an even more tired and frozen Camilla to lash out during a long session at Killarney House. But there wasn't a sign of the emotion that often comes with tiredness!

There was patience and perseverance and the new King may be more his mother's son and less the bleeding heart than the English realise. At least that was my impression chasing Prince Charlie around Killarney.

Long may he reign as King! Who knows, given he has such interest in the provenance of brooches, and that he was awarded the Order of Inisfallen, we may get him on side for the return of the annals and the Mangerton Lunula.

CITIZENS INFORMATION CENTRES NEED POLITICAL BACKING

There is much anxiety over the decision to reduce voluntary effort at Citizen's Information Centres throughout the country.

Traditionally drop in, these important centres were mostly manned by highly trained and highly discreet volunteers advised on everything from pension entitlements to penalty points. People under great stress were put at ease by the friendliness and effectiveness of these kind of encounters.

Alas the decision now by the board is to effectively get rid of volunteers and replace them with professionals and to reduce public contact to mere telephone calls. Why is the big question.

For far too long we are growing too specialised in this country and very few people can join the dots anymore or look outside their specialist area.

The "citizens" chief executive Fiona Coyne said that queries from the public have become more "complex", and that the manner in which people engage with the service has "changed considerably" since the pandemic.

"What we're seeing is more complex queries and people are coming in with multiple queries," she said on RTE.

"People are coming in with very complicated issues, in relation to things like employment or family law, where they might need to be referred on to the Workplace Relations Commission", Ms Coyne added.

"We really don't feel that it's fair to expect that all volunteers would be able to do that," she said.

I wonder though if Ms Coyne is really saying is the board is afraid of being sued. I have put queries in but the service has not responded.

A great many centres have not reopened after Covid and this includes Killarney. Face to face meetings have to be arranged and are I am reliably told these are not easy to get. Volunteers have been treated very badly and some have not been contacted or asked to return post Covid Social Democrats TD Jennifer Whitmore has said of the situation around the country.

The Killarney Drop in centre was a lifeline for one widow who contacted me. She and others - particularly those unfamiliar with computers - are extremely upset at the apparent decision not to reopen the Killarney Office at Beech Road. Could a bit of pressure be put on our politicians locally?

"Citizens Information Centres (CIC's) continue to provide local telephone services. Killarney CIC can be contacted by phone 0818 07 7820 Monday to Friday 10am-4pm or email killarney@citinfo.ie " the website says.

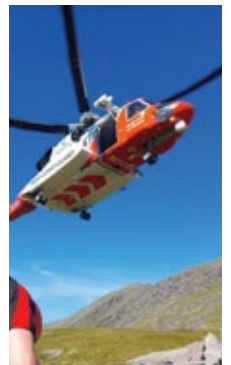

A STRIKE FOR PERMANENT GOVERNMENT FUNDING FOR SERVICES

The financial strain on our many volunteer rescue services is being highlighted by Rossbeigh's Cllr Michael Cahill. There should be no limit to funding important operations like the Kerry Mountain Rescue, he said.

The Community Air Ambulance, Rescue 115, Inshore Lifeboat or the RNLI, should get full funding from the Exchequer, "as you cannot put a price on human life" is how Cllr Cahill sees it.

He is speaking after a long summer outdoors. "The more we embrace the outdoor pursuits of hiking, swimming, mountain climbing, particularly in a beautiful summer like this, the higher the probability of situations occurring that will require one or more of these services to be deployed. The best way we can show our appreciation and gratitude is to ensure they are well funded and not dependent on voluntary contributions" stated the Rossbeigh based Councillor.

It is a sound idea and it seems now is the time to strike with the government awash with money and with no limits on what it can spend in selected areas.

Call for services like Rescue 115 should get full funding from the Exchequer

The Gleneagle Hotel's Inter-Department Activities Day made a welcome return earlier this month.

Nine teams from departments throughout the hotel gathered in the INEC to compete in a series of fun challenges including stilt walking, hula hooping, flour relay races, uniform relay races, hanging tough, backs against the wall, and the old favourite egg and spoon race. This was the first activities day since 2019 and a fitting end to the busy summer season.

The final was a hotly contested backward stilts race between The Titans from Accommodation and The Black Horses from Reception with The Titans crossing the finish line first.

Eilis Loughrey, Director of People and Culture for The Gleneagle Group presented the perpetual cup to the Titans team captain Vlad Popusoi, while each team member was presented with a special commemorative medal.

"This event was much anticipated by our team members with departments from across the hotel participating. It is just one of a number of initiatives that we organise to encourage a sense of community among our team members," said Eilis Loughrey.

4 Kerry Charities receive €121,008

from Radio Kerry
Radio Bingo

Kerry Cancer Support Group, Kerry Hospice, Recovery Haven Kerry Cancer Support House and Comfort for Chemo Kerry between them share €121,008, the proceeds from the Radio Kerry Radio Bingo game in the first year.

Following a hiatus of many years Radio Kerry reintroduced the popular Radio Bingo game in May 2021 at a time when many live events and especially charity fundraisers were on hold due to the Covid19 pandemic. Radio Kerry worked with the four charities in July 2020 on a one day fundraiser called Celebrate4Life which raised over €135,000. They were then offered the opportunity to partner with the station on the Radio Bingo game. In total €256,000 has been raised by the people of Kerry, facilitated by Radio Kerry, for the four charities.

General manager of Radio Kerry Fiona Stack said "We are lucky to live in a place with a strong sense of community. The shareholders in Radio Kerry are all local businesses and organisations and are fully committed to any funds raised by the Radio Bingo being passed on to support local charities".

Breda Dyland of Kerry Cancer Support Group said "Radio Kerry Bingo came at just the right time for Kerry Cancer Support Group. We were coming out of what had been a very difficult time during Covid when all fundraising had almost come to a halt. The bingo raised not only vital funds but awareness too. The majority of the funding has been ringfenced for a new wheelchair accessible bus for our Cork route. We were lucky to receive 100k in funding but have to raise another 90k to buy the vehicle. Thanks to everyone who continues to support. It really means a great deal to the team and most of all to our service users."

Jack Shanahan, Chairman of the Kerry Hospice Foundation said they are delighted to accept this substantial amount from Radio Kerry.

"Along with supporting our regular palliative care services, the extra money will be spent helping employ two new full time advanced nurse practitioners. They will provide much needed extra clinical support for our extremely busy units".

Marisa Reidy, PR & Marketing Officer, Recovery Haven Kerry said, "Once again, we are absolutely blown away by the generosity and goodwill of the people of Kerry and want to thank them for their support of Radio Kerry Bingo. We hope they know just how much we appreciate their support and never take it for granted. Meanwhile, the team at Radio Kerry have been such wonderful supporters of our charity from day one, and we are so grateful that they thought so highly of us - and the other cancer support services in Kerry - to include us in this year's Radio Kerry Bingo. The funds raised surpassed all our expectations and will go a huge way in allowing us to support those affected by cancer and their families".

Mary Fitzgerald, Chairperson Comfort for Chemo Kerry said that the funds raised will go towards continuing fundraising to help build, equip and provide comfort for patients undergoing chemotherapy in a state of the art chemotherapy unit within the grounds of UHK. As part of their fundraising they are holding the Inaugural Hope Social in Ballyroe Heights Hotel, Tralee. MCs for the night are patrons Elaine Kinsella and Billy Keane and a great night of entertainment and fun is guaranteed.

It was very well received by previous players and also a new cohort of players have also been tempted by the ease of access to the game, the price point, the prizes on offer and the opportunity to support the four partner charities.

As well as the weekly Jackpot there is a daily prize of €400 for players who fill a panel on the daily page. Numbers are broadcast 5 times per day on Radio Kerry as well as being posted on Radio Kerry Facebook and Instagram Stories daily. Books are €5 each available from over 70 outlets countywide. Radio Kerry does not take benefit financially from the Radio Bingo game. Since then €70,395 in prize money has been won by players, €43,995 in daily prizes and two Jackpot wins of €13,800 and €12,600.

The Radio Kerry Radio Bingo game is now in its second year and proceeds from the game continue to be distributed equally among the four charity partners Kerry Cancer Support Group, Kerry Hospice, Recovery Haven Kerry Cancer Support House and Comfort for Chemo Kerry.

With only two weeks to go, Furies Football Hurling and Ladies Football Club are still selling tickets for their Big Drop Fundraiser which is worth an amazing €25,000 in prizes.

In July, Furies Football, Hurling & Ladies Football club launched an innovative fundraising drive to develop their new playing facilities in Furies village while also raising funds for the Irish Community Air Ambulance Service and the vital work they provide throughout the country. The Club would like to take this opportunity to thank all the tickets buyers so far and to remind everyone that there is only 2 weeks left to be included for the drop on October 1st.

The club has grounds and facilities at Páirc Eamonn in Farranfore but, due to the substantial growth in the club over the past ten years, the grounds can very scarcely accommodate all juvenile football/ladies football teams as well as a vibrant hurling club serving the mid-Kerry hinterland.

Countdown is on for Furies Fundraiser THE BIG DROP

The club has planning permission obtained in 2020 for a new training facility adjacent to Furies village which includes grass pitches and a community walking track. In order to finance this development, the club has organised "Furies Big Drop" with prizes worth €25,000.

How will it work? In only 2 weeks time, On Saturday, 1st October, Furies Football, Hurling & Ladies Football grounds in Farranfore will be virtually divided into a grid and assigned to all ticket buyers. Taking advantage of the clubs' proximity to Kerry Airport, a helicopter will fly over Páirc Eamonn, dropping ten balls. Each ticket sold is allocated a random grid box and if the ball lands on your grid box, you could win a top prize of €10,000 euro. There will also be prizes of €5,000, €2,500, €1,500 and six €1,000 on the day.

Tickets for Furies Big Drop are on sale now from <https://pallaslotteries.ie/furiesbigdrop> at €50 per ticket. Check in quick before you miss the flight!!

There was an air of shock and sadness when word filtered through on Wednesday last that Fr. Florian Farrelly lost his life in a traffic accident in Newcastlewest on his way to Killarney.

The 87 year old was travelling from Donegal when the accident happened.

Fr. Florian was a hugely popular member of the Franciscan Friary when he was based here during the 1980's and spent a lot of his time at the Friary, who were expecting him on the evening of his accident.

Speaking to the Killarney Outlook, Br. Pat from the Friary in Killarney said that it was with great sadness they received the news that our brother Florian Farrelly was tragically killed in a car accident on the N21 road at Ballingowan, Newcastle west on Wednesday 7th September. He was 87 years old and a member of the Rossnowlagh fraternity. May his good and generous soul rest in the peace of Christ.

John Farrelly was from Sutton, Co Dublin. He joined the friars in 1953 and received the religious name, Florian. He celebrated his Franciscan Profession the following year. After studies in Galway and Rome he was ordained to the priesthood in Rome in 1961. His younger brother Paschal (Michael) also joined the Franciscans and predeceased him in 2000.

During his long and fruitful ministry Florian lived in many of our friaries in Ireland beginning with Waterford. He spent an extended period in Drogheda friary where he was guardian. He was also appointed guardian here in our Friary in Killarney for 6 years up till 1990 also served in Drogheda and Multyfarnham Co Westmeath before retiring to Rossnowlagh in Co Donegal.

"Florian's kindness, his attentive listening and gentle presence were a blessing in the lives of the many people he came in contact with over his decades of Gospel service.

We pray the Lord's faithful servant may be received into eternal joy and that Christ may comfort his grieving family members and Franciscan brethren.

He was really looking forward to spending time with us in the Friary in Killarney and with his very good friends in the area. We had his room ready here waiting for him to arrive when we got the sad news." He was on his way to the "Kingdom of Kerry" but our Lord called him to the Kingdom of Heaven instead", said Br Pat o.f.m. Guardian Killarney, told Killarney Outlook.

The Funeral Mass for Fr. Florian took place on Tuesday the 13th of September at the Multyfarnham Friary in Westmeath.

Fr. Florian will be sadly missed by those who knew him, his sudden death is a huge loss to his devastated sister Mary, his nephews Gerard and Denis (Debbie), his niece Maeve (Mark), grandnephews and grandnieces and all his extended family and to the Franciscan community in Ireland and all those who know and loved him.

GRADES ADJUSTMENT KEEPS POINTS VERY COMPETITIVE AS A RECORD 57,296 APPLICANTS RECEIVE A COLLEGE OFFER IN ROUND ONE

By Billy Ryle

KERRY JOY

1,902 traditional Leaving Cert candidates swept up a copious supply of college courses when CAO Round One offers were released last Thursday. There was joy unconfined as a large majority of Kerry's CAO applicants received a college offer. Acceptance of the offer, of course, is predicated on a student's ability to finance the course and to secure accommodation in difficult times. Any student who is forced to defer or refuse a higher education course due to lack of finance and/or accommodation will be absolutely devastated.

HIGH POINTS

The 2022 Leaving Cert grades were kept at the highly inflated grades levels of 2021. Consequently, points requirements for many courses remain very high for the third consecutive year. Since the last standard Leaving Cert exam in 2019, there has been an overall average grades inflation of 8.5%. More significantly, the percentage of high grades awarded has substantially risen since 2019. The consequence has been that many CAO applicants needed a much higher points score this year to secure a course that was offered at reasonable points in 2019.

BLUE RIBAND DEMAND

1,056 extra college places were offered this year in order to stabilise the points. However, because of the keen competition for the blue riband courses, the points for places on these in-demand college courses remained at last year's dizzy heights. A final CAO application figure of 84,420, meant keen competition across many courses. 2,505 applicants applied to CAO from County Kerry. That's a 3% increase on the 2021 figure of 2,424.

POINTS PROFILE

The overall points profile is similar to last year. Points have increased again for some of the hotly contested courses, while many courses were offered on points level that are fairly similar to last year. Primary teaching and nursing have shown a slight easing in points requirements this year, but are still very high. While the majority of the 48,651 applicants to the CAO from the 2022

Leaving Cert class, along with the 2020 and 2021 Leaving Cert classes, had the points to meet the course requirements, it left many candidates who presented previous years' Leaving Cert results struggling to secure a college place.

INCREASED OFFERS

57,296 CAO applicants received at least one of the 85,894 courses on offer on Thursday afternoon. The offers consisted of 51,807 at Level 8 and 34,087 at Level 7/Level 6. Offers are issued independently in respect of the two lists (Level 8 and Level 7/Level 6), so that 28,598 applicants received two offers, one from each list.

GOOD NEWS

The collective good news is that of the 51,807 applicants who were offered a Level 8 course 27,947 (54%), received their first preference and a very impressive 42,268 (82%) received one of their top three preferences. Of the 34,087 applicants who were offered a Level 7/Level 6 course, 30,354 (89%) received their first preference and a whopping 33,559 (98%) received one of their top three preferences. So, despite the high points, the 2022 Class has delivered the goods.

JOBS MATTER

The overriding conclusion from the points' trends is that CAO applicants were totally focussed on the jobs market. They applied in large numbers for courses with strong employment growth. UCC's flagship Biological and Chemical Sciences degree again hit the heady heights of 553 points, while its Engineering degree has jumped from 499 points to 510. Physiotherapy at the University of Limerick came in at 601* points again this year. Primary Teaching at Mary Immaculate College Limerick is down from 522 points to 509 and MTU Tralee's excellent General Nursing Degree dropped from 463 points to 433. Health Science courses remain very popular putting them beyond the points' totals of most CAO applicants. Dentistry at UCC, for example, requires a staggering 625* points again this year – a perfect Leaving Cert exam result!

HEALTHY DEVELOPMENT

School leavers continue to rush to college in unprecedented numbers. The steady flow also of mature and non-traditional applications is a very healthy development as everybody deserves a second chance. A quota of places was reserved by CAO for the 7,631 mature applicants and the 10,589 applicants from the PLC sector.

- 84,420 CAO applications in 2022; down slightly from 84,847 in 2021

Fifth year students from St. Brigid's enjoy a cultural and linguistic tour in Madrid

A group of fifty-four students and five teachers from St. Brigid's enjoyed four wonderful days in the Spanish capital Madrid. As students of Senior Cycle Spanish, the students enjoyed a cultural and linguistic journey helping them to appreciate the language further.

Students enjoyed a large range of activities, visiting world renowned art galleries, the Roman city of Segovia with its iconic aqueduct, the largest Renaissance building in the world at El Escorial along with a guided bus tour of key monuments in the city.

There was lots of time for fun also and the students spent a day at Warner Brothers Theme Park enjoying the many roller coasters and attractions. Students visited the home of Real Madrid in the Santiago Bernabeu stadium, home this year to the UEFA Champions League trophy.

It was a wonderful experience, educational and enjoyable for all. Students developed a greater appreciation for Spanish culture and improved their language skills

FOUR-IN-A-ROW HERO STEPS DOWN

Four-in-a-row double winning manager Brian Spillane (left) with club chairman and interim manager Tim Jones (right) and A team captain John McDonagh and some of the silverware won by Celtic

The man who masterminded Killarney Celtic FC's unprecedented four-in-a-row league and cup success has stepped down as A team manager – but he hasn't ruled out a return at a future date.

The tactically astute Brian Spillane was at the helm for Celtic's record run which saw them romp to four Premier League crowns and four Greyhound Bar Cup successes in the past four seasons.

In the process, Spillane has copper-fastened his place as one of the best managers Kerry soccer has seen and, very importantly, he had his teams playing a very attractive brand of attacking football which made them very easy on the eye and popular with supporters.

Spillane has informed club officials that he is stepping aside to focus on other projects but he will be available going forward in an advisory capacity for coaching activities and other team-related matters.

In the meantime, Celtic FC Chairman Tim Jones has stepped in as interim A team manager and he will put the experience and knowledge he gained from working alongside Brian Spillane to good use.

A longer-term appointment will be made in due course when Celtic officials have time to weigh up all the available options.

"The club would like to thank Brian for his incredible contribution. He has been a magnificent manager and his commitment and drive had to be seen to be believed," Tim Jones said.

"We would also like to thank his family and all his friends who were alongside him all the way on his incredible journey with Celtic," he added.

Therapy Dogs bring a smile to Students faces

Killarney Community College Students had a surprise visit from 7 adorable therapy pups when they visited the school last Friday.

These pups will be trained and go onto homes/schools where they will provide great comfort and care to those who need it. Local woman Deirdre Prendergast is the owner and breeder of these special dogs.

Guidance counsellor Niamh Mulligan was delighted to welcome the puppies into the school "the pups created a huge buzz of excitement in the school. They brought immediate smiles to all faces including the teachers. It's an amazing initiative and research shows how what a positive effect they can have on young people's well being thanks to the dogs specialised training."

IN-PERSON & ONLINE EVENTS

KERRY MENTAL HEALTH & WELLBEING FEST

“My Mental Health Matters”

“MY Mental Health Matters” is the theme for the 2022 Kerry Mental Health and Wellbeing Fest which will feature a wide range of in-person and online activities to suit all ages from 8th to 15th October.

The key focus of the #KerryMHWFest, which is celebrating five years, is to promote mental health and wellbeing in Kerry through a fun and interactive programme of events throughout the county.

Well known Irish sports and entertainment personalities have joined many local voices – young and old – to share a video message outlining how their mental health matters to them.

Boyzone singer and actor, Keith Duffy, said: “Whether I’m on tour, chilling in my dressing room, or if I’m doing my grocery shopping in the supermarket, my mental health matters.”

Magician Keith Barry, Kerry Paralympian Jordan Lee, Otto the Clown from Fosse’s Circus, All-Ireland winning captain, Sean O’Shea and many other Kerry people, have also shared similar mental health messages.

Organised by an interagency steering group, the Kerry Mental Health and Wellbeing Fest is held annually to highlight World Mental Health Day on 10th October.

The Kerry Mental Health and Wellbeing Fest aims to create awareness of, and schedule events that empower people to engage with, the Five Ways to Wellbeing – Connect | Give | Take Notice | Keep Learning | Be Active.

There’s still time for sports clubs, organisations, workplace or community groups to host an event on the new website:

www.KerryMentalHealthAndWellbeingFest.com.

All events are FREE, registration is essential and can be done by visiting the website or following #KerryMHWFest on social media.

The organising committee is a collaboration between Connecting for Life Kerry, Healthy Kerry, Kerry County Council, Kerry Recreation & Sports Partnership, the HSE, NEWKD, SKDP, Kerry Mental Health Association, Jigsaw Kerry, Munster Technological University/Kerry, KDYS, and Kerry Volunteer Centre.

Our future, Our Way

BIGGEST-EVER NATIONAL WOMEN’S ENTERPRISE DAY TAKING PLACE IN ON OCTOBER 13TH

Female entrepreneurs and budding businesswomen from across the Local Enterprise Office Kerry & Cork catchment area are being encouraged to look to the future and register for this year’s National Women’s Enterprise Day after the line-up for the event was announced.

The Local Enterprise Office (LEO) initiative, now in its 16th year, National Women’s Enterprise Day celebrates female entrepreneurs’ success and inspires female start-ups. We want to help build “Our Future, Our Way” so come and join us on 13th October 2022. 16 major entrepreneurial events are planned across the country, including a lead event on in Killarney hosted by Kerry County Council Local Enterprise Office. This initiative is led by the 31 Local Enterprise Offices nationwide, and funded by the Government of Ireland, in partnership with Enterprise Ireland and Local Authorities.

On October 13th, the event for Kerry & Cork female entrepreneurs is taking place at the Brehon Hotel, Killarney. The event will kick off with a welcome address by Moira Murrell, Chief Executive of Kerry County Council followed by a network event facilitated by Marie Wiseman, Wiser Marketing allowing attendees to meet with other female entrepreneurs present. The keynote speaker will be Sonya Lennon, designer, broadcaster, social entrepreneur, and successful businesswoman. It will also include an interactive panel discussion of Kerry & Cork Leading lights hosted by MC Elaine Kinsella, Radio Kerry presenter and RTE Broadcaster. This event will also include an Afternoon Tea style networking lunch. Kerry County Council Local Enterprise Office’s Leading Light for the event is Emily Brick of Athena Analytics. Emily Brick founded

Athena Analytics after returning to Ireland from Australia where she worked as a Senior Data Scientist for the Department of Education. Although Emily has a strong passion for the role of machine learning in solving data problems, simplifying reporting, informing decision making; she also understands how machine learning and web-based software combined can be powerful in solving practical & logistical problems for end users in a timely and simple fashion. In late 2017, she saw an opportunity in the education market in Ireland for such a tool and so began Athena Analytics, an edtech company based in Tralee, Co. Kerry. The Athena Tracker is currently used in over half of Ireland’s secondary schools and in a growing number of schools in both the UK and South Africa www.athena.ie

MONEY MATTERS.....

By Dermot Cronin,
Financial Advisor

WHEN CAN YOU ACCESS YOUR PENSION & WHAT ARE YOUR OPTIONS WHEN YOU WANT TO RETIRE?

You can normally get access to your pension from age 60, a lot of the rules depend on whether you are an employee or self employed. If you are coming close to retirement then you are probably wondering what options you have when you want to get access to your pension. It depends on what type of pension you have but generally there are four options:

Tax Free Cash: Most people will be entitled to a tax free lump sum, the amount varies however generally you will get at least 25% of the value of your pension in a tax free cash lump sum.

Taxable Cash: You may also be able to take sum of your pension in taxable cash.

Annual Pension: This is a guaranteed income usually paid monthly for the rest of your life that is purchased with the money left after your tax free lump sum, this is subject to taxation.

Approved Retirement Funds: You may be entitled to keep some of your money in an approved retirement fund, money can be taken from the fund to give you a regular income, usually monthly. This is subject to taxation also. Taxation at retirement is often much lower than when you are working. It is extremely important that you take your time and have all the options explained to you in plain simple English and that you understand all your options clearly before you make your final decision. As well as the above there is much more to be discussed about your pension. You should discuss your retirement options with a financial advisor who has access to a number of different pension providers before making any decisions, he or she will help you with the above options and any other queries you may have.

To discuss the above or any other matter Dermot Cronin QFA can be contacted at 0646622775 or dermotcroninifa@gmail.com

➤ MINOR B CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP SPA 3-16 MOYVANE 0-9

Spa welcomed Moyvane on Saturday afternoon in this year's Minor B Club Championship semi-final and got off to a good start with 1-2 on the board within minutes, points from Timmy Moynihan and Oran Daly, and Luke O'Neill with the first Spa goal. Moyvane replied with 3 quick points before Timmy Moynihan added two more for Spa. At the end of the first quarter, Spa were 1-4 to 0-3 in front. Oran Daly, Luke Doolan and Timmy Moynihan kicked three more points before the break and at half time Spa were leading by 1-7 to 0-5.

Luke O'Neill pointed shortly after the restart before Oran O'Neill netted the second Spa goal. Timmy Moynihan, Oran O'Neill (2) and Shane O'Sullivan extended that lead to 2-12 to 0-5 as the final quarter began. Both sides had a player sent to the sin bin for a 10-minute spell in this half but with points from Luke Doolan (2), Timmy Moynihan and Oran O'Neill, and a late goal from Luke O'Neill, the game ended Spa 3-16 to Moyvane 0-9. Spa play Listowel Emmets in the Minor B Club Championship Final next weekend. Wishing all our injured players a speedy recovery.

➤ COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP RD1 SPA 1-6 DINGLE 4-10

They say goals win games and that was certainly the case in Killorglin on Sunday afternoon as Spa and Dingle met in Rd1 of this year's Co. Championship. Having already met in Rd1 of the Club Championship last month, the sides knew what battle lay ahead.

Paul Geaney tapped over a free in the early minutes and Evan Cronin replied with a lovely long range shot to make it 0-1 apiece after five minutes. Both teams had some good scoring opportunities in the opening quarter but frustratingly, every shot they took landed left or right of the posts. It was on the quarter hour mark before Mike Foley kicked the next point and the Spa goal came two minutes later, a free for David Spillane and as the Dingle crew protested, David took the free quickly and lobbed the keeper to give Spa a 1-2 to 0-1 lead.

Dingle were quick to respond however, Tom O'Sullivan (2f) and Dylan Geaney (2) levelling the game before Shane Cronin punched over the bar to give Spa the lead for the final time in the game. Geaney hit another point before he was brought down in the square on his next attack, Mikey Geaney converting from the penalty spot right before the half time whistle. At the break, Dingle had gone in front Spa 1-3 to Dingle 1-6.

Barra Ó Súilleabháin scored right from the restart before Paul Geaney's free tipped the inside of the post to extend that lead. Mike Foley and Mikey Geaney swapped scores and momentum swung in Spa's direction for a short while as Evan Cronin and Gary Vaughan pointed to reduce the gap to just three points - Spa now trailing 1-6 to 1-9 after forty minutes. Dingle swiftly replied however and Paul Geaney goaled in the 43rd minute. He then he set up the third goal in the 51st minute, a sideline ball dropped in towards the goalmouth and Mikey Geaney jumping to knock it into the back of the Spa net. Goal number four came from Niall Geaney in the 62nd minute and a final point from Dylan Geaney closed out the scoring at Spa 1-6 to Dingle 4-10.

Next weekend Spa play East Kerry in Rd2 followed by Kerins O'Rahillys the weekend after. Wishing our injured players a speedy recovery.

➤ MCELLIGOTT CUP SHIELD SEMIFINAL

Spa played John Mitchels on Friday evening in the semi-final of the McElligott Cup Junior Championship Shield with the visitors winning out on the night on a score of Spa 2-12 John Mitchels 0-22.

➤ U13 BOYS EAST KERRY DIVISION 2

Our U13's made the short trip to Dr. Crokes last week for the final round of the East Kerry league and they served up a cracker. The night started on a somber note and both sets of players and management teams impeccably observed a minute's silence for the late Patsy Cremin which started and finished on referee Eddie Walsh's whistle.

This spells the end of the year for the U13's, a year that was filled with excellent football and excitement for the years to come. The coaches, Sean, Eoin, Tom, John, Conor and Denis thoroughly enjoyed the year and future looks bright for this group. Thanks to Crokes for a very sporting game and to all the parents and family for supporting the group throughout the year. FT Spa 2-11 Dr. Crokes 2-10

MAKE IT A SEPTEMBER TO REMEMBER

As the seasons change, we are invited to let go of the heat of Summer and move into the cooler air of Autumn. As children go back to school and winter is on the horizon, we can use this time of year as a reflective space. It is so vital to spend some quiet time resting and drawing in your energy... even if it's only for a short while.

3 beautiful ways to replenish yourself this September

- Begin to stock up for Autumn. Make sure you have candles, warm rugs, good books to read, journals to capture your thoughts, food that comforts and truly nourishes you. Focus on self-care and recharging your energy.
- Write down all the things you wanted to do in the summer but never got around to. Put the list in an envelope and put it in next year's calendar, to be opened on the first day of June. Block in some time to do these things when summer returns.
- Linger in the evening light. Watch the sun go down and bid summer a fond adieu. Breathe in the Autumnal air and take time to notice the colours as they change on the leaves and in the hedgerows. It's the little things that make the biggest difference to our mental, physical and emotional health and wellbeing.

WHAT Women WANT

answers your beauty questions...

Is your neck showing your age?

This 92-year-old woman had been applying sunscreen to her face daily for over 40 years but did not apply it on her neck. Her neck is now visibly older looking from sun damage with thicker, wrinkled, discoloured skin.

To prevent this happening to you apply your SPF daily to all exposed areas your face, neck and hands. Then reapply every 2 hours when outside. If you are prone to "Red Neck" in the sun you can wear a neck gaiter with SPF 50 built in. Specific neck creams can stimulate more collagen and elastin production here to prevent aging but if your skin regime contains active ingredients like retinol and lactic acid this will work. The skin on your neck is more sensitive and thinner than your face so begin with a lower concentration of active ingredients here to prevent a reaction. Use gentle upwards strokes when applying creams to your neck. Start treating your neck like an extension of your face using your cleansers, serums, moisturiser and masks on your neck too.

- Does not have a plan for success and gets stalled along the way.
- Does not know what to spend time on to achieve success.
- Staying stagnant in their pursuit of success.

WHAT IS A CATARACT?

A cataract happens when the lens within your eye becomes cloudy. It can happen to all of the lens or just part of it. There are different types of cataract, but the most common is age-related cataract, which is more common in people over 65. It can be found to some degree in almost all older people.

Risk factors

Age is the biggest risk factor for developing cataracts. Apart from age, smoking increases the risk of cataracts and often causes the cataract to develop earlier and more quickly. Excessive exposure to sunlight and ultraviolet light can increase the speed at which cataracts develop. In some cases, people are born with cataracts.

Symptoms

Cataracts can cause your vision to become cloudy and less clear. You may notice that you're more easily dazzled by vehicle headlights, or that objects appear less colourful. Cataracts don't cause eye pain or make your eyes red

TREATMENT

At first following a sight test we may be able to prescribe new glasses that will help with changes to your vision caused by the cataract. When this no longer helps you to see well enough, the only effective treatment is surgery. Surgery is usually only recommended once the cataract is causing problems with everyday activities, such as driving, watching television and reading. Cataract surgery improves the vision of nearly all patients and has one of the highest success rates of all surgery. If you experience blurred or cloudy vision you should have a sight test.

>MOLYNEAUX CUP

A six point win over neighbours Rathmore last Friday puts our B Team into the final this weekend against Dr. Crokes B, Best wishes to our lads and management. Please come out and support.

>SENIOR COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP

Well done to East Kerry especially Glenflesk players Daniel O'Brien, Chris O'Donoghue, Patrick Darcy, Marc Kelliher, Killian O'Sullivan, Darragh Roche and Mentor Seamus Moynihan winning the first round of the County Championship in Tralee last Saturday. Our players all putting in great performances on the night.

>KEANES SUPERVALU COUNTY MINOR FOOTBALL CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP SHIELD SEMI FINAL

Ballymacgelligott 1 - 13 Glenflesk 3 - 13

At half time on Saturday in Ballymacgelligott, the home side looked like they were in control of proceedings. Admittedly, they only held a two point lead, but they had scored the last three points of the half each accompanied by a bigger roar of approval. Glenflesk though, had other ideas, with a lightning fast start to the second half setting up the eventual victory.

The match had started at a hectic pace, with Glenflesk having a couple of early goal chances, before Pearce Moynihan scooped the ball up one hand, and fired over the opening score. Two quick points, and a goal, from Ballymac helped them settle, with their accurate kickout's setting up their attacks. Glenflesk responded with three quick points from Callum Cronin, and then Cronin buried a penalty after Moynihan was fouled. Darragh O'Connell then kicked a brilliant point from a tight angle, but Ballymac got the last three points of the half to take a two point lead at the half time whistle, with only a great goal line clearance from Iggy O'Leary denying them another goal.

Glenflesk came out for the restart completely reinvigorated. A quickly taken free from Cronin, and a quick exchange of passes with Moynihan, allowed him to round the goalie and find the net. Then a brilliant move involving James Kelly, Jamie and Pearce Moynihan, ended with O'Connell blasting an unstoppable shot to the net. A great interception from Gearoid Healy ended with Cronin getting another fine score. Ballymac recovered a small bit, with a three point run of their own, but Glenflesk blocked up the middle denying the home side goal chances, and two late Cronin frees secured the victory.

A final now awaits against Ballyduff next weekend. After last Saturday's heartbreaking defeat, this was a great response, especially the super start to the second half, which killed all Ballymac's enthusiasm. A great team performance, and something similar will be required next week.

Report by Michael Healy.

Best wishes to the team and management in the final this weekend.

WIN AND DRAW IN 12'S GIRLS PREMIER

Inter Kenmare made the trip to MEK Galaxy in the 12's Girls Premier a winning one. Their goals came from Robyn Horgan and Niamh Healy with Elise Brummer replying for the home side.

The battle of the Celtic's saw Killarney and Listowel draw 2-2.

At Celtic Park Killarney the home side took the lead through Leah Mannix.

Lily O'Flynn equalised for Listowel Celtic before Elisa Mosca put the home side ahead again.

However an Isobel Larkin strike saw the visitors equalise for a second time and the points were shared.

5 GOAL THRILLER IN THE 14'S GIRLS

Christy Leahy Park is never an easy place to win and Killarney Celtic 14's girls just managed to do this as they defeated the home side 3-2. Nessa Kirby and Taylor Kate Leane scored for St Brendan's Park but goals from Jessica Leggate, Sadbh O'Halloran and Ameila Carroll Kelly gave the visitors all three points.

HOME WINS IN THE 16'S GIRLS

A Roisin Fogarty goal was enough to give LB Rovers the points in their home win over St Brendan's Park.

Killarney Celtic had goals from Abbey Cronin, who hit a debut hat-trick, and one each from Aine O'Sullivan, Eve Cullhane, Amber McIndoe and Katie Foster in their win over MEK Galaxy.

BOYS LEAGUES

MID-WEEK AND WEEKEND ACTION IN THE 12'S BOYS PREMIER

Conor Ryan put Tralee Dynamos ahead away to Killorglin before the home side hit two goals to take the lead. Danny Fitzpatrick and Noah Russell got their goals.

Eddie Carmody then equalised from the penalty spot for Tralee Dynamos to give them a share of the points.

On Saturday two goals each from Nathan Anthony and Eoin O'Driscoll and one from Dylan McEvoy gave St Brendan's Park a home win over Listowel Celtic. Celtic had Mason Sheehy and Liam Dennehy on the score-sheet.

Action begins in mid-week in 13's Boys Premier: Calvin O'Sullivan continued his good run of form that saw him pick up the Player of the Tournament at the Galway Cup and get called up to Irish assessments by hitting four goals for St Brendan's Park in the win at home to Fenit Samphires. Daithi Nolan and Eoin Tansley were the other Park scorers.

Mastergeeha made the trip to Tralee a winning one as they defeated Dynamos thanks to two goals from Darragh Keane and Alan O'Leary and one from Conor Lynch. Danny Lane, Eddie Carmody and Cian Fitzgerald replied for the home side.

In Georgie O'Callaghan Park Killarney Celtic went 2-0 up thanks to goals from Marco Mosca and Lachlann Scannell before Castleisland FC pulled one back. Pa McCarthy put Celtic 3-1 up before the break.

However the second half was all Castleisland and they hit 4 unanswered goals to take the win. Their scorers were Ronan O'Connor 3, Joey Kelly and Daniel Collins.

Two goals from Pa McCarthy and one each from Nickota and Kiernan Kelly gave Killarney Celtic a home win over Tralee Dynamos whose reply came from Eddie Carmody.

Killorglin and Castleisland shared the points following a 0-0 draw.

HOME AND AWAY WIN IN 14'S BOYS PREMIER

Johnny Neilings hit a first half hat-trick for Tralee Dynamos with Samuel Scroope replying for Killarney Celtic. There were no further goals in the second half so Dynamos kept the points at home.

MEK Galaxy made the trip to Georgie O'Callaghan Park a winning one thanks to goals from Killian Fitzgerald, Killian O'Donoghue, Danny Murphy 2 and Leo Allen. Jacob Surzyn, Byron Culhane and Tadgh McCarthy replied for Castleisland.

MUCKCROSS ROWING CLUB

IRISH OFFSHORE ROWING CHAMPIONSHIPS

Congratulations to Finn O'Sullivan, who made club history last weekend as the first winner of an Irish Offshore Rowing Championship title for Muckcross RC. Finn represented the club at the Irish Offshore Rowing Championships Regatta held on the east coast in Wicklow. In the Mens Open Quad, Finn raced as part of a composite crew along with Kealan Mannix (Rosscarbery RC), Luke Sutton (UL RC), Tokyo Olympian Ronan Byrne (UCC RC) and cox David Hussey (Portmagee RC). In testing conditions, the crew dominated the 4 kilometre race with a winning margin of more than 25 seconds. Finn also raced in the Mens Single event, qualifying for the final from his heat and placing 12th overall. Well done to Finn for flying the flag so well for MRC and bringing home well earned silverware. Unfortunately the changes made on Thursday evening to the weekend's racing schedule meant our remaining crews were unable to travel to Wicklow as originally planned. The club was also due to compete in the Mens Double and Junior Quad events with a second crew also entered in the Mens Open Quad. Well done to our crews who put in a great effort in their training leading up to the Championship weekend. The event also brought the curtain down on the club's rowing year for 2021/22. Another successful year for the club in both flatwater and offshore rowing. The new season is already upon us and we are looking forward to all that is to come during 2022/23

GROUP ONE

Kenmare Shamrocks 0-17

Shannon Rangers 1-10

It was an open secret that Shannon Rangers were struggling a bit for numbers. Everyone, including myself, thought that this one was going to be a foregone conclusion. We were wrong, and I'm delighted for it. Shannon Rangers put up a great battle here and proved that there's no lack of heart in North Kerry football. Kenmare led by 0-7 to 0-3 at the break, having just scored two from play in total (Shannon Rangers hadn't scored from play at all). Shannon Rangers opened the second half with a Cillian Langan penalty before he got their first point from play. Cat among the pigeons now! At the end of the third quarter, Shannon Rangers were in front – and deserved it. Kenmare's response says something about them, though, and is a reminder why Stephen O'Brien and Seán O'Shea are nominated for All Stars. O'Brien really took the game by the scruff of the neck – we all know how hard he is to stop in possession with his speed and low-gravity zig-zags, but I'd forgotten just how accurate he is. I hadn't forgotten Sean's famous free against Dublin (will we ever forget it? Let's hope not) but they were plenty of reminders of that too as he closed the game out with dead ball accuracy. Shannon Rangers will and should be very proud of their defiance of the odds and their proof of character. Kenmare took a while to answer the hard questions, but a good test will stand to them down the road as well.

Dr. Crokes 2-14 St. Kierans 0-14

I saw St. Kierans as having a real rattle at the latter stages and, despite the lack of preparation time, I expected this to be a ferocious test of Dr. Crokes' credentials. It was, too, but they passed with flying colours. The most recent Kerry kingpins – second only to the great Mitchels' team of the early sixties and arguably the Tralee Mitchels outfit that became Stacks, Rahillys, and Mitchels, sent out a real message here. Take the likes of Gavin White and Micheal Burns (who has been playing fabulous stuff recently)....I thought that a physically strong

St. Kierans' side might be a bridge too far. The thing is, Crokes have a few young players who might not be able to walk on water just yet, but they are plenty comfortable swimming! I still remember the young lad thrown in at corner forward away back in 2000 as they won the County Championship, I was worried the crathur of a child would get hurt. It turned out that Mike Cooper's youngest lad had an inkling about football! Fionn Fitzgerald, Brian Looney, and Mark O'Shea led the way as Crokes opened up a 0-9 to 0-3 lead. Philip O'Connor and Paul Walsh trimmed that by the break, but on the restart the likes of Mark Fitzgerald, Mark Cooper, Neil O'Shea, Micheal Potts, and David Shaw lifted the gears and a beautiful team move saw Sem star Cian McMahon drill a great goal – he's making a bit of a habit of that. Kieran O'Leary, who made a habit of it over all those years of success, reminded everyone that he's as dangerous as ever with a second goal. This was no bad display by St. Kierans at all – but Crokes sent out a very big message here.

GROUP TWO

East Kerry 2-20 Kerins O'Rahillys 1-11

No alarms and no surprises here. Both sides were missing big guns. The absence of David Clifford and Darragh Roche would be a crippling blow for most teams – East Kerry simply switched Shane Ryan as a very effective target man up front. You had a lot of big names on the field. Ten of East Kerry's starting fifteen have worn Kerry senior jerseys. That's without the younger Clifford brother – Paudie played a creative link role, and he's probably the best in the country at that role. The star of the show hasn't – yet – but he is rapidly growing into one. Most people flagged Ruairi Murphy as one to watch after his superb displays for the Kerry U20s and Listry this year. He's tough, direct, and very accurate – he picked off 1-5 on the burst. Rahillys were missing Jack Savage, Tommy Walsh, and the under-rated Con Barrett, but let's be honest; it wouldn't have made that much of a difference. They gave it everything; nobody could fault them. The returned Cormac Coffey and sharpshooter Conor Hayes were outstanding. Hard to judge individual East Kerry players, given their overall superiority. That was some peach of a goal by James O'Donoghue, absolutely sublime. But the truth is that this was a one-sided contest and spectators were drifting away well before the finish. No fault to either team, but it lacked the excitement you'd be hoping for.

Dingle 4-10 Spa 1-6

In fairness, Spa were missing Dara Moynihan, Cian Murphy, the McCarthy brothers Mike and Niall, Shane Lynch, and Eoin Fitzgerald from their starting team. But they'll be disappointed with their display here – after all, Dingle were missing Tom Leo O'Sullivan and Conor Geaney, and that's a fair pair of aces too. Spa actually led by 1-2 to 0-1 after ten minutes, the goal a very quick and clever executed mark by David Spillane. But Dingle were that bit sharper and hungrier in the trenches – Mikey Geaney had a huge influence and the likes of Barry Dan O'Sullivan, after an early injury scare, were trojan and effective workers. The long ball option into Paul Geaney was always a viable one, and he won a penalty clinically despatched by Mikey to put them 1-6 to 1-3 ahead at the break. They clipped over two more points at the start of the second half and Spa were always chasing after that. They got it back to a goal, but then Paul Geaney latched onto another long one and finished from close range, with Billy O'Connor and Niall Gaeney adding two more goals. Liam Kearney and Shane Cronin played their hearts out for Spa, but the truth is that Dingle looked much the sharper side here.

GROUP THREE

Austin Stacks 0-14 Na Gaeil 1-8

I actually think that Na Gaeil will be happy enough with their display here. Your senior championship debut against the reigning champions. A derby game, but you couldn't say that there's been a strong local rivalry. Austin Stacks already had nine county titles in the bag and were the reigning All Ireland champions when the idea of Na Gaeil was first mooted back in 1978. I have to say that the phenomenal rise of Na Gaeil over the past decade has been genuinely phenomenal, and the graph shows a clear and steady upward curve all the way from the underage academies – it's uncanny. A lot of unsung heroes very clearly put hard graft in on the ground – in case anybody's wondering, by the way, Austin Stacks' underage academies have a rich and continuing record themselves – take a look at the Tralee District 6 team who won the U15 Championship or their minor team who took North Kerry to extra-time and are in the Club Final. Na Gaeil gave them a fierce rattle here and were a match in open play. Their problem was scoring forwards. Jack Sheehan scored a stunning goal after a great fetch – he could have taken a mark and didn't, going for goal instead. I like it – the forward mark robs the game of a lot of both defensive and offensive skill for me. The problem is that the goal was Na Gaeil's only score from a forward. Diarmuid O'Connor was phenomenal and he kicked six points from frees. Stacks got nine points from play from their starting forwards and always had the scores in the bank, so much so that Kieran Donaghy, who came on as a replacement for the back carded Ben Quilter (look, I understand the idea of a keeper supplementing the defensive to provide an extra option in both soccer and football – I still think it's an unnecessary risk) actually slotted in at the back. The problem for Stacks – and it's a big problem – is losing both Joe O'Connor and Jack O'Shea to injury. The tight playing schedule is only going to get harder.

Mid Kerry 1-14 West Kerry 1-10

It's no secret that I rate Mid Kerry, and they passed a very good test of their credentials here. In fact, a very good test, because they had to re-jig the ship in the face of a seven point deficit and did so successfully. West Kerry looked the more assured side at the start, Cian O'Grady slotting a rebound to the net early on. Mid Kerry picked their way through a tight defence for three points, two frees, but with Roibeard Ó Sé the dominant figure at midfield, West Kerry slotted five points on the trot. Mid Kerry finished the half strongly though. Darren Houlihan scored a beauty from long distance and Kieran Dennehy, who has been immense for Beaufort en route to an Intermediate semi-final, scored a crackling goal. That cut the gap to 1-9 to 1-5, and Mid Kerry had the strong wind in the second half. They also had Colin McGillicuddy and Seán Coffey. McGillicuddy transformed midfield and Mid Kerry were able to open the channels thereafter. They still needed brilliance from their keeper, though – Coffey made two phenomenal saves, really superb, and he rose high to claim two balls going over a bar as well. That's an eight point swing in any language. West Kerry will be disappointed with the result, of course, but I don't think they will be unhappy with their display, they will be a strong test for anybody. Mid Kerry had to dig deep to win it, but they had good shovels for the task.

GROUP FOUR

Feale Rangers 0-15 St. Brendans 0-13

This one came as a surprise to me, to be honest. I know that St. Brendans were missing eight players – six Na Gaeil lads including an inter-county midfielder – from last year's team, but I felt that there was enough strength in depth to get past Feale Rangers. It's no secret that North Kerry football has been struggling for over a decade now – Feale Rangers' defeat of South Kerry in 2007 has to go down as one of the great shocks in the history of the competition. This one wasn't comparable, but I don't think I saw a single prediction last week that Feale Rangers would win. I and many others forgot that the one great virtue of North Kerry football is dogged durability, and Feale Rangers typified that. And there's quality there – Martin Stack was phenomenal; he really was. That's the best player in this year's first round after a stunning eleven point display. He wasn't alone, though – Bryan Sweeney and Barry Mahony gave them a brilliant platform at midfield and Cillian Trant was always at the heart of the action. St. Brendans had plenty of battlers – Joe Lenihan excelled and Rob Monaghan didn't hurt his growing reputation – but no executioner. They were actually a point ahead midway through the first half, but had left a fair bit behind them. Feale Rangers led by three at half-time, maybe a fraction flattering. A bright opening to the second half saw them cut it back to one point.... and then the scores just completely dried up for them, while Stack was nailing every chance that came his way. Brendans actually finished very strong with the last four points – and Fionán Mackessy with half a goal chance – but those scoring dry spells ultimately cost them. I still don't really see Feale Rangers as overall contenders, but this one answers all critics and they'll have a lift in their step from here on.

Templenoe 1-11 South Kerry 0-14

Templenoe are everyone's favourite Kerry story of recent years. A small but resilient catchment area has produced talent in abundance, and when you look at the likes of Aidan Crowley, the production lines haven't stopped yet. But think about South Kerry for a minute. They didn't win any County Championship at all until 1955 and had few enough county players (I suspect that the urban centres of Tralee and Killarney were easier to observe logistically). But as travel became easier with the increase in car ownership, South Kerry rose, and just kept rising. They haven't been great in recent years in terms of the top table, but they remind me of Meath in the late eighties. They were physically tough – never as dirty as legend has it, not even close – but their greatest strength was that they just refused to be beaten. You could be five points up with two minutes left to play against Meath – it'd be a very long two minutes. The first half here was tight – 0-5 apiece at the break was a fair reflection. Around the three quarter mark Templenoe had nudged just a point ahead, but then a perfect long ball from Gavin Crowley (he's been doing that superbly in recent games; it's a deadly weapon), Killian Spillane off-loaded to Brian Crowley, and Crowley has always been more of a predator than a defender. The excellent Spillane and Morley put six points between them. Templenoe lost both midfielders to injury, though, and South Kerry showed their resilience, Graham O'Sullivan and Dylan O'Donoghue leading the way. Five points on the trot. Aidan Crowley nailed a '45, but South Kerry responded. In injury time, they picked off an equaliser, and I don't think anyone would say that it was undeserved.

BRENDAN HENNESSY RIP

I've not hidden my love of Kerry hurling, nor am I going to. Kerry are a much better hurling county than we are ever given credit for, we actually bat far above our weight in that regard. And Kerry hurlers are respected in the tight-knit world of hurling. Pádraig Boyle and Shane Conway are our latest top guns, you had the Bricks of Kilmoyley, Tom Murnane, 'Boxer' Slattery....the Leahy brothers fashioned the craft for a lot of them as youngsters. Christy Walsh – a serious talent. He was a dual player, of course, as many of the great ones were – Phil The Master, John Joe and his sons, Johnny and Mickey Culloty, the Galvins and Fitzmaurices of Finuge, all the Boyles of course, Tom Collins with three Munster Finals in a day....

The general consensus would be that the Hennessys of Ballyduff were the best hurlers out of Kerry, and Brendan Hennessy was the best of the Hennessys. He is still considered one of the best Harty players to ever come out of that school – have a quick google at the hurlers that came out of Flannans. He was the star of the show when Ballyduff ended a 64 year drought in 1955 (South Kerry famously won their first football title the same year) and captained the winning team in 1957. Michael went on to win 11 Kerry titles and Teddy 6. Brendan had emigrated to New York, where he would play midfield alongside his brother. He played with the Kilkenny club and, curiously, they never won a New York title – he did win six football titles with the Kerry club. New York were a strong team back then in both football and hurling (the likes of Jim Foley of Keel and Mick Moynihan of Rathmore were fabulous footballers), helped by the annual games against the National League champions. In 1958 they sensationally beat a Wexford team that included the Rackards, Nick O'Donnell, Art Foley, Ned Wheeler.....Brendan and Mick were at least as good as any of those great hurlers that day. New York rattled an awful lot of cages in those days – ask the likes of Mick O'Connell if you don't believe me, and they will confirm. In 2003, Brendan was inducted into the Munster Hall of Fame for hurling (guess how many Kerry men have received that particular honour?) alongside Mick O'Dwyer – no introductions were necessary between the two giants.

Of course, sporting medals aren't the measure of any man. Mickey Whelan, who was the brains of the operation and set the coaching when Kevin Heffernan rejuvenated Dublin football in the seventies, tells a lovely story about Brendan. Whelan rented a room in Brendan's house when he first moved to the US, where he would win a National Football League alongside the Hennessys. When he was leaving, his wife Irene and young children flying over to join him in a rented house, Brendan gave his Dublin friend what Mickey assumed was a best wishes card. When he opened it later, it was the money he had paid in rent over the past months, returned to him. That tells you everything you need to know about Brendan Hennessy.

Sadly, Brendan passed away in New York last week. Kerry is the poorer for his passing.

GOLF SHANE LOWRY TRIUMPHS AT WENTWORTH

A lot of golf conversations nowadays focus almost exclusively on the growing rift between LIV and the PGA. It's an important conversation, and I'd be very firmly on the side whose main argument doesn't rely on how much money they have to spend. But it's almost becoming a lazy, media-driven narrative in itself. [The Wentworth PGA Championship featured some really good golf, and Shane Lowry's victory deserves to be celebrated in its own right. Lowry is one of the most likeable Irish sporting stars out there. Somehow, I can imagine Rory McIlroy obliging with a selfie or an autograph, but I can envision sitting down and having a pint with Shane Lowry – "Just between you and me Shane, Seamus Darby absolutely did push Tommy Doyle in the back...." I should point out, of course, that I have never spoken to either man in my entire life and very much doubt if I ever will.

Shane has been two shots ahead with five to play this year, and didn't close it out. In one of those cases another golfer simply played phenomenal, it's outside your control. But in the other, Shane definitely wobbled a bit. And the thing is that those little one or two hole misfires have been a general feature of Shane's play. Golf is very much a game of consistency. Over 18 holes, pretty much everyone is going to have that one great hole where everything goes right (you and I mostly call them 'birdies'). But even the really good amateurs have that one or two holes that just go off, it's almost as inexorable as gravity. At the stratospheric professional level, just one slip knocks you twenty places down the leaderboard instantly. You have to be incredibly consistent just to get within a donkey's roar of professional golf. It's not about the phenomenal shots you do make.....it's about the bread and butter shots that you don't miss. Even being consistently bad is actually better than being sporadically brilliant – consistently bad means that there are small errors that you can remove from your game.

Last weekend, Shane Lowry did not drop a single stroke over 54 holes. Jon Rahm, who led for most of the way through, shot a truly spectacular round of 62 and frankly, I was sure it was all over. Shane had started the day two shots behind – and was playing well enough to be ahead if the putts had dropped that little bit sooner. And then the putter heated up a bit – sometimes I actually think it's got nothing to do with technique or mentality, sometimes I think God just smiles at you. But Shane hit the kind of form coming to the closing stages that is unstoppable. Five birdies and two eagles in the last nine rounds.

Shane had gone ahead of Rahm at this stage, but Rory McIlroy was still in the hunt, and McIlroy genuinely belongs in any conversation as Ireland's most talented sports person ever. People count the major wins, but I repeat, consistency is the measure of golf greatness and this guy is in the top ten almost every single time. He had a putt to take it to a playoff – and Rory is very calm in play-offs. It was a very long, difficult putt.....but it only missed by millimetres. Rory exchanged a rueful grin and congratulations with the Offaly man; it was a nice touch.

Like I say, it was the phenomenal burst at the finish that got Shane over the line. But it was the golf that he played to get into that position that I found interesting. [He's always the occasional piece of brilliance in his game, but it seems to be allied to a new sureness and solidity. He could be very interesting to watch going forward....

I don't know a lot about sevens rugby and I'm not pretending to. It's a very, very different game in so many ways. The movement patterns are different. Actually defensively, it's a bit closer to American Football. I know that sounds counter-intuitive, but in terms of blocking and secondary lines.....

I didn't see the games – there's just so much on at the moment, and I'm loving every bit of it, and that's even before the basketball season kicks in – but Ireland narrowly losing to New Zealand (where their smaller population means that sevens rugby is hugely popular) and bearing Australia fair and square to take the bronze medal is a huge achievement. They had already beaten Portugal, England, and South Africa along the way.

Dr. Crokes 2-14 St. Kierans 0-14.

We opened our County Championship campaign on Sunday last with a 6 point win over St. Kierans in Milltown. We set the tone early in the game and continued to maintain this impressive form throughout with our first 8 points coming from 8 different scorers. Cian McMahon was unlucky not to rattle the back of the St. Kierans net just before the half time whistle. We led 0-09 to 0-05 at the break. We continued the second half just as we left the first half, working hard and defending well. Within 2 minutes of the second half we had clocked up 1-01 from play with a Mark Fitzgerald point and a Cian McMahon goal. The goal coming from a beautiful David Shaw foot pass. Neil O'Shea and Michael Potts continued to impress at the back before Kieran O'Leary sent a bullet passed the St. Kierans goalie in the 27th minute giving us a comfortable 9 point lead with 3 minutes left to play. St. Kierans rallied late in the game scoring 3 successive points from play.

U13 EAST KERRY

Our U13 team concluded their East Kerry campaign at home on Friday night against our neighbours Spa. Both players and management marked a minute's silence before the game for the late Patsy Cremin RIP. This was our third time playing Spa and with a one-point win by both sides already, we always felt it was going to be close. Both teams delivered a fantastic game of end-to-end entertainment. Unfortunately, Spa got a late free to decide the game. Huge congratulations to the boys for their effort and commitment all year. The future is definitely bright in the black and amber. Thanks to the coaches Tim, James, Pat, Michéal, Colm and John for their time and effort with this group.

LGFA U14

Our lost out to a talented Laune Rangers on Sunday evening in Killorglin on a score line of 4-10 to 2-10 in the East Kerry league. Despite the loss the girls all played with great heart and determination and not a little skill. Siofra Randles led the way with a personal tally of 1-9 and, despite the sore, our backs played out of their skins, especially Katie O'Sullivan, Aoife O'Donoghue and Elizabeth Brosnan. Many of our girls are young and are improving with every game. Managers Eoin and Allan were very proud of the effort displayed by all 17 girls.

LGFA U12

Our U12 girls had a good win last Friday night at home in the East Kerry League against MKL. After a close first half, we trailed by 2 points at half time. An improvement in our play in the third quarter saw us take a good lead which we held to the end. All of our squad played their part and it is great to see everyone's progress as the season goes on.

ACADEMY

The academy continues every Saturday morning for boys and girls aged between 4 and 11. Hurling 10 to 11. Football 11:15 until 12:15. Everyone welcome. Bring a friend to try it out and our coaches will be delighted to help you.

LEGION GAA CLUB

SENIOR LADIES

A busy weekend for our Senior Ladies as they bid to progress in the Junior A Championship. Abbeydorney were the visitors for a Friday night game under the Direen lights. The North Kerry side made a whirlwind start leading by 3-3 to no score before Mairead O Donoghue and Elizabeth Mohan with points and Clodagh Sheahan with a goal replied. Abbeydorney kept the scoreboard ticking over till half time but further points by Andrea Murphy, Elizabeth Mohan and Julie Kelly followed by a Mohan goal saw the score at 5-9 to 2-6 at half time.

The second half started in a welter of excitement as Elizabeth Mohan pounced for two more goals and it was definitely game on at 5-10 to 4-6. But Abbeydorney put the foot on the gas again to pull further clear and despite a well taken point by Caelyn O Grady and another 1-1 from

The Killarney Legion U13 Green and White Teams who played Furies last Sunday morning in Direen in the East Kerry League. Thanks to Furies for a very enjoyable morning of entertainment.

Elizabeth Mohan they couldn't make any further inroads into the Abbeydorney lead. Still the contribution of Elizabeth Mohan, who notched 4-4, cannot be passed without recognition.

On Sunday morning they headed to Glenbeigh to take on table topping Cromane knowing that they had to either match or better Clounmacon/ Moyvanes result who were facing Furies, to advance. After a hour of serious endeavour and commitment, having put it up to Cromane they fell just short, losing by just two points, 2-14 to 1-15. So it was on how Clounmacon/ Moyvane would do against Furies. Again another close encounter, which saw the North Kerry side come on top by two points. A very tight group, the girls just came out on the wrong side of things, where a kick of the ball either way would see them qualify. They will have learned a lot from their experience of playing at the higher grade this year and will have seen what it takes for a young group to continue to progress in the years ahead.

John McCarthy and his management team also deserve acknowledgement for the time and effort they put into the team.

JUVENILE BOYS

The U11 Boys were competing in the East Kerry League in recent weeks and had enjoyed outings against Kilgarvan and Gneeveguilla. The final round was in Cordal and in a very entertaining game they came on top against the hosts. Well done to the management and players on a very enjoyable series of games.

Our two U13 Boys teams renewed acquaintances with Furies in the East Kerry League last Sunday morning. The White team were quickly into stride and never looked in danger as they won on a 5-7 to 0-8 scoreline.

The Green team struck for the All important goals at the right time, dovetailing nicely with some nicely taken points eventually winning by 4-14 to 1-11.

Thanks to Furies for two very competitive games, played in a sporting manner, both games were well officiated by referee Eddie Walsh.

The U17 Boys, by virtue of beating Beaufort in a real humdinger the weekend previous, faced a Skellig Rangers/ Valentia combination in the Club Championship semi final last Saturday afternoon in Direen. A goal from the visitors gave them the advantage early on but a solid second quarter saw the teams level at half time, 0-8 to 1-5. Another goal by the South Kerry side saw them lead by two at the three quarters stage, 2-6 to 0-10. Unfortunately they finished much stronger and despite a goal from Oisín Fleming it went the way of the visitors. Full Time Score Killarney 1-12 Skellig Rangers/ Valentia 2-16.

LADIES UPDATE

The U12 East Kerry League commenced last Wednesday where Listry was our destination for a date with MKL Gaels. The home side made the better start but the girls eventually settled into the game and by half time only trailed by 1. A renewed effort in the second half allied to some great goalkeeping and lovely teamwork saw the girls come out on top at the final whistle on a 0-11 to 2-3 scoreline.

The unbeaten run by our U14 Girls was maintained when they overcame a one point halftime deficit to see off the challenge of home side Glenflesk. Three first half goals were crucial as they played against the breeze, as was holding Glenflesk to 2-7. The second half was even better as both sides really went for it, For the most part it was tit for tat and a crucial goal in the dying embers saw us emerge by 6-10 to 5-9. This result guarantees the team a place in the A Final. It was a pity that there had to be a winner and a loser as both teams deserve huge credit for a cracking contest.

SENIOR B MEN

Well done to our Senior B Team who got the better of Kilcummin last Friday evening in Direen in the McElligott Cup semi final, winning on a narrow 1-11 to 2-7 scoreline. They will now face Fossa B in the final which will most likely be played this Friday September 16th.

CLUB BARBECUE/ SAM MAGUIRE

With the weather warnings posted earlier in the week our Social Committee made the wise decision to defer our Club Barbecue. Reliant on good weather to be fully enjoyed the Gods did not smile on us on this occasion. However a day previous on Saturday Sam Maguire was a very welcome visitor to Direen as excitement levels went through the roof. A great opportunity for that priceless and timeless photo, it was a day that will live long in the memory of our younger generation. Special thanks to our Kerry rep Cian Gammell who was affable and accessible in equal measure.

LOTTO

We had a winner in our Lotto draw on Sunday September 4th. Woodlawn native Sheila O'Connor, now resident in Kilcummin, carried the 7,600 Euro Jackpot as her numbers matched the 4,7,11,28 combination drawn. A regular player of our Lotto we congratulate Sheila on her win.

GARVEY'S SUPERVALU COUNTY SENIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP ROUND 1 GROUP 2

Kerins O'Rahillys 1 – 11 East Kerry 2 – 20

After last year's disappointing opening round defeat to Austin Stack's, East Kerry set off on their quest to regain the Bishop Moynihan Cup, with a ruthless demolition of last year's beaten finalist's Kerins O'Rahillys, with the result never in doubt long before the final whistle.

This was a highly impressive performance from East Kerry, with the chemistry of the team clicking instantly. Listry man Murphy continued his impressive form from the County Under 21 Championship, with his ability to kick a point, and calmness on the ball evident throughout, while James O Donoghue showed the class he still very much retains. Kerins O'Rahilly's were unable to deal with him this evening. They must now regroup for round 2. East Kerry meanwhile, look like they will be tough to stop.

When one purchases a €50 ticket, the purchaser is randomly allocated a grid box and if the ball lands on your allocated grid box, you could be the lucky recipient to share in 25K in prize money. There are ten cash prizes available on the day; six €1K, one €1.5K, one €2.5K and the ultimate prize of €10K. Tickets are now on sale either on-line via <https://pallaslotteries.ie/furiesbigdrop> or in paper format from any club member. 10% of all profits from the big drop will go to the Air Ambulance to acknowledge the phenomenal work that is undertaken not only in Furies but beyond our rural club.

MID KERRY O'SULLIVAN CUP: ROUND 1 RESULT AND ROUND 2 FIXTURE

GARVEY'S SUPERVALU COUNTY SENIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP: ROUND 1 RESULT

Congratulations to the Mid Kerry Senior Football team and management especially our own club representatives in Pa Wren, Eanna O'Connor, Gavin Horan, David Roche and Garry Murphy (Selector) who were involved in the panel that defeated West Kerry 1-14 to 1-10 on Saturday evening in Austin Stack Park, Tralee.

In Round 2 next weekend, Mid Kerry will be away to Na Gaeil at 1:30pm on Sunday, September 18th. Venue is Killeen, Tralee. Best wishes to the players and management involved.

MOLYNEAUX CUP: SHIELD SEMI-FINAL RESULT

Milltown/Castlemaine's Senior 'B' team travelled to Strand Road, Tralee last Friday in the Molyneux Shield Semi-Final. The hosts came out of the blocks strong and had built up a commanding lead by the half-time interval, leading by 11 points. Our lads battled hard to reduce the deficit in the second half and they made some inroads by bringing the gap back to four points near the finish but time ran out and it was Kerins O'Rahillys who took the victory on this occasion.

KEANE'S SUPERVALU COUNTY MINOR CLUB FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP: SEMI-FINAL RESULT AND FINAL FIXTURE UPDATE

Milltown/Castlemaine's Minor side (U-17s) have advanced to the Keane's Supervalu County Minor Football Championship Final after a very impressive victory against An Ghaeltacht on Sunday morning in Gallaras on a score of 0-12 to 0-09. They beat Furies away also in the opening game in this competition. Well done to the players and management.

They will now play Castleisland Desmonds on Saturday, September 17th at 3:00pm in Farranfore in the Minor Club Championship Final. Best wishes to the players and management involved and we would encourage all club members to get behind the lads!

GAELIC 4 MOTHERS AND OTHERS: END OF SEASON BLITZ

Milltown/Castlemaine's Gaelic 4 Mothers and Others will conclude their 2022 season with a mini-blitz on Saturday, September 17th. They will host three other clubs in the form of Dingle, Ballymacelligott and Laune Rangers. All the action is scheduled to take place between 2:00pm-4:00pm at the Paddy Burke Memorial Park, Milltown. All support is welcome.

U-7S: BLITZ INFORMATION

The Paddy Burke Memorial Park in Milltown will play host to a blitz on Saturday, September 17th as our U-7s will welcome Furies, John Mitchels and Killarney Legion for a morning of action packed football which is scheduled to begin at 11:00am.

U-9S

Milltown/Castlemaine's U-9 Boys team have had a busy past two weeks on the field of play. On Friday evening, September 2nd they travelled to Churchill as part of a mini-blitz where they encountered plenty of rain and wind as they had two games against Churchill and Laune Rangers and last Tuesday, September 6th they were back on home soil at the Paddy Burke Memorial Park as they welcomed Furies for 3 fifteen minute matches.

Both sides produced some very entertaining football with plenty of skills on display. There are great improvements being made by this cohort of players on a weekly basis which is testament to the hard work of the players, the sterling efforts and dedication of management and the tremendous support being offered by the parents/guardians. Well done everyone.

The team will host Na Gaeil on Sunday, September 18th at 11:00am at the Paddy Burke Memorial Park for their next outing.

U-13S: FIXTURE

Milltown/Castlemaine's U-13 Green and White sides are back in action this week as they welcome Beaufort to the Paddy Burke Memorial Park on Friday, September 16th with a throw-in time of 6:30pm.

U-8 GIRLS

Milltown/Castlemaine's U-8 Girls resumed training last night after taking last week off due to inclement weather. They will be training again next Monday, September 19th at the usual time of 6:15pm at the club grounds.

The management team are currently working on organising a mini-blitz for Saturday, October 8th. Further details to be confirmed closer to the time.

IRISH GOVT SHOULD CONSIDER FLOATING STORAGE REGASIFICATION UNITS TO ENABLE LNG BE IMPORTED INTO THE COUNTRY

Ireland South MEP and Member of the European Parliament's Environment and Climate Action Committee (ENVI), Billy Kelleher has said that the Irish Government should give serious consideration to the possibility of buying or renting a Floating Storage Regasification Unit (FSRU) to allow the country import LNG and to pump it into the gas network.

Commenting, the Fianna Fáil MEP said, "Many of our fellow EU Member States are already well along the way to doing this as a means of diversifying their electricity and energy supplies.

"This facility, installed in one of our harbours or ports, and in close proximity to an access point to our gas network, would enable two things.

1. Allow us wean ourselves off our long term dependence on gas from the UK;

2. Provide potentially cheaper gas for our citizens

"Longer term, we will need a permanent LNG terminal in Ireland with connections into the grid but such a facility would take up to five years to build. However, my proposal could provide Ireland with a short-term solution.

"In addition, many countries are also installing 'powerships or power barges', in effect floating power stations, to allow them to burn natural gas onsite and provide additional electricity supply. It has been estimated that each unit could supply up to 500MW.

"Natural gas will always play a role in powering some proportion of Ireland's energy needs. It might only be 5-10% but it could be the difference between the lights staying on if the wind doesn't blow for a few days.

"The Government needs to start thinking big. The energy crisis will be with us for years to come. It won't end with the conclusion of the Russian invasion. The countries that secure their own energy independence will be the prosperous countries of the future," concluded Kelleher.

Sean Kelly MEP welcomes constituents from Killarney to the European Parliament

Laura and Aoife O'Dwyer from Killarney visited Seán Kelly MEP at his office in the European Parliament. Kelly showed the sisters around the main building of the Parliament, and discussed the importance of young people engaging with the European Union.

Seán Kelly, MEP for Ireland South, welcomed a number of Kerry constituents to the European Parliament in Brussels over the past weeks. Seán Kelly MEP was delighted to meet with Pat and Kathleen O'Brien, from Gortroe, Kerry, in the European Parliament this week. Kelly gave Pat and Kathleen a tour of the Parliament's plenary chamber and explained his work as a Parliamentarian.

EU MUST MOVE QUICKLY TO CURB ENERGY PRICE HIKES

Ireland South MEP Deirdre Clune says the EU must move quickly to curb the dramatic rise of heating and electricity prices.

While welcoming new proposals from EU energy ministers, MEP Clune says "urgent action is required, as the energy crisis is already putting huge strain on families and businesses.

Russia's continued disruption of energy supplies has led to market volatility, unprecedented power costs, and fears that prices will spiral out of control.

EU leaders must swiftly adopt a set of concrete measures to stabilise the European energy market.

These should include price caps, the decoupling of electricity prices from natural gas and continued investment in renewable energy infrastructure.

This Europe-wide approach should work hand in hand with Irish Government measures and use the EU's combined market power to lift the burden of high energy costs on individuals and small businesses."

AUTUMN AND WINTER CONTAINERS

Containers filled with permanent and seasonal plants can be very versatile as they can be moved anywhere in the garden at any time to brighten up any corner. It is usually annuals that are planted in containers, but you can also plant them with most shrubs, grasses, herbaceous, perennials and even certain types of trees and conifers. Vegetables can also be grown in containers.

If you have an area in your garden you would love to screen-off but haven't got the earth to do it you can plant most climbers in containers, a good type of container for this is a quarter barrel as it can fit right up next to a wall or trailing.

As with all plants in containers, make sure that you water and feed regularly.

When choosing a terracotta container, make sure the label says frost proof rather than frost resistant as these can still crack in prolonged frost. There are also imitation terracotta pots made from plastic which are really very practical.

A Word of Victory

Welcome back dear student. Let us study Psalm 24 together.

"The earth is the Lord's, and everything in it, the world and all its people belong to Him. For He laid the earth's foundation on the seas and built it on the ocean depths...."

Do you know that you belong to God friend? And that everything on this earth belongs to Him because He is the One Who created it all? We must get this settled in our hearts and minds then, no matter what happens, we will never fear. God owns everything, and He wants His children to enjoy everything that He made to enjoy our lives (John 10:10). This is a new concept to many. The world teaches you that your own power will provide everything you need for happiness and success. This is why many people live broken lives, because when things don't work out hopelessness, fear and condemnation set in. The Lord Jesus said in Matthew's Gospel chapter six that we are not to worry about our lives - that if we will only seek God's Kingdom by doing things His way, He will add all the things that we are striving to get without any trouble. Entering the Kingdom of God is about this - yielding to ownership. It is possible to live a life of peace and happiness by simply acknowledging that God owns everything and He is good. That fact never changes. We are stewards of all He has given us as we journey through this life. This earth is not our home. We will exit it the same way we came in. But God promises to provide all our needs - and He will if we let Him and meet His conditions. So what are the conditions? Let's go further into Psalm 24....

"Who may climb the mountain of the Lord? Who may stand in His holy place? Only those whose hands and hearts are pure, who do not worship idols, and never tell lies. They will receive the Lord's blessing and have a right relationship with God their Saviour. Such people may seek you and worship in your presence, O God of Jacob...."

Everywhere Jesus went He preached the Kingdom of God with one word - Repent! Living a lifestyle of repentance is key. God knows all our weaknesses (Psalm 103:8-18). Yet He has chosen in His mercy to forgive our sins - once we acknowledge them and ask God for forgiveness and receive His Salvation through Jesus His Son (1st Peter 2:24). The Lord Jesus paid the full price for our sins at Calvary. Not only did He take our sins so that God's people could be reconciled back to Him, but Jesus also endured such pain, rejection, isolation and scourging to break the curse of sickness and disease so that we could live blessed and free. All we have to do is: Repent of our sins and ask the Lord Jesus to come in to our lives and take over as Lord. Then He promises to fill us with His Glory to see radical blessing and transformation.

"Open up, ancient gates! Open up, ancient doors, and let the King of Glory enter.

Who is the King of Glory? The Lord - strong and mighty; the Lord - invincible in battle.

Open up, ancient gates! Open up, ancient doors, and let the King of Glory enter.

Who is the King of glory? The Lord of Heaven's Armies - He is the King of Glory."

And precious memories too
But we've never wanted memories
We only wanted you*

PEOPLE FOR OTHERS EXHIBITION AT THE CATHEDRAL

An exhibition of Portraits of Irish People who have contributed to great works of charity all over the Country is currently on display at St. Mary's Cathedral.

Artist Sara Kyne has created the exhibition to honour those who lighten the burdens of others and of great value in the world.

"Over the past few years I have come across many fine people who are making the world a better place for others. They are represented in this collection of portraits. This project is my way of honouring these people and drawing others to read about them and if they feel inspired to do so, to make a donation directly to their charity. Eventually all the portraits will be sold or auctioned and all proceeds will be donated to charity", Sara said.

Each Portrait is accompanied by a write up about the person and their lives. All are welcome to visit the space.
